

CHAPTER FOUR

The Nuclear Baby

The chapter title sounds like something from the darkest minds of Hollywood, but this is far from fiction, it's 100% true.

This nuclear baby was conceived September 12, 2006 and just as with a woman with child, nine months later the delivery is due, which will bring us to June 12, 2007. This nuclear baby will actually kill one-third of man over a fourth part of the earth in and around the great River Euphrates. This Prophecy was written over 2,000 years ago, just after the One called the Savior was killed in Yerusalem on a stake, which was first prophesied almost 4,000 years before it occurred.

Both Yerusalem and the Temple were destroyed after the sacrifice of the Savior. Mount Zion was plowed like a field. There was not left one stone upon another for anyone to see thereafter that a city ever stood in that place.

All of these events are in the pages of history for anyone to verify, proving the truthfulness of the Inspired Prophecies in The Book of Yahweh.

The nuclear baby is a part of another Prophecy showing the actual end of man's governments of and by the people. That Prophecy shows us the last seven years, starting with the confirmation of the seven-year peace plan. In this Prophecy we are given the actual name of the Prime Minister of Israel (Rabin), who, Prophecy shows, would be the one with whom the seven-year plan was confirmed.

Inspired Prophecies For The Last Days

The Savior spoke of a certain time period, not just any time but The End time. And He shows that this time period will be the worst time of trouble ever. So much so that the wars would need to be held back or delayed; otherwise, all flesh would be killed.

● Mattithyah 24:22—

And unless those days were shortened, there would no flesh be saved; but for the Elect's sake, those days will be shortened.

If we compare Revelation 7:3 we see that The End Yahshua spoke of is the same time period.

● Revelation 7:3—

Saying: Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, until we have sealed the Servants of our Father in their foreheads.

The time period Yahshua spoke of was the same time period mentioned by Daniyl the Prophet.

● Mattithyah 24:15—

Therefore, when you will see The Lord of Heaven; the Abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniyl the Prophet, standing in the Holy Place—whoever reads, let him understand

This time period spoken of by Daniyl the Prophet is the seven-year peace plan confirmed with Rabin.

● Daniyl 9:26—

...unto the end of the war, desolations are determined.

Notice the end.

● Daniyl 9:27—

And he will confirm a covenant with many (Rabin) for one week; seven years...

This time period is The End or last seven years. In this time period, (verse 26) desolations are determined. As we learned in Chapter One, the seven-year peace plan was confirmed with Rabin September 13, 1993. The 1997 Grolier Multimedia Encyclopedia gives us the following information:

Yitzhak Rabin, b. Mar. 1, 1922, d. Nov. 4, 1995, was Israel's prime minister from 1974 to 1977 and again from 1992 until his death. The pragmatic Rabin signed accords on Palestinian self-rule with Yasir Arafat on Sept. 13, 1993... Rabin...was assassinated by a Jewish extremist opposed to the peace agreements.

The following information was reported on ABC World News, with anchorman Peter Jennings, in August 1993.

The PLO Chairman Yasir Arafat...is working so hard to get this agreement with Israel sealed, signed, and delivered fast... Here's ABC News' Jim Bitterman, reporting:

...told ABC News that the PLO is putting the finishing touches on a seven year plan...

Remember, this is a plan of action. Prophecy showed that Rabin would be assassinated after this plan was signed, and that this plan of action would be stopped in the midst. The midst of seven years begins immediately after the first 3½ years, which means there would be 3½ years remaining to this peace plan. The seven years in the midst have passed. The plan started again on April 13, 2004. We are in the last 3½ years of this seven-year plan now. The Quartet is pushing the last part of the seven-year plan through at this time.

U.S., Israel Eye-To-Eye on Mideast Peace

WASHINGTON—If there ever was any doubt that the Bush administration and the Israeli government are of one mind on Mideast peacemaking and Iran's nuclear programs, it is fading during talks Israel's foreign minister is holding here.

Both the minister, Tzipi Livni, and Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice have issued identical demands that any Palestinian unity government renounce violence against Israel and accept its right to exist.

And Livni and Rice are on the same page in the distrust of Iran's intentions. "The world cannot afford a nuclear Iran," Livni said Wednesday after meeting with Rice at the State Department.

...Rice said Iran's cancellation of talks this week with the Europeans is further reason for the United Nations to consider applying sanctions on Tehran.

That is topic A on Rice's agenda for her meetings at the United Nations beginning next week. "It is a natural time to see where we are," Rice said as American diplomats try to pull the Europeans, Russia and China together to punish Iran with a series of increasingly harsher economic and political sanctions unless it suspends uranium enrichment.

...any Palestinian government must fully and completely meet international demands that it recognize the existence of Israel and renounce violence or terrorism. "These requirements are not negotiable," Livni said.

Rice...was emphatic that a new Palestinian government must meet those requirements.

"They embody the very essential elements of how we would get eventually to a two-state solution," she said.

Like Livni, Rice spoke positively of Abbas. He has accepted those important principles, Rice said, and "is someone with whom we can work and with whom we are working."

www.foxnews.com

Let's review the facts concerning the peace plan.

- This peace plan was prophesied to be a seven-year plan. It is.
- It was prophesied to be confirmed with Rabin. It was.
- It was to be a plan of action. It is.
- It was prophesied that Rabin would be assassinated. He was.
- The seven-year plan was to be shut down in the midst of the seven years. It was.
- It was to stay shut down for seven years. It was.
- It was prophesied to start again. It did.
- It is prophesied to end October 13, 2007. It will!

At that time, October 13, 2007, four-fifths of the earth's population will have been killed by wars, disease epidemics and earthquakes. But first, the nuclear baby is as follows: It was prophesied to be conceived September 12, 2006. It's prophesied to take nine months before this baby reaches maturity which is June 12, 2007. Near the end of that period, nuclear wars will have taken place that will have killed a third part of man over a fourth part of the earth in and around the great River Euphrates.

This comes line upon line, here a little, there a little, from many different Prophecies. We must go back in order to understand the Prophecies concerning the conception, development, and delivery of the nuclear baby and the adult wars that are to follow.

The Vision Of Chabaquq

In Habakkuk 2:2, Chabaquq is told to write the vision. Habakkuk 2:3 shows this vision is for The End. Now notice the vision.

● Habakkuk 2:3—

For the vision is yet for an appointed time; but at the end it will speak, and it will not lie. Though it seems slow, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not delay.

The days ahead are filled with evil, sin, hatred, violence and nuclear destruction. We are now in the nine months prophesied to bring forth a nuclear baby. This will be brought about in the days of the Quartet. The Quartet is revealed in the Book of Revelation and in Book One as four horsemen who fly in this time period. First notice the following Scriptures:

● Habakkuk 1:1-11, 17—

1 The Prophecy of doom which Habakkuk the Prophet saw.

2 O Yahweh, how long will I call for help, and You will not listen? How long must I cry to You: Violence! and You will not save?

3 Why do You show me iniquity, and cause me to see trouble? For devastation and violence are before me, and strife and contention arise.

4 Therefore, the Law is neglected, and Justice never goes forth. For the wicked surround the Righteous; so Justice is perverted.

5 Look among the heathen, and watch—wonder with astonishment; for I will work a work in your days which you would not believe if it were told to you.

6 For, lo, I am raising up the Chaldeans, that ruthless and impatient nation, which would march through the breadth of the earth to possess dwelling places not their own.

7 They are terrifying and dreaded; their justice and their dignity proceed from themselves.

8 Their horses are also swifter than leopards, and are more fierce than the evening wolves. Their cavalry charges ahead; their horsemen come from afar; they fly as the eagle that hastens to eat, 9 All of them coming for violence. Their faces are set like the east wind; they gather captives like sand.

10 They will scoff at the kings, and the princes will be scorned by them. They deride every stronghold, for they heap up dust in siege ramps, and capture it.

11 Then will his mind change, and he will pass on, and offend, imputing this power to his gods (elohim).

17 Are they to continue emptying their net, slaying nations without mercy?

Verse 1 shows this is the Prophecy of doom for the Last Days or The End as Habakkuk 2:3 shows. We see in verse 4 that the Laws of Yahweh are neglected by all the world today. No nation on earth is keeping Yahweh's 613 Laws. No religion on earth except The House of Yahweh is teaching Yahweh's Laws. That, too, is another fulfilled Prophecy. Because the Laws have been neglected, the troubles are coming first in and around the great River Euphrates, where a third part of man will be killed over a fourth part of the earth. But the wars will not stop there. Remember, Daniyl showed this doom would be for governments of and by the people and that the governments would bring this upon themselves, in a Prophesied time period.

● Daniyl 7:11-12—

11 I beheld, then, because of the voice of the great words which the horn spoke; I beheld until the beast was slain, and his body destroyed, and given to the burning flame (nuclear burning, the same as Malakayah 4:1 and Mattithyah 24:29).

12 As concerning the rest of the beasts, they had their governments taken away; yet their lives were prolonged for a season and time.

Habakkuk 1:4 shows Yahweh's Laws are neglected. The King James Version of Habakkuk uses the English word Chaldeans, which is translated from the Hebrew word kasdiy and means relatives of Abraham, Great Britain and the USA. Habakkuk 1:7 shows their armies are both terrifying and dreaded. Habakkuk 1:8 shows this Prophecy to be in this time period because these horsemen can fly from afar like eagles. To fly requires airplanes whose power output is measured in horsepower, the same as cars. Habakkuk 1:9 and 17 show them coming for violence, slaying nations without mercy.

The Great Prophet Yereyah Shows Us This War Will Be In And Around The Great River Euphrates

Where are these four horsemen who have the horsepower to fly and who control the use of war in a time period of the nuclear bomb going to be?

● Yereyah 46:1-11—

1 This is the word of Yahweh which came to Yereyah the Prophet against the Gentiles:

2 Against Egypt, and against the army of Pharaoh Necho, the king of Egypt, which was along the River Euphrates in Carchemish, and which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon defeated in the fourth year of Yahyakim son of Yoshiyah, the king of Yahdah:

3 Prepare the buckler and shield, and march forward to battle!

4 Harness the horses! Mount up, you horsemen! Take your positions with helmets in place! Sharpen your spears, put on your armor!

5 What have I seen? They are defeated and retreat; their mighty ones are beaten down. They flee speedily, and do not look back; terror is all around, says Yahweh:

6 There is no flight for the swift, nor escape for the strong; in the north by the River Euphrates they stumble and fall.

7 Who is this that rises like the Nile, like rivers of flooding waters?

8 Egypt rises like the Nile, like a river of flooding water. Yet he says; I will go up and cover the earth; I will destroy the city and its inhabitants.

9 Gallop, you horses! Charge, you chariots! March out, you mighty men! Men of Ethiopia and Libya, carrying shields; men of Lydia, bending the bow!

10 For this is the day Judgment will come to pass on those who make war. It is a day when enemies will turn on one another in retaliation. The sword will devour, and it will be satiated and made drunk with their bloodshed; for the Judgment of death will come to pass on those who make war in the north country by the River Euphrates.

11 Go up into Gilead, and take balm, O virgin, the daughter in Egypt; In vain you will use many medicines; but you will not be cured.

Notice Yereyah 46:10 first. The Great Day of Yahweh is spoken of throughout The Book of Yahweh, and refers to the Last Days when sin is at its peak, when man's sins are bringing a vast amount of harm to the largest amount of people. When people's bodies are invaded with STDs, this brings confusion to the mind and weakens the organs of the body.

This is a time period that Yahweh has allowed, foretelling throughout man's history the trouble that mankind will cause to himself, the earth and all other life on earth. One such warning is shown clearly in:

● Isayah 24:1-6—

1 Before Yahweh's very eyes, the earth is made empty and it is made waste; the face of it is perverted and its inhabitants scattered abroad;

2 And it will be: as with the people, so with the priests; as with the servant, so with his owner; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with him who takes usury, so with him who gives usury to him:

3 The land will be utterly emptied and utterly plundered, for it has come to pass that this Judgment has been pronounced.

4 The earth mourns and fades away, the world mourns and fades away, and the haughty people of the earth languish.

5 The earth also is defiled because of the inhabitants of it, because they have transgressed the Laws, changed the Ordinance, and broken the Everlasting Covenant.

6 Because of this, the curse has devoured the earth, and they who dwell therein are desolate; therefore, the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left.

The Great Day of Yahweh is the time period when mankind will be able to see that Yahweh was right in His Predictions. They will see that by rejecting Yahweh's Laws, each person has contributed to the overwhelming problems that the Quartet and all nations are now facing. By June 12, 2007, these problems will cause a third part of man to be killed over a fourth part of the earth in and around the great River Euphrates. It will not stop there, that will only be the first stage of the nuclear wars.

● Yeremyah 46:6, 10—

6 There is no flight for the swift, nor escape for the strong; in the north by the River Euphrates they stumble and fall.

10 For this is the day Judgment will come to pass on those who make war. It is a day when enemies will turn on one another in retaliation. The sword will devour, and it will be satiated and made drunk with their bloodshed; for the Judgment of death will come to pass on those who make war in the north country by the River Euphrates.

The Wars Are Prophesied With The Actions Of The Quartet

The nuclear baby that will take nine months from conception to delivery to kill a third part of man over a fourth part of the earth in and around the great River Euphrates, started September 12, 2006 and will end around June 12, 2007. The worst part of the delivery pains will be suffered around the time of the baby's birth.

● Habakkuk 2:2-3—

2 So Yahweh answered me, and said: Write the vision, engrave it clearly upon tablets, that he may run who reads it.

3 For the vision is yet for an appointed time; but at the end it will speak, and it will not lie. Though it seems slow, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not delay.

Verse 3 shows the time appointed, which is The End, and the Message being brought forth, though it seems slow, wait for it. All members of The House of Yahweh who keep up with the preaching and publishing of the Prophecies know what Yahweh means when He said, it seems slow in coming. The End we see in verse 3 was first spoken of by Mosheh in:

● Deuteronomy 28:22-24—

22 It will come to pass that you will cause yourselves to be struck with consumption, with a fever, with an inflammation, with scorching heat, with the sword, with blasting, and with mildew; they will stay with you, until you perish.

23 And the heaven that is over your heads shall be brass, and the earth under you shall be iron.

24 It will come to pass that you will cause the rain of your land to become powder and dust: from heaven it shall come down upon you, until you are destroyed.

Verse 22 shows disease epidemics, scorching heat and blasting that come from wars. Verse 24 shows us the powder and dust. The Hebrew words actually show the color of the fallout dust that comes with the use of the nuclear bomb. Nuclear wars are the last Prophesied destruction shown by the Prophet Daniyl and the Savior that bring forth the darkening of the sun and the end of man's governments and religions of and by the people.

● Daniyl 7:11-12—

11 I beheld, then, because of the voice of the great words which the horn spoke; I beheld until the beast was slain, and his body destroyed, and given to the burning flame.

12 As concerning the rest of the beasts, they had their governments taken away; yet their lives were prolonged for a season and time.

Notice the word governments in verse 12.

● Mattithyah 24:21-22, 29—

21 For then will be Great Tribulation, such as has not come to pass since the beginning of the world to this time—no, nor ever will be.

22 And unless those days were shortened, there would no flesh be saved; but for the Elect's sake, those days will be shortened.

29 Immediately, but after the Great Tribulation of those days will the sun be darkened, and the moon will not give her light, and the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken.

● Mattithyah 24:7—

For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be famines, and pestilences; disease epidemics, and earthquakes in place after place.

In Mattithyah 24:7 we see the increase in disease epidemics. This year will be the worst in man's history. This same thing is shown in Deuteronomy.

● Deuteronomy 28:22, 27-28—

22 It will come to pass that you will cause yourselves to be struck with consumption, with a fever, with an inflammation, with scorching heat, with the sword, with blasting, and with mildew; they will stay with you, until you perish.

27 It will come to pass that you will cause yourselves to be afflicted with the diseases of Egypt; with tumors, with festering sores, and the itch—from which you cannot be healed.

28 It will come to pass that you will cause yourselves to be afflicted with madness; spiritual blindness, and confusion of mind.

Never Understood Before By Mankind!

The Prophet Daniyl spoke of this time period when there would be the Greatest Tribulation ever. That Great Tribulation he spoke of is the same one the Savior spoke of and shows it would be the greatest time of trouble ever; so we know they both were speaking of the same time of trouble.

● Mattithyah 24:21-22, 29—

21 For then will be Great Tribulation, such as has not come to pass since the beginning of the world to this time—no, nor ever will be.

22 And unless those days were shortened, there would no flesh be saved; but for the Elect's sake, those days will be shortened.

29 Immediately, but after the Great Tribulation of those days will the sun be darkened, and the moon will not give her light, and the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken.

Again, notice what the Prophet Yereyah said about today's diseases, they're incurable:

● Yereyah 46:11—

Go up into Gilead, and take balm, O virgin, the daughter in Egypt; In vain you will use many medicines; but you will not be cured.

This Scripture compares with the disease epidemics the Savior spoke of in:

● Mattithyah 24:7—

For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be famines, and pestilences: disease epidemics, and earthquakes in place after place.

When we compare Mattithyah 24:7 and Yereyah 46:11, we see that these will be the worst diseases, incurable disease epidemics, which is exactly what we see today in every nation, and they are getting worse every day.

We have published many scientific tests that prove that fornication, adultery and women having multiple partners cause STDs. STDs cause other diseases and disease epidemics. The same holds true with sodomy and bestiality. Science is proving almost every day that breaking the Laws of Yahweh causes harm to mankind, the earth, the environment, the seas and the wildlife.

What the Prophets have spoken is true. Yahweh's

Creation was Perfect for mankind but His Laws have been transgressed and the whole Creation is defiled. Now, the earth is also defiled.

Sickness, disease, STDs, terror, terrorism, and terrorists now fill the news daily. That, in itself, is Prophecy being fulfilled for these Last Days. Notice again the words of the great Prophet Yereyah.

● Yereyah 46:5—

What have I seen? They are defeated and retreat; their mighty ones are beaten down. They flee speedily, and do not look back; terror is all around, says Yahweh:

September 12, 2006 was the beginning of the nine months nuclear war in the making, of which pains will come on a fourth part of the earth, in and around the great River Euphrates, taking nine months to develop into nuclear war.

● I Thessalonians 5:3—

For when they will say: Peace—true peace! then sudden destruction comes upon them, as labor pains upon a woman with child; and they will not escape.

This is speaking of the same time period as the Savior spoke of in:

● Mattithyah 24:29-30—

29 Immediately, but after the Great Tribulation of those days will the sun be darkened, and the moon will not give her light, and the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken.

30 And then will appear the sign of the Son of Man in heaven; and then will all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they will see the Son of Man coming in the clouds of heaven with Power and great Glory.

Now compare the following Scriptures:

● I Thessalonians 4:16-17—

16 For Yahshua Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the Malak Gadol, and with the Trumpet of Yahweh. And the dead in Messiah will be raised first,

17 Then we who are alive and remain will be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet Yahshua in the air; and so will we ever be with Yahshua.

● I Thessalonians 5:3—

For when they will say: Peace—true peace! then sudden destruction comes upon them, as labor pains upon a woman with child; and they will not escape.

Now turn back to Yereyah and notice the last part of verse 14.

● Yereyah 46:14—

Declare in Egypt and publish in Migdol; proclaim in Noph; Memphis, and Tahpanhes; say: Stand ready and prepare yourselves, for the sword devours all around you!

The Hebrew word translated sword means destruction, death, violence and war.

Please keep in mind that this Prophecy is for the Last Days. It includes the Great Day of Yahweh as we saw in Yereyah 46:10. Notice Yahyl's Prophecy concerning this same time period.

● Yahyl 2:31—

The sun will be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and wonderful Day of Yahweh comes.

Remember, the sun will be darkened in the end time of all these Prophecies, showing they all refer to the same time period of wars and destruction. Now notice the Savior's Prophecy concerning this same time period.

● Mattithyah 24:29—

Immediately, but after the Great Tribulation of those days will the sun be darkened, and the moon will not give her light, and the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken.

The Savior said this is the time of The End.

● Mattithyah 24:3—

Now as He sat on the Mount of Olives, the Disciples came to Him privately, saying; Tell us, when will these things be? What will be the sign of Your coming and The End of the Age?

The Nuclear War That Was Held Back

● Revelation 7:3—

Saying: Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, until we have sealed the Servants of our Father in their foreheads.

This nuclear war, which involves the Quartet, is shown in Revelation Chapter 6.

First notice that this is a time of plenty and the nations are protecting the oil supply and wine, which means pleasure. At this time, the world is consumed in achieving pleasure.

● Revelation 14:8—

And there followed another Malak, saying: Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.

Fornication is made to look desirable, even as it did to Eve (Genesis 3:6).

● Revelation 17:1-2—

1 And there came one of the seven Malakim who had the seven bowls, and talked with me, saying to me: Come, I will show you the sentence of the great whore that sits upon many waters,

2 With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication; practiced idolatry: godworship (the worship of elohim), and the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.

● Revelation 18:3-5—

3 For all nations have drunk of the cup of her destruction because of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth have grown rich through the abundance of her delicacies.

4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying: Come out of her, My People, so that you do not partake in her sins, and so that you do not receive of her plagues,

5 For her sins have reached unto heaven, and Yahweh has remembered her transgressions against His Laws!

This is speaking of the war-raging religions and the nations that follow these religions.

● Revelation 9:14, KJV—

13 And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before God,

14 Saying to the sixth angel which had the trumpet: Loose the four angels which are bound in the great river Euphrates!

The word sixth that is written in Revelation 9:13-14 is translated from the Hebrew root word bad. This word is listed on pages 179-180 of A Hebrew and Chaldee Lexicon to the Old Testament by Julius Furst, which shows this word means singled out, to the being alone of, standing alone, only, I alone, solitarily, alone.

The way most versions of the Scriptures are translated, the reader assumes that this is speaking of angels tied, bound hand and foot, and stashed under water in the Euphrates River. This isn't so.

The word translated angels comes from the Hebrew word Malakim meaning messengers. These are the same four messengers or Quartet [United States, United Nations, Russia and European Union] who hold authority to hurt the earth, but they are being held back, for only a short while longer; then they will be loosed as Revelation 9:14 shows.

Correctly translated Revelation 9:13-14 says the following:

● Revelation 9:13-14—

13 And the Last Malak sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before Yahweh,

14 Saying to the Last Malak which had the trumpet: Loose the four messengers who are bound for the great River Euphrates!

Scriptures show that the Quartet, in trying to hold back the Prophesied nuclear wars, will, in fact, become involved in delivering the nuclear baby that Prophecy shows will take nine months to develop, with many birth pains being experienced along the way.

Many politicians are actively engaged in trying to stop President Bush at this time, for one reason or another; but they will not succeed in stopping this nuclear baby or the nuclear wars that will continue four months after the nuclear baby has killed a third part of man over a fourth part of the earth in and around the great River Euphrates.

Look at any world globe or map to see the place where Prophecy shows this first nuclear war will be, and you will see exactly where the birth pains are taking place at this time.

The United States, at the same time the nine months nuclear baby is developing, is also involved in another Prophecy.

Let Us Be Like The First Beast

The Hebrew word cheyna translated beast is used to show man's governments of and by the people but controlled by religions that are also of and by the people. These religions and governments have a mixture of Righteousness and evil, which is shown as a tree of Righteousness, that Yahweh allows to exist to prove to mankind that Righteousness mixed with evil does not bring peace. This is shown in the Plan of Yahweh in Genesis 2:9.

In this time period, the nations' governments and religions will be given to nuclear wars. They will destroy themselves and will darken the sun. This all started with the fourth world ruling kingdom led by a religion identified as a little horn or spokesman. We know it was a religion because of the fact that it changed Yahweh's Laws of Worship and created its own laws of worship, making it a religion—but not of Yahweh. In Prophecy, it's shown as a beast and a little horn or spokesman. Later, this fourth beast came to be known as the "Holy" Roman Empire whose religion was democracy. Yes democracy was the first order of the "Holy" Roman Empire.

Read the following Scriptures carefully. The one fulfilling these Prophecies is the "Holy" Roman Empire, the Catholic Church.

● Daniyl 7:7-9—

7 After this I saw in the night visions, and behold, a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and exceedingly strong; and it had great iron teeth; it devoured and broke in pieces, then trampled the residue with its feet. It was different from all the beasts that were before it; and it had ten horns.

8 I considered the horns, and behold, there came up among them another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots; and behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking great things.

9 I beheld until the Thrones were set in place, and the Ancient of Days did sit, Whose vesture was white as snow, and the hair of His head like the pure wool; His Throne was like the fiery flame, and His wheels as burning fire.

Verse 7 shows that the fourth beast broke up and devoured the whole earth with its teachings. History shows this Prophecy came to pass exactly as written. Verse 8 shows that the little horn, which the Catholic Church fulfilled, became the major religion and was prophesied to stay in power until the coming of the Kingdom of Yahweh. That coming will be after the nuclear wars that include the nuclear baby and the four months following its birth.

