

Blessings Galore promised by Yahweh—Wars Granted In The Gods “We” Trust

If you will study closely this article to completion, you will see the Blessings the whole world is passing up in order to learn war, wickedness, hatred and destruction. And in turn, creating and spreading diseases. The blessings are real and were promised by a Being Who can and does foretell the future thousands of years in advance with perfect accuracy, so we can know what He says can be relied upon totally.

Have you ever tried to foretell the future? Sure you have, almost every day. Millions of people buy homes, planning to get them paid off by the time they retire from work and spend their life in luxury on their planned retirement income. While those millions are making loans to buy homes, millions of others are having their homes repossessed. Millions more are waking up to sicknesses and diseases caused by something they did or ate years earlier. From failing to take Yahweh's Advice, those sicknesses or diseases are taking their plans away.

The well-laid plans of mice and men are the same. They are simply not capable of foretelling future obstacles that their actions or the actions of others change what they had planned.

There is a Sure Bet!

If you close your mind on this sure bet, you will miss out on the very Plan of a Being Who can and has foretold your future.

Let me give you proof. Let us start with the increase of knowledge foretold by Yahweh's Prophet Daniyl, Inspired by Yahweh, as are all the Prophecies in The Book of Yahweh.

Book of Yahweh?

We will come back to the Prophecy in Daniyl about the increase in knowledge in this present, prophesied generation. First, let us lay some groundwork.

The Romans Destroy the Temple at Jerusalem, 70 AD

In the year 66 AD the Jews of Judea rebelled against their Roman masters. In response, the Emperor Nero dispatched an army under the generalship of Vespasian to restore order. By the year 68, resistance in the northern part of the province had been eradicated and the Romans turned their full attention to the subjugation of Jerusalem. That same year, the Emperor Nero died by his own hand, creating a power vacuum in Rome. In the resultant chaos, Vespasian was declared Emperor and returned to the Imperial City. It fell to his son, Titus, to lead the remaining army in the assault on Jerusalem.

The Roman legions surrounded the city and began to slowly squeeze the life out of the Jewish stronghold. By the year 70, the attackers had breached Jerusalem's outer walls and began a systematic ransacking of the city. The assault culminated in the ... destruction of the Temple that served as the center of Judaism.

In victory, the Romans slaughtered thousands. Of those spared from death: thousands more were enslaved and sent to toil in the mines of Egypt, others were dispersed to arenas throughout the Empire to be butchered for the amusement of the public. The Temple's sacred relics were taken to Rome where they were displayed in celebration of the victory.

The Fall of Jerusalem In 70 A.D.

“And [Yahshua] went out, and departed from the Temple: and His disciples came to Him for to shew Him the buildings of the Temple. And [Yahshua] said unto them, “See ye not all these things? Verily I say unto you, there shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.” (Matthew 24:1-2)

About 40 years later, (32AD-70AD) and exactly as prophesied by [Yahshua Messiah], the magnificent “...Temple” was completely destroyed, leaving not one stone upon another. It was an event that marked the beginning of the long and arduous Jewish Diaspora. Yet, it was definitely an event foreseen in Bible prophecy. [Yahshua] not only prophesied about the destruction of Jerusalem and its Holy Temple, but added the following statement: (Luke 21:24; and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled.)

After the death of Herod Agrippa I, the procurators were put back in charge, however in 66 A.D. the Jews instigated a rebellion against Roman rule. In 70 A.D., after a 143-day siege which began at Passover, a Roman military force consisting of about 30,000 troops under the command of Titus battered the walls and entered the city. They destroyed everything, including [the] Temple, exactly as spoken by [Yahshua Messiah] 40 years earlier. The population and the great number of Passover visitors who had been trapped there were brutally slaughtered, with an estimated 600,000 to 1,000,000 people killed. Roman General Titus took the precious booty and treasury of the Jerusalem Temple back to Rome, where many suspect it remains to this day. (arch of Titus)

By 70 A.D., Jerusalem and Judea were left desolate, most of the people either killed or being held in captivity, or had become refugees fleeing to remote lands. All that remained in Israel was the defiant little garrison atop the mount at Masada, a fortress complex south of the Dead Sea, which was built by Herod the Great. Thus when the Temple was destroyed in A.D. 70 the period of the second exile began.

The temple was destroyed around 70 CE. The Book of Yahweh was taken to Rome by the Pharisees, Sadducees, Essenes, and Herodians. Notice the dates of when the Holy Scriptures were finally allowed to reach the public's hands.

English Bible History

The first hand-written English language Bible manuscripts were produced in the 1380's AD by John Wycliffe, an Oxford professor, scholar, and theologian. Wycliffe, (also spelled "Wycliff" & "Wyclif"), was well-known throughout Europe for his opposition to the teaching of the organized Church, which he believed to be contrary to the Bible. With the help of his followers, called the Lollards, and his assistant Purvey, and many other faithful scribes, Wycliffe produced dozens of English language manuscript copies of the scriptures. They were translated out of the Latin Vulgate, which was the only source text available to Wycliffe. The Pope was so infuriated by his teachings and his translation of the Bible into English, that 44 years after Wycliffe had died, he ordered the bones to be dug-up, crushed, and scattered in the river!

One of Wycliffe's followers, John Hus, actively promoted Wycliffe's ideas: that people should be permitted to read the Bible in their own language, and they should oppose the tyranny of the Roman church that threatened anyone possessing a non-Latin Bible with execution. Hus was burned at the stake in 1415, with Wycliffe's manuscript Bibles used as kindling for the fire. ...in 1517, Martin Luther nailed his famous 95 Theses of Contention (a list of 95 issues of heretical theology and crimes of the Roman Catholic Church) into the church door at Wittenberg. Martin Luther went on to be the first person to translate and publish the Bible in the commonly-spoken dialect of the German people; a translation more appealing than previous German Biblical translations.