● Daniyl 7:11—

I beheld, then, because of the voice of the great words which the horn spoke; I beheld until the beast was slain, and his body destroyed, and given to the burning flame.

This burning is the same burning that takes place with nuclear wars before the coming of the Savior.

● Malakayah 4:1-4—

1 For, behold, the day comes that will burn like an oven; and all the proud, yes, and all who do wickedly, will be stubble—the day that comes will burn them up, says Yahweh of Hosts; and it will leave them neither root nor branch.

2 But for you who reverence My Name, the light of Righteousness will arise with healing in its wings; and you will go out, leaping like calves released from the stall.

3 And you will tread down the wicked; for they will be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I will do this, says Yahweh of Hosts.

4 Remember the Law of Mosheh My Servant, which I commanded through him in Horeb for all Israyl, with the Statutes and Judgments.

● Isayah 24:1-6—

1 Before Yahweh's very eyes, the earth is made empty and it is made waste; the face of it is perverted and its inhabitants scattered abroad;

2 And it will be: as with the people, so with the priests; as with the servant, so with his owner; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with him who takes usury, so with him who gives usury to him:

3 The land will be utterly emptied and utterly plundered, for it has come to pass that this Judgment has been pronounced.

4 The earth mourns and fades away, the world mourns and fades away, and the haughty people of the earth languish.

5 The earth also is defiled under the inhabitants of it, because they have transgressed the Laws, changed the Ordinance, and broken the Everlasting Covenant.

6 Because of this, the curse has devoured the earth, and they who dwell therein are desolate; therefore, the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left.

The United States of America is included in this burning.

● Revelation 13:11-13—

11 And I saw another beast coming up out of the earth, and he had two horns like a lamb, but he spoke like a dragon.

12 And he exercised all the authority of the first beast before him, and caused the earth and those who dwell in it to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed.

13 And he does great wonders, so that he makes fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men.

● Mattithyah 24:7, 21-22, 29—

7 For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be famines, and pestilences; disease epidemics, and earthquakes in place after place:

21 For then will be Great Tribulation, such as has not come to pass since the beginning of the world to this time—no, nor ever will be.

22 And unless those days were shortened, there would no flesh be saved; but for the Elect's sake, those days will be shortened.

29 Immediately, but after the Great Tribulation of those days will the sun be darkened, and the moon will not give her light, and the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken.

The United States In Prophecy

The first beast rose up out of the sea.

● Revelation 13:1—

And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the names of blasphemy.

The Scriptural definition of sea is shown in:

● Revelation 17:15—

And he said to me: The waters which you saw, where the whore sits, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and languages.

This first beast was led by only one religion, the Catholic Church, which is led by the Pope.

The second beast, government of and by the people, rose up where there were no multitudes and nations. The land later called the United States was only discovered in 1492. Yes, just 515 years ago.

History of the United States

For hundreds of years, Europeans knew nothing about the land that was to become the United States. American history began when Europeans brought their civilization across the Atlantic Ocean during the 1500s and 1600s.

Christopher Columbus sailed westward in 1492, because he believed that Asia lay just across the Atlantic Ocean. When he found land, he thought he had reached the East Indies (now Indonesia). He never knew that he had discovered a new continent. But the Spaniards and Portuguese who came after him realized that they had reached an unexplored land. They called it The New World.

The British were the first to settle in North America in large numbers. In 1585, Sir Walter Raleigh tried unsuccessfully to establish a colony on Roanoke Island. More than 20 years passed before colonists made the first permanent settlement, at Jamestown in 1607.

What is now called the United States of America is led by two horns or two religions—Catholic, which is the majority and Protestant. Together they have the majority vote to pass the laws that govern America. The two horns give authority to one member of the Quartet, one of the four messengers that we find mentioned in:

● Revelation 7:1—

And after these things I saw four messengers standing on the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, so that the wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree.

As we have seen, these messengers are called angels in the King James Version but the word means messengers or representatives engaged in service.

The United States of America, as well as its actions, are fully described in:

● Revelation 13:11-13—

11 And I saw another beast coming up out of the earth, and he had two horns like a lamb, but he spoke like a dragon.

12 And he exercised all the authority of the first beast before him, and caused the earth and those who dwell in it to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed.

13 And he does great wonders, so that he makes fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men.

Verse 11 shows two horns which are two religions like a lamb but speak like a dragon. In verse 12 we see the word worship, which throughout the Inspired Scriptures, means to serve and be like.

Service to or worship of Yahweh is to be in His Image. Worship of Satan is to serve sin, being like or in the image of Satan.

Verse 13 shows the nuclear bombs that explode above earth bringing down fire from heaven.

● Revelation 13:12—

And he exercised all the authority of the first beast before him, and caused the earth and those who dwell in it to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed.

The word caused or causeth in the King James Version is better translated attempted to cause or bring forth.

Notice also, this attempt is tried on all those who dwell upon the earth to be like the first beast which practiced democracy. Surely everyone knows by now that our president has been pushing democracy on all nations ever since he has been in office.

Democracy

I don't believe that the founding fathers of the United States meant for democracy to take the shape it has in the last few years.

Webster's Dictionary gives us the following meaning of the word democracy.

de.moc.ra.cy 1 government by the people, directly or through representatives 2 a country, etc. with such government 3 equality of rights, opportunity, and treatment

Religions of and by the people have always been great in number. The religions in the majority persecuted the minority. Revolutions that took place because of persecution by powerful religions are in the millions. Billions of people were killed because of their religious beliefs. They had no power to protect themselves.

The “Holy” Roman Empire and the Catholic religion promised freedom and protection from the major religions. In fact, three major religions fell by the “Holy” Roman Empire and the Catholic religion that led them.

Freedom is great. In fact, is shown to have been set by Yahweh in the Inspired Writings of the Prophets. But freedom without Character Education, as is the way of the world—anything goes—can be destructive.

Notice, first comes the Righteous teachings of the Laws of Yahweh, which all nations of the world should be asking for at this time.

● Deuteronomy 6:1-7, 25—

1 Now these are the Laws, the Statutes, and the Judgments which Yahweh your Father has commanded me to teach you: so that you may observe them in the land you are crossing over to possess;

2 So that you may reverence Yahweh your Father by keeping all His Statutes and His Laws, which I command you, your son, and your son’s son all the days of your life; and so that your days may be prolonged.

3 Hear therefore, O Israyl, and be careful to obey; so it may be well with you, and so that you may greatly multiply, as Yahweh, the Mighty Father of your fathers, has promised you, in the land that flows with milk and honey,

4 Hear, O Israyl, Yahweh is our Father. Yahweh is One.

5 And you must love Yahweh your Father with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your might.

6 And these Laws which I command you this day must be in your heart;

7 And you must teach them diligently to your children, and talk about them when you sit in your house, and when you walk on the road, and when you lie down, and when you rise up.

25 And it will be our Righteousness, if we observe to do all of this Law before Yahweh our Father, as He has commanded us.

Then comes the freedom to choose either the Righteous Way of Yahweh or the mixture of Righteousness and evil, the religions of and by the people.

● Deuteronomy 30:15—

See, I have set before you this day Life by Righteousness, and death by destruction—

Death and destruction come without Character Education. Life and healthy peaceful living come only with complete Righteousness.

● Deuteronomy 30:16-20—

16 In that I command you this day to love Yahweh your Father, by walking in all His ways, by keeping His Laws, His Statutes, and His Judgments, so that you may live and multiply, and so Yahweh your Father may bless you in the land which you go in to possess.

17 But if your heart turns away, and you are not obedient, and you are drawn away to submit to gods (elohim), to worship them by serving them—

18 I declare to you this day that you will surely perish; you will not prolong your days in the land which you cross over the Yordan to possess.

19 I call heaven and earth as witnesses against you this day, that I have set before you life and death, blessings and curses—therefore choose life, so both you and your children may live;

20 So you may love Yahweh your Father, by listening to Him, and then obeying Him. Hold fast to Him, for He is your life. He will also give you many years in the land He vowed to give to your fathers; to Abraham, Isaac, and Yaaqob.

This was Yahweh’s Plan from the beginning and His Purpose for creating the earth and mankind 6,000 years ago. Yahweh’s Plan is to create and choose Righteous Men and Women to whom He would give Great Power and Authority over the heavens and the earth.

● Genesis 1:26—

Then Yahweh said: Let My House at Abel make man in our image, according to our likeness; they will have rulership over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the air, over the cattle, and over all the earth and over every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth.

● Psalms 8:4-8—

4 What is man that You are mindful of him? And the Son of Man, that You visit him?

5 For You have made him a little lower than the Malakim, but You will crown him with Glory and Honor.

6 You made man to be the ruler over the Works of Your Hands; You will put all things under his feet;

7 All sheep and oxen; yes, all the beasts of the field; 8 All the fowls of the air and the fish of the sea, and whatever passes through the rivers in the seas will be under the rule of man.

● Hebrews 1:5—

For example, to which of the Malakim did He ever say: You are My Son, today, I have become your Father? And again: I Myself shall become His Father, and He Himself will become My Son?

● Hebrews 2:5-8—

5 For it is not to the Malakim that He has subjected the world to come, about which we are speaking;

6 For one brings testimony in a certain place, saying: What is man, that You are mindful of him, or the son of man, that You visit him?

7 You made him a little lower than the Malakim; You crowned him with Glory and Honor, and did set Him over the Works of Your Hands.

8 You have put all things in subjection under his feet. In putting everything in subjection under Him, Yahweh left nothing that is not subject to him—but at this time we do not yet see all things put under him.

There is yet still time to be a part of this Righteous Family of Yahweh if you will come out of religions of and by the people. Yahweh has carried out His Plan for 6,000 years, and it will soon be finished. In fact, we are shown in Prophecy that the 6,000 years allotted for the finishing of Yahweh’s Plan of Creation will also be the same time that the rebellious, those who will not repent of sin, will destroy themselves.

The U.S. Is Also At War Against The Moslems

Many have called the war with Iraq a war of religion. Malachi Martin in his book The Keys Of This Blood (published in 1990) and during personal interviews said that “Mary”, who he agreed was leading the Catholic Church, was going to make war against all nations that would not worship her and that the Moslem nations would suffer greatly.

That statement and Prophecy is coming to pass at this time as the Quartet carries out its plans. The Catholic Church is reknown for making war against those she cannot control. Notice the following information.

Crusades

The crusades were military expeditions to defeat the Moslems and win the Holy Land, where Jesus had lived. They began just before A.D. 1100 and lasted until nearly 1300. The men who marched on the crusades came from the Christian nations of western Europe. Popes took the lead in preaching crusades against the Moslems. Feudal barons at first led the expeditions, but later shared leadership with the rulers of various countries.

The crusaders differed widely in social position, wealth, thinking, and purpose. Not every Christian who set forth for the Holy Land was inspired with religious enthusiasm. Some hoped to win military glory or get new lands. Others were looking for adventure. Merchants joined the ranks in search of new markets. Criminals joined the crusaders to run away from justice. The preaching of Pope Urban II, which prompted the First Crusade, appealed to men's political and economic ambitions, as well as to their religious fervor.

The word crusade comes from the Latin word crux, meaning cross. The cross of Christ was the official badge of those who joined the great expeditions, and the expression “taking the cross” meant becoming a crusader. The crusades are sometimes called the Holy Wars of the Middle Ages.

The First Crusade (1096-1099) began as a result of the preaching of Pope Urban II at the Council of Clermont in 1095. He urged all Christians to forget their local feuds and unite to rescue the Lord's Sepulcher from the Moslems.

The Second Crusade (1147-1149) began after the Moslems, under Zangi, reconquered part of the Kingdom of Jerusalem.

The Third Crusade (1189-1192) was a direct effort to take back the city of Jerusalem itself, which the Moslem troops of Saladin captured in 1187. The kings of France and England and the Holy Roman Emperor forgot their local quarrels long enough to join in an expedition to win back the Holy City. Philip II, King of France, soon gave up the crusade and went home to plot against his political enemies.

The Fourth Crusade (1202-1204) followed the vigorous preaching of Pope Innocent III. The crusaders removed the Byzantine emperor and installed Baldwin of Flanders, one of their leaders, as ruler. The Fourth Crusade resulted in the temporary transfer of the Eastern Empire from Greek to Latin control and the division of its territories as spoils among various Latin Princes. But conditions in the Holy Land remained unchanged, and the Moslems continued to rule.

The Later Crusades continued until 1291 and had little success. An expedition led by Frederick II, Holy Roman Emperor, in 1228-1299 is called the Fifth Crusade by some historians and the Sixth by others. A truce between Frederick II and the Moslems secured Jerusalem for the Christians. Jerusalem remained in Christian hands until 1244, when the Moslems captured the city again.

The Children's Crusade (1212) was an army of 30,000 boys and girls, most of them less than 12 years old. Led by a French shepherd lad named Stephen, they set forth to free the Holy Land. Many of the children died. Another band of 20,000 children, led by a German boy named Nicholas, met the same fate.

Results of the Crusades. The crusades speeded up many important events in Europe. They increased the growing power of the church. The crusaders learned many lessons in warfare which were later used by European countries.

Neither democracy nor the Christian faith bring peace. If you noticed in the history of the crusades, the Pope urged Christians to stop fighting each other and join the fight against the Moslems. Also notice that the crusaders were willing to kill for (1) glory, (2) get new land, (3) for lust for adventure, and (4) new markets.

Pope Urban II appealed to men's political and economic lust. It's the opinion of many that the crusaders should have been classified as thieves, rapists, and murderers of men, women and children.

The Scriptural point is that there is no peace or safety among the religions of the world today.

Notice the following excerpts and you will see that Revelation 17:18 is correct about who is leading the kings of the earth today.

Pope Places Society in Mary's Hands

ROME, Dec. 8, 2006 - On the solemnity of the Immaculate Conception, Benedict XVI figuratively placed in Mary's hands the marginalized and defenseless members of society.

Benedict XVI prayed to the Virgin Mary to watch over the citizens of Rome, to be a “vigilant guardian of Italy and Europe, so that from the ancient Christian roots people will be able to draw the sap to build their present and future.”

“Show yourself a provident and merciful mother to the whole world so that, respecting human dignity and rejecting every form of violence and exploitation, firm foundations will be laid for the civilization of love,” the Pope prayed.

zenit.org

Holy See Speaks for Those With No Voice, Says Archbishop Migliore

VATICAN CITY, Jan. 31, 2007 - At the United Nations the Holy See gives a voice to those who have no voice, says Archbishop Celestino Migliore.

Commenting on the difficulties that arise when trying to reach U.N. agreements, the archbishop explained that the Pope hopes the Holy See's presence can help.

"In fact, there are many emergency situations in which some turn to the Pope and to the Holy See, and precisely through this presence in New York we try to follow up this work, which is often specifically humanitarian."

zenit.org

Religious Leaders Press Rice on Mideast

WASHINGTON, D.C., Jan. 30, 2007 - A delegation of religious leaders met with the U.S. secretary of state to urge the country to take a more leading role in promoting peace in the Middle East.

Condoleezza Rice met six religious leaders from the National Interreligious Leadership Initiative for Peace in the Middle East, including the retired archbishop of Washington D.C., Cardinal Theodore McCarrick, on Monday at the State Department.

Before the meeting with Rice the leaders released a statement which was signed last month by the 35 members of the leadership initiative.

The statement affirmed peace as "an essential of faith" in all three religious traditions and asserted that the United States has "an inescapable responsibility and an indispensable role to provide creative, determined leadership for building a just peace in the Middle East."

zenit.org

Holy See Official: Crime at Vatican Running at Biblical Proportions

Think of the most crime-ridden place on earth and what comes to mind: Sao Paulo, Brazil? Lagos, Nigeria? The Bronx, New York?

Try the Vatican. The small nation-city ruled by Pope Benedict XVI apparently sees more criminal cases per capita than any other part of the world, the German magazine Spiegel reports.

In 2006, the tiny nation's justice department had to contend with 341 civil and 486 criminal cases. With a population of 492, that measures out to 1.5 cases per person —20 times the corresponding rate in Italy.

Another surprising statistic about the rampant crime in the Vatican is that it exists despite a security force that would put a police state to shame. The seat of the Catholic Church has one Swiss guard for every four citizens, plus museum guards and police assigned to the Vatican by the Italian government.

foxnews.com

It Won't Stop There

Democracy by itself does not bring peace, joy, love or health. Democracy is supposed to give mankind the freedom to choose. Yahweh's Laws do the same.

● Deuteronomy 30:19—

I call heaven and earth as witnesses against you this day, that I have set before you life and death, blessings and curses—therefore choose life, so both you and your children may live;

Every nation needs democracy. Every person needs the freedom to choose, but the religions do not offer the rest of what is needed and commanded in your Holy Scriptures, and that is Character Education. In fact, children all over the world are being trained in sin, the breaking of Yahweh's Laws, because the major religion changed the Laws. Other religions that tried to expose the change were persecuted. Notice what Prophecy shows will be the end result of that change.

● Isayah 24:1-6—

1 Before Yahweh's very eyes, the earth is made empty and it is made waste; the face of it is perverted and its inhabitants scattered abroad;

2 And it will be: as with the people, so with the priests; as with the servant, so with his owner; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with him who takes usury, so with him who gives usury to him:

3 The land will be utterly emptied and utterly plundered, for it has come to pass that this Judgment has been pronounced.

4 The earth mourns and fades away, the world mourns and fades away, and the haughty people of the earth languish.

5 The earth also is defiled under the inhabitants of it, because they have transgressed the Laws, changed the Ordinance, and broken the Everlasting Covenant.

6 Because of this, the curse has devoured the earth, and they who dwell therein are desolate; therefore, the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left.

Verse 5 shows that because the world has turned to sin destruction is coming. Compare that to:

● I Yahchanan 3:4—

Whoever commits sin, transgresses also the Law; for sin is the transgression of the Law.

The Prophets all say that when we break the Laws of Yahweh given in the Holy Scriptures, we cause harm to come upon ourselves. We cause sicknesses, disease epidemics, confusion to the mind, hatred and wars. When we compare the next Scripture, which is also given for our time period, we see that what has been done worldwide in breaking Yahweh's Laws has caused the nations to become enraged.

● Revelation 11:18—

And the nations were angry, for Your Judgment has come; and the time of the dead, that they should be sentenced, and that You should give Reward to Your Servants the Prophets, and to all the Saints—to those who reverence Your Name, small and great; and should judge those who destroy the earth.

The word translated angry according to Strong's Greek Dictionary actually means provoked or enraged, reaching forth or excitement of the mind, violent, passion, abhorrence, anger, indignation, vengeance and wrath.

This Prophecy is describing a time period known to all Prophets as the Last Days. This is a time when all the world is deeply involved in sin, which was actually prophesied for this time period. The Savior is speaking of this time period (the Last Days) in Mattithyah Chapter 24 which shows the same thing.

● Mattithyah 24:3—

Now as He sat on the Mount of Olives, the Disciples came to Him privately, saying; Tell us, when will these things be? What will be the sign of Your coming and The End of the Age?

The Savior was asked about The End. His response was not that the nations would be civilized and Righteous. Notice what He says the nations and religions would be like.

● Mattithyah 24:12—

And because iniquity; the breaking of Yahweh's Law, will abound, the love of the many will grow cold.

According to the Greek dictionary in Strong's Exhaustive Concordance, the word iniquity is word #458 from word #459, and means transgression of the law, not subject to the law.

458. ἀνομία anōmia, an-om-ee'-ah; from 459; illegality, i.e. violation of law or (gen.) wickedness:—iniquity, × transgress (-ion of) the law, unrighteousness.

459. ἀνομος anōmos, an'-om-os; from 1 (as a neg. particle) and 3551; lawless, i.e. (neg.) not subject to (the Jewish) law; (by impl. a Gentile), or (pos.) wicked:—without law, lawless, transgressor, unlawful, wicked.

Let's look at the following Scriptures again.

● Isayah 24:5-6—

5 The earth also is defiled under the inhabitants of it, because they have transgressed the Laws, changed the Ordinance, and broken the Everlasting Covenant.

6 Because of this, the curse has devoured the earth, and they who dwell therein are desolate; therefore, the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left.

Because they changed Yahweh's Laws, the earth and all people thereof are suffering the curses of sin. Remember the fourth beast under the leadership of the Pope and the Catholic Church changed the Laws and admits doing so.

● Daniyl 7:25—

And he will speak great words against Yahweh, and will wear out; mentally attack to cause to fall away, the Saints of Yahweh, and think to change the Feasts, Holy Days, and Laws; and they will be given into his hand until a time, and times, and the dividing of time.

Prophecy also shows the change would affect the whole earth.

● Daniyl 7:23—

This is what he said; The fourth beast will be the fourth kingdom upon earth, which will be different from all other kingdoms, and will devour the whole earth, and will tread it down, and break it in pieces.

Notice the last part of this verse. This was not brought about by force but by speaking.

● Daniyl 7:8—

I considered the horns, and behold, there came up among them another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots; and behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking great things.

Notice the last part of this verse as well. Now notice in comparison:

● Revelation 17:18, 1-2—

18 And the woman whom you saw, is that great city which reigns over the kings of the earth.

1 And there came one of the seven Malakim who had the seven bowls, and talked with me, saying to me: Come, I will show you the sentence of the great whore that sits upon many waters,

2 With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication; practiced idolatry: godworship (the worship of elohim), and the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.

● Revelation 18:3, 5—

3 For all nations have drunk of the cup of her destruction because of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth have grown rich through the abundance of her delicacies.

5 For her sins have reached unto heaven, and Yahweh has remembered her transgressions against His Laws!

The word wine in Revelation 17:2 and Revelation 18:3 means teaching.

Man's Governments Will End With Nuclear Wars

Man's governments and religions of and by the people will end with nuclear wars in this present 3½ year period. These Prophecies are shown in detail in our books The Mark of the Beast, Volumes 1 and 2 and The End.

I urge you to get those books, learn these Prophecies and know and believe what is coming next. What is coming in the next few months, between now and June 12, 2007, will involve a third part of man being killed over a fourth part of the earth in and around the great River Euphrates. Then in the four months that follow every nation on earth will become involved.

The following verses clearly show that nuclear war is coming.

● Revelation 9:13-18—

13 And the Sixth Malak sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before Yahweh,

14 Saying to the Sixth Malak which had the trumpet: Loose the four angels who are bound for the great River Euphrates!

15 And the four messengers were loosed, which were prepared for an hour, and a day, and a moon; month, and a year, in order to slay the third part of man.

16 And the number of the army of the horsemen was two hundred thousand thousand; for I heard the number of them.

17 And in my vision, I saw the horses and those who sat upon them like this: They had breastplates of fire; red, and of jacinth; blue, and brimstone; yellow, and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions; and out of their mouths issued fire, and smoke, and brimstone.

18 By these three were the third part of man killed: by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone, which issued out of their mouths.

Notice the following again:

● Revelation 9:17—

...fire; red, and of jacinth; blue, and brimstone; yellow...

These are the three colors that make up the nuclear mushroom cloud that comes at the nine-month birth of the nuclear baby. Yahchanan gives us a vital detail about these horses; they have breastplates of fire, jacinth and brimstone.

Notice what Clarke's Commentary tells us about this Scripture.

Verse 17, Breastplates of fire—jacinth, and brimstone] That is, red, blue, and yellow; the first is the color of fire, the second of jacinth, and the third of sulphur.

When these three colors are put together, they make up the color of a nuclear explosion.

By using these colors, we see a picture of a nuclear bomb being exploded. The Prophet Yahchanan was referring to the earth being hurt by nuclear explosions.

Fire (red)

Jacinth (blue)

Brimstone (yellow)

When the three colors are added together, we see the colors of a nuclear explosion.

Yahweh also inspired Mosheh to warn us of the horrors that are soon to come upon the whole world.

● Deuteronomy 28:20-22—

20 Because of the wickedness you have done in forsaking Me, it will come to pass that you will have given yourselves over to curses, confusion, and rebuke, in everything you put your hand to do, until you are destroyed and come to sudden ruin,

21 It will come to pass that you will cause the plagues to cling to you, until you are destroyed from the land you are entering to possess.

22 It will come to pass that you will cause yourselves to be struck with consumption, with a fever, with an inflammation, with scorching heat, with the sword, with blasting, and with mildew; they will stay with you, until you perish.

Of course, just as Yahweh has said through His Prophets of Old, these horrible curses are coming because the whole world has rejected the Laws, Statutes, and Judgments of Yahweh! Within the meanings of the words consumption, fever, inflammation, scorching heat, sword, blasting, and mildew (found in verse 22); we can see that the words Mosheh used describe perfectly the effects of a nuclear explosion. These curses are a result of disobedience to Yahweh's Laws.