In the 1490's another Oxford professor, and the personal physician to King Henry the 7th and 8th, Thomas Linacre, decided to learn Greek. After reading the Gospels in Greek, and comparing it to the Latin Vulgate, he wrote in his diary, "Either this (the original Greek) is not the Gospel... or we are not Christians." The Latin had become so corrupt that it no longer even preserved the message of the Gospel... yet the Church still threatened to kill anyone who read the scripture in any language other than Latin... though Latin was not an original language of the scriptures.

In 1496, John Colet, another Oxford professor and the son of the Mayor of London, started reading the New Testament in Greek and translating it into English for his students at Oxford, and later for the public at Saint Paul's Cathedral in London. The people were so hungry to hear the Word of God in a language they could understand, that within six months there were 20,000 people packed in the church and at least that many outside trying to get in!

In considering the experiences of Linacre and Colet, the great scholar Erasmus was so moved to correct the corrupt Latin Vulgate, that in 1516, with the help of printer John Froben, he published a Greek-Latin Parallel New Testament. The Latin part was not the corrupt Vulgate, but his own fresh rendering of the text from the more accurate and reliable Greek, which he had managed to collate from a half-dozen partial old Greek New Testament manuscripts he had acquired. This milestone was the first non-Latin Vulgate text of the scripture to be produced in a millennium... and the first ever to come off a printing press. The 1516 Greek-Latin New Testament of Erasmus further focused attention on just how corrupt and inaccurate the Latin Vulgate had become, and how important it was to go back and use the original Greek (New Testament) and original Hebrew (Old Testament) languages to maintain accuracy... and to translate them faithfully into the languages of the common people, whether that be English, German, or any other tongue. No sympathy for this "illegal activity" was to be found from Rome... even as the words of Pope Leo X's declaration that "the fable of Christ was quite profitable to him" continued through the years to infuriate the people of God.

William Tyndale was the Captain of the Army of Reformers, and was their spiritual leader. Tyndale holds the distinction of being the first man to ever print the New Testament in the English language. ... in 1525-1526 the Tyndale New Testament became the first printed edition of the scripture in the English language.

They were burned as soon as the Bishop could confiscate them, but copies trickled through and actually ended up in the bedroom of King Henry VIII. The more the King and Bishop resisted its distribution, the more fascinated the public at large became. The church declared it contained thousands of errors as they torched hundreds of New Testaments confiscated by the clergy, while in fact, they burned them because they could find no errors at all. One risked death by burning if caught in mere possession of Tyndale's forbidden books.

Having God's Word available to the public in the language of the common man, English, would have meant disaster to the church. No longer would they control access to the scriptures. If people were able to read the Bible in their own tongue, the church's income and power would crumble. They could not possibly continue to get away with selling indulgences (the forgiveness of sins) or selling the release of loved ones from a church-manufactured "Purgatory". People would begin to challenge the church's authority if the church were exposed as frauds and thieves. The contradictions between what God's Word said, and what the priests taught, would open the public's eyes and the truth would set them free from the grip of fear that the institutional church held. The veneration of church-canonized Saints and Mary would be called into question. The availability of the scriptures in English was the biggest threat imaginable to the wicked church. Neither side would give up without a fight.

Ironically, Tyndale's biggest customer was the King's men, who would buy up every copy available to burn them... and Tyndale used their money to print even more! In the end, Tyndale was caught: betrayed by an Englishman that he had befriended. Tyndale was incarcerated for 500 days before he was strangled and burned at the stake in 1536. Myles Coverdale and John "Thomas Matthew" Rogers had remained loyal disciples the last six years of Tyndale's life, and they carried the English Bible project forward and even accelerated it. Coverdale finished translating the Old Testament, and in 1535 he printed the first complete Bible in the English language, making use of Luther's German text and the Latin as sources. Thus, the first complete English Bible was printed on October 4, 1535, and is known as the Coverdale Bible.

In 1539, Thomas Cranmer, the Archbishop of Canterbury, hired Myles Coverdale at the bequest of King Henry VIII to publish the "Great Bible". It became the first English Bible authorized for public use, as it was distributed to every church, chained to the pulpit, and a reader was even provided so that the illiterate could hear the Word of God in plain English.

In the 1550's, the Church at Geneva, Switzerland, was very sympathetic to the reformer refugees and was one of only a few safe havens for a desperate people. the great Reformer of the Scottish Church, the Church of Geneva determined to produce a Bible that would educate their families while they continued in exile.

The New Testament was completed in 1557, and the complete Bible was first published in 1560. It became known as the Geneva Bible.

The Geneva Bible was the first Bible to add numbered verses to the chapters, so that referencing specific passages would be easier. Every chapter was also accompanied by extensive marginal notes and references so thorough and complete that the Geneva Bible is also considered the first English "Study Bible". The Geneva Bible became the Bible of choice for over 100 years of English speaking Christians. Between 1560 and 1644 at least 144 editions of this Bible were published. Examination of the 1611 King James Bible shows clearly that its translators were influenced much more by the Geneva Bible, than by any other source. The Geneva Bible itself retains over 90% of William Tyndale's original English translation. The Geneva in fact, remained more popular than the King James Version until decades after its original release in 1611! Strangely, the famous Geneva Bible has been out-of-print since 1644...

In 1568, a revision of the Great Bible known as the Bishop's Bible was introduced. Despite 19 editions being printed between 1568 and 1606, this Bible, referred to as the "rough draft of the King James Version", never gained much of a foothold of popularity among the people. The Geneva may have simply been too much to compete with.

In 1582, the Church of Rome surrendered their fight for “Latin only” and decided that if the Bible was to be available in English, they would at least have an official Roman Catholic English translation. And so, using the corrupt and inaccurate Latin Vulgate as the only source text, they went on to publish an English Bible with all the distortions and corruptions that Erasmus had revealed and warned of 75 years earlier. Because it was translated at the Roman Catholic College in the city of Rheims, it was known as the Rheims New Testament (also spelled Rhemes). The Douay Old Testament was translated by the Church of Rome in 1609 at the College in the city of Douay (also spelled Doway & Douai). The combined product is commonly referred to as the “Doway/Rheims” Version.

The Protestant clergy approached the new King (James I of England) in 1604 and announced their desire for a new translation to replace the Bishop’s Bible first printed in 1568. They knew that the Geneva Version had won the hearts of the people because of its excellent scholarship, accuracy, and exhaustive commentary. However, they did not want the controversial marginal notes (proclaiming the Pope an Anti-Christ, etc.)

This “translation to end all translations” (for a while at least) was the result of the combined effort of about fifty scholars. From 1605 to 1606 the scholars engaged in private research. From 1607 to 1609 the work was assembled. In 1610 the work went to press, and in 1611 the first of the huge (16 inch tall) pulpit folios known today as “The 1611 King James Bible” came off the printing press.

Notice the date 1611.

...for over 250 years...until the appearance of the English Revised Version of 1881-1885...the King James Version reigned without much of a rival. One little-known fact, is that for the past 200 years, all King James Bibles published in America are actually the 1769 Baskerville spelling and wording revision of the 1611. The original "1611" preface is deceptively included by the publishers, and no mention of the fact that it is really the 1769 version is to be found...

...the first English language Bible to be printed in America by Robert Aitken in 1782 was a King James Version.

America 1782.

The Two Witnesses had to be given the Writings of the Prophets and Apostles. They had to learn them and, in this generation, teach them in the Name of Yahweh, showing all the world that Yahweh is the Only Power. Therefore, the bible is a version of The Book of Yahweh.

Isayah 34:16–

Search out The Book Of Yahweh, and read. Not one of these will be neglected. For it is written: Yahweh is their Shepherd; they shall not want; for His Mouth has commanded it, and His Spirit has gathered them.

The second book or Part Two is the Work of the Savior and His twelve Disciples that was prophesied to be done to make The Book of Yahweh complete.

About 152 years before I was born, the bible was printed in the English language for Yahweh's Work in this generation. That only gave a short period of time to get the corporations in action, such as the British Bible Society, to print and distribute the bible to all families, in order to show the final Work of Yahweh in this present generation. To understand the use of the words God and Lord, which replaced the Creator's Name and that of the Savior, Yahshua Messiah, you need the following information. Pay close attention to what I have underlined for you.

The First Council of Nicaea and the "missing records"

Thus, the first ecclesiastical gathering in history was summoned and is today known as the Council of Nicaea. It was a bizarre event that provided many details of early clerical thinking and presents a clear picture of the intellectual climate prevailing at the time. It was at this gathering that Christianity was born and the ramifications of decisions made at the time are difficult to calculate. About four years prior to chairing the Council, Constantine had been initiated into the religious order of Sol Invictus, one of the two thriving cults that regarded the Sun as the one and only Supreme God (the other was Mithraism). Because of his Sun worship, he instructed Eusebius to convene the first of three sittings on the summer solstice, 21 June 325 (Catholic Encyclopedia, New Edition, vol. i, p. 792), and it was "held in a hall of Osius's palace" (Ecclesiastical History Bishop Louis Dupin, Paris, 1986, vol. i, p. 598).

From his extensive research into Church councils, Dr Watson concluded that "the clergy at the Council of Nicaea were all under the power of the devil and the convention was composed of the lowest rabble and patronised the vilest abominations" (An Apology for Christianity, op. cit.). It was that infantile body of men who were responsible for the commencement of a new religion and the theological creation of Jesus Christ.

Constantine's intention at Nicaea was to create an entirely new god for his empire who would unite all religious factions under one deity. Presbyters were asked to debate and decide who their new god would be. ...the names of 53 gods were tabled for discussion. "As yet, no God had been selected by the council, and so they balloted in order to determine that matter... For one year and five months the balloting lasted..." (God's Book of Eskra, Prof. S.L. MacGuire's translation, Salisbury, 1922, chapter xlviii, paragraphs 36, 41).

At the end of that time, Constantine returned to the gathering to discover that the presbyters had not agreed on a new deity but had balloted down to a short list of five prospects: Caesar, Krishna, Mithra, Horus and Zeus (Historia Ecclesiastica, Eusebius, c. 325). Constantine was the ruling spirit at Nicaea and he ultimately decided upon a new god for them. To involve British factions, he ruled that the name of the Druid god, Hesus, be joined with the Eastern Saviour-god, Krishna (Krishna is Sanskrit for Christ), and thus Hesus Krishna would be the official name of the new Roman god. A vote was taken and it was with a majority show of hands (161 votes to 157) that both divinities become one God. Following long-standing heathen custom, Constantine used the official gathering and the Roman apotheosis decree to legally deify two deities as one, and did so by democratic consent. A new god was proclaimed and "officially" ratified by Constantine (Acta Concilii Nicaeni, 1618). That purely political act of deification effectively and legally placed Hesus and Krishna among the Roman gods as one individual composite. That abstraction lent Earthly existence to amalgamated doctrines of the Empire's new religion; and because there was no letter "J" in alphabets until around the sixteenth century, the name subsequently evolved into "Jesus Christ".

Before this new name was placed in the Inspired Writings, the Savior's Name was correctly written as Yahshua, meaning Yahweh will save His People from their sins. The switch was made over 1500 years after The Book of Yahweh was taken to Rome and the temple destroyed. So, the words Jesus and Christ were not questioned, because this was the first time this book was seen. The Book of Yahweh, from which it came, had been hidden for over 1500 years.

What is the Arch of Titus?

The Victory Arch of Titus commemorates Titus' victorious conquest of Judaea, leading the sacking of Jerusalem and ending the Jewish wars. The arch was constructed after Titus's death in 81 c.e. after his becoming a god.