Reading the definitions from the Hebrew Dictionary of Strong's Exhaustive Concordance, we find these facts about these words:

● Consumption—

7829. שַׁחֲפֶתֶת shachepheth, shakh-eh'-feth; from the same as 7828.
emaciation:—consumption.

7828. שַׁחַפֵּי shachaph, shakh'-af; from an unused root mean. to peel, i.e. emaciate; the gull (as thin):—cuckoo.

● Fever—

6920. קָדַחַת qaddachath, kad-dakh'-ath; from 6919, inflammation, i.e. febrile disease:—burning ague, fever.

6919. קָדַחַ qâdach, kaw-dakh'; a prim. root to inflare:—burn, kindle.

● Inflammation—

1816. דַּלְלֶקֶת dalleqeth, dal-lek'-keth; from 1814, a burning fever:—inflammation.

1814. דָּלַק dâlaq, daw-lak'; a prim. root; to flame (lit. or fig.):—burning, chase, inflame, kindle, persecute (-or), pursue hotly.

Within these three words, we see that Yahweh predicted that famine and pestilence would befall those who betray Yahweh and His Laws by putting their trust in man's governments instead. In the next three words from verse 22, Yahweh shows us more.

● Scorching Heat—

2746. חָרַחַר charchûr, khar-khoor'; from 2787, fever as hot:—extreme burning.

2787. חָרַר chârar, khaw-rar'; a prim. root; to glow, i.e. lit. (to melt, burn, dry up) or fig. (to show or incite passion):—be angry, burn, dry, kindle.

● Sword—

2719. חֶרֶב chereb, kheh-reb'; from 2717, drought; also a cutting instrument (from its destructive effect), as a knife, sword, or other sharp implement:—axe, dagger, knife, mattock, sword, tool.

2717. חָרַב chârab, khaw-rab'; or חָרַבַּ chârèb, khaw-rabè'; a prim. root; to parch (through drought), i.e. (by anal.) to desolate, destroy, kill:—decay, (be) desolate, destroy (-er), (be) dry (up), slay, x surely, (lay, lie, make waste...

● Blasting—

7711. שִׁדְּפָה sh'déphâh, shed-ay-faw'; or שִׁדְּפוֹן shiddâphôwn, shid-daw-fone'; from 7710; blight:—blasted (-ing).

7710. שָׁדַף shâdaph, shaw-daf'; a prim. root; to scorch:—blast.

● Mildew—

3420. יֵרָקוֹן yêraqôwn, yay-raw-kone'; from 3418; paleness, whether of persons (from fright), or of plants (from drought):—greenish, yellow.

Now we can see the effects of a nuclear explosion. We can see the destruction and devastation that will come from the explosion itself, and we can see that the survivors of the nuclear blast will suffer greatly from fire, hunger, and disease.

The word sword means to desolate, destroy, kill, make waste, dry up, slay—to perish through war. The word blasting means to scorch from blasting! A blast in this context is war and the effects of it! This “blast” is an explosion!

I would remind you that this Prophecy about “blasting” was written before the invention of dynamite, or any other explosive material. Mosheh had no knowledge of an explosive blast in his day, yet under Inspiration of Yahweh, Mosheh wrote that mankind would destroy himself by the use of a power which would blast and scorch. The destruction that will come to this planet from a nuclear war, was actually prophesied to take place almost 6,000 years ago, by our Loving Heavenly Father Who did not, and does not, want His children to suffer from these horrible curses.

There is more to this Prophecy. Yahweh goes on to describe the radioactive fallout that comes as a direct result of the nuclear blast. We read the rest of this Prophecy in:

● Deuteronomy 28:23-24—

23 And the heaven that is over your heads shall be brass, and the earth under you shall be iron.

24 It will come to pass that you will cause the rain of your land to become powder and dust: from heaven it shall come down upon you, until you are destroyed.

Within the meanings of the words: brass, iron, powder, and dust; we can see that Mosheh described perfectly the radioactive fallout from a nuclear explosion, of which we also read earlier. Reading the definitions from the Hebrew Dictionary of Strong's Exhaustive Concordance, we find this information.

● Brass—

5178. נְחֹשֶׁת n'chôsheth, nekh-o'-sheth; for 5154; copper;

5154. נְחֹשֶׁת n'chûwshâh, nekh-oo-shaw'; or נְחֹשֶׁת n'chûshâh, nekh-oo-shaw'; fem. of 5153; copper:—brass, steel.

5153. נְחֹשֶׁת nâchûwsh, naw-khoosh'; appar. pass. part of 5172 (perh. in the sense of ringing, i.e. bell-metal; or from the red color of the throat of a serpent [5175, as denom.] when hissing); coppery, i.e. (fig.) hard:—of brass.

● Iron—

1270. בַּרְזֶל barzel, bar-zel'; perh. from the root of 1269; iron (as cutting) by extens. an iron implement:—(ax) head, iron.

1269. בִּירוֹחַ Birzôwth, beer-zoth'; prob. fem. plur. from an unused root (appar. mean. to pierce); holes;

● Powder—

80. אֶבֶק 'âbâq, aw-bawk'; from root of 79; light particles (as volatile):— (small) dust, powder.

● Dust—

6083. עֶפֶר âphâr, aw-fawr'; from 6080; dust (as powdered or gray) hence clay, Earth, mud:—ashes, dust, Earth, ground, mortar, powder, rubbish.

6080. עֶפֶר âphar, aw-far'; a prim. root; mean. either to be gray or perh. rather to pulverize; used only as denom. from 6083; to be dust:—cast [dust].

The root meaning of the word brass is the red color of the throat of a serpent. The word iron means to pierce—holes. The word dust means dust as powdered or gray—to pulverize.

When a nuclear blast hits the land, piercing holes in the earth, the detonation grinds the soil, turning it into fine dust or volatile particles (as shown in the meaning of the word powder), gray in color. The heavens become red in color during the blast.

This powder and dust is the radioactive fallout from a nuclear blast which will come down from heaven upon mankind, just as Yahweh showed Mosheh.

In this Prophecy in Deuteronomy 28, Yahweh shows us the colors of the nuclear blast and the fallout. Nuclear fallout is described as gray dust. Two fishermen noticed this gray dust floating on the ocean where they were fishing some time after the detonation of the bombs in Japan. Not knowing at that time what this dust was, they scooped some out of the water. This shows how the fallout dust will fall, pulverize the soil and contaminate the water.

You can see from the meanings of the words used that this is speaking of nuclear war, the mushroom cloud, and the color of the fallout dust and what they do to the body of man.

Let me remind you that this Prophecy concerning nuclear weapons was written by Mosheh thousands of years before any type of explosives existed. This fallout dust is described in amazing detail.

Mankind was given a glimpse of the detailed Prophecy written in Deuteronomy 28:23-24 when the first atomic bombs were used by the United States. These bombs were dropped over Japan on the cities of Hiroshima and Nagasaki in 1945.

“Little Boy” was the name given to the atomic bomb dropped on Hiroshima on August 6, 1945. It was a Monday morning. Little Boy was dropped from the Enola Gay, one of the B29 bombers that flew over Hiroshima that day.

After being released, it took about a minute for Little Boy to reach the point of explosion. Little Boy exploded at approximately 8:15 a.m. (Japanese Standard Time) when it reached an altitude of 2,000 feet above the building that is today called the “A-Bomb Dome.”

The July 24, 1995 issue of Newsweek writes:

“A bright light filled the plane,” wrote Col. Paul Tibbets, the pilot of the Enola Gay, the B-29 that dropped the first atomic bomb. “We turned back to look at Hiroshima. The city was hidden by that awful cloud... boiling up, mushrooming.” For a moment, no one spoke. Then everyone was talking. “Look at that! Look at that! Look at that!” exclaimed the co-pilot, Robert Lewis, pounding on Tibbet’s shoulder. Lewis said he could taste atomic fission; it tasted like lead. Then he turned away to write in his journal. “My God,” he asked himself, “what have we done?” (special report, “Hiroshima: August 6, 1945”)

The “Little Boy” generated an enormous amount of energy in terms of air pressure and heat. In addition, it generated a significant amount of radiation (gamma rays and neutrons) that subsequently caused devastating injuries.

The people who saw the Little Boy often say, “We saw another sun in the sky when it exploded.” The heat and the light generated by the Little Boy were far stronger than bombs which they had seen before. When the heat reached the ground level it burnt all before it, including people.

The strong wind generated by the bomb destroyed most of the houses and buildings within a 1.5 mile radius. When the wind reached the mountains, it was reflected and again hit the people in the city center. The wind generated by Little Boy caused the most serious damage to the city and people.

The radiation generated by the bomb caused long-term problems to those affected. Many people died within the first few months and many more in subsequent years because of radiation exposure. Some people had genetic problems which sometimes resulted in having malformed babies or being unable to have children.

It is believed that more than 140,000 people died by the end of the year. They were citizens including students, soldiers and Koreans who worked in factories within the city. The total number of people who have died due to the bomb is estimated to be 200,000.

Just three days after the bomb was dropped on Hiroshima, the second atomic bomb called “Fat Man” was dropped on Nagasaki. Though the amount of energy generated by the bomb dropped on Nagasaki was significantly larger than that of the Little Boy, the damage given to the city was slighter than that given to Hiroshima due to the geographic structure of the city.

The American author John Hersey went to Japan right after the end of World War II to interview survivors of the attack on Hiroshima. Here are some excerpts from his book Hiroshima.

At exactly fifteen minutes past eight in the morning, on August 6, 1945, Japanese time, at the moment when the atomic bomb flashed above Hiroshima, Miss Toshiko Sasaki, a clerk in the personnel department of the East Asia Tin Works, had just sat down at her place in the plant office and was turning her head to speak to the girl at the next desk. At that same moment, Dr. Masakazu Fujii was settling down cross-legged to read the Osaka Asahi on the porch of his private hospital, overhanging one of the seven delta rivers which divide Hiroshima; Mrs. Hatsuyo Nakamura, a tailor's widow, stood by the window of her kitchen, watching a neighbor tearing down his house because it lay in the path of an air-defense raid fire lane; Father Wilhelm Kleinsorge, a German priest of the Society of Jesus, reclined on a cot on the top floor of his three-story mission house, reading a Jesuit magazine, Stimmen der Zeit; Dr. Terufumi Sasaki, a young member of the surgical staff of the city's large, modern Red Cross Hospital, walked along one of the hospital corridors with a blood specimen for a Wassermann test in his hand; and the Reverend Mr. Kiyoshi Tanimoto, pastor of the Hiroshima Methodist Church, paused at the door of a rich man's house in Koi, the city's western suburb, and prepared to unload a handcart full of things he had evacuated from town in fear of the massive B-29 raid which everyone expected Hiroshima to suffer. A hundred thousand people were killed by the atomic bomb, and these six were among the survivors. They still wonder why they lived when so many others died. Each of them counts many small items of chance or volition—a step taken in time, a decision to go indoors, catching one streetcar instead of the next that spared him. And now each knows that in the act of survival he lived a dozen lives and saw more death than he ever thought he would see. At the time, none of them knew anything.

The Reverend Mr. Tanimoto got up at five o'clock that morning. He was alone in the parsonage, because for some time his wife had been commuting with their year-old baby to spend nights with a friend in Ushida, a suburb to the north. Of all the important cities in Japan, only two, Kyoto and Hiroshima, had not been visited in strength by B-san, or Mr. B, as the Japanese, with a mixture of respect and unhappy familiarity, called the B-29; and Mr. Tanimoto, like all his neighbors and friends, were almost sick with anxiety. He had heard uncomfortably detailed accounts of mass raids on Kure, Iwakuni, Tokuyama, and other nearby towns; he was sure Hiroshima's turn would come soon. He had slept badly the night before, because there had been several air-raid warnings. Hiroshima had been getting such warnings almost every night for weeks, for at that time the B-29s were using Lake Biwa, northeast of Hiroshima, as a rendezvous point, and no matter what city the Americans planned to hit, the Superfortresses streamed in over the coast near Hiroshima. The frequency of the warnings and the continued abstinence of Mr. B with respect to Hiroshima had made its citizens jittery; a rumor was going around that the Americans were saving something special for the city.

As Mrs. Nakamura stood watching her neighbor, everything flashed whiter than any white she had ever seen. She did not notice what happened to the man next door; the reflex of a mother set her in motion to her children. She had taken a single step (the house was 1,350 yards, or three-quarters of a mile, from the center of the explosion) when something picked her up and she seemed to fly into the next room over the raised sleeping platform, pursued by parts of her house.

Timbers fell around her as she landed, and a shower of tiles pummeled her; everything became dark, for she was buried. The debris did not cover her deeply. She rose up and freed herself. She heard a child cry, “Mother, help me!” and saw her youngest-Myeko, the five-year-old-buried up to her breast and unable to move. As Mrs. Nakamura started frantically to claw her way toward the baby, she could see or hear nothing of her other children.

The lot of Drs. Fujii, Kanda, and Machii right after the explosion-and, as these three were typical, that of the majority of the physicians and surgeons of Hiroshima-with their offices and hospitals destroyed, their equipment scattered, their own bodies incapacitated in varying degrees, explained why so many citizens who were hurt went untended and why so many who might have lived died. Of a hundred and fifty doctors in the city, sixty-five were already dead and most of the rest were wounded. Of 1,780 nurses, 1,654 were dead or too badly hurt to work. In the biggest hospital, that of the Red Cross, only six doctors out of thirty were able to function, and only ten nurses out of more than two hundred. The sole uninjured doctor on the Red Cross Hospital staff was Dr. Sasaki. After the explosion, he hurried to a storeroom to fetch bandages. This room, like everything he had seen as he ran through the hospital, was chaotic-bottles of medicines thrown off shelves and broken, salves spattered on the walls, instruments strewn everywhere. He grabbed up some bandages and an unbroken bottle of mercurochrome, hurried back to the chief surgeon, and bandaged his cuts. Then he went out into the corridor and began patching up the wounded patients and the doctors and nurses there. He blundered so without his glasses that he took a pair off the face of a wounded nurse, and although they only approximately compensated for the errors of his vision, they were better than nothing. (He was to depend on them for more than a month.)

Dr. Sasaki worked without method, taking those who were nearest him first, and he noticed soon that the corridor seemed to be getting more and more crowded. Mixed in with abrasions and lacerations which most people in the hospital had suffered, he began to find dreadful burns. He realized then that casualties were pouring in from outdoors. There were so many that he began to pass up the lightly wounded; he decided that all he could hope to do was to stop people from bleeding to death. Before long, patients lay and crouched on the floors of the wards and the laboratories and all the other rooms, and in the corridors, and on the stairs, and in the front hall, and under the porte-cochere, and on the stone front steps, and in the driveways and courtyard, and for blocks each way in the streets outside. Wounded people supported maimed people; disfigured families leaned together. Many people were vomiting. A tremendous number of schoolgirls-some of those who had been taken from their classrooms to work outdoors, clearing fire lanes-crept into the hospital. In a city of two hundred and forty-five thousand, nearly a hundred thousand people had been killed or doomed at one blow; a hundred thousand more were hurt. At least ten thousand of the wounded made their way to the best hospital in town, which was altogether unequal to such trampling, since it only had six hundred beds, and they had all been occupied. The people in the suffocating crowd inside the hospital wept and cried, for Dr. Sasaki to hear, "Sensei! Doctor!," and the less seriously wounded came and pulled at his sleeve and begged him to go to the aid of the worse wounded. Tugged here and there in his stocking feet, bewildered by the numbers, staggered by so much raw flesh, Dr. Sasaki lost all sense of profession and stopped working as a skillful surgeon and a sympathetic man; he became an automaton, mechanically wiping, daubing, winding, wiping, daubing, winding.

Mr. Tanimoto, fearful for his family and church, at first ran toward them by the shortest route, along Koi Highway. He was the only person making his way into the city; he met hundreds and hundreds who were fleeing, and every one of them seemed to be hurt in some way. The eyebrows of some were burned off and skin hung from their faces and hands. Others, because of pain, held their arms up as if carrying something in both hands. Some were vomiting as they walked. Many were naked or wore shreds of clothing. On some undressed bodies, the burns had made patterns-of undershirt straps and suspenders and, on the skin of some women (since white repelled the heat from the bomb and dark clothes absorbed it and conducted it to the skin), the shapes of the flowers they had had on their kimonos. Many, although injured themselves, supported relatives who were worse off. Almost all had their heads bowed, looked straight ahead, were silent and showed no expression whatsoever.

After crossing Koi Bridge and Kannon Bridge, having run the whole way, Mr. Tanimoto saw, as he approached the center, that all the houses had been crushed and many were afire. Here the trees were bare and their trunks were charred. He tried at several points to penetrate the ruins, but the flames always stopped him. Under many houses, people screamed for help, but no one helped; in general, survivors that day assisted only their relatives or immediate neighbors, for they could not comprehend or tolerate a wider circle of misery. The wounded limped past the screams, and Mr. Tanimoto ran past them. ...he was filled with compassion for those who were trapped, and as a Japanese he was overwhelmed by the shame of being unhurt, and he prayed as he ran, "God help them and take them out of the fire."

Mr. Tanimoto found about twenty men and women on the sandspit. He drove the boat onto the bank and urged them to get aboard. They did not move and he realized that they were too weak to lift themselves. He reached down and took a woman by the hand, but her skin slipped off in huge, glove-like pieces. He was so sickened by this that he had to sit down for a moment. Then he got out into the water and though a small man, lifted several of the men and women, who were naked, into his boat. Their backs and breasts were clammy, and he remembered uneasily what the great burns he had seen during the day had been like: yellow at first, then red and swollen, with the skin sloughed off, and finally, in the evening, suppurated and smelly.

Outside the park, Father Kleinsorge found a faucet that still worked-part of the plumbing of a vanished house-and he filled his vessels and returned. When he had given the wounded the water, he made a second trip. This time, the woman by the bridge was dead. On his way back with the water, he got lost on a detour around a fallen tree, and he looked for his way through the woods, he heard a voice ask from the underbrush, "Have you anything to drink?" He saw a uniform. Thinking there was just one soldier, he approached with the water. When he penetrated the bushes he saw there were about twenty men, and they were all in exactly the same nightmarish state: their faces were wholly burned, their eye sockets were hollow, the fluid from their melted eyes had run down their cheeks. (They must have had their faces upturned when the bomb went off; perhaps they were antiaircraft personnel.) Their mouths were mere swollen, pus-covered wounds, which they could not bear to stretch enough to admit the spout of the teapot. So Father Kleinsorge got a large piece of grass and drew out the stem so as to make a straw, and gave them all water to drink that way. One of them said, "I can't see anything." Father Kleinsorge answered, as cheerfully as he could, "There's a doctor at the entrance to the park. He's busy now, but he'll come soon and fix your eyes, I hope."

Miss Sasaki, who had already been moved three times, twice by ship, was taken at the end of August to an engineering school, also at Hatsukaichi. Because her leg did not improve but swelled more and more, the doctors at the school bound it with crude splints and took her by car, on September 9th, to the Red Cross Hospital in Hiroshima. This was the first chance she had had to look at the ruins of Hiroshima; the last time she had been carried through the city's streets, she had been hovering on the edge of consciousness. Even though the wreckage had been described to her, and though she was still in pain, the sight horrified and amazed her, and there was something she noticed about it that particularly gave her the creeps.

Over everything-up through the wreckage of the city, in gutters, along the riverbanks, tangled among tiles and tin roofing, climbing on charred tree trunks-was a blanket of fresh, vivid, lush, optimistic green; the verdancy rose even from the foundations of ruined houses. Weeds already hid the ashes, and wild flowers were in bloom among the city's bones. The bomb had not only left the underground organs of plants intact; it had stimulated them. Everywhere were bluets and Spanish bayonets, goosefood, morning glories and day lilies, the hairy-fruited bean, purslane and clobur and sesame and panic grass and feverfew. Especially in a circle in the center, sickle senna grew in extraordinary regeneration, not only standing among the charred remnants of the same plant but pushing up in new places, among bricks and through cracks in the asphalt. It actually seemed as if a load of sickle-senna had been dropped along with the bomb.

Dr. Sasaki and his colleagues at the Red Cross Hospital watched the unprecedented disease unfold and at last evolved a theory about its nature. It had, they decided, three stages. The first stage had been all over before the doctors even knew they were dealing with a new sickness; it was the direct reaction to the bombardment of the body, at the moment when the bomb went off, by neutrons, beta particles, and gamma rays. The apparently uninjured people who had died so mysteriously in the first few hours or days had succumbed in this first stage. It killed ninety-five percent of the people within a half-mile of the center, and many thousands who were further away. The doctors realized in retrospect that even though most of these dead had also suffered from burns and blast effects, they had absorbed enough radiation to kill them. The rays simply destroyed body cells-caused their nuclei to degenerate and broke their walls. Many people who did not die right away came down with nausea, headache, diarrhea, malaise, and fever, which lasted several days. Doctors could not be certain whether some of these symptoms were the result of radiation or nervous shock.

The second stage set in ten or fifteen days after the bombing. Its first symptom was falling hair. Diarrhea and fever, which in some cases went as high as 106 came next. Twenty-five to thirty days after the explosion, blood disorders appeared: gums bled, the white-blood-cell count dropped sharply, and petechiae appeared on the skin and mucous membranes. The drop in the number of white blood corpuscles reduced the patient's capacity to resist infection, so open wounds were unusually slow in healing and many of the sick developed sore throats and mouths. The two key symptoms, on which the doctors came to base their prognosis, were fever and the lowered white-corpuscule count. If fever remained steady and high, the patient's chances for survival were poor. The white count almost always dropped below four thousand; a patient whose count fell below one thousand had little hope of living. Toward the end of the second stage, if the patient survived, anemia, or a drop in the red blood count, also set in.

The third stage was the reaction that came when the body struggled to compensate for its ills-when, for instance, the white count not only returned to normal but increased to much higher than normal levels. In this stage, many patients died of complications, such as infections in the chest cavity. Most burns healed with deep layers of pink, rubbery scar tissue, known as keloid tumors. The duration of the disease varied, depending on the patient's constitution and the amount of radiation he had received. Some victims recovered in a week; with others the disease dragged on for months.

Since the blood disorders were, in the long run, the predominant factor in the disease, some of the Japanese doctors evolved a theory as to the seat of the delayed sickness. They thought that perhaps gamma rays, entering the body at the time of the explosion, made the phosphorus in the victims' bones radioactive, and that they in turn emitted beta particles, which, though they could not penetrate far through flesh, could enter the bone marrow, where blood is manufactured, and gradually tear it down. Whatever its source, the disease had some baffling quirks. Not all the patients exhibited all the main symptoms. People who suffered flash burns were protected, to a considerable extent, from radiation sickness. Those who had lain quietly for days or even hours after the bombing were much less liable to get sick than those who had been active. Gray hair seldom fell out. And, as if nature were protecting man against his own ingenuity, the reproductive processes were affected for a time; men became sterile, women had miscarriages, menstruation stopped.

It would be impossible to say what horrors were embedded in the minds of the children who lived through the day of the bombing in Hiroshima. On the surface, their recollections, months after the disaster, were of an exhilarating adventure. Toshio Nakamura, who was ten at the time of the bombing, was soon able to talk freely, even gaily, about the experience, and a few weeks before the anniversary he wrote the following matter-of-fact essay for his teacher at Noboricho Primary School: "The day before the bomb, I went for a swim. In the morning, I was eating peanuts. I saw a light. I was knocked to little sister's sleeping place. When we were saved, I could only see as far as the tram. My mother and I started to pack our things. The neighbors were walking around burned and bleeding. Hataya-san told me to run away with her. I said I wanted to wait for my mother. We went to the park. A whirlwind came. At night a gas tank burned and I saw the reflection in the river. We stayed in the park one night. Next day I went to Taiko Bridge and met my girl friends Kikuki and Murakami. They were looking for their mothers. But Kikuki's mother was wounded and Murakami's mother, alas, was dead."

Hiroshima Memories-In A Flash, Their World Was Lost, and the War In The Pacific Was Won

Sally Macdonald

It was a beautiful summer morning, and people were beginning to stir.

Fred Hasegawa was waiting for a train to take him downtown to work, widening the streets of Hiroshima for fire lanes. Not far away, Mary Fujita was catching a streetcar for an early dental appointment. Ken Nakano and other middle-school students were gathering at the sweet potato patch they had been assigned to work.

Hours earlier at Tinian in the South Pacific, one of the staging areas for that planned invasion, Richard Wilson wondered what was up with the mysterious airmen who had landed their B-29s on the north field, had the planes serviced in secrecy and then taken off in the night.

One of the B-29s from Tinian, the Enola Gay, dropped an atomic bomb on Hiroshima that morning. It was an attempt, American military leaders said, to shorten the war and circumvent an invasion of Japan. Three days later, another atomic bomb was dropped on Nagasaki. Japan's leaders announced their surrender within days, on Aug. 14.