The wars were strictly religious. Anyone who believed as Yahchanan the Immerser, called John in the King James Version, was looked upon as a heretic by the Pharisees, Sadducees, Essenes and Herodians. There were many, and war was always being waged against them.

It was the same with Yahshua Messiah. Both He and Yahchanan taught Yahweh's Laws of Righteousness. Because their sins were exposed, the Pharisees, Sadducees, Essenes and Herodians, who owned the Roman army waged war against those who kept and taught Yahweh's Laws.

Yahchanan 15:22-23—

22 If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not have had their sins revealed; but now they have no cloak, covering for, their sins.

23 He who hates Me, also hates My Father.

The Roman army waged war against the twelve Disciples and their followers also for the same reason.

The Pharisees, Sadducees, Essenes and Herodians controlled Babylon and Rome. They decided to destroy Jerusalem and The House of Yahweh, and to move to Rome, thinking that there they would have full control. They changed their name to Catholic, meaning universal, which means the worship of all Gods, but not Yahweh, Who is not a God. So, they sent Titus to destroy the Temple and Jerusalem and move all the artifacts and wealth to Rome. Read on.

Where is the Arch of Titus?

The Arch of Titus is located on the highest point of the Via Sacra, a road leading to the Roman Forum. This is a single arch, 15.4m high, 13.5m wide, and 4.75m deep. The marble reliefs stand nearly 2.5m in height. On the Arch of Titus is a relief depicting the Romans' triumphal procession, returning with spoils from the Jewish Temple in Jerusalem. Especially prominent is the sacred Menorah, but we can also see the Table of the Shewbread, and the silver trumpets which called Jews to Rosh Hashanah.

They also took the wealth of all the families they murdered in Jerusalem and Israyl to Rome.

Now notice the history of removing Yahweh's Name from the Inspired Scriptures (bible) in order to add even further deception. All of this took place in the 1500 years that the Catholics had The Book of Yahweh, the Holy Scriptures, hidden from the public. From the Catechism of the Catholic Church, pages 62-63, 125, we see that the Name of Yahweh was replaced.

II. GOD REVEALS HIS NAME

203 God revealed himself to his people Israel by making his name known to them. A name expresses a person's essence and identity and the meaning of this person's life. God has a name; he is not an anonymous force. To disclose one's name is to make oneself known to others; in a way it is to hand oneself over by becoming accessible, capable of being known more intimately and addressed personally.

206 In revealing his mysterious name, YHWH ("I AM HE WHO IS", "I AM WHO AM" or "I AM WHO I AM"), God says who he is and by what name he is to be called.

209 Out of respect for the holiness of God, the people of Israel do not pronounce his name. In the reading of Sacred Scripture, the revealed name (YHWH) is replaced by the divine title "LORD" (in Hebrew Adonai, in Greek Kyrios). It is under this title that the divinity of Jesus will be acclaimed: "Jesus is LORD."

IV. LORD

446 In the Greek translation of the Old Testament, the ineffable Hebrew name YHWH, by which God revealed himself to Moses,⁵⁹ is rendered as Kyrios, "Lord". From then on, "Lord" becomes the more usual name by which to indicate the divinity of Israel's God. The New Testament uses this full sense of the title "Lord" both for the Father and – what is new – for

Jesus, who is thereby recognized as God Himself.⁶⁰

I was informed that since we brought this information to light a few years ago, that the Vatican has since removed it from the Catechisms of the Catholic Church, so if you seek this book, get an older copy. This shows even more deception and how they cover their evil tracks.

If you noticed, they tried to make the evil scheme of removing the Creator's Name and replacing it with the titles of the evil Gods they worshipped in Egypt look Righteous. With those activities, they, by the authority of Satan (Revelation 13:1-2), caused the whole world to worship this fourth beast of Daniyl and Revelation. This beast is still being worshipped every time the words Lord or God are used in prayer. Yahweh never, ever identified Himself as a God or Lord.

Unger's Bible Dictionary gives us the following information about the word Lord.

LORD. The rendering of several Heb. and Gk. words, which have different meanings:

1. Jehovah (yahweh: Heb. YHWH, "self-existent") This is used as a proper name of God and should have been retained in that form by the translators. See (The) Lord; Yahweh.

2. Lord (Heb. Adon), an early word denoting ownership; hence, absolute control. It is not properly a divine title, being used of the owner of slaves (Gen. 24:14, 27; 39:2, 7, rendered "master"), of kings as the lords of their subjects (Isa. 26:13, "master").

Yahweh brought His Words, The Book of Yahweh, back to the nations in this prophesied generation, so it could be preached in these Last Days by The House of Yahweh. House of Yahweh? This was foretold by Yahweh's Prophets Micahyah and Isayah in 750 BCE and 760 BCE.

Micahyah 4:1-3–

1 But in the Last Days it will come to pass that the mountain; promotion, of The House of Yahweh will be established in the chief of the nations. It will be raised above all congregations; and all peoples will eventually flow to it.

2 And many people will go and say; Come, and let us go up to the mountain; uplifting, of Yahweh, and to the House of the Father of Yaaqob, and He will teach us of His Ways, and we will walk in His Paths. Because the Laws will depart from Zion, and the Word of Yahweh from Yerusalem.

3 And He will judge between many people, and rebuke strong nations afar off; and they will beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks. Nation will not lift up sword against nation, nor will they learn war anymore.

Notice in verse 2 the words “teach us of His Ways”. The Ways of Yahweh have not been taught since the temple, Jerusalem, the twelve Disciples and their followers were destroyed. Notice again:

Isayah 34:16–

Search out The Book Of Yahweh, and read. Not one of these will be neglected. For it is written: Yahweh is their Shepherd; they shall not want; for His Mouth has commanded it, and His Spirit has gathered them.

Not one of these Prophecies will fail. That's the reason for Yahshua making the strong statement in:

Luke 24:25–

Then He said to them: O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the Prophets have spoken!

Take your time and make sure you understand the next Prophecy, because all the Prophecies for this generation are shown to come to pass only with increased knowledge. Notice now the Prophecy of knowledge will be increased.

Daniyl 12:4-6–

4 But you, O Daniyl, shut up the words, and seal the book to the time of The End; many will run to and fro, and knowledge will be increased.

5 Then I, Daniyl, looked; and behold, there stood two others, one on this side of the bank of the river, and the other on that side of the bank of the river.

6 And said to the man clothed in linen, who on that future day is teaching: How long will it be to the end of these wonders?

Notice in verse 4 the words “seal the book”. That Prophecy actually foretold of The Book of Yahweh and its daily reading being taken away from the people until a specific time period. Notice also in verse 4, “to the time of The End.” Verse 4 also shows, in the time of The End” knowledge will be increased.

Did this Prophecy come to pass? The answer is yes, starting in 1934 with the beginning of the computer. Vast amounts of knowledge are able to be stored and used. Read the history and notice the date, because it shows, as in Daniyl's work, when the End days would begin or the generation would begin, as shown in Yahshua Messiah's Prophecy in:

Mattithyah 24:3, 33-34–

3 Now as He sat on the Mount of Olives, the Disciples came to Him privately, saying; Tell us, when will these things be? What will be the sign of Your coming and The End of the Ages?

33 In the same way, when you see all these things, know that His coming and The End of the Ages are near, at the very door.

34 Truly I say to you: That generation will not pass away, until all these things are fulfilled.

Did you get that? The start of the increase in knowledge in 1934 actually started that generation and the Last Days of all these Prophecies shown from Mattithyah 24:7-34. Notice the date 1934 in the following article.

The Evolution of the Modern Computer. An Open Source Graphical History (1934 to 1950)

Please notice in Daniyl's Prophecy that The End time period or generation, there would be the greatest time of trouble ever.

Daniyl 12:1–

And at that time, one who is like Yahweh will stand up at Abel; Yisrayl, the Great Priest, who stands at Abel to teach Yahweh's Just, Perfect Laws to the children of Your People; and there will be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation to that same time. And at that time, Your People will be delivered, everyone who will be found written in The Book of Life.

Yahshua Messiah's Prophecy is speaking of this same time period. Compare:

Mattithyah 24:3, 7, 21-22, 29, 33-34-

3 Now as He sat on the Mount of Olives, the Disciples came to Him privately, saying; Tell us, when will these things be? What will be the sign of Your coming and The End of the Ages?

7 For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be famines, and pestilences; disease epidemics, and earthquakes; environmental disasters, in place after place:

21 For then will be Great Tribulation, such as has not come to pass since the beginning of the world to this time—no, nor ever will be.

22 And unless those days were shortened, there would no flesh be saved; but for the Elect's sake, those days will be shortened.

29 Immediately, but after the Great Tribulation of those days will the sun be darkened, and the moon will not give her light, and the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken.

33 In the same way, when you see all these things, know that His coming and The End of the Ages are near, at the very door.

34 Truly I say to you: That generation will not pass away, until all these things are fulfilled.

Notice that verse 3 shows the time period called “The End” while verse 7 shows the hatred and violence, vengeance and retaliation that all nations are now suffering. The Global Peace Index shows that the wars in this generation are wreaking havoc on economies, as the world spends $14.3 trillion in a steady shift away from peace and into conflicts related to violence.

Verses 21 and 22 show the same time period as Daniyl’s Prophecy. Yahshua and Daniyl show this generation to be the greatest time of trouble ever, and each show it to be the time of The End. This shows that both men are speaking of the same time period. Yahshua adds to this Prophecy the nuclear bombs that are capable of darkening the sun. Notice:

Mattithyah 24:29–

Immediately, but after the Great Tribulation of those days will the sun be darkened, and the moon will not give her light, and the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken.

The nuclear bombs came with the increase of knowledge. In fact, they both started in the same year. Know this also, the bombs could not have been built without the use of the computer.

Daniyl 12:4–

But you, O Daniyl, shut up the words, and seal the book to the time of The End; many will run to and fro, and knowledge will be increased.

Daniyl 12:4 shows us two things: the time of The End and knowledge would be increased. The bombs, too, started in 1934.

Please notice the date 1934 given in the article of the bomb.

Leo Szilard – Patenting the Atomic Bomb

Hungarian physicist, Leo Szilard was the first person to conceive of the nuclear chain reaction and the atomic bomb. He was noted for his contributions to the fields of thermodynamics, biophysics, nuclear physics, and the development of atomic energy.

Leo Szilard was part of the group of scientists that invented the atomic bomb as part of the Manhattan Project.

Leo Szilard – Nuclear Chain Reaction Patent:

On July 4, 1934 Leo Szilard filed the first patent application for the method of producing a nuclear chain reaction aka nuclear explosion. His British patent included a description of a “neutron induced chain reactions to create explosions”, and the concept of critical mass. The patent was given to the British War Office as part of the war effort.

Can they really darken the sun? The following article, and essay from Discover magazine, February, 1984, deals directly with the consequences of nuclear war.

Dr. Thomas was one of the four American scientists who, at the invitation of Senators Edward Kennedy and Mark Hatfield, met in Washington in December for a three-hour open discussion with four Soviet counterparts. The subject of their discussion: the nuclear winter (DISCOVER, January).