That one searing atomic moment over Hiroshima 50 years ago changed the lives of everyone involved in the war. Civilians like Hasegawa, Fujita and Nakano were devastated by the bomb. They are among the few to survive it into old age. Here are their stories:

Fred Hasegawa was 15. His parents had immigrated to Hawaii, where he was born. His father had worked in the cane fields and owned a general store on Maui before retiring in 1933 and moving the family back home to Japan.

There were 250 students in Hasegawa's high school class. School had been closed, but every morning the students took a train from the outskirts of Hiroshima, where they lived, into the city to work for civil defense - half in a weapons factory, assembling parts, and half tearing down houses to cut a fire lane through the city in case of a B-29 attack.

On Aug. 6, Hasegawa found the weapons factory closed because some necessary parts hadn't arrived. He and the other factory students were told to take the train and join their classmates on the fire lanes.

The bomb hit suddenly. One moment they were standing on the train platform. The next a blinding light shattered the morning sun and a cloud of dust seemed to put it out. Hasegawa was knocked to the ground by the concussion.

"I didn't know what had happened. We had natural gas tanks, and I thought maybe they had blown up. I crawled behind a building. I couldn't hear anything. My hearing was gone in the explosion. There was dust everywhere, and I couldn't see anything. I only wanted to go home."

By the time Hasegawa gathered himself to start walk-

Hiroshima: The Aftermath

"We have discovered the most terrible bomb in the history of the world. It may be the fire destruction prophesied in the Euphrates Valley Era..."

—President Harry S. Truman

ing toward home, what little was left of the city was in flames. Survivors were beginning to stagger through the streets looking for help or home.

Hasegawa skirted the inner city and walked around the bay. People were dragging themselves into the water to soothe their burns. He saw a schoolmate, a boy so badly burned he was almost unrecognizable. The boy's skin seemed to be dripping from his arm.

"When I got closer to the city, everybody's faces were so swollen they didn't look like people. I thought they were dead. You couldn't tell men from women. They were all asking for water. There were too many of them."

Hasegawa was lucky. The train station was three miles from ground zero. He wasn't badly injured, and no one in his family was killed.

Hasegawa, a dentist who returned to the United States to graduate from the University of Washington, is among about two dozen atom-bomb survivors in the Seattle area. Every other year, a group of doctors from a joint Japanese-U.S. research foundation comes from Japan to study them and others from Oregon and British Columbia.

They've lived through the greatest danger of cancers and other sicknesses that can be traced to the bomb's radiation and the doctors say their progeny don't seem to be suffering the genetic damage that was feared in the early years.

Ken Nakano remembers light. Ken Nakano was born in Portland in 1931, and his family had moved back to Hiroshima when he was about 6.

He remembers seeing the shiny B-29 flying overhead and two white parachutes drifting down over the city. He remembers the light and a huge explosion. He was about a mile from the blast site.

The first thing he noticed was the hood of his jacket had caught fire and burned the left side of his face. He burned his hand trying to put the fire out. He reached home about 1 in the afternoon.

Nakano's mother had been about 1,500 feet from ground zero. She came out of the blast without a scratch. But she died four days later of radiation poisoning. She was among the 40,000 Hiroshima residents who survived the bomb but died before the end of the year.

After the war, Nakano joined the American army. He reserved four years in the military and graduated from the University of Washington. This summer he retired from Boeing.

The bomb exploded a half-mile away from Mary Fujita's streetcar stop. She was thrown out and under it by the explosion. When she crawled out, her clothing was gray with dust but her straw hat was still miraculously on her head.

Five years earlier, her husband, Kango, and son, Gene, had left their adopted home in the southwestern Washington town of South Bend to return to Japan for an extended family visit. When war shut down transportation between Japan and the U.S., they, like many American residents, were trapped in Japan.

Mary and Gene stayed in the city, in her uncle's home, so Gene, who was 16, could go to school; Kango lived 78 miles away on his family farm, where he grew their food.

On Aug. 6, Mary, who was 37, woke Gene early so he could beat rush-hour traffic to work packing military rations. Kango, who happened to be in town visiting, drove off on his motorcycle to do an errand in the government offices downtown.

Mary saw the flash as she stepped into the streetcar. She and the driver were blown out the door together, and they stood up at the same time. All around them was devastation, silence and an unnatural darkness. The driver had a huge piece of glass protruding from where her nose should have been. They talked about finding a hospital and realized there probably were no hospitals. Nothing was as it had been.

"I looked down at myself and I wasn't burned," she says. "I had my straw hat, my clothes, my shoes. The driver was taller than I was. I think she made a shadow for me and kept me from being burned."

Mary ran the three miles home. The people she saw on the way "didn't look like Japanese people, their hair all kinked up and gray with ashes, no clothes, their skin burned. I thought I must be in a different country."

Gene came home that evening, carrying a schoolmate who was so badly injured Mary scarcely recognized him. They took him to his relatives, and the next day began the search for Kango. Mary found his motorcycle three days later, outside where the government offices had been. But she never found her husband.

Mary and Gene suffered some radiation sickness beginning soon after the bomb fell. She was weak and nauseated and lost most of her hair. He had diarrhea and his gums bled. Whatever problems she has now, though, she blames on old age.

The Fujitas returned to Washington in 1950. Mary never remarried. She continues to work for peace and an end to warfare.

"They say they had to drop the bomb, but it was a great sacrifice. I hope they never use the atomic bomb again. Other bombs, you get hurt or killed. But this one hurts into the future. I hate war, but it looks like we can't avoid it."

It is so interesting to note what the citizens of Hiroshima called the first atom bomb.

About a week after the bomb dropped, a vague, incomprehensible rumor reached Hiroshima—that the city had been destroyed by the energy released when atoms were somehow split in two. The weapon was referred to in this word-of-mouth report as genshi bakudan—the root characters of which can be translated as "original child bomb." No one understood the idea or put any more credence in it than in the powdered magnesium and such things. Newspapers were being brought in from other cities, but they were still confining themselves to extremely general statements, such as Domei's assertion on August 12th: "There is nothing to do but admit the tremendous power of this inhuman bomb." Already, Japanese physicists had entered the city with Lauritsen electroscopes and Neher electrometers; they understood the idea all too well.

The nuclear age began with the birth of the "original child bomb." Very soon now, man's governments and religions will come to an end with the birth of the nine-month nuclear baby and the adult wars which will follow.

The Nations Were Angry

The competition and hatred among the nations are like that seen among the religions. All nations would prefer to destroy or be destroyed rather than submit to another's rule or religion that they believe to be false. The early settlers of America who fled Europe because of persecution would rather have suffered death than to submit to another religion. The same holds true for the Holy Men of Old who were inspired to write The Book of Yahweh. The Inspired Writings show the persecutions that the Saints, those who kept Yahweh's Laws, suffered. Notice:

● Hebrews 11:36-40—

36 And others had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yes, and of chains and imprisonment;

37 They were stoned, they were sawed in two, were tested, were slain with the sword. They wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins, being destitute, afflicted, tormented; cruelly treated—

38 Of whom the world was not worthy. They wandered in deserts and mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth.

39 And all these, having obtained a Righteous report through the Faith, have not received the promise;

40 Yahweh having provided some better thing for us, that they, without us, would not be made perfect.

Even today in America, religious people become unjust judges and use their offices to persecute those of another religion.

Children are humiliated in schools by teachers and sometimes forced to eat pork or do things that are against their religions. But most people do not give in to persecution, nor does one country usually give in to another.

When people are taken over by force they never truly submit, they look for ways of setting themselves free from forced rule. That's what we see among all nations today. They fear other aggressive religions and nations. They also hate aggressive religions and nations. Notice also:

● Hebrews 11:23-27—

23 By the Faith Mosheh, when he was born, was hidden three moons by his parents, because they saw he was a beautiful child; and they were not afraid of the king's decree.

24 By the Faith Mosheh, when he became of age, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter,

25 Choosing rather to suffer affliction with the People of Yahweh, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season;

26 Esteeming the reproach of a Saint greater riches than the treasures in Egypt; for he was looking to the recompense of the Reward.

27 Motivated by the Faith, he left Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king; for as though seeing the Invisible One, he endured.

Notice what is Prophesied and seen among the nations today.

● Mattithyah 24:7, 21-22—

7 For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be famines, and pestilences; disease epidemics, and earthquakes in place after place:

21 For then will be Great Tribulation, such as has not come to pass since the beginning of the world to this time—no, nor ever will be.

22 And unless those days were shortened, there would no flesh be saved; but for the Elect's sake, those days will be shortened.

In Revelation Chapter 11, we plainly see the state of the nations for this time period.

● Revelation 11:18—

And the nations were angry, for Your Judgment has come; and the time of the dead, that they should be sentenced, and that You should give Reward to Your Servants the Prophets, and to all the Saints—to those who reverence Your Name, small and great; and should judge those who destroy the earth.

Remember, the Hebrew word that is translated angry in this verse means provoke, enrage, violent, abhorrence, indignation, vengeance, and wrath. The word angry pretty well sums up the attitude seen among the nations today. This is exactly what we see in the following headlines.

● Russia and China warn UN not to antagonize Iran

● Israel Warns, Threatens Russia On Iran Arms Sale

● Iran buys surface-to-surface missiles capable of hitting Europe

● North Korea may have fuel for 13 nuclear weapons

● N Korea threatens to 'wipe out' US forces

● Putin slams U.S.

● Wrap: Russia's Ivanov warns of rising nuclear threat, talks up Iran

● Ministers play blame-game as WTO fails to clinch trade deal

● Rape in war 'a growing problem'

● Warplanes buzz Syrian leader

● Gaza militants say fired chemical-tipped warhead

● Revelation 9:14, 18—

14 Saying to the Last Malak which had the trumpet: Loose the four angels who are bound for the great River Euphrates!

18 By these three were the third part of man killed: by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone, which issued out of their mouths.

The war that went on between Israel and Lebanon was part of a larger scheme that will lead to the fulfillment of Prophecy—a third part of man killed over a fourth part of the earth. This, in turn, will lead to four-fifths of the earth's population being killed. Notice the recent words of Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice and President George W. Bush.

Mideast-bound Rice rejects quick truce, seeks broad solution

by Mike McCarthy

Washington — The United States remains opposed to an immediate Middle East ceasefire because it would not end the threat posed by Hezbollah militants, Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice said Friday as she prepared for a trip to the region.

'A ceasefire would be a false promise if it simply returns us to the status quo,' Rice told reporters, 'That would be a guarantee of future violence.'

'We do seek an end to the current violence, and we seek it urgently,' Rice said. 'More than that, we also seek to address the root causes of that violence so that a real and endurable peace can be established'.

'The world may be seeing the birth pains of a new Middle East,' she told reporters in Washington.

www.monstersandcritics.com

Bush calls for sustainable ceasefire

by Mike McCarthy

Washington — US President George W Bush on Tuesday said that a sustainable ceasefire must be reached to end the conflict in Lebanon as US Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice was in Israel outlining a proposal for an international peacekeeping force.

'We want to address the root causes of the violence in the area,' he said. 'And, therefore, our mission and our goal is to have a lasting peace, not a temporary peace, but something that lasts.

www.monstersandcritics.com

Notice what the Scriptures say about this 'lasting peace'.

● I Thessalonians 5:3—

For when they will say: Peace—true peace! then sudden destruction comes upon them, as labor pains upon a woman with child; and they will not escape.

Not Just War, But Nuclear War In the Last Generation

The Savior showed that there would be wars and rumors of wars. The wars that take place at the end, that could darken the sun, would be engaged by angry nations. Nuclear war is what's prophesied for this end time, and we can clearly see the threats being made among the nations.

These wars do not occur all at once. The initial wars will not darken the sun. Keep this in mind, as we proceed.

● Revelation 9:18,—

By these three were the third part of man killed: by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone, which issued out of their mouths.

The first war only kills a third part of man. We also see where this nuclear war will take place—in and around the great River Euphrates.

● Revelation 7:1-2—

1 And after these things I saw four messengers standing on the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, so that the wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree.

2 And I saw another Malak ascending from the east, having the Seal of the Living Father; and he cried with a loud voice to the four messengers, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea.

This prophesied war will be nuclear and will take place in the area of the great River Euphrates.

The word translated bound in Revelation 9:14 comes from a Hebrew word that means bound by necessity; lying in the nature of the case; as is used in Yahchanan 3:30 translated must, imposed by a condition of mind; necessity in reference to what is required to attain some end; necessity established by a council or party of people as the democratic and republican parties.

This time period that started September 12, 2006 only kills a third part of man in and around the great River Euphrates.

● Revelation 9:18—

By these three were the third part of man killed...

● Revelation 9:14—

...Loose the four messengers who are bound for the great River Euphrates!

This war does not involve all nations at first, but in the thirteen months that follow, all nations will be involved in nuclear war.

This war is initiated by the Quartet, which holds it back, for a short while.

● Revelation 7:1-3—

1 And after these things I saw four messengers standing on the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, so that the wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree.

2 And I saw another Malak ascending from the east, having the Seal of the Living Father; and he cried with a loud voice to the four messengers, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea,

3 Saying: Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, until we have sealed the Servants of our Father in their foreheads.

We see in the next Scriptures that this Prophecy is for a time of plenty, this is indicated by the price of the wheat and barley; but there is a concern about the oil and wine (pleasure).

● Revelation 6:5-6—

5 And when He had opened the third seal, I heard the third creature say: Come and see. And I looked, and behold, a black horse; and he who sat on it had a pair of scales in his hand.

6 And I heard a voice in the midst of the four living creatures, saying: A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny; and see you do not hurt the oil and the wine.

This war (the nuclear baby) is shown to first only involve a fourth part of the earth in and around the great River Euphrates.

● Revelation 6:7-8—

7 And when He had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature say: Come and see.

8 And I looked, and behold, a pale horse. And the name of him who sat upon it was Death; and Sheol; the grave, followed with him. And power was given to them over a fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with pestilence—the same under the authority of the beast of the earth.

The word translated beast in Revelation 6:8 is identified by the Prophet Daniyl as governments of the people and by the people. Daniyl also shows the nuclear burning that we see in Revelation.

● Daniyl 7:11-12—

11 I beheld, then, because of the voice of the great words which the horn spoke; I beheld until the beast was slain, and his body destroyed, and given to the nuclear blast.

12 As concerning the rest of the beasts, they had their governments taken away; yet their lives were prolonged for a season and time.

When Will This Nuclear Burning Start?

You must keep in mind all the Prophecies before this time period and know that the time period we are in leads to the destruction of man's governments of and by the people. They are prophesied to end with nuclear war that will darken the sun but that will not take place until the last part of this last 3½ year period.

● Mattithyah 24:21-22, 29—

21 For then will be Great Tribulation, such as has not come to pass since the beginning of the world to this time—no, nor ever will be.

22 And unless those days were shortened, there would no flesh be saved; but for the Elect's sake, those days will be shortened.

29 Immediately, but after the Great Tribulation of those days will the sun be darkened, and the moon will not give her light, and the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken.

This first nuclear war will eventually lead to the involvement of all nations. These wars will intensify in the thirteen months that remain after the initial time period beginning September 12, 2006, until the final burning blast that darkens the sun.

If the wars that darken the sun were to take place now, mankind would perish before the final part of Yahweh's Plan is accomplished.

This Plan could not be accomplished without foretelling these events so that you will know there is no real power except that of Yahweh.

Remember what you have read thus far and compare that with the following Scriptures.

● Isayah 44:7-8—

7 And Who, as I, will foretell, and set it in order for Me, since I appointed the ancient people? And the things which are coming, and will come, let them foretell them.

8 Do not fear, nor be afraid. Have I not told you from that time, and have declared; You are My Witnesses! Is there a source of power except Me? Truly, there is no other Rock; I know not one.

● Isayah 45:4-5—

4 For Yaaqob My Servant's sake, and Yisrayl My chosen; and I call you by your name (Yaaqob); and I surname you (Yisrayl), though you did not recognize that it was Me.

5 I am Yahweh, and there is no other apart from Me. There is no God (El). I will strengthen you with this Knowledge, though you did not recognize that it was Me.

Remember, Yahweh shows that everything is done according to His Plan from the beginning.

● Yahchanan 1:1-4—

1 In the beginning, at Abel was the Plan of Yahweh, and this Plan at Abel was with Yahweh, and this Plan at Abel was Yahweh's.

2 The same Plan was in the beginning with Yahweh.

3 All things were done according to it, and without it nothing was done, that was done.

4 In this Plan was life, and that life was the light to mankind.

The Prophet Daniyl saw the Two Witnesses, and in his vision he saw one of them declare when The End would be. We will discuss the Two Witnesses in detail in the next chapter, but for now notice the following.

● Daniyl 12:4-7—

4 But you, O Daniyl, shut up the words, and seal the book to the time of The End; many will run to and fro, and Knowledge will be increased.

5 Then I, Daniyl, looked; and behold, there stood two others, one on this side of death; one who was alive, and the other on the other side of death; one who was dead.

6 And one said to the Man Clothed in Linen, who on that future day is teaching: How long will it be to the end of these wonders?

7 Then I heard the Man Clothed in Linen, who on that future day is teaching, when he held up his right hand and his left hand toward heaven, and vowed by Him Who lives forever, that: It will be for a time, times, and a half, when Yahweh will have accomplished pouring out His Power through His Holy People, all these things will be finished.

We also know from what the Savior showed that the end of man's governments comes with the final all out nuclear wars that occur in the very last part of this last 3½ years of the seven-year peace plan. As we saw in Chapter Two, the last 3½ years of this plan was signed back into action by President George W. Bush and Ariel Sharon on April 13, 2004. The end of that time of action will be October 13, 2007.

Yahweh shows us that the activity in and around the great River Euphrates leads to a nuclear war that will lead to the final nuclear war that will darken the sun. Carefully read the following verses.

● Revelation 9:14-15—

14 Saying to the Sixth Malak which had the trumpet: Loose the four mesengers who are bound for the great River Euphrates!

15 And the four messengers were loosed, which were prepared for an hour, and a day, and a moon; month, and a year, in order to slay the third part of man.

Remember, Yahweh shows in Daniyl 12:7 the final end which will be the end of the last 3½ years of the seven-year peace plan. Yahweh then shows us in Revelation 9:15 that the beginning of nuclear activity will be thirteen months before the final end.

Yahweh shows us in this Prophecy how to determine when the nuclear wars will begin. If we count backwards from the end of the 3½ year period, which is October 13, 2007, we will see when the nuclear baby was prophesied to be conceived (September 12, 2006).

► If we start at the end of this time period, which is October 13, 2007, and come back one year, we will be at October 13, 2006

- ◆ Then come back one month (moon), we will be at September 13, 2006
- ◆ Then come back one day, we will be at September 12, 2006.

September 12, 2006 was only the beginning of the time period leading to all nuclear wars that will take place in this thirteen month period. The final nuclear wars will be at the end of this thirteen month period. They will be the ones that darken the sun, as the Prophets and Savior foretold.

● Mattithyah 24:21-22, 29—

21 For then will be Great Tribulation, such as has not come to pass since the beginning of the world to this time—no, nor ever will be.

22 And unless those days were shortened, there would no flesh be saved; but for the Elect's sake, those days will be shortened.

29 Immediately, but after the Great Tribulation of those days will the sun be darkened, and the moon will not give her light, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken.

All governments and their religions will be involved in these wars. They will try to pull every man and woman into these wars before the sun is darkened, which is the final stopping point.

Notice what the Prophet Isayah was inspired to write.

● Isayah 13:9—

Behold, the Day of Yahweh comes, wonderful, and with the time of sentencing and a zealous administration of Justice. The land will be laid desolate; and its sinners will be destroyed from it.

He said that sinners will be destroyed. Remember, sin is the breaking of Yahweh's Laws.

● I Yahchanan 3:4, 7-8—

4 Whoever commits sin, transgresses also the Law; for sin is the transgression of the Law.

7 Little children, let no man deceive you; he who practices Righteousness is Righteous, just as He is Righteous.

8 He who commits sin is of the devil, for the devil has sinned from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of Yahweh was manifested; that He might destroy the works of the devil.

This means that Yahweh is offering protection to those who repent of sin, the breaking of Yahweh's Law. We see this again in:

● Revelation 18:1-5—

1 And after these things I saw another Malak come down from heaven, having great authority; and the earth was enlightened with His Glory.

2 And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying: Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of demons, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

3 For all nations have drunk of the cup of her destruction because of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her; and the merchants of the earth have grown rich through the abundance of her delicacies.

4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying: Come out of her, My People, so that you do not partake in her sins, and so that you do not receive of her plagues,

5 For her sins have reached unto heaven, and Yahweh has remembered her transgressions against His Laws!

The world, as a whole, will not repent. They will continue to rebel against Yahweh's Laws, pretending to be Righteous yet knowing all the while they are breaking the Laws. They even break the Ten Commandments that they once stood upon. Yes, they will continue in their sins and murders.

The nuclear wars will continue after September 12, 2006; in fact, they will become worse.

● Revelation 9:14-15—

14 Saying to the Sixth Malak which had the trumpet: Loose the four messengers who are bound for the great River Euphrates!

15 And the four messengers were loosed, which were prepared for an hour, and a day, and a moon; month, and a year, in order to slay the third part of man.

This first nuclear war only covers a fourth part of the earth, killing a third part of man, as we see in Revelation 9:15 and Revelation 6:8.

● Revelation 6:8—

And I looked, and behold, a pale horse. And the name of him who sat upon it was Death; and Sheol; the grave, followed with him. And power was given to them over a fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with pestilence—the same under the authority of the beast of the earth.

In Revelation 6:12, we see that the sun is darkened.

● Revelation 6:12—

And I looked when He had opened the sixth seal, and behold, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood.

This is the same time period spoken of by the Savior.

● Mattithyah 24:29—

Immediately, but after the Great Tribulation of those days will the sun be darkened, and the moon will not give her light, and the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken.

Nuclear war in one-fourth part of the earth will not darken the sun. Many nations will be involved when the sun is darkened. This means that the nuclear wars will continue to increase through the thirteen months that remain after September 12, 2006. Yahweh shows us that mankind will continue to sin, causing destruction up to the very end.

● Revelation 9:20-21—

20 And the rest of the men who were not killed by these plagues, still did not repent of the works of their hands, that they should not worship demons, and gods (elohim, teraphim) of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood: which can neither see, nor hear, nor walk;

21 Neither did they repent of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

As Labor Pains Upon A Woman With Child

The House of Yahweh is not wrong on these Prophecies. September 12, 2006 was the starting point for nuclear wars that will kill a third part of man over a fourth part of the earth in and around the great River Euphrates but it will not stop there. To understand how these birth pains will progress, you must apply all Prophecies concerned. Notice with me:

● I Thessalonians 5:3—

...as labor pains upon a woman with child...

Yahshua said we must believe all that the Prophets have spoken. Another said these men were moved by Holy Spirit in writing the Scriptures. Yahshua also said by every Word of Yahweh does man live.

The Prophecy in I Thessalonians Chapter 5 is not speaking of just any time of trouble, it's speaking of the time (3½ years) that Daniyl spoke of in Daniyl Chapters 7, 9, and 12 and Yahshua spoke of in Mattithyah 24. This is a time (3½ years) that leads to the darkening of the sun. Notice two things:

● I Thessalonians 5:3—

...as labor pains upon a woman with child...

It takes nine months to complete a woman's pregnancy. If this nine-month cycle is applied to the thirteen months that we have left, at the end of the nine months a third part of man will be killed (Revelation 9:18) in and around the area of the great River Euphrates (Revelation 9:14) by the actions of the Quartet (Revelation 9:14) over a fourth part of the earth (Revelation 6:8).

This killing over a fourth part of the earth is done with nuclear weaponry. This is shown in the three colors given to us in:

● Revelation 9:17-18—

17 And in my vision, I saw the horses and those who sat upon them like this: They had breastplates of fire; red, and of jacinth; blue, and brimstone; yellow, and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions; and out of their mouths issued fire, and smoke, and brimstone.

18 By these three were the third part of man killed: by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone, which issued out of their mouths.

These three colors make up the nuclear mushroom cloud. We showed this mushroom cloud earlier in this chapter.

Another Prophecy shows destruction comes suddenly.

● I Thessalonians 5:3—

For when they will say: Peace—true peace! then sudden destruction comes upon them, as labor pains upon a woman with child; and they will not escape.

I am told by midwives that some mothers start experiencing certain pains right at the start of pregnancy. Although insignificant, this pain is part of the nine months of pregnancy. Please check out our website: www.yisraylhawkins.com for details concerning the conception of the nuclear baby.

By June 12, 2007 the nine-month nuclear baby will have been born, causing a third part of man to be killed over a fourth part of the earth in and around the great River Euphrates with nuclear wars.

The Conception Of The Nuclear Baby On September 12th, 2006

Notice with me the Prophecy concerning this time period which leads to the coming of the Savior, Yahshua.