Two scientific reports have recently been published, dealing with the probable effects of nuclear war upon the earth's climate and the life of the planet. The first discovery is already widely known within the scientific community of climatologists, geophysicists, and biologists here and abroad, and has been confirmed in detail by scientists in the Soviet Union. Computer models demonstrate that a nuclear war involving the exchange of less than one third of the total American and Soviet arsenal will change the climate of the entire Northern Hemisphere, shifting it abruptly from its present seasonal state to a long, sunless, frozen night. This will be followed after some months by a settling of nuclear soot and dust, then by a new malignant kind of sunlight, with all of its ultraviolet band, capable of blinding most terrestrial animals, no longer shielded from the earth by the ozonosphere. In the same research, new calculations of the extent and intensity of radioactive fallout predict the exposure of large land areas to much more intense levels of radiation than expected. The report is referred to as TTAPS, an acronym derived from the investigators' names: Turco, Toon, Ackerman, Pollack, and Sagan.

The second piece of work, by Paul Ehrlich and 19 other distinguished biologists, demonstrates that the predictions of TTAPS mean nothing less than the extinction of much of the earth's biosphere, very possibly involving the Southern Hemisphere as well as the Northern.

Taken together, the two papers change everything in the world about the prospect of thermonuclear warfare. They have already received a careful and critical review by scientists representing the disciplines concerned, here and abroad, and there already appears to be an unprecedented degree of concurrence with the technical details as well as the conclusions drawn. In the view of some referees, the TTAPS report may even be understating the climatological damage implied by its data. The 20 biologists' paper, summarized by Professor Ehrlich, represents the consensus arrived at by 40 biological scientists at a meeting in Woods Hole, Massachusetts, last spring.

It is a new world, demanding a new kind of diplomacy and a new logic.

Up to now, the international community of statesmen, diplomats, and military analysts has tended to regard the prospect of nuclear war as a problem only for the adversaries in possession of the weapons. Arms control and the endless negotiations aimed at the reduction of nuclear explosives have been viewed as the responsibility, even the prerogative, of those few nations in actual confrontation. Now all that is changed. There is no nation on earth free of the jeopardy of destruction if any two countries, or groups of countries, embark upon a nuclear exchange. If the Soviet Union and the United States, and their respective allies in the Warsaw Pact and NATO, begin to launch their missiles beyond a still undetermined and ambiguous minimum, neutral states like Sweden and Switzerland are in for the same long-term effects, the same slow death, as the actual participants. Australia and New Zealand, Brazil and South Africa, could have as much to worry about as West Germany if a full-scale exchange were to take place far to the north.

Up to now, we have all tended to regard any conflict with nuclear arms as an effort by paired adversaries to settle such issues as territorial dominance or ideological dispute. Now, with the new findings before us, it is clear that any territory gained will be, at the end, a barren wasteland, and any ideology will vanish in the death of civilization and the permanent loss of mankind's memory of culture.

The risks of this kind of war have conventionally been calculated by the numbers of dead human beings on either side at the end of the battle, armies and noncombatants together. The terms "acceptable" and "unacceptable," signifying so-and-so many million human casualties, have been used for making cool judgments about the need for new and more accurate weapon systems. From now on, things are different. Leave aside the already taken for granted estimate that in an all-out exchange of, say, 5,000 megatons, something like a billion people would be killed outright by blast, heat, and radiation. Set aside as well the likely fact that more than another billion would die later on, from the delayed effects of the climate and radioactive fallout.

Yahweh warns the world first. The warning for this generation comes from the Two Witnesses. Both the Prophet Daniyl and Yahshua Messiah speak of a prophesied Work of Yahweh for the same time period, to be done by the Two Witnesses.

I urge you to get the 'Yisrayl Hawkins Says' Program and type in "Two Witnesses", then read the many Prophecies concerning these two men. They are the most accurate Prophecies, like those just read, concerning the nuclear bombs that can darken the sun in this generation, the start of which was in 1934. These nuclear bombs could not have been built without this increase in knowledge, which also started in 1934 along with the patent of the world's first computer.

The Two Witnesses were prophesied to be brothers of the same womb. That Prophecy would not start until both were born, the last of which was born in 1934. Yes, I was born in the same year in which both the computer and the bombs were started. The Two Witnesses teach the wonderful blessings that come forth from the Inspired Scriptures. Those Inspired Scriptures were sealed up as Daniyl's Prophecy shows until the final Prophesied Work was brought forth that would warn all nations, and then The End.

Daniyl 12:4–

But you, O Daniyl, shut up the words, and seal the book to the time of The End; many will run to and fro, and knowledge will be increased.

Mattithyah 24:14–

And this joyous Message of the Kingdom of Yahweh shall be preached in all the world from The House of Yahweh at Abel by the Witness Yisrayl; for Yahweh will be with him. He will preach this Message to all nations; and then The End will come.

Not only were the Scriptures sealed, but The Book of Yahweh was stolen from The House of Yahweh, called the temple, by the Pharisees, Sadducees, Essenes and Herodians. The Book of Yahweh was carried to Rome along with all the artifacts of the temple and all the wealth of Jerusalem and most of Israyl by General Titus, where they were hidden for over 1500 years.

What is the Arch of Titus?

The Victory Arch of Titus commemorates Titus' victorious conquest of Judaea, leading the sacking of Jerusalem and ending the Jewish wars. The arch was constructed after Titus's death in 81 c.e. after his becoming a god.

Where is the Arch of Titus?

The Arch of Titus is located on the highest point of the Via Sacra, a road leading to the Roman Forum. This is a single arch, 15.4m high, 13.5m wide, and 4.75m deep. The marble reliefs stand nearly 2.5m in height. On the Arch of Titus is a relief depicting the Romans' triumphal procession, returning with spoils from the Jewish Temple in Jerusalem. Especially prominent is the sacred Menorah, but we can also see the Table of the Shewbread, and the silver trumpets which called Jews to Rosh Hashanah.

The Roman Catholic Church would not allow The Book of Yahweh to be seen, read or owned by individuals for over 1500 years, but Yahweh would change that. He showed in Prophecy the time period when He would have it available again for His Last Days' Prophesied Work. Notice:

Micahyah 4:1-3—

1 But in the Last Days it will come to pass that the mountain; promotion, of The House of Yahweh will be established in the chief of the nations. It will be raised above all congregations; and all peoples will eventually flow to it.

2 And many people will go and say; Come, and let us go up to the mountain; uplifting, of Yahweh, and to the House of the Father of Yaaqob, and He will teach us of His Ways, and we will walk in His Paths. Because the Laws will depart from Zion, and the Word of Yahweh from Yerusalem.

3 And He will judge between many people, and rebuke strong nations afar off; and they will beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks. Nation will not lift up sword against nation, nor will they learn war anymore.

Isayah 2:1-4–

1 The word that Isayah son of Amoz saw concerning Yahdah and Yerusalem.

2 It will come to pass in the Last Days, that the mountain; promotion, of The House of Yahweh will be established in the chief of the nations, and will be raised above all congregations; and all nations will eventually flow to it.

3 And many people will go and say; Come, and let us go up to the mountain of Yahweh, to the House of the Father of Yaaqob, and He will teach us of His Ways, and we will walk in His paths. For the Laws will depart from Zion, and the Word of Yahweh will depart from Yerusalem.

4 He will judge among the nations, and will rebuke many people; they will beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks; nation will not lift up sword against nation, neither will they learn war anymore.

Notice verse 4, know and believe wars will stop in this generation due to the planned Work of Yahweh, of which you can be a part. Notice in verse 3: many people will go to The House of Yahweh. Compare that with the Words of the Savior, Yahshua Messiah.

Mattithyah 6:33–

But seek you first the Kingdom of Yahweh and His Righteousness, and all these things will be added to you.

This is the first generation in over 1500 years in which the Message of the Kingdom of Yahweh and His Righteousness are being preached. Compare also:

Deuteronomy 12:5–

But you are to seek the Habitation of your Father; The House of Yahweh—the place which Yahweh your Father shall choose out of all your tribes to establish His Name—and there you must go.

Remember the Habitation of Yahweh was destroyed in 70 CE, but it was prophesied to be here again in this prophesied generation.

Micahyah 4:1–

But in the Last Days it will come to pass that the mountain; promotion, of The House of Yahweh will be established in the chief of the nations. It will be raised above all congregations; and all peoples will eventually flow to it.

It's here! The Habitation of Father Yahweh, The House of Yahweh, is reaching all nations with the Laws and Prophecies of Yahweh from the chief of the nations. Notice the last part of Deuteronomy 12:5, “there you must go”. Compare again:

Mattithyah 6:33–

...His Righteousness...

Yahweh's Righteousness is what all religions are ignoring in this generation because of fear of reprisal from the Roman Catholic Church. Christian preachers will not dare preach the Righteousness of Yahweh. The Righteousness of Yahweh is the Laws of Yahweh, which the Savior instructs to keep for Life and health.

Mattithyah 19:17–

But He said to him: Why do you question Me about Righteousness? There is only One Who is the Standard of Perfection, and He is Yahweh; so if you would enter into Life, keep the Laws of Yahweh.

Revelation 22:12-14–

12 And behold, I come quickly, and My Reward is with Me, to give every man according as his work will be.

13 I am the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End.

14 Blessed are those who keep His Laws, that they may have right to the Tree of Life, and may enter in through the gates into the City.

Yahchanan 5:14–

Afterward, Yahshua found him in the sacred precincts of The House of Yahweh, and said to him: Behold, you are healed. Sin no more, or a worse thing will come upon you.

Revelation 18:1-5–

1 And after these things I saw another malak come down from heaven, having great authority; and the earth was enlightened with His glory.

2 And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying: Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of demons, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

3 For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth have grown rich through the abundance of her delicacies.

4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying: Come out of her, My People, so that you do not partake in her sins, and so that you do not receive of her plagues,

5 For her sins have reached unto heaven, and Yahweh has remembered her iniquities!

Being fearful of the Roman Catholic Church, preachers tell their flocks that the Savior did away with the Laws of Righteousness. Of course, that's not true, even as you just read. Yahshua Messiah said you must keep them. But the people let their preachers deceive them, as is the whole world.

Revelation 12:9–

And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the devil, and Satan, who deceives the whole world. She was cast out into the earth, and her angels were cast out with her.

You are now being warned by Yahweh that sickness follows the breaking of Yahweh's Laws. You just read it.

Yahchanan 5:14–

Afterward, Yahshua found him in the sacred precincts of The House of Yahweh, and said to him: Behold, you are healed. Sin no more, or a worse thing will come upon you.

Revelation 18:1-5–

1 And after these things I saw another malak come down from heaven, having great authority; and the earth was enlightened with His glory.

2 And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying: Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of demons, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

3 For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth have grown rich through the abundance of her delicacies.

4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying: Come out of her, My People, so that you do not partake in her sins, and so that you do not receive of her plagues,

5 For her sins have reached unto heaven, and Yahweh has remembered her iniquities!

Revelation is the last book in your bible, and it's still saying "do not sin". What is sin? Answer!

I Yahchanan 3:4–

Whoever commits sin, transgresses also the Laws; for sin is the transgression of the Laws.

Sin causes sickness, disease, and cancers of all kinds. Every sickness and disease in your body or that of your children were caused by your sins or the sins of your parents, grandparents, great-grandparents or even your great-great-grandparents. Yes, these curses caused by sins The Book of Yahweh shows reach to the third and fourth generation. In this generation, birth defects have soared. Why? Could it be the following?

II Timayah 3:1-6–

1 Know this also: that in the Last Days perilous times will come.

2 For men will be lovers of themselves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy,

3 Without natural affection, trucebreakers, unforgiving, false accusers, without self-control, brutal, despisers of those who are Righteous,

4 Traitors; betrayers, headstrong, arrogant, lovers of pleasure more than lovers of Yahweh,

5 Having a form of Holiness, but denying the Authority of it—from such turn away!

6 For they are the sort who creep into the houses, and lead away silly women who are loaded down with sins, captured by various lusts.