● I Thessalonians 4:16-17—

16 For Yahshua Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the Malak Gadol, and with the Trumpet of Yahweh. And the dead in Messiah will be raised first,

17 Then we who are alive and remain will be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet Yahshua in the air; and so will we ever be with Yahshua.

● I Thessalonians 5:1-3—

1 But concerning the times and the seasons, brothers, you have no need that I should write to you.

2 For you yourselves know perfectly that the Day of Yahweh so comes as a thief in the night.

3 For when they will say: Peace—true peace! then sudden destruction comes upon them, as labor pains upon a woman with child; and they will not escape.

This Prophecy shows that the first sudden destruction for this time period takes nine months to develop. This is the same time period shown in the Book of Revelation and as we can see in today's news, war has been growing steadily just like a baby grows in the womb since the first missile was fired September 12, 2006.

The following transcript contains portions of the speech President George Bush gave on September 11, 2006, and what occurred immediately after.

The birth pains were struck. They were struck the 12th of September, 2006. It was no accident that this was done. In fact, if you'll pay attention to the words, President Bush says what he's going to do in his speech.

Narrator: At five a.m. September 12, 2006, Middle East time, speaking from the White House in Washington, D.C., President George W. Bush addressed the world.

President Bush: Good evening. Five years ago, this date September the 11th was seared into America's memory. Nineteen men attacked us with a barbarity unequalled in our history. Our nation is being tested in a way that we have not been since the start of the Cold War.

Narrator: They call this speech an address to the nation, we call it an address to the world. In actuality, it was an address to the rest of the world more than to this nation. First, George Bush reminded us of what it is he is retaliating for, namely 9-11-2001.

President Bush: We saw what a handful of enemies can do with box cutters and plane tickets. We hear their threats to launch even more terrible attacks on our people. And we know that if they were able to get their hands on weapons of mass destruction, they would use them against us. On September the 11th, we learned that we must confront threats before they reach our shores, whether those threats come from terrorist networks or terrorist states.

Narrator: Then he declares his intention to use nuclear weapons. He declares his intention to use a first strike when he says we learned that America must confront threats before they reach [her] shores. He then says, America is willing to strike not only terrorists but other nations. George Bush calls them terrorist nations.

President Bush: And after 9-11, Saddam's regime posed a risk that the world could not afford to take.

Narrator: Saddam's regime posed a risk that the world could not afford to take. In other words, there are other regimes just as dangerous if not more. They, too, are risks [they] cannot afford to take.

President Bush: In the first days after the 9-11 attacks, I promised to use every element of national power to fight the terrorists wherever we find them. One of the strongest weapons in our arsenal is the power of freedom. The terrorists fear freedom as much as they do our firepower...

Narrator: He vowed to use every element of national power. Remember, he said, one of the strongest weapons is freedom and they fear [America's] fire power. Remember the word fear. Recently, the United States State Department published data showing that Russia is no longer able to counter any nuclear strike by the United States. It showed that the U.S. has nuclear dominance.

President Bush: Do we have the confidence to do in the Middle East what our fathers and grandfathers accomplished in Europe and Asia—what our fathers and grandfathers accomplished in Europe and Asia...

Narrator: What did [America] do in Europe and Asia? [America] used the atomic bomb at Hiroshima and Nagasaki.

President Bush: We look to the day when moms and dads throughout the Middle East see a future of hope and opportunity for their children. And when that good day comes, the clouds of war will part—the clouds of war will part—the clouds of war will part...

Narrator: One hour later, Michael Wittig recorded the following video at his home in Washington State. This is a shot heard round the world. While not every nation was capable of detecting this, Russia was able to see it and would have told the world. Bush did this to strike fear in all the nations and to show what it is he is capable of doing. It was the nuclear shot heard round the world.

News Reporter: We start with a spectacular sight in the skies over western Washington tonight.

News Reporter #2: Right around 7:30, our phones started ringing as viewers reported seeing a ball of flames shooting across the sky. Jim Forman joins us live now, with the video you're going to see. Jim:

Mr. Forman: Dennis, people who saw it say it was much larger than an airplane. They really hadn't seen anything like it before. The calls were coming generally from Pierce and Kitsap County and take a look at what folks were seeing.

Mr. Wittig: Looks like it's dropping straight down now.

Mrs. Wittig: Yeah.

Mr. Wittig: It's actually turning, April.

Mr. Forman: Michael Wittig and his wife were out back barbecuing when they saw this streaking through the sky.

Mr. Wittig: It's something on fire.

Mr. Forman: But what is it? They kept rolling as the fiery tail grew behind the mystery object.

Mrs. Wittig: Michael, it's on fire.

Mr. Wittig: Yeah. You can zoom in towards it.

Mr. Forman: It looked pretty bright and pretty--pretty big.

Mr. Wittig: Yeah, it was. It was pretty bright and big and it looks like it even got--at one time got more intense. It was like a kind of faded orange and then it got quite a bit brighter as it turned the corner.

Mr. Forman: King 5 News has contacted the Air Force, the FAA and local authorities. At this point, no one has an explanation as to just what streaked across the sky and just what was caught on tape.

Mr. Wittig: First impression was a meteorite, some kind of--something falling from the sky, you know, some kind of falling star or something. But once you see it turn the corner, you know, exactly that it's not—not anything that's falling. It's definitely under power. It actually turned twice.

Mr. Forman: Incredible pictures. Just what is it? Well, the hunt for answers continues. We talked to the Western Air Defense sector, those are the folks responsible for patrolling the skies over the northwest, down at McCord Air Force Base, they say they tracked nothing on radar. We're tracking the story. When we know more, we'll let you know. I'm Jim Forman, reporting live tonight.

Mr. Forman: King 5 News has contacted the Air Force, the FAA and local authorities. At this point, no one has an explanation as to just what streaked across the sky and just what was caught on tape.

We talked to the Western Air Defense sector, those are the folks responsible for patrolling the skies over the northwest, down at McCord Air Force Base, they say they tracked nothing on radar...

Narrator: They have a thing on the web and they're calling it a mystery object. It's a bright object and it's streaking across the sky above Washington state, near Seattle. They have a news cast from Channel Five in Seattle and the news reporter is--looks like he's all excited about this and he's saying that the FAA says it's a high altitude jet, but if you look at the video, it's clearly not a jet. Even the news reporter looks like he doesn't believe it's a jet. It's a rocket. It's moving much too fast to be a jet. And it makes a sharp, right turn at a very high speed, in about three seconds, it makes a complete right turn. And even if it was only going 700 miles an hour, and it looks like it's going much faster than that, it would be more G forces than a pilot could take. That would be over 10 Gs and most pilots can't take that many. I think it's going several thousand miles an hour, which means it would be pulling 20 or 30 G's which a pilot could never take. Even rockets don't turn like that but they would if they failed on launch or if they're shot down, like the Space Shuttle did when it blew up. You see the Space Shuttle, it goes in all different directions or any rocket when they launch them and they blow up on launch or they fail on launch, they start turning like this. So I think that this thing was a rocket. It's not a plane and it looks to me like they're not going to report this, they're going to try to hide it.

Here's a photo [shots of ICBM and mystery object shown] of an ICBM contrail; here's a still of the mystery object. Compare the two and you decide.

News Reporter: Now to the story that has a lot of people talking this morning. Last night we received dozens of phone calls from many of you, anxious to find out what that mysterious ball of flame was, shooting across the sky.

News Reporter #2: What the heck was that? Well this morning, we do have an answer—at least one answer. King 5's Tonya Mosley joins us from satellite center with more on this spectacular video and a possible government explanation. Tonya, good morning.

Ms. Mosley: Good morning, Brent. Well, viewers through Puget Sound reported seeing this light here in the sky. There are many theories out there on exactly what it was. This morning, the Federal Aviation Administration puts those theories to rest.

Mr. Wittig: Looks like it's dropping straight down now.

Mrs. Wittig: Yeah.

Mr. Wittig: It's actually turning, April.

Ms. Mosley: Michael Wittig and his wife were out barbecuing when they saw what appeared to be a ball of fire streaking through the sky.

Mr. Wittig: It's something on fire.

Ms. Mosley: Wittig immediately got out his home video camera and rolled as the fiery tail grew behind the mystery object.

Mr. Wittig: It was pretty bright and big and it looks like it even got—at one time got more intense. It was like a kind of faded orange and then it got quite a bit brighter as it turned the corner.

Ms. Mosley: Dozens of people called King 5, reporting the object, which was called everything from a falling star to a meteor. This morning, after careful review of what happened, FAA officials tell us the object was actually sun reflecting off the contrail of a jet. It's a rare occurrence, typically contrails are seen turning red or white when reflecting off the sun. And just to clarify, contrails usually pick up the entire color spectrum but viewers usually see white. They're also typically witnessed during or shortly after sunset. Live in the news room, Tonya Mosley. It's a rare occurrence, typically contrails are seen turning red or white when reflecting off the sun.

News Reporter #1: KIRO 7 Eyewitness News reporter Jeff Dubois is live at Boeing Field in Seattle, unraveling this bewildering mystery. Jeff:

Mr. Dubois: Penny, for the FAA and people here at Boeing Field who are trained to watch the sky, they might have known right away what was in the sky last night, but for the rest of us, including a KIRO viewer who caught it on video tape, it was a bewildering sight.

Mr. Wittig: Looks like it's dropping straight down now.

Mrs. Wittig: Yeah.

Mr. Wittig: It's actually turning, April.

Mrs. Wittig: Oh my gosh.

Mr. Dubois: A spectacular sight captured on home video. Michael Wittig of Puyallup called us after seeing what appeared to be a streak of flames stretching across the evening sky.

Mrs. Wittig: What is it?

Mr. Wittig: I don't know.

Mr. Dubois: Wittig and his wife weren't alone in their confusion. Dozens of people called KIRO TV and the FAA after spotting the image last night around 7 o'clock.

Mrs. Wittig: Oh, my gosh. Is that a plane?

Mr. Wittig: It's something on fire.

Mr. Dubois: As they watched, the streak got longer and longer, turning in the sky. Now, we talked to one worker here at a business at Boeing Field who doesn't necessarily buy that theory so we have checked with the National UFO Reporting Center and the Mutual UFO Network, two nationally recognized UFO organizations. We've e-mailed them to see if they can shed any light on this mystery, just haven't heard back from them yet. If we do, we'll let you know. Reporting live at Boeing Field, I'm Jeff Dubois.

Phone Call With Bill Kalligher Hermantown, MN:

Mr. Kalligher: Hello?

HOY Technician: Hello, is this Bill Kalligher?

Mr. Kalligher: Yes.

HOY Technician: Yeah, this is Tsephanyah Hawkins and I was just calling you to get your story as you--

Mr. Kalligher: Sure.

HOY Technician: --related it to Kahan Anayah earlier today. Okay. So why don't you begin. I'm recording this experience.

Mr. Kalligher: Well, on the morning of the 12th, after reading the newsletter for a week, going over it completely, I was, I guess, awaiting to see this event take place. And I woke up early, about 4:00. By 4:30, I decided to turn the news on, which I had never done before. I never turn the TV on in the morning before I go to work. But I turned it on that morning just out of curiosity's sake, I guess. And a little bit of world news came on, not a whole bunch of stuff, weather came on and then there was a--a little bit of a clip on a news broadcast that had happened out in Washington state where people were calling the police stations and they were also calling the military or trying to find out what this thing they were seeing in the sky was. And it happened to be caught on tape by a home video recorder and they showed it on the television set and it was this huge orange ball up in the sky, with a trail that just took up half of the film camera's screen and it was just burning through the sky and the guy was doing everything he could to keep the camera on it because it was just going through the sky so fast and they said that nobody knew what it was. There were no more reports on it and that's the last thing I saw on that whole thing and it kind of freaked me out.

HOY Technician: Great. So that put an impression in your mind as you saw it--

Mr. Kalligher: Oh, absolutely.

HOY Technician: Yeah. Okay. Now, I'm trying to think--there was nothing else you told Anayah earlier today--that was pretty much it, right?

Mr. Kalligher: Well, other than the fact that because I had anticipated seeing this Prophecy fulfilled, I was concerned and I wondered if maybe if--if there was for some reason because I know that the Scriptures say that there will be many strange wonders in the sky at these times and--and I know that was a great wonder because I have seen comets and I have seen things come out of the sky and burn through the heavens and stuff and they're blues and greens and I've never seen anything orange. And I guess the thing that I was wondering is if it was possible if it had been a missile and made out of iron and it didn't--and didn't work and iron burns in the atmosphere a brilliant orange. And that's the only thing I could ascertain from it and it was just freaking me out.

HOY Technician: So you were expecting that maybe that was a part of the fulfillment of the Prophecies you were talking about in the newsletter that you were reading.

Mr. Kalligher: Well, sure. I mean it didn't necessarily say it was going to be a nuclear explosion, it said there was going to be a nuclear attack and if there was a nuclear attack and a missile defused or a missile failed, I guess it would burn up in our atmosphere and if it--if the--if the body of it is made out of steel, it's gonna burn orange through the atmosphere.

HOY Technician: Yes.

Mr. Kalligher: So I was quite concerned by it.

HOY Technician: Can you--can you just say your name on here--on the tape.

Mr. Kalligher: My name is Bill Kalligher.

HOY Technician: Okay, Bill? Okay at least prior to today--prior to seeing that video, have you ever seen any of our material, other than the single newsletter?

Mr. Kalligher: That's the only thing I'd ever heard of and on the radio--on a local radio station, and the gentleman hung up and everybody at the place that I--that I was working with was pretty disturbed that the radio d.j. hung up on--I believe it was you?

HOY Technician: No, wouldn't have been me, but Yisrayl Hawkins.

Mr. Kalligher: Yeah, and they hung up on him and we were really disturbed that he hung up on him so we called and kind of griped a little bit to the radio station they shouldn't have done that and they gave us your number and one of the guys at work called you and it was quite interesting.

HOY Technician: Called Yisrayl? Called me, right, I spoke with him. That's correct.

Mr. Kalligher: Yeah, and then he got a bunch of flyers and we went and handed them out. That's--that's all I knew about you guys.

HOY Technician: Right. So the only thing that you would have known about us was off the one tv--I mean radio program--at that point in time was the radio program and the one newsletter.

Mr. Kalligher: That's correct, the radio program and the newsletter, yes.

The Trouble?

This trouble takes place in and around the great River Euphrates and involves the Quartet.

● Revelation 6:1, 7-8—

1 And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals, and I heard, as it were, one of the four beasts saying as with a voice like thunder: Come and see.

7 And when He had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth beast say: Come and see.

8 And I looked, and behold, a pale horse. And the name of him who sat upon it was Death; and Sheol; the grave, followed with him. And power was given to them over a fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with pestilence--the same under the authority of the beast of the earth.

Governments of the people and by the people are identified in the Inspired Scriptures as beasts or beastly systems. For full details of the history and Prophecy of these governments, you must get our books, The Mark of the Beast, Volumes 1 & 2.

In order to tie in the world ruling empires of Daniyl 7 with the four beasts of Revelation Chapters 6, 7, and 9, you need our books, The End and The Lost Faith of the Apostles and Prophets.

The four beasts of Revelation Chapter 6 are today's leading governing bodies of leading nations that are guided by the Catholic Church of Rome. The four messengers shown in Revelation Chapter 7 are the messengers selected by the people of the governments (beasts) of Revelation 6. With this information in mind, read the following Scriptures again.

● Revelation 6:1, 7-8—

1 And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals, and I heard, as it were, one of the four beasts saying as with a voice like thunder: Come and see.

7 And when He had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth beast say: Come and see.

8 And I looked, and behold, a pale horse. And the name of him who sat upon it was Death; and Sheol; the grave, followed with him. And power was given to them over a fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with pestilence--the same under the authority of the beast of the earth.

Please notice the four beasts in verse 1. This shows us, first of all, that there are four. These four are further clarified in Revelation Chapter 7 showing these are four messengers of the nations who have authority to actually hurt the earth with wars to try to prevent nuclear war.

The fourth beast (government) of the Quartet would be the United States, which was the last country to be developed on earth. The fourth is also shown to be the voice heard mostly for this troubled spot, a fourth part of the earth (verse 8) in and around the great River Euphrates as shown in Revelation Chapter 9.

The wars shown in Revelation Chapter 6 are held back for the Work of The House of Yahweh, which is done in this same time period shown in Revelation Chapter 7.

● Revelation 7:1-3—

1 And after these things I saw four messengers standing on the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, so that the wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree.

2 And I saw another Malak ascending from the east, having the Seal of the Living Father; and he cried with a loud voice to the four messengers, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea,

3 Saying: Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, until we have sealed the Servants of our Father in their foreheads.

Notice also in chapter 6 the last part of verse 8.

● Revelation 6:8—

...over a fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword (war)...

The Quartet's authority comes from the beast, meaning government, shown in:

● Daniyl 7:3—

And four great beasts came up from the sea, each different from the others.

These beasts are shown to be governments in:

● Daniyl 7:12—

As concerning the rest of the beasts, they had their governments taken away; yet their lives were prolonged for a season and time.

The governments give authority to the four messengers of the nations to hurt the earth (Revelation 7:1-3), that is, hurt the fourth part of the earth (Revelation 6:8) with war, hunger, and disease epidemics. Since September 12, 2006, the threat of nuclear war has been steadily gaining recognition among the nations over the fourth part of the earth in and around the great River Euphrates. Remember, the wars shown in Revelation 6:7-8 are shown to be held back in Revelation 7:1-3 but are finally turned loose in:

● Revelation 9:13-14—

13 And the Last Malak sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before Yahweh,

14 Saying to the Last Malak which had the trumpet: Loose the four messengers who are bound for the great River Euphrates!

The four messengers here are the same four spoken of in Revelation Chapters 6 and 7—the Quartet that we see continually in the world news today. Notice verse 14...loose the four messengers (Quartet) and notice also the great River Euphrates.

This nuclear baby takes nine months to fully develop into nuclear war over the fourth part of the earth. Remember, every act is counted in the nine months of a birth, not just the birth itself. Therefore, every act after the Quartet was loosed is included in the nuclear baby's birth.

This first nuclear war is not over the whole earth, as the one which darkens the sun will be. These wars will be discussed later in this chapter. Also, keep in mind that an all out war by all nations who have use of the nuclear arsenal would darken the sun in a couple of days. Yahweh gave us much warning so we could get ready. The nuclear baby will be born in the last part of the nine month period that started September 12, 2006.

This war starts with conception and will cover only a fourth part of the earth. You won't see the actual nuclear war there until near the end of the nine month period that started September 12, 2006. One day of nuclear exchange can kill a third part of man over a fourth part of the earth.

Near the end of the thirteen month period (that's the nine-month nuclear baby and then the four months that follow), you will see nuclear wars that will involve all nations and will darken the sun. But keep in mind that the explosion itself is not all that is involved in a war.

Negotiations and preparations are included. Loading and preparing to load the missile are also included in a nuclear war. After the Quartet was loosed, the first missile was fired as a warning shot or fear tactic. Now all other plans are being put in order.

Isn't it amazing that a Prophecy written thousands of years ago would be developing exactly where the troubles are brewing today, in and around the great River Euphrates?

The following news articles show that the nations are indeed moving toward nuclear war. All of these articles were written after September 12, 2006 and the talk is all nuclear.

Israel tells Abbas: the new government must comply with the Quartet's demands

Bethlehem Ma'an Israel has reacted to the Palestinian efforts to form a national unity government by stressing that this government must adopt the conditions of the international community if the Palestinians wish to return to peace negotiations with Israel.

The Middle East Quartet of UN, EU, USA and Russia laid down three conditions for the Palestinian government to meet: recognize the state of Israel's right to exist, renounce violence, and accept all previously signed peace agreements between Israel and the Palestinians.

www.turkishweekly.net

Krauthammer: Attack on Iran Inevitable

Responding to a question on Iran, President Bush said on Tuesday (September 12, 2006): "It's very important for the American people to see the president try to solve problems diplomatically before resorting to military force."

"Before" implies that the one follows the other, Charles Krauthammer notes in the Washington Post.

"The signal is unmistakable. An aerial attack on Iran's nuclear facilities lies just beyond the horizon of diplomacy."

Krauthammer weighs the costs of destroying Iran's nuclear capabilities while at the same time warning of the costs of doing nothing.

Economic. An attack on Iran could send oil prices to $100 or even $150 a barrel overnight, leading to a worldwide recession.

Iran might suspend its own 2.5 million barrels a day of oil exports and close the Strait of Hormuz, through which 40 percent of the world's exports flow every day, by scuttling its own ships, laying mines or threatening to launch Silkworm anti-ship missiles at any passing tanker.

Today Iran is deterred from aggression against its neighbors by the threat of conventional retaliation. Such deterrence becomes far less credible against a nation armed with nuclear weapons, and jihadist Iran will gain control of the world's most strategic region.

"Against millenarian fanaticism glorying in a cult of death, deterrence is a mere wish. Is the West prepared to wager its cities with their millions of inhabitants on that feeble gamble? The decision is no more than a year away."

www.newsmax.com

World powers differing over Iran

Vienna, Sept. 13: World powers were struggling today to agree on joint statements on Iran at a UN nuclear agency meeting, with diplomats saying this showed divisions in how to crack down on Tehran.

The six nations which are trying to work out a nuclear deal with Iran "couldn't agree on a statement" at the International Atomic Energy Agency's (IAEA) 35-nation board of governors because "the United States was too tough," a western diplomat told a news agency.

Bureau Report

5 Years After 9/11, Many Nations Angry at United States

PARIS The nations of the world joined Monday in solemn remembrance of Sept. 11 - but for many, resentment of the United States flowed as readily as tears.

Critics say Americans have squandered the goodwill that prompted France's Le Monde newspaper to proclaim "We are all Americans" that somber day after the attacks, and the Iraq war and other U.S. policies have made the world less safe in the five years since.

Even German Chancellor Angela Merkel - an advocate of closer ties with Washington had veiled criticism of the United States, saying: "The ends cannot justify the means."

In a video broadcast Monday, al-Qaida No. 2 Ayman al-Zawahri warned that Persian Gulf countries and Israel would be al-Qaida's next targets and he called on Muslims to step up their resistance against the United States.

Israel's Haaretz daily expressed disappointment and cynicism in an op-ed piece that said: "This is Sept. 11 five years later: a political tool in the hands of the Bush administration."

In Pakistan, considered a major ally in the U.S.-led war on terror, newspapers ran bleak-toned opinion columns and editorials criticizing Western anti-terror policies and attitudes.

www.newsmax.com

'Muslim nations must have nukes'

Islamabad, September 15: Muslim nations in the Middle East should arm themselves with nuclear weapons to deter Western enemies from attacking them, former Malaysian Prime Minister Mahathir Mohamad said Friday.

"They should have tanks, warplanes, warships, guns and missiles," Mahathir said.

"Yes, they need to have nuclear weapons too, because only with the possession of such would their enemies be deterred from attacking them."

Mahathir, 81, who retired as prime minister in 2003, remains highly respected and influential throughout the Muslim world.

He is currently on a lecture tour of Central and South Asia, and was addressing a conference on religious tolerance in Pakistan's capital, Islamabad.

When asked whether Muslim nations in the Middle East should acquire nuclear weapons, Mahathir replied, "Well, if you allow Israel to have them, why should the others not have them too?"

Mahathir, a frequent critic of the Jewish state and its nuclear arsenal, stressed that he believed in a world free of nuclear weapons.

"My own opinion is that we should get rid of them," he said.

"All nations should (give up) nuclear weapons in particular the very belligerent United States."

He said that the U.S.-led war against terrorism has turned into a war against Islam and Muslims, because only countries such as Afghanistan, Iraq, Iran and Syria are being targeted.

www.expressindia.com

Hugo Chavez Will Support Iran If Attacked by U.S.

Venezuelan President Hugo Chavez pledged Thursday that Venezuela will support Iran if it is invaded as a result of the Middle Eastern nation's high stakes nuclear standoff with the United Nations Security Council.

"Iran is under threat; there are plans to invade Iran, hopefully it won't happen, but we are with you," Chavez told Iranian President Mahmoud Ahmadinejad at a meeting of the Group of 15 developing nations.

"Under any scenario we are with you just like we are with Cuba," Chavez said. "If the United States invades Cuba, blood will run... We will not have our arms crossed while bombs are falling in Havana or they carry Raul off in a plane."

www.newsmax.com

U.S. Blasts China Arms Sales to Iran, North Korea

WASHINGTON Top U.S. officials are criticizing what they call China's indiscriminate sale of weapons to rogue countries, suggesting that Beijing's shortsighted policies have made the world more dangerous.

"China's actions seem to us dangerously shortsighted," Rodman told the U.S.-China Economic and Security Review Commission, and advisory panel created by Congress. "China's proliferation behavior, past and present, can come back to haunt it, even placing its own political interest in jeopardy."

Rodman said the United States worries that Chinese companies have helped Iran as it tries to establish a self-sufficient ballistic missile production program. China wants to build relations with Iran, Rodman said, to secure access to oil and gas and, potentially, to find ways to control China's restive Muslim populations.

www.newsmax.com

U.N. Conference on Arms Ends in Failure

(AP) A two-week U.N. conference reviewing efforts to fight the illegal weapons trade ended in failure Friday, with nations too divided on too many contentious issues to agree on the best way to combat a scourge that fuels conflict worldwide. ...the illegal trade in small arms, worth about $1 billion a year.

Kissinger warns of 'war of civilizations'

WASHINGTON: Former US secretary of state Henry Kissinger warned on Wednesday that Europe and the United States must unite to head off a "war of civilizations" arising from a nuclear-armed Middle East.

In an opinion column in the Washington Post, the renowned foreign policy expert said the potential for a "global catastrophe" dwarfed lingering transatlantic mistrust left over from the Iraq war.

"...Both sides of the Atlantic should put their best minds together on how to deal with the common danger of a wider war merging into a war of civilizations against the background of a nuclear-armed Middle East."

Henry Kissinger, like Caspar Weinberger, obtained his information first hand from dealing with the Middle East, but Prophecy revealed these wars long before either of these men spoke of them.

Yes! Greater wars are merging and the last nuclear granddaddy of them all will be near the end of this thirteen month time period.

● Mattithyah 24:21-22, 29—

21 For then will be Great Tribulation, such as has not come to pass since the beginning of the world to this time—no, nor ever will be.

22 And unless those days were shortened, there would no flesh be saved; but for the Elect's sake, those days will be shortened.

29 Immediately, but after the Great Tribulation of those days will the sun be darkened, and the moon will not give her light, and the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken.

The nuclear baby will not end these wars. These nuclear wars will kill a third part of man (Revelation 9:15) over a fourth part of the earth (Revelation 6:8) in and around the great River Euphrates (Revelation 9:14). That is, the nuclear baby taking nine months ending June 12, 2007, will do this.

What proceeds after that is four more months of wars and the worst pains ever suffered by mankind ending only in earthquakes and nuclear wars that will darken the sun. The nuclear baby takes approximately nine months to fully develop which leaves four months to the prophesied end of man's governments of and by the people.

The Growth Of The Nuclear Baby Compared To What [Science] Tells Us Concerning The Growth Of A Baby In The Womb

CONCEPTION/MONTH ONE

●Conception occurs when one sperm penetrates the egg's protective membrane (left and center above), then sheds its tail (right).

Once the egg has been fertilized, the egg floats inside the fallopian tube. There is where it divides for the first time, on its way to becoming a baby.

●As we have seen, the conception of the nuclear baby occurred on September 12th, 2006. With a firing of a single missile, the nuclear baby began to immediately develop into a nuclear war.

MONTH TWO

●Limbs and arms begin to form and a tiny heart begins to beat. The baby develops rapidly in the second month. Eyes begin to form along with eyelids. There are also dimples on the head and face where the baby's ears, nose and mouth will be.

●The nuclear baby also began a rapid development during the second month. When reading the following articles and headlines, pay attention to the dates of each event:

U.S. Hails Airborne Laser As Weapons Milestone

The head of the Pentagon's Missile Defense Agency on Friday hailed about what he described as epochal progress toward putting a high-energy laser aboard a modified Boeing Co. 747 to zap ballistic missiles that could be fired by North Korea and Iran.

Reuters 10/27/06

Report: Israel Used Uranium-based Warheads in Lebanon War

According to the British Scientific Secretary of the European Committee on Radiation Risk, Doctor Chris Busby, tests carried out on soil taken from craters where Israeli missiles impacted showed 'elevated radiation signatures.'

Busby's report concluded that such results could be caused either by bunker-busting conventional bombs using uranium or a new kind of weapon bearing a "novel small experimental nuclear fission device or other experimental weapon (eg, a thermobaric weapon) based on the high temperature of a uranium oxidation flash."

Haaretz.com 10/28/06

Israel, Syria Heightened Alert For Possible War

Military presence boosted as Assad warns of looming conflict over Golan.

Israel has visibly beefed up its military presence here in the Golan Heights while neighboring Syria reportedly has placed its army on high alert and has warned it is preparing for a possible war with the Jewish state.

Worldnetdaily.com 10/26/06

Ahmadinejad Warns Europe of Anger In Middle East

Timesonline.com 10/20/06

Is Attacking Iran A Viable Option?

On one side is the Shanghai Cooperation Organization (SCO)... Led by China and Russia, the SCO has four other permanent member states: Tajikistan, Kyrgyzstan, Uzbekistan, and Kazakhstan. Along with a senior official from India's oil and gas industry, the prime ministers of Pakistan, Mongolia, Afghanistan and Iran attended the last meeting in Shanghai on June 15.

The meeting was about strengthening trade and exports but also had a strong undertone of strengthening the alliance. A verbal oath was sworn for defending each other in the event of any attack. China and Russia have already signed military cooperation agreements with, and are the main suppliers of advance weaponry to, Iran and Syria. This gave them verbal military cooperation agreements with all the SCO members, including Iran.

A senior spokesperson for U.S. ally Japan said: "The SCO is becoming a rival block to the U.S. alliance; it does not share our values..."

English.ohmynews.com 10/26/06

Olmert In Russia: Iranians Should Be Afraid

Haaretz.com 10/18/06

Olmert Warns Iran Will Have "A Price To Pay" If It Keeps Up Its Nuclear Ambitions

Prime Minister Ehud Olmert warned on Thursday that Iran would have "a price to pay" if it doesn't back down from its nuclear ambitions, hinting broadly that Israel might be forced to take action.

The Associated Press 10/19/06

Russia Warns US Over Missile System

Russia has criticized the proposed deployment in Europe of a United States missile defense system near its borders.

The Associated Press 10/17/06

Gen. Peter Pace: U.S. Can Beat N. Korea

He told a Pentagon news conference that the U.S.

military has plenty of people available to fight wars beyond Iraq and Afghanistan, but he acknowledged that U.S.-based ground combat units are not fully equipped.

"We have 2 million folks who can start protecting this nation anywhere else we need them to tomorrow, if we need them to," Pace said when a reporter asked what sort of threat North Korea's military posed.

NewsMax.com 10/25/06

MONTH THREE

- All the baby's internal organs are completely formed. Swellings on the sides of the neck show where the ears will be. Eyelids, the start of lips on a mouth that can already open and close, and a bit of a nose are beginning to form.

- All the parts are in place for development of the nuclear baby. From this point on, the baby will continue to grow as the nations become angrier. Remember to pay attention to the dates as well as the headlines.

Iran To Start Military Maneuvers Days After Western-led Drills In Gulf

Iran unexpectedly announced Wednesday that it would be holding military maneuvers in the Gulf this week, only days after U.S.-led navies held exercises in the same waterway.

Usatoday.com 11/1/06

Security Experts: Iran to be bombed in 2007

Specialists say America to lead attack but other countries will also take part.

If Iran continues to develop nuclear weapons, a military operation against it is inevitable and will take place in 2007, senior U.S. and Israeli specialists say, Israel's leading newspaper Yedioth Ahronoth reported Tuesday.

Netnews.com 11/04/06

U.S. Could Bomb Iran Nuclear Sites In 2007: Analysts

President George W. Bush could choose military action over diplomacy and bomb Iran's nuclear facilities next year, political analysts in Washington agree.

Yahoo.com 11/22/06

Al-Qaida Able To Build Nuke Weapon Inside U.S.

Determined terrorists with less than $10 million could murder 100,000 Americans within months.
WorldNetDaily.com 11/2/06

Nuclear Strikes From 'Rogue States' Possible-Russian Air Force

Russia's Air Force commander said Wednesday he considers nuclear missile launches by terrorists or 'rogue states' to be a genuine threat.
En.rian.ru 11/22/06

Russian Rocket Deliveries To Iran Started

Russia has begun deliveries of the Tor-M1 air defense rocket system in Iran, Russian news agencies quoted military industry sources as saying, in the latest sign of a Russian-US rift over Iran.
ITAR-TASS reported that the rockets were to be deployed around Iran's nuclear sites, including the still incomplete, Russian-built atomic power station at Bushehr.
Breitbart.com 11/24/06

Hamas Chief Mashaal Gives Peace Negotiations 6 Months, Threaten 3rd Uprising

Hamas Chief Khaled Mashaal said Saturday that the Palestinian Islamic militant group is willing to allow negotiations with Israel but warned of a new uprising if talks fail to reach a deal for a Palestinian state within six months.
...it was also the first time that he has set such a deadline with an explicit threat of a new uprising.
Canada.com 11/25/06

Iran Test-fires More New Weapons In War Games

Iran has announced it had successfully test-fired new armour-piercing weaponry and an anti-helicopter missile system on the third day of its latest war games.
Breitbart.com 11/04/06

MONTH FOUR

●Fingers and toes are unmistakable by the fourth month. The baby is thin because nutrients have been used for the creation of organs, bones and muscles. Over the next few months, more nutrients will go towards laying down fat and rounding out proportions.

●The nuclear baby is now unable to be missed by anyone who watches the news. Although the baby is still thin, all the parts have been put into place. Over the fourth month, we see the baby begin to store up energy for the months that lie ahead.

U.S. May Pursue Iran Sanctions Even If Russia Balks

Washington Post 12/1/06

Annan Says Time Running Out In Mideast

Secretary General Kofi Annan warned Tuesday that tensions in the Middle East were "near the breaking point" and said the Israelis and Palestinians were equally responsible for fueling the conflict.
Annan, whose 10-year stewardship of the United Nations ends Dec. 31, said the solution was an immediate return to talks on the stalled roadmap to a two-state solution backed by the so-called Quartet of Mideast peacemakers—the United Nations, the United States, the European Union and Russia.
"Tensions in the region are near the breaking point," he said. "The opportunity for negotiating a two-state solution will last for only so long."
NewsMax.com 12/13/06

Nuclear Missile Testing Galore

North Korea may have gotten all the attention, but all the nuclear weapon states were busy flight-testing ballistic missiles for their nuclear weapons during 2006. According to a preliminary count, eight countries launched more than 26 ballistic missiles of 23 types in 24 different events.
Hans Kristensen 12/22/06

Scientists Warn Of 'Nuclear Winter' Threat

New studies suggest that a small, regional nuclear conflict involving only a few weapons could have staggering global climate consequences, bringing about a 10-year long cooling, devastating to agriculture and society at large.
NewsMax.com 12/12/06

Russia Against U.S. Missile Defense Plans For Europe-DM Ivanov-1

Russia is opposed to the United States' plans to deploy an anti-missile shield in Central Europe, the defense minister said Friday.
As of January 1, Russia possessed 927 nuclear delivery vehicles and 4,279 nuclear warheads for strategic offensive weapons, while the United States owns 1,255 and 5,966 respectively, according to the Russian Defense Ministry
En.rian.ru 12/22/06

Pentagon Considers Navy Buildup In Gulf

The Defense Department is thinking about a major buildup of U.S. Navy forces in the Gulf as a show of force against Iran, a senior defense official said Tuesday.

Cnn.com 12/22/06

MONTH FIVE

● Usually in month five is when mom feels the baby move for the first time. While the baby has been learning from the moment of conception, the size of the brain and the number of nerve cells in the brain increase rapidly in this month.

● While month five was quiet as far as reports of military displays, we see the developing of the brain of the nuclear baby as the nations discuss their plans and issue their threats.

Use Of Force In Iran Could Threaten Central Asia-CSTO

Reports in the Western media say the U.S. could start a war against Iran at any moment.

CSTO members-Armenia, Belarus, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Russia, Tajikistan, and Uzbekistan ... have pledged to provide immediate military assistance to each other in the event of an attack. The bloc has a Collective Rapid Reaction Force deployed in Central Asia, and is continuing to build up its military forces.

En.rian.ru 1/03/07

Shock Waves Spread After Bush Speech

President Bush's sternly worded warning to Iran and Syria that the United States' new strategy in Iraq could include action against them sent shock waves across Capital Hill today, prompting pointed questions on top administration policy makers.

Bush said he had ordered a second carrier strike group to the Persian Gulf to bolster security and protect oil and other American interests in the region, a move Iranians consider provocative.

"Well I heard the sabers rattling on that," retired Maj. Gen. William Nash, an ABC News consultant, said in an interview after the president's address. "This may be what we're talking about six months from now far more than we're talking about the security sit (sic) in Baghdad. This portends a confrontation that could significantly broaden military operations in the region."

By John Hendren 1/11/07

Pat Robertson Predicts Deadly Attack On U.S.

The Associated Press 1/03/07

Hypersonic Cruise Missile: America's New Global Strike Weapon

The mission: Attack anywhere in the world in less than an hour. But is the Pentagon's bold program a critical new weapon for hitting elusive targets, or a good way to set off a nuclear war?

Popularmechanics.com January 2007 issue

Religious Leaders Press Rice On Mideast

A delegation of religious leaders met with the U.S. Secretary of State to urge the country to take a more leading role in promoting peace in the Middle East.

Iran: If Threatened, We May Alter Opposition To Obtaining Nuke

Iranian top nuclear envoy Ali Larijani said in a meeting with Chinese President Hu Jintao Friday that Iran is committed to peaceful use of nuclear technology.

"We oppose obtaining nuclear weapons and we will peacefully use nuclear technology under the framework of the Nonproliferation Treaty," he said. "But, he warned, "if we are threatened, the situation may change."

haaretz.com 1/06/07

Europeans Wary of U.S. Attack On Iran

NewsMax.com 1/31/07

US Warns Iran Of Global Wrath If It Cranks UP Nuclear Capacity

The United States warned Iran of "universal" opposition if it proceeds with plans to beef up its nuclear capacity by installing at least 3,000 centrifuges at a key atomic plant.

Frace24.com 1/27/07

Revealed: Israel Plan Nuclear Strike On Iran

Israel has drawn up secret plans to destroy Iran's uranium enrichment facilities with tactical nuclear weapons.

Two Israeli air force squadrons are training to blow up an Iranian facility using low-yield nuclear "bunker-busters," according to several Israeli military sources.

Timesonline.com 1/07/07

Scientists Prepare To Move Doomsday Clock Forward

The keepers of the "Doomsday Clock" plan to move its hand forward next Wednesday to reflect what they call worsening nuclear and climate threats to the world.

Reuters 1/12/07

Russia Slams US Weapons Sanctions

Focus Information Agency 1/06/07

MONTH SIX

● By the sixth month, the baby is a miniature of the newborn she will become. From this point for the remainder of the pregnancy, weight gain will be rapid.

● The nuclear baby is now also a miniature of the newborn it will become. The nations show their anger by their war games and threats. From this point on, the power gain of the nuclear baby will be rapid.

Carrier In Arabian Sea Ready To Launch Air Blitz

The USS Dwight D Eisenhower is more than 1.8 hectares of American power in the middle of the Arabian Sea but its influence stretches hundreds of kilometers.

The aircraft carrier, now backed by a second Nimitz-class nuclear-powered carrier, the USS John C Stennis, a handful of destroyers and a shoal of support ships, has placed a ring of steel around an increasingly unstable region.

Thestandard.com 2/26/07

U.S. Navy Positioning To Protect Strait Of Hormuz

Iran has brought its war games maneuvers over the past year into busy shipping lanes in the Straights of Hormuz, the narrow mouth of the Persian Gulf through which two-fifths of the world's oil supplies pass, the top U.S. Navy commander in the Mideast said.

During maneuvers, Iranian sailors have loaded mines onto small minelaying boats and test-fired a Shahab-3 ballistic missile into international waters... Iran also showed off an array of new torpedoes in war games in April.

NewsMax.com 2/20/07

Rice Slams Russian General Over Missile Defense

Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice on Wednesday called a Russian general's warning that Poland and the Czech Republic risk being targeted if they host U.S. missile defense bases "extremely unfortunate."

Gen. Nikolai Solovtsov, head of Russia's strategic missile forces, said Monday that Russia might train its missiles on the two countries if they accept a U.S. proposal to base 10 interceptor missiles in Poland and a radar in the Czech Republic.

The missile dispute is chilling relations between Moscow and Washington already damaged by differences over NATO's eastward expansion and U.S. concerns over human rights in Russia.

NewsMax.com 2/21/07

Russia Warns U.S. On Iran Moves

Russia's foreign minister Wednesday warned the United States not to take military action against Iran.

The Associated Press 2/21/07

N Korea Capable Of Building A Missile That Can Hit The US: US Intel

North Korea is technically capable of building a long-range missile that can hit the United States despite a test failure last year, a senior US military official said Tuesday.

Breitbart.com 2/27/07

Report: U.S. Has Contingency Plan To Bomb Iran

Despite the Bush administration's insistence it has no plans to go to war with Iran, a Pentagon panel has been created to plan a bombing attack that could be implemented within 24 hours of getting the go-ahead from President George W. Bush, The New Yorker magazine reported in its latest issue.

NewsMax.com 2/25/07

Russia FM Concerned Over Possible Strike On Iran

Russia's foreign minister said Monday he is concerned over the frequent statements made about a possible strike on Iran.

"I am concerned that forecasts and predictions of strikes on Iran have become frequent. In particular, the U.S. Vice President mentioned the possibility in his recent statements," Sergei Lavrov said at a meeting between President Vladimir Putin and government members.

En.rian.ru 2/26/07

Israel To Hold Nationwide Nuclear Attack Drill

Israel will next month stage its first-ever nationwide drill simulating a nuclear and chemical missile attack on its cities, rescue services said Monday.

The exercise was initiated by the army's homefront corps in the wake of last summer's war in Lebanon and Iran's call for the destruction of the Jewish state and its controversial nuclear program.

Breitbart.com 2/26/07

Russia May Sell Arms To Syria

Israel expressed concern on Friday about a potential Russian sale of advanced anti-tank weapon systems to Damascus, amid persistent fears in the Jewish state about a future conflict with its enemy.

News24.com 2/03/07

Moret: Attack On Iran Would Leave India Feeling Nuked

Attack on Iran would be nothing short of a low level nuclear war against India. That's the opinion of Leuren Moret, a former scientist at the Livermore nuclear laboratory, who was here for a conference.

Talking to DNA, Moret said that if the US attacks Iran, then India would bear its disastrous consequences in the form of uranium oxide particles which would remain suspended over the northern part of the country.

Rense.com 2/18/07

Iran building Missiles With North Korea

Iran and North Korea are cooperating in the development of long-range missiles that could reach the U.S., according to a Pentagon official.

NewsMax.com 2/15/07

MONTH SEVEN

●By the seventh month, the eyes of the baby can open and close. The baby's skin is less wrinkled now as fat begins to fill out her contours. She can make grasping motions with her hands and the hair on her scalp is growing longer.

●By the seventh month, the nuclear baby continues to grow. The nations show their anger by lashing out at other nations, warning them of the war that is soon to come.

Europe Claims Israel Preparing For War

Officials telling Damascus to expect conflict this summer.

European officials have been claiming to Syrian leaders the past few weeks Israel is preparing for a military confrontation with Damascus, in some cases providing Syria with inaccurate information, WND has learned.

WorldNewDaily.com 3/22/07

Russia Begins To Protect Its National Interests

From a speech by Russian Foreign Minister Sergei Lavrov at the 15th meeting of the Russian Council for Foreign and Defense Policy, held on March 17, 2007. Global developments, Russian diplomatic moves of the past few years, and the speeches made by President Vladimir Putin on foreign policy issues, notably in Munich, clearly demonstrate that the Russian political leadership has a well thought-out and tested foreign policy strategy.

Russia is opposed to attempts to split the planet, even if in a civilized manner, into so-called civilized humankind and the rest of the world, for this is a sure path to global catastrophe. Russia will not tolerate attempts to put it at loggerheads with the Islamic world.

En.rian.ru 3/22/07

Nuke Chief: Iran Will Strike Back At U.S. If Attacked

Iran would respond militarily if the United States attacks the country to disrupt its nuclear program, Iranian chief nuclear negotiator Ali Larijani was quoted as saying on Wednesday.

NewsMax.com 3/14/07

Six World Powers Agree On New Sanctions Against Iran

Six world powers reached agreement Thursday on a package of new sanctions against Iran that include an embargo on arms exports and an asset freeze on more individuals and companies associated with Tehran's nuclear and missile program.

Iranian President Mahmoud Ahmadinejad said earlier Thursday that the Security Council resolution could not stop the Islamic state from obtaining nuclear technology, the official IRNA news agency reported.

Haaretz.com 3/15/07

Pakistan Military Test Missile

Pakistan says it has successfully tested a short-range missile capable of carrying a nuclear warhead.

Bbb.co.uk 3/03/07

Iran To Conduct Air Defense Exercises

Iran will conduct air defense exercises Tuesday in preparation for a possible air strike on its uranium ore conversion center at Isfahan, the IRNA news agency said Tuesday.

En.rian.ru 3/06/07

China Expands Sub Fleet

China's military is engaged in a major buildup of submarines that includes five new strategic nuclear-missile boats and several advanced nuclear-powered attack submarines, according to the Office of Naval Intelligence.

Washingtontimes.com 3/02/07

Europe Threatens Action As Iran Airlifts New 'Confession'

EU foreign ministers support British position and warn of 'appropriate measures' if 15 sailors and marines not released.

Theguardian.com 3/31/07

Russia Warns US Against Attacking Iran

Russia's Foreign Ministry has sharply criticized the United States for what it called over-reliance on force and warned Washington against military action against Iran, the Associated Press reported.

Russia criticized what it called "the creeping American strategy of dragging the global community into large-scale crisis around Iran," saying that Tehran helps maintain stability in Afghanistan and Central Asia.

IranMania.com 3/28/07

U.S. Navy Flexes Muscle In Persian Gulf

American warplanes screamed off two aircraft carriers Tuesday as the U.S. Navy staged its largest show of force in the Persian Gulf since the 2003 invasion of Iraq, launching a mammoth exercise meant as a message to the Iranians.

NewsMax.com 3/27/07

Chinese President To Discuss N. Korea, Iran In Moscow

The Chinese president will discuss economic cooperation and current international issues, including North Korea and Iran, during his upcoming visit to Russia, a Kremlin source said Saturday.

En.rian.ru 3/24/07

Russia Starts Pacific Naval Exercise

Russia has begun a scheduled naval exercise in the Sea of Japan, the Pacific Fleet press service said Monday.

En.rian.ru 3/26/07

Operation Bite: April 6 Sneak Attack By US Forces On Iran Planned-Russia Military Sources Warn

General Ivashov calls for emergency session of UN Security Council to ward off looming US aggression. The long awaited US military attack on Iran is now on track for the first week of April, specifically for 4 am on April 6, the Good Friday opening of Easter weekend, writes the well-known Russian journalist Andrei Uglanov in the Moscow weekly "Argumenty Nedeli."

Rense.com 3/25/07

Russia Anxious About Military Action Against Iran Near Its Border

Russia is concerned about a possible attack on Iran and insists that military action near its border is totally unacceptable, the first deputy foreign minister said Tuesday.

En.rian.ru 3/04/07

IDF Intelligence: Iran, Hizbullah Preparing For Possible US Strike

Head of military intelligence says Iran, Syria and Hizbullah preparing for possible confrontation with US this summer.

By Ronny Sofer 3/15/07

Fallout Fear Puts Deadline On Nuclear Sites Attack

Iran is several years away from nuclear capability but any plan for a pre-emptive attack on its nuclear sites may have to be implemented before the end of the year to avoid the danger of serious radiation fallout.

Theaustralian.news.com 3/27/07

US Might Strike Iran In Early April, Possibly With Nuclear Weapon

Russian intelligence has information that the US Armed Forces will be ready for a possible military operation against Iran in early April, and the use of nuclear tactical weapons is not ruled out, Russian Agency RIA Novosti reported late Friday.

Makfax.com 3/30/07

Some Russian Nuclear Experts Start Leaving Iran-Nuclear Agency

Some Russian specialists who came to Iran to build the Bushehr nuclear power plant in the country's south are starting to leave the Islamic Republic, the Russian nuclear power agency said Tuesday.

En.rian.ru 3/13/07

U.S. Must Think Twice Before Striking Iran-Russian Brass

Washington needs to think twice before launching a military campaign against Tehran as such an attack would have global implications, a senior Russian military official said Tuesday.

En.rian.ru 3/04/07

MONTH EIGHT

●During the eighth month, the baby continues to grow rapidly. The mother may frequently feel Braxton-Hicks contractions and may even experience “false labor” pains. The birth of the baby will be soon.

●The eighth month of the nuclear baby brings more turmoil and unrest among the nations. The labor pains are growing more intense, preparing for the soon-coming birth.

North Korea Sells Arms To Ethiopia With US OK: NYT

NEW YORK (Reuters)—The Bush administration allowed Ethiopia to complete a secret arms purchase from North Korea in an apparent violation of a U.N. Security Council sanctions resolution passed months earlier over its nuclear test, The New York Times reported in Sunday editions.

reuters.com 4/07/07

Russia Says UN Must Decide Fate of British Sailors Detained by Iran

Russia's Foreign Ministry said Saturday London and Tehran should contact the UN as soon as possible and present details of the British sailors' detention, RIA Novosti news agency reports.

15 Royal Navy sailors and marines from the HMS Cornwall were detained by Iran in its territorial waters March 23. The ships were inspecting the Persian Gulf in accordance with a UN Security Council mandate under Resolution 1723.

The Security Council expressed serious concern over the detention of the sailors, and urged the Iranian leadership to allow British diplomats to visit the detainees.

Russia, a veto-wielding member in the 15-nation UN Security Council, blocked any tougher statements, including the immediate release of the sailors.

Iranian authorities said earlier Tehran would ignore the Security Council's statement.

Iran's Foreign Ministry Saturday called on the European Union not to interfere with the situation.

MosNews.com 4/02/07

America Deploys Nimitz In Gulf Amid Iran Tension

Nuclear powered aircraft carrier USS Nimitz will sail on Monday to support US operations in Iraq and Afghanistan, the US Navy said, amid a spike in tensions over Iran's seizure of 15 British marines and sailors.

The Nimitz, and its battle group of destroyers and guided missile cruisers, will relieve the USS Dwight D. Eisenhower.

www.bahraintribune.com 3/31/07

Oil Traders Fear An Attack On Iran

by Dave Lindorff

War and the Futures Market

There have been several rounds of reports that the war-obsessed Bush administration was getting ready to attack Iran—first last September, then in December, and more recently in January and February.

In the event of such a conflict, oil shipments would shut down from that region as underwriters jacked the price of insuring oil tankers in the Gulf to astronomical levels. Estimates of how expensive oil could become in the event of a US attack on Iran, the world's second largest oil producing nation, have ranged as high as $200/barrel—a level that would bring the global economy to a screeching halt.

U.S. Could Strike Iran But Not Win: Russian General

MOSCOW (Reuters)—The United States cannot inflict a military defeat on Iran and any attack would be a huge political mistake, Russia's top general said on Tuesday.

"It is possible to damage Iran's military and industrial potential, but it is impossible to win," Russian news agencies quoted General Yuri Baluyevsky, head of the Russian general staff, as saying.

"The United States has a contingent in the region capable of launching a strike on Iranian territory.

"However, such possible strikes would be a huge political mistake. Shock waves from this attack could be felt around the world."

reuters.com 4/03/07

Iran Seen Announcing Atomic Expansion Plans

Iran's president may announce on Monday his country has begun the first stage of what it calls "industrial-scale" uranium enrichment, a move likely to anger the West which fears the plan is aimed at making atomic bombs.

Tehran has rejected U.N. demands to halt enrichment and has instead vowed to expand what it insists is peaceful atomic work. In response, the U.N. Security council has passed two sanction resolutions on Iran since December.

With 3,000 machines, Iran could make enough material for a bomb in one year, if it wanted, Western experts say.

reuters.com 4/09/07

Kuwaiti Media Warns Of Planned U.S. Strike Against Iran In Apr.

ABU DHABI (RIA Novosti)—A Kuwaiti newspaper warned Wednesday that the United States is planning a missile strike against Iran some time in April.

In an editorial citing unnamed Washington sources, As-Siyasa said air-to-surface missiles could be used in U.S. strikes against Iran, but that no ground operation would be launched to avoid casualties among U.S. service personnel.

en.rian.ru 4/04/2007

US To Attack Iran By End Of April: Report

The US is planning to attack Iran's nuclear reactors and other nuclear facilities by the end of this month, the Kuwait-based Arab Times newspaper reported Wednesday.

The US is planning to attack Iran's nuclear reactors and other nuclear facilities by the end of this month.

Citing anonymous sources in Washington, it said that various White House departments had started preparing the political speech to be delivered by the US president later this month.

The speech will provide the 'evidence' and the 'justification' for the US to resort to the military option.

indiaenews.com 4/04/07

No U.S. Attack On Iran, Oil Price Hits $70 In Expectation

Washington did not launch air strikes against Iran early Friday despite recent media reports, but expectations of the attack have driven Brent price to $70 per barrel.

Russia and foreign media have recently reported the U.S. could launch an operation, codenamed Bite, against Iran at 4:00 a.m. local time April 6. The operation was expected to deliver air strikes on Iranian nuclear facilities over a 12-hour period to prevent the country from obtaining nuclear weapons.

Russian Col.-Gen. Leonid Ivashov, vice president of the Academy of Geopolitical Sciences, said last week the Pentagon was planning to deliver a massive air strike on Iran's military infrastructure in the near future.

"I have no doubt there will be an operation, or rather an aggressive action against Iran," Ivashov said.

en.rian.ru 4/06/07

Experts Warn Of Gathering Health Crises

As World Health Day approaches this Saturday, international experts are focusing on the formidable and mounting threats to the world's collective health security.

Globalization has brought some benefits from efficient transport and trade to people across the world. But it has also allowed the rapid spread of diseases that otherwise may have been contained by geographical boundaries.

mg.co.za 4/05/07

The Nuclear Baby Is Not The End—Adult Nuclear Wars Follow

It doesn't end with the nine months. After nine months, one-third of man will have died over a fourth part of the earth. We will then have four months left of the 3½ year time that Daniyl the Prophet was inspired to write about. Those four months end with nuclear destruction that will darken the sun.

The nuclear wars that follow the nine months nuclear baby, which only involves a fourth part of the earth, will continue. Notice:

● Revelation 9:14—

...great River Euphrates!

Remember the Prophet Daniyl shows The End to be October 13, 2007 unless the seven-year peace plan stops again. Remember, it's seven years of action. So far, we can find no record or Prophecy showing that this plan will stop again.

The nuclear baby that was conceived on September 12, 2006 will be born around June 12, 2007. After the birth of the nuclear baby there will still be four more months of war until the sun is finally darkened around October 13, 2007. The nations, and the religions that lead them, will not stop, nor will they repent until the sun is darkened from the dust of nuclear wars.

● Revelation 9:20-21—

20 And the rest of the men who were not killed by these plagues, still did not repent of the works of their hands, that they should not worship demons, and gods (elohim, teraphim) of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood: which can neither see, nor hear, nor walk;

21 Neither did they repent of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

What will the events outlined above bring to mankind? Daniyl says nuclear burning.

● Daniyl 7:11-12—

11 I beheld, then, because of the voice of the great words which the horn spoke; I beheld until the beast was slain, and his body destroyed, and given to the nuclear blast.

12 As concerning the rest of the beasts, they had their governments taken away; yet their lives were prolonged for a season and time.

This will be the worst part of the Great Tribulation. Compare:

● Daniyl 12:1—

And at that time will come that Great, Perfect Government based upon Perfect Laws, that will save the children of Your people; and there will be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation to that time...

Compare with:

● Mattithyah 24:29—

Immediately, but after the Great Tribulation of those days will the sun be darkened, and the moon will not give her light, and the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken.

● Revelation 6:12—

And I looked when He had opened the sixth seal, and behold, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood.

This last 3½ year time period ends October 13, 2007. At the end of this time period, governments of and by the people also end by nuclear burning. Man's governments will actually destroy themselves with the works of their own hands. Compare:

● Mattithyah 24:7—

For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be famines, and pestilences; disease epidemics, and earthquakes in place after place:

● Mattithyah 24:29—

Immediately, but after the Great Tribulation of those days will the sun be darkened, and the moon will not give her light, and the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken.

KeeP these two Scriptures in mind, along with the nine-month nuclear baby of I Thessalonians 5:3 and Revelation Chapters 6, 7 and 9. Now notice:

● Revelation 6:12—

And I looked when He had opened the sixth seal, and behold, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood.

This Prophecy does not occur with the nine-month nuclear baby that only kills a third part of man over a fourth part of the earth. The Prophecy in Revelation 6:12 occurs in the four months that follow the nine-month nuclear baby. During the four months that follow, hatred and nuclear wars continue.

There is another month after the end of man's governments that Yahweh shows us, which adds up to five months after the nuclear baby. These five months are shown to be the worst pain mankind will bring upon himself.

The diseases are getting stronger and mankind is getting weaker, mentally and physically. Because they have changed what Yahweh created for them and broken the Covenant, the results of these sins will be felt for five months of the worst pains ever.

The greatest suffering, fear, agony, and pain mankind has ever suffered will take place in that four months after the birth of the nuclear baby and one additional month after the nuclear wars have stopped for a total of five months (moons). These five moons of pain are caused by mankind changing the food supply from the way it was created, thus breaking one of the first Laws taught by the Great Priest of Yahweh, Abel. This will be covered further in future newsletters, which will also be posted on our website: www.yisraylhawkins.com.

Notice, after one-third of man are killed over a fourth part of the earth, the hatred continues.

● Revelation 9:20-21—

20 And the rest of the men who were not killed by these plagues, still did not repent of the works of their hands, that they should not worship demons, and gods (elohim, teraphim) of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood: which can neither see, nor hear, nor walk;

21 Neither did they repent of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

The wars will continue for four months after the nine-month nuclear baby is born. They will continue until the sun is darkened and the earth is devastated by violent storms, earthquakes and disease epidemics.

Why?

The only way that mankind will ever learn that Yahweh's Way is Perfect, that what Yahweh created for mankind, He created perfectly, and that we should not have gone against His 613 Laws, is to let mankind do what he is doing and suffer from his own devices.

Yahweh warns us over and over again not to bring these evil diseases upon ourselves. But mankind has not taken His warning seriously.

● Deuteronomy 30:15-20—

15 See, I have set before you this day Life by Righteousness, and death by destruction—

16 In that I command you this day to love Yahweh your Father, by walking in all His Ways, by keeping His Laws, His Statutes, and His Judgments, so that you may live and multiply, and so Yahweh your Father may bless you in the land which you go in to possess.

17 But if your heart turns away, and you are not obedient, and you are drawn away to submit to gods (elohim), to worship them by serving them—

18 I declare to you this day that you will surely perish; you will not prolong your days in the land which you cross over the Yordan to possess.

19 I call heaven and earth as witnesses against you this day, that I have set before you life and death, blessings and curses—therefore choose life, so both you and your children may live;

20 So you may love Yahweh your Father, by listening to Him, and then obeying Him. Hold fast to Him, for He is your Life. He will also give you many years in the land He vowed to give to your fathers; to Abraham, Isaac, and Yaaqob.

● Isayah 65:2-5—

2 I have spread out My Hands all the day to a rebellious people, who walk in a way which is not right, after their own thoughts; devices;

3 A people who act defiantly against Me continually to My Face; who sacrifice in gardens, and burn incense on altars of brick;

4 Who assemble and spend the night keeping memorials for the dead, who eat swine's flesh, and the broth of abominable things; unclean foods, is in their vessels,

5 Who say; Stand by yourself! Do not come near me, for I am holier than you! These are a smoke in My nostrils, a fire that burns all the day.

● Isayah 66:17—

They who sanctify themselves, and purify themselves in the gardens, following after the priests in the midst of those who eat swine's flesh, that which is offered to gods (elohim) and the rodent—will be consumed together: says Yahweh.

● Isayah 59:1-3, 6-8, 12-15—

1 Behold, Yahweh's Hand is not shortened, that it cannot save; nor His ear heavy, that it cannot hear.

2 But your own iniquities have separated you from your Father; and your own sins have caused Him to hide His face from you, so He will not listen.

3 For your hands are defiled with blood, and your fingers with iniquity; sin. Your lips have spoken lies, your tongue has muttered perverseness.

6 Their webs will not serve as clothing, nor will they cover themselves with what they make; their works are works of iniquity, and the act of violence is in their hands.

7 Their feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed innocent blood; their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; wasting and destruction are in their paths.

8 They do not know the Way of Peace, and there is no Judgment in their goings: they have made themselves crooked paths; whoever walks on them will not know peace.

12 For our transgressions are multiplied before You, and our sins testify against us; for our transgressions are with us, and as for our iniquities, we know them—

13 In transgressing and lying against Yahweh, and turning away from following our Father, speaking oppression and rebellion, conceiving and uttering from the mind words of falsehood:

14 So Judgment is driven backwards, and Justice stands afar off, for Truth is fallen in the street, and equity cannot enter.

15 Yes, Truth; the Law, is suppressed; and he who departs from evil; upholds the Law, is accounted as mad; makes himself a prey! Yahweh saw this, and He saw the evil that there was no Justice.

The Savior also pleads with you to repent of breaking Yahweh's Laws, saying that if you do not you will perish.

● Luke 13:3-5—

3 I tell you, No! But unless you repent you will all likewise perish!

4 Or those eighteen on whom the tower in Siloam fell and killed them, do you think that they were sinners above every man who lived in Yerusalem?

5 I tell you, No! But unless you repent, you will all likewise perish!

● Revelation 18:1-5—

1 And after these things I saw another Malak come down from heaven, having great authority; and the earth was enlightened with His Glory.

2 And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying: Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of demons, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

3 For all nations have drunk of the cup of her destruction because of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth have grown rich through the abundance of her delicacies.

4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying: Come out of her, My People, so that you do not partake in her sins, and so that you do not receive of her plagues,

5 For her sins have reached unto heaven, and Yahweh has remembered her transgressions against His Laws!

Sin is the breaking of Yahweh's Laws.

● I Yahchanan 3:4—

Whoever commits sin, transgresses also the Law; for sin is the transgression of the Law.

● I Yahchanan 2:4—

He who says: I know Him, but does not keep His Law, is a liar, and the Truth is not in him.

● Hebrews 10:26-27—

26 For if we sin willfully after we have received the Knowledge of the Truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins,

27 But a certain fearful expectation of Judgment, yes, a Zealous Judgment. For it will come to pass that the adversaries will be devoured.

● Mattithyah 4:4—

But He answered, and said; It is written: Man does not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds out of the Mouth of Yahweh.

● Mattithyah 5:17-20—

17 Do not even think that I have come to destroy the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to destroy them, but to establish them.

18 For truly I say to you; Unless heaven and earth pass away, one yodh—the smallest of the letters—will in no way pass from the Law, until all things are perfected.

19 Whosoever, therefore, will break one of the least of these Laws, and will teach men so, he will be called before the Judges and cut off from the Kingdom of Yahweh; but whosoever will do and teach them, the same will be called before the Judges and proclaimed great in the Kingdom of Yahweh.

20 For I say to you: Unless your Righteousness exceeds the Righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, you will certainly not enter into the Kingdom of Yahweh.

● Mattithyah 5:27-28—

27 It is taught in the Law of Yahweh: You shall not commit adultery;

28 But I say to you: Whoever looks on a woman with lust for her, has already committed adultery with her in his heart.

● Mattithyah 7:21-23—

21 Not everyone who says to Me; Teacher! Teacher! will enter into the Kingdom of Yahweh, but only he who does the Will of My Father Who is in heaven.

22 Many will say to Me in that day; Teacher! Teacher! Have we not prophesied in Your Name, and cast out demons in Your Name, and in Your Name performed many wonderful works?

23 But then I will declare to them; I never knew you. Get away from Me, you who transgress against Yahweh's Law!

● Revelation 22:12-16—

12 And behold, I come quickly, and My Reward is with Me, to give every man according as his work will be.

13 I am the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End.

14 Blessed are those who keep His Laws, that they may have right to the Tree of Life, and may enter in through the gates into the City.

15 For outside are dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and worshipers of gods (elohim) and everyone who professes to love, yet practices breaking the Law.

16 I, Yahshua, have sent My Malak to testify to you these things in the congregations of The House of Yahweh. I am the root and the offspring of David, and the Bright and Morning Star.

But You Will Not Repent! Will You?

Mankind, through the actions of would-be scientists, has changed and is still changing the food supply. All the earth, seas, streams, farmland, forests, and the air we breathe are defiled and getting worse each day. This is now being broadcast on the world news, just as the Prophets wrote for this time period.

All nations also are filled with sins—murder, drug abuse, fornication, and theft—today. Over forty-six million babies are murdered each year through abortion alone. This number is expected to increase now with the sorcery (pharmacy) of the morning after pill being offered by the pharmacists (druggists). The Great Prophet Isayah said that because of sin, this horrible time of trouble and warning is coming.

Yahweh has inspired His House in these Last Days to bring precise Prophecies nine months ahead of time to prepare us for the nine-month nuclear baby that will be delivered in and around the great River Euphrates, and the four months of wars that will follow, spreading throughout the world. This will lead to the darkening of the sun.

● Isayah 24:1-6—

1 Before Yahweh's very eyes, the earth is made empty and it is made waste; the face of it is perverted and its inhabitants scattered abroad;

2 And it will be: as with the people, so with the priests; as with the servant, so with his owner; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with him who takes usury, so with him who gives usury to him:

3 The land will be utterly emptied and utterly plundered, for it has come to pass that this Judgment has been pronounced.

4 The earth mourns and fades away, the world mourns and fades away, and the haughty people of the earth languish.

5 The earth also is defiled because of the inhabitants of it, because they have transgressed the Laws, changed the Ordinance, and broken the Everlasting Covenant.

6 Because of this, the curse has devoured the earth, and they who dwell therein are desolate; therefore, the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left.

We all must learn that sin does not benefit us at all. Sin only weakens the body and mind, bringing confusion, disease, wars and death.

Yahweh set before us both ways. The way of Righteousness is life.

● Mattithyah 19:17, 29—

17 But He said to him: Why do you question Me about Righteousness? There is only One Who is the Standard of Perfection, He is Yahweh; so if you would enter into life, keep the Laws of Yahweh.

29 And everyone who has forsaken houses, brothers, sisters, father or mother, children or lands, for My Name's sake, will receive a hundredfold, and will inherit everlasting life.

He also set before us the freedom to sin but warned that sin will bring us pain. In the last five months of this great learning period, sin will bring the worst pain ever in the history of mankind.

Mankind could repent of sin and stop all that is taking place, and is going to take place, but Yahweh says they will not.

● Revelation 9:20-21—

20 And the rest of the men who were not killed by these plagues, still did not repent of the works of their hands, that they should not worship demons, and gods (elohim, teraphim) of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood: which can neither see, nor hear, nor walk;

21 Neither did they repent of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

Even after a third of man is killed over a fourth part of the earth mankind will still keep breaking Yahweh's Laws and the destruction will keep getting worse until the pain is so severe they will actually pray for death to relieve them.

● Isayah 21:1-3—

1 The burden of the desert by the sea: As whirlwinds in the south pass through; so it comes from the desert, from a terrible land.

2 A grievous vision is declared to me; the treacherous dealer deals treacherously, and the plunderer plunders. Go up, O Elam! Besiege, O Media! All the sighing in it I have made to cease.

3 So my loins are filled with pain; pangs have taken hold of me, like the pangs of a woman who labors. I was bowed down when I heard; I was dismayed when I saw.

● Yeremyah 30:5-7—

5 For this is what Yahweh says: We have heard a voice of trembling and of fear, but not of peace.

6 Ask now, and see. Can a man give birth to a child? Why then, do I see every man with his hands on his loins like a woman in labor, and every face turned pale?

7 Alas! Because that day is so great that none is like it. It is even the time of Yaaqob's trouble; but he will be saved out of it.

The troubles are here. They will grow much worse in the following months. When the nuclear baby is delivered, mankind will think they have achieved peace through nuclear wars. But then much more horrible pains will start and they will not end until a full month after the sun is darkened—five months of suffering in all.

● Revelation 14:9-11—

9 And the Third Malak followed them, saying with a loud voice: If any man worships the beast and his likeness, and receives his mark in his forehead or upon his hand,

10 The same will mourn, and they will tremble at the Justice of Yahweh; for they rejected Yahweh and they rushed after gods (elohim). They will mourn, for they acted defiantly against Yahweh, and it was decided before the holy Malakim and the Lamb that they were surely guilty of this sin.

11 And the smoke of the death and destruction, which is the consequence of their sin ascends up on that day. And they have no Sabbath night and day, who worship the beast and his likeness, and whoever receives the mark of his name.

The majority of mankind will not repent even after one-third part of man have been killed. They will not repent of their rebellion against Yahweh's Laws. Prophecy shows that rebellion against Yahweh's Laws is the number one cause of the wars, earthquakes, and incurable disease epidemics in these Last Days. If there is no repentance, these wars, earthquakes and incurable disease epidemics will continue to grow, as well as the curses that follow.

● Isayah 24:1-6—

1 Before Yahweh's very eyes, the earth is made empty and it is made waste, the face of it is perverted and its inhabitants scattered abroad;

2 And it will be: as with the people, so with the priests; as with the servant, so with his owner; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with him who takes usury, so with him who gives usury to him:

3 The land will be utterly emptied and utterly plundered, for it has come to pass that this Judgment has been pronounced.

4 The earth mourns and fades away, the world mourns and fades away, and the haughty people of the earth languish.

5 The earth also is defiled because of the inhabitants of it, because they have transgressed the Laws, changed the Ordinance, and broken the Everlasting Covenant.

6 Because of this, the curse has devoured the earth, and they who dwell therein are desolate; therefore, the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left.

● Revelation 9:18-21—

18 By these three were the third part of man killed: by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone, which issued out of their mouths.

19 For their power is in their mouth and in their tails; for their tails were similar to serpents, and had heads, and with them they do hurt.

20 And the rest of the men who were not killed by these plagues, still did not repent of the works of their hands, that they should not worship demons, and gods (elohim, teraphim) of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood: which can neither see, nor hear, nor walk;

21 Neither did they repent of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

All of these curses are caused by mankind breaking Yahweh's Laws. Mankind will finally admit this, as they will see it for themselves. Yahweh is allowing rebellious religions and governments to prove the Inspired Writings of the Apostles true.

You need the books, The Mark of the Beast, Volumes 1 & 2 now. Almost everyone in the world has the mark of the beast upon them at this time and do not even know it because of the extreme deception.

● Revelation 12:9—

And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, who deceives the whole world. She was cast out into the earth, and her angels were cast out with her.

Why suffer with the rest of the world? Why not repent now? Yahweh is calling with open arms through Yahshua the High Priest over The House of Yahweh.

● Hebrews 10:21—

And having a High Priest over The House of Yahweh.

● Revelation 18:1-5—

1 And after these things I saw another Malak come down from heaven, having great authority; and the earth was enlightened with His Glory.

2 And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying: Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of demons, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

3 For all nations have drunk of the cup of her destruction because of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth have grown rich through the abundance of her delicacies.

4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying: Come out of her, My People, so that you do not partake in her sins, and so that you do not receive of her plagues,

5 For her sins have reached unto heaven, and Yahweh has remembered her transgressions against His Laws!

All religions are following the same evil pathway to destruction. They are rebelling against the only Laws that would bring them peace, joy, and health. The Prophet Isayah, under Inspiration of Yahweh, said it best.

● Isayah 24:1-6—

1 Before Yahweh's very eyes, the earth is made empty and it is made waste; the face of it is perverted and its inhabitants scattered abroad;

2 And it will be: as with the people, so with the priests; as with the servant, so with his owner; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with him who takes usury, so with him who gives usury to him:

3 The land will be utterly emptied and utterly plundered, for it has come to pass that this Judgment has been pronounced.

4 The earth mourns and fades away, the world mourns and fades away, and the haughty people of the earth languish.

5 The earth also is defiled because of the inhabitants of it, because they have transgressed the Laws, changed the Ordinance, and broken the Everlasting Covenant.

6 Because of this, the curse has devoured the earth, and they who dwell therein are desolate; therefore, the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left.

The religions will not repent, but you, as an individual, can repent and witness the protection of Yahweh that Yahweh has for His House. Note Revelation 18:4, if you repent, Yahweh shows there is protection from the plagues, disease epidemics, that are coming upon this world as a result of sin, which is the breaking of Yahweh's Laws (I Yahchanan 3:4).

On the other hand, blessings are still offered to those who repent and start keeping the Laws of Yahweh.

● Revelation 22:12-16—

12 And behold, I come quickly, and My Reward is with Me, to give every man according as his work will be.

13 I am the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End.

14 Blessed are those who keep His Laws, that they may have right to the Tree of Life, and may enter in through the gates into the City.

15 For outside are dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and worshipers of gods (elohim) and everyone who professes to love, yet practices breaking the Law.

16 I, Yahshua, have sent My Malak to testify to you these things in the congregations of The House of Yahweh. I am the root and the offspring of David, and the Bright and Morning Star.

● Deuteronomy 30:19—

I call heaven and earth as witnesses against you this day, that I have set before you life and death, blessings and curses—therefore choose life, so both you and your children may live.

The Cause

The extreme decline in morals for this time period is what leads to the next phase of the nuclear wars among the nations. When confusion tries to solve the problems of the nations, we have national disaster.

● Revelation 6:12-16—

12 And I looked when He had opened the sixth seal, and behold, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood.

13 And the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, as a fig tree drops its untimely figs when it is shaken by a mighty wind.

14 And the heaven departed like a scroll when it is rolled together; and every mountain and island were moved out of their places.

15 And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every free man, sought protection for themselves in their governments and in the assemblies and the houses of their gods (elohim);

16 And said to the houses of their gods (elohim) and the assemblies: Help us, and hide our secrets (our sins) from the face of Him Who sits on the Throne, and from the Priests of the Lamb!

Notice verse 12, the sun becomes black and verse 13; the stars of heaven fell unto the earth. This Prophecy corresponds to the Prophecies in Daniyl and Mattithyah.

● Daniyl 12:9—

But he said: Go your way, Daniyl, for the words are closed up and sealed until the time of The End.

● Mattithyah 24:29—

Immediately, but after the Great Tribulation of those days will the sun be darkened, and the moon will not give her light, and the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken.

Compare also:

● Mattithyah 24:30—

And then will appear the sign of the Son of Man in heaven; and then will all those of the earth mourn, and they will see the Son of Man coming in the clouds of heaven with Power and great Glory.

● Revelation 6:13-17—

13 And the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, as a fig tree drops its untimely figs when it is shaken by a mighty wind.

14 And the heaven departed like a scroll when it is rolled together; and every mountain and island were moved out of their places.

15 And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every free man, sought protection for themselves in their governments and in the assemblies and the houses of their gods (elohim);

16 And said to the houses of their gods (elohim) and the assemblies: Help us, and hide our secrets (our sins) from the face of Him Who sits on the Throne, and from the Priests of the Lamb!

17 For the Great Day of His Priests has come, when they have authority to stand before (to minister to) Yahweh?

The religions today ridicule and persecute The House of Yahweh for telling the Truth and showing Yahweh's Great Laws and Prophecies, but they know they are at fault for the drop in morals of the last fifty years. They also know that the Savior is speaking of them in:

● Mattithyah 7:15-23—

15 Beware of false prophets who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves.

16 You will know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes from thorns, or figs from thistles?

17 Likewise, every Righteous tree brings forth Righteous fruit; but a tree of evil brings forth fruit of iniquity.

18 A Righteous tree cannot bring forth fruit of iniquity, nor can a tree of evil bring forth fruits of Righteousness.

19 Every tree which does not bring forth Righteous fruit is cut down, and cast into the fire.

20 Therefore, by their fruits you will know them.

21 Not everyone who says to Me; Teacher! Teacher! will enter into the Kingdom of Yahweh, but only he who does the Will of My Father Who is in heaven.

22 Many will say to Me in that day; Teacher! Teacher! Have we not prophesied in Your Name, and cast out demons in Your Name, and in Your Name performed many wonderful works?

23 But then I will declare to them; I never knew you. Get away from Me, you who transgress against Yahweh's Law!

The Prophet Isayah also spoke of them, concerning this very time. Notice verse 2.

● Isayah 24:1-6—

1 Before Yahweh's very eyes, the earth is made empty and it is made waste; the face of it is perverted and its inhabitants scattered abroad;

2 And it will be: as with the people, so with the priests; as with the servant, so with his owner; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with him who takes usury, so with him who gives usury to him:

3 The land will be utterly emptied and utterly plundered, for it has come to pass that this Judgment has been pronounced.

4 The earth mourns and fades away, the world mourns and fades away, and the haughty people of the earth languish.

5 The earth also is defiled because of the inhabitants of it, because they have transgressed the Laws, changed the Ordinance, and broken the Everlasting Covenant.

6 Because of this, the curse has devoured the earth, and they who dwell therein are desolate; therefore, the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left.

They have all rejected Yahweh's Laws, from keeping the Sabbaths Holy to the Laws against murder, abortion, fornication, sodomy, bestiality and adultery, and have chosen the continual ways of war, as did Cain.

For information concerning the Two Witnesses request the 12/2002 issue of The Prophetic Word magazine.

● Mattithyah 24:14—

And this Message of the Kingdom will be preached to all the world by the one who bears witness to all nations; and then the end will come.

● Revelation 11:1-4—

1 And there was given me a reed like a measuring rod. And the Malak stood, saying: Rise, and measure the Temple of Yahweh, and the altar, and its confines; where they worship within.

2 But the court which is outside the Temple leave out, and measure it not; for it is given to the Gentiles. And the holy city they will tread under foot three and one-half years.

3 And I will give to My Two Witnesses to perform their Prophetic Offices, and they will foretell events about the three and one-half years, those cast about with darkness.

4 These are, as it were, the two olive trees, and, as it were, the two lamps of the seven lamp Lampstand, ministering for the Father in the earth.

I am here to warn you that your way will prove itself in the next few months; that's all the time you have left. Your lives are filled with sin and Yahweh is warning you now.

● Isayah 13:9—

Behold, the Day of Yahweh comes, wonderful, and with the time of sentencing and a zealous administration of Justice. The land will be laid desolate; and its sinners will be destroyed from it.

● Yechetzqyah 18:4, 6-9—

4 Behold, all souls are Mine. Just as the soul of the father, so also the soul of the son is Mine; the soul that sins, it will die.

6 If he has not eaten upon the mountains, nor lifted up his eyes to the gods (elohim) of the house of Israyl, nor has defiled his neighbor's wife, nor has approached a menstruous woman;

7 And has not oppressed anyone, but has restored to the debtor his pledge; has robbed none by violence, but has given his food to the hungry, and covered the naked with a garment;

8 He who has not lent upon usury; with interest, nor collected with increase, who has withdrawn his hands from iniquity, has executed True Judgment between man and man;

9 If he has walked in My Statutes, and has kept My Judgments, to do them—he is just! He will surely live! says Father Yahweh.

The Savior will not change His mind. The next four verses were spoken by the Savior. It's the last revelation given to the congregations and the world by Yahshua Messiah.

● Revelation 22:12-15—

12 And behold, I come quickly, and My Reward is with Me, to give every man according as his work will be.

13 I am the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End.

14 Blessed are those who keep His Laws, that they may have right to the Tree of Life, and may enter in through the gates into the City.

15 For outside are dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and worshipers of gods

(elohim) and everyone who professes to love, yet practices breaking the Law.

We, you and I, need to start now and call, as Yahnah did to Nineveh, for a worldwide repentance. Yahweh is the Only Being in the universe Who could stop what the religions have turned all nations into. This is the most evil and adulterous generation in man's history. It is even as Yahweh inspired the Prophets to write, a time when sin has reached its peak. Anyone can see the hatred among the nations that is shown for this time (3½ years).

● Revelation 11:18—

And the nations were angry, for Your Judgment has come; and the time of the dead, that they should be sentenced...

An anyone can see the low state of the religions and the adulterous state of the whole world taught by Hollywood. You know that you lie when you say the Savior will rapture you up out of this sin-sick world that you yourselves have created. Unless you repent now you will be among those who run, hide and mourn when Yahshua comes.

● Mattithyah 24:30—

And then will appear the sign of the Son of Man in heaven; and then will all those of the earth mourn, and they will see the Son of Man coming in the clouds of heaven with Power and great Glory.

● Revelation 6:14-17—

14 And the heaven departed like a scroll when it is rolled together; and every mountain and island were moved out of their places.

15 And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every free man, sought protection for themselves in their governments and in the assemblies and the houses of their gods (elohim);

16 And said to the houses of their gods (elohim) and the assemblies: Help us, and hide our secrets (our sins) from the face of Him Who sits on the Throne, and from the Priests of the Lamb!

17 For the Great Day of His Priests has come, when they have Authority to stand before (to minister to) Yahweh.

You know you are wrong in breaking the Laws of Yahweh.

As more of these diseases become capable of entering the mind, such as the STD syphilis, encephalitis and the feared bovine spongiform encephalopathy (BSE) or mad cow disease, both sickness and confusion will bring down the strength of all nations in the next thirteen months.

Even though we are now able to see what all people and nations are coming to, Yahweh says they still will not repent.

● Revelation 9:20-21—

20 And the rest of the men who were not killed by these plagues, still did not repent of the works of their hands, that they should not worship demons, and gods (elohim, teraphim) of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood: which can neither see, nor hear, nor walk;

21 Neither did they repent of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

At the end of this time period, the earth will experience the greatest violence in man's history and all caused by mankind.

● Isayah 13:9-13—

9 Behold, the Day of Yahweh comes, wonderful, and with the time of sentencing and a zealous administration of Justice. The land will be laid desolate; and its sinners will be destroyed from it.

10 For the stars of heaven and the constellations in it will not give their light; the sun will be darkened in its going forth, and the moon will not cause her light to shine.

11 And the world will be called to account for its evil, and the wicked for their iniquity; sin. The arrogance of the proud will be caused to cease, and the haughtiness of the terrible will be laid low.

12 A man will be made more rare than fine gold, and mankind more scarce than the pure gold of Ophir.

13 Therefore the heavens will be shaken, and the earth will move out of her place, in the time of sentencing of Yahweh of Hosts and in the day His Justice is zealously administered.

● Mattithyah 24:7—

For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be famines, and pestilences; disease epidemics, and earthquakes in place after place:

You haven't seen anything yet to compare with the thirteen months following September 12, 2006. The last month will be the worst—the worst of the wars, disease epidemics, and the most deaths of any period of history. The Savior named these in Mattithyah 24:7 and then expounded in verses 21-22.

● Mattithyah 24:21-22—

21 For then will be Great Tribulation, such as has not come to pass since the beginning of the world to this time—no, nor ever will be.

22 And unless those days were shortened, there would no flesh be saved; but for the Elect's sake, those days will be shortened.

This time of Great Tribulation starts with the Quartet and a nuclear war over a fourth part of the earth, but it will eventually spread to all nations and into the heavens. These same wars and plagues are shown in the Book of Revelation along with the religious system that leads the kings of the earth into action, bringing these Prophecies to completion.

What Is Lacking?

What is lacking in the world, according to the Inspired Prophets, is teachers of the Character

Education found in the Inspired Writings of the Prophets. The Savior said the following:

● Luke 24:25

Then He said to them: O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the Prophets have spoken!

● Isayah 24:1-6—

1 Before Yahweh's very eyes, the earth is made empty and it is made waste; the face of it is perverted and its inhabitants scattered abroad;

2 And it will be: as with the people, so with the priests; as with the servant, so with his owner; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with him who takes usury, so with him who gives usury to him:

3 The land will be utterly emptied and utterly plundered, for it has come to pass that this Judgment has been pronounced.

4 The earth mourns and fades away, the world mourns and fades away, and the haughty people of the earth languish.

5 The earth also is defiled under the inhabitants of it, because they have transgressed the Laws, changed the Ordinance, and broken the Everlasting Covenant.

6 Because of this, the curse has devoured the earth, and they who dwell therein are desolate; therefore, the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left.

The above Scriptures show the scenario that is predicted to take place between now and October 2007, which includes the plans of the Great Eight and the Quartet.

The great burning includes the nine-month nuclear baby that will be delivered June 12, 2007, with a third part of man killed over a fourth part of the earth in and around the great River Euphrates. This is where today's actions are taking place.

The Prophecies show you Christians and you Moslems exactly where you have started all this trouble. Why won't you believe Yahweh and stop following your gods of war? Can your gods tell you these things in advance? You know they cannot.

The wars will not stop even after a third part of man is destroyed over a fourth part of the earth in and around the great River Euphrates by nuclear wars. Notice what Yahweh says about your decision.

● Revelation 9:20-21—

20 And the rest of the men who were not killed by these plagues, still did not repent of the works of their hands, that they should not worship demons, and gods (elohim, teraphim) of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood: which can neither see, nor hear, nor walk;

21 Neither did they repent of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

As far as the great city that sits on seven hills that leads the kingdoms of the earth is concerned, the same Judgment that you have dealt to others is the same nuclear Judgment you will bring upon yourself.

● Revelation 18:1-8—

1 And after these things I saw another Malak come down from heaven, having great authority; and the earth was enlightened with His Glory.

2 And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying: Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of demons, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

3 For all nations have drunk of the cup of her destruction because of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth have grown rich through the abundance of her delicacies.

4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying: Come out of her, My People, so that you do not partake in her sins, and so that you do not receive of her plagues,

5 For her sins have reached unto heaven, and Yahweh has remembered her transgressions against His Laws!

6 Render to her just as she rendered to you, and repay her double according to her works! In the cup which she has mixed, mix for her double!

7 In the measure that she glorified herself, and lived luxuriously, so in that measure give her torment and sorrow! For she says in her heart: I sit a queen, and am no widow, and will see no sorrow.

8 Therefore, her plagues will come in one day—death, and mourning, and famine; and she will be utterly burned with fire; for just is Father Yahweh Who judges her.

Verse 8 shows this city will be burned with fire, but not just any fire, nuclear fire that comes down from heaven. He who lives by the sword, dies by the sword, said the Savior to you!

● Revelation 13:13—

And he does great wonders, so that he makes fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men.

● Isayah 24:5-6—

5 The earth also is defiled under the inhabitants of it, because they have transgressed the Laws, changed the Ordinance, and broken the Everlasting Covenant.

6 Because of this, the curse has devoured the earth, and they who dwell therein are desolate; therefore, the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left.

This Is The Savior's Answer

● Mattithyah 24:25—

Behold, I have warned you beforehand!

● Luke 13:3—

I tell you, No! But unless you repent you will all likewise perish!

I call heaven and earth as witnesses against the Christians, Jews, Moslems—all the religious world.

● Deuteronomy 30:19—

I call heaven and earth as witnesses against you this day, that I have set before you life and death, blessings and curses—therefore choose life, so both you and your children may live;

We have two choices either all nations and religions repent and turn to Yahweh for guidance or it's full steam ahead to nuclear wars of death and destruction, as we see in the following excerpt.

Mideast “Quartet” to meet, Rice says (Roundup)

By DPA

Berlin - US Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice said Wednesday the Mideast quartet comprised of Russia, the United States, the United Nations and the European Union was likely to meet early next month in a bid to kick-start Middle East peace talks.

Rice, speaking after talks in Berlin with German foreign Minister Frank-Walter Steinmeier, termed the Quartet the guardian of international efforts to achieve peace between Israel and the Palestinians.

She said that the Quartet would meet in Washington during the week beginning January 29, probably on February 1 or 2.

Steinmeier said reviving the quartet was vital because it meant the international community would speak with one voice and there would not be competing peace blueprints for the region.

We are both of the opinion that the time is ripe for meeting of the Quartet, Steinmeier said.

Turning to Iran, Rice sharply criticized the Tehran government for what she called its day-by-day violation of a UN Security Council resolution concerning its nuclear programme.

She urged the international community to hold together in its efforts to get Iran to dismantle its uranium-enrichment programme which is widely believed to be aimed at producing nuclear weapons.

They refuse to do what the international community insisted they do, Rice said, adding Iran faced isolation if it refused to comply and that Washington would not break its policy of refusing to deal with Iran on a bilateral basis.

Rice declined to comment on French plans to send an envoy to Tehran, saying only, What other countries may do, might wish to do, that's a decision for other countries.

But she stressed that all nations need to stay focused on the fact that Iran was both violating a UN Security Council resolution and failing to meet its obligations to the International Atomic energy Agency.

Regarding efforts to revive the six-party talks over North Korea's nuclear programme, Rice said it was vital that the next meeting be fully prepared so we can make progress.

Earlier in Berlin on Wednesday, US chief negotiator on North Korea, Christopher R. Hill, held a second round of talks with his North Korean counterpart Kim Kye Gwan.

Hill said six-party talks - which include North and South Korea, China, Japan, Russia and the United States - could resume later this month.

He said China would have to make a final decision on whether to back a new round of talks in the coming weeks.

The Berlin meeting marks the first time that US and North Korean envoys have met alone away from Beijing since the so-far fruitless negotiations over Pyongyang's nuclear programme began in 2003.

Hill told reporters he was disappointed that a December meeting of the six countries involved in negotiations had not made more progress.

Tensions have worsened since North Korea's test of a nuclear weapon last year, and Japanese and US officials have warned tougher sanctions against North Korea would have to be considered if the hardline country conducts a further test.

Middle East News

● Luke 24:25—

Then He said to them: O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the Prophets have spoken!

My opinion is that even fools should be able to see that governments and religions of and by the people are running out of time.

All of you need to repent now.

● Isayah 24:1-6, 12, 19-20—

1 Before Yahweh's very eyes, the earth is made empty and it is made waste; the face of it is perverted and its inhabitants scattered abroad;

2 And it will be: as with the people, so with the priests; as with the servant, so with his owner; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with him who takes usury, so with him who gives usury to him:

3 The land will be utterly emptied and utterly plundered, for it has come to pass that this Judgment has been pronounced.

4 The earth mourns and fades away, the world mourns and fades away, and the haughty people of the earth languish.

5 The earth also is defiled under the inhabitants of it, because they have transgressed the Laws, changed the Ordinance, and broken the Everlasting Covenant.

6 Because of this, the curse has devoured the earth, and they who dwell therein are desolate; therefore, the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left.

12 In the city is left desolation, and the gate is smitten with destruction.

19 The earth is utterly broken down, the earth is dissolved clean, the earth is shaken exceedingly.

20 The earth will reel to and fro like a drunkard, and will sway like a hut. The transgression in it will be heavy upon it; it will fall, and not rise again.

Notice verse 2, this destruction will be upon the so-called priests who teach against Yahweh's Laws. September 12, 2006 was the conception of the NUCLEAR BABY that will finish off The End.

● Daniyl 7:11-12—

11 I beheld, then, because of the voice of the great words which the horn spoke; I beheld until the beast was slain, and his body destroyed, and given to the nuclear blast.

12 As concerning the rest of the beasts, they had their governments taken away; yet their lives were prolonged for a season and time.

Notice, after this burning comes the Kingdom of Saints, those who keep the whole Law, those who choose Life and Righteousness.

● Deuteronomy 30:15-16—

15 See, I have set before you this day Life by Righteousness, and death by destruction—

16 In that I command you this day to love Yahweh your Father, by walking in all His ways, by keeping His Laws, His Statutes, and His Judgments, so that you may live and multiply, and so Yahweh your Father may bless you in the land which you go in to possess.

● Deuteronomy 6:25—

And it will be our Righteousness, if we observe to do all of this Law before Yahweh our Father, as He has commanded us.

The Kingdom of Saints are those who choose being made in the Image of Yahweh.

● Genesis 1:26—

Then Yahweh said: Let My House at Abel make man in our image, according to our likeness; they will have rulership over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the air, over the cattle, and over all the earth and over every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth.

The Kingdom of Saints are those who keep the Laws of Yahweh.

● Revelation 22:12-14—

12 And behold, I come quickly, and My Reward is with Me, to give every man according as his work will be.

13 I am the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End.

14 Blessed are those who keep His Laws, that they may have right to the Tree of Life, and may enter in through the gates into the City.

The Kingdom of Saints are those who do not let men or man's religions of and by the people deceive them.

● I Yahchanan 3:4-10—

4 Whoever commits sin, transgresses also the Law; for sin is the transgression of the Law.

5 And you know that He was manifested to take away our sins, and in Him is no sin.

6 Whoever abides in Him does not sin; whoever sins, has not seen Him, neither knows Him.

7 Little children, let no man deceive you; he who practices Righteousness is Righteous, just as He is Righteous.

8 He who commits sin is of the devil, for the devil has sinned from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of Yahweh was manifested; that He might destroy the works of the devil.

9 Whoever is begotten of Yahweh does not commit sin; for His seed remains in him; and it is possible for him not to sin, because he has been begotten of Yahweh.

10 In this the Children of Yahweh and the children of the devil are manifest. Whoever does not practice Righteousness is not of Yahweh, and he does not love his neighbor!

The Kingdom of Saints are those who will receive Power and Authority at the end of this time period that we entered on September 13, 1993 (seven-year peace plan confirmed with Rabin) and will end October 13, 2007, in this final time offered to man to choose Righteousness.

● Daniyl 12:7—

Then I heard the Man Clothed in Linen, who on that future day is teaching, when he held up his right hand and his left hand toward heaven, and vowed by Him Who lives forever, that: It will be for a time, times, and a half, when Yahweh will have accomplished pouring out His Power through His Holy People, all these things will be finished.

This last time period ends October 13, 2007. Those left alive at that time, October 13, 2007, will have repented and will have turned to Yahweh through His House.

● Zecharyah 14:16-18—

16 Then it will come to pass that everyone who survives of all the nations which came against The House of Yahweh at Abel and the Priest who teaches peace, will also go up from year to year to worship their Heavenly Father, Yahweh of Hosts, by keeping the Feasts at The House of Yahweh.

17 And it will be that if any families of the earth will not come up to The House of Yahweh at Abel and the Priest who teaches peace to worship their Heavenly Father, Yahweh of Hosts, then upon them will be no rain;  blessings.

18 If the family of Egypt will not come and present themselves, it will come to pass that they will cause themselves to be afflicted by the plagues that come to pass upon the nations who will not come up to keep the Feasts at The House of Yahweh.

The Final Calling— These Come Out Of Great Tribulation

This Prophecy of nuclear war is being proclaimed to all the world before it takes place so when you see it you will believe, as Yahshua told His Disciples.

● Yahchanan 14:29—

So now I have told you before it comes to pass, in order that, when it does come to pass, you might believe.

After the first nuclear war (the birth of the nuclear baby), I know that many people will know where the actual Work of the Creator Yahweh is and they will come to the only Protected Place on earth for this time period. They will come out of this Great Tribulation from all nations.

● Revelation 7:9—

After this I looked, and behold, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, tribes, peoples, and tongues...

After this war, that kills a third part of man over a fourth part of the earth in and around the great River Euphrates, protecting the oil and the pleasure, a great multitude will turn to Yahweh's Only Prophesied Work for these Last Days.

● Revelation 7:9—

After this I looked, and behold, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, tribes, peoples, and tongues, standing before the Throne and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and with palm branches; taught to keep Yahweh's Feasts, in their hands.

If you remember, you have already been shown that the religions changed the Feast Days, the Sabbaths, and the Laws of Yahweh. But notice, those who come out of this Tribulation have palm branches in their hands. What does this mean?

● Leviticus 23:40-41—

40 On the first day, you are to take choice fruit from the trees; pomegranates, and palm branches, leafy branches, and willows of the brook; and you shall rejoice in front of Yahweh your Father for seven days.

41 You shall keep it as a Feast to Yahweh for seven days in the year. It is a lasting Statute for every generation. You shall celebrate it in the Seventh Moon.

These palm branches represent the keeping of Yahweh's Feasts.

● Nehemyah 8:14-18—

14 Then they found written in the Law, which Yahweh had commanded through Mosheh, that the Children of Israyl must dwell in booths during the Feast of Tabernacles in the Seventh Moon.

15 So they issued the following proclamation, and circulated it throughout all their cities and in Yerusalem: Go out to the hill country and bring in olive branches, pine branches, myrtle branches, palm branches, and branches of other leafy trees to build booths, just as it is written.

16 Then the people went out and brought them, and built booths for themselves, each one on the flat roof of his house or in their courtyards, in the courts of The House of Yahweh, in the open square of the Water Gate, and in the open square of the Gate of Ephraim.

17 The whole congregation of those who had returned from captivity and exile built booths and dwelled in them—for since the days of Yahshua son of Nun until that day, the children of Israyl had not done this—and there was very great joy and gladness.

18 Day after day, from the first day through the last day of the Feast, he read from the Book of the Law of Yahweh for seven days. Then on the eighth day was a Holy Convocation; the Last Great Day, according to what is written.

This will take place again, but this time it will take place in the Protected Place, The House of Yahweh in the top of the nations. We will discuss the Protected Place in more detail in the next chapter. Get our books, The End and The Lost Faith of the Apostles and Prophets for full details of this Prophecy and the joyous Feast Days, also request our booklet, What Yahweh's Feasts Mean To You.

● Revelation 7:9-10, 13-17— (11th edition)

9 After this I looked, and behold, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, tribes, peoples, and tongues, standing before the Throne and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and with palm branches; taught to keep Yahweh's Feasts, in their hands;

10 And crying with a loud voice, saying: Salvation to our Father Who sits upon the Throne, and unto the Lamb!

13 And one of the Priests asked, saying to me: Who are these who are arrayed in white robes, and where did they come from?

14 And I said to him: Ruler, you know. And he said to me: These are the ones who come out of the Great Tribulation, who have truly purified themselves by forsaking God (El) and those who worship God (El), and who have repented from their murders (bloodshed, war).

15 Therefore, they stand before Yahweh at Abel, and serve Him day and night in His House. And He Who sits in Judgment at Abel will dwell among them.

16 They will hunger no more, neither thirst anymore; neither will the sun strike them, nor any heat.

17 For the Lamb Who is among them at Abel will feed them, and will lead them to Living Fountains of Waters. And Yahweh will wipe away all tears from their eyes.

Yes, these will turn to Yahweh, in this time period, in full repentance of sin and will convert to keeping Yahweh's Laws, which the whole world now rejects.