In verse 1, notice the words “Last Days”. The Last Days are speaking of the same time period of which the Prophet Daniyl wrote. It is a time of The End and the greatest trouble ever brought to the earth and heavens. All of this is because of the religions teaching the people the ways of Satan.

Daniyl 12:4—

But you, O Daniyl, shut up the words, and seal the book to the time of The End; many will run to and fro, and knowledge will be increased.

It's also the same time of The End or this generation, in which iniquity has abounded and sin has overshadowed the earth and the heavens, because the religious leaders are afraid to preach or seek Righteousness.

Mattithyah 6:33—

But seek you first the Kingdom of Yahweh and His Righteousness, and all these things will be added to you.

Yes, they are still afraid of reprisal.

Please know that the Savior, Yahshua Messiah, is showing you what is taking place in this present generation.

Mattithyah 24:7, 21-22, 11-12, 33-34–

7 For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be famines, and pestilences; disease epidemics, and earthquakes; environmental disasters, in place after place:

21 For then will be Great Tribulation, such as has not come to pass since the beginning of the world to this time—no, nor ever will be.

22 And unless those days were shortened, there would no flesh be saved; but for the Elect's sake, those days will be shortened.

11 And many false prophets will rise, and will deceive the many.

12 And because iniquity will abound, the love of the many will grow cold.

33 In the same way, when you see all these things, know that His coming and The End of the Ages are near, at the very door.

34 Truly I say to you: That generation will not pass away, until all these things are fulfilled.

Everything around you is getting worse, not better. Hatred is getting worse because sins are increasing. The Roman Catholic Church worships Gods, as shown, to bring forth evil as shown in:

Genesis 3:5–

For He knows that in the day you eat of it, your eyes will be opened, and you will be as Gods (elohim), knowing Righteousness and evil

The Roman Catholic Church has spread their teachings to all nations for 2000 years without the Truth being told at all. Your bible shows that breaking the health Laws causes the sickness and confusion that cause the hatred. Back to:

II Timothy 3:2

For men will be lovers of themselves...

When a man or woman has an STD, it can be passed onto the children of the man who fathered them when sex is performed. An example would be syphilis, which has abounded like iniquity.

The religions are all fulfilling Mattithyah 24:11-12, causing iniquity to abound. By teaching that Yahweh's Laws of Righteousness have been done away with, all religions today are causing the whole world to practice sin, the evil of the Gods.

Genesis 3:5–

For He knows that in the day you eat of it, your eyes will be opened, and you will be as Gods (elohim), knowing Righteousness and evil.

Did you notice in Genesis 1:26, evil like the Gods, instead of Righteous like Yahweh?

Mattithyah 24:11-12–

11 And many false prophets will rise, and will deceive the many.

12 And because iniquity will abound, the love of the many will grow cold.

Iniquity means doing away with Yahweh's Laws, taking them away from the people. That's what all religions are doing at this time. They are all bringing forth iniquity. They are all false prophets.

Mattithyah 7:13-17–

13 Enter in through the narrow gate; for wide is the gate and broad is the way that leads to destruction, and many are those who go that way.

14 Because straight is the gate, and narrow is the way which leads to life, and few there are who find it.

15 Beware of false prophets who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves.

16 You will know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes from thorns, or figs from thistles?

17 Likewise, every Righteous tree brings forth Righteous fruit; but a tree of evil brings forth fruit of iniquity.

What is Righteousness and what is sin? Look!

Deuteronomy 6:25

And it will be our Righteousness if we observe to do all of these Laws before Yahweh our Father, as He has commanded us.

I Yahchanan 3:4, 7-8, 10–

4 Whoever commits sin, transgresses also the Laws; for sin is the transgression of the Laws.

7 Little children, let no man deceive you; he who practices Righteousness is Righteous, just as He is Righteous.

8 He who commits sin is of the devil, for the devil has sinned from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of Yahweh was manifested; that He might destroy the works of the devil.

10 In this the Children of Yahweh and the children of the devil are manifest. Whoever does not practice Righteousness is not of Yahweh, and he does not love his neighbor!

Did you notice verse 8? All of the religions belong to Satan, because they all practice sin, as your bible shows clearly.

I Corinthians 6:1, 9-10, 18–

1 How dare any of you, when he has a dispute against another brother, take it to court before the unrighteous judges, and not before the Saints?

9 Do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the Kingdom of Yahweh? Do not deceive yourselves. Neither fornicators, nor God worshipers (worshippers of elohim), nor adulterers, nor men who commit sexual perversions with boys, nor men who commit sexual perversions with other men,

10 Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, will inherit the Kingdom of Yahweh.

18 Flee sexual immorality! All other sins that a man commits are outside his body; but he who sins sexually, sins against his own body.

Back to:

II Timayah 3:1-3–

1 Know this also: that in the Last Days perilous times will come.

2 For men will be lovers of themselves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy,

3 Without natural affection, trucebreakers, unforgiving, false accusers, without self-control, brutal, despisers of those who are Righteous.

Anyone would be a fool not to see the accuracy in this Prophecy for this prophesied generation. As a result of iniquity and sin abounding from practicing evil like the Gods, we have what was also accurately foretold to this generation by Yahweh's Prophet Isayah.

Isayah 24:1-6–

1 Before Yahweh's very Eyes, the earth is made empty and it is made waste; the face of it is perverted and its inhabitants scattered abroad;

2 And it will be: as with the people, so with the priest; as with the servant, so with his owner; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with him who takes usury, so with him who gives usury to him:

3 The land will be utterly emptied and utterly plundered, for it has come to pass that this Judgment has been pronounced.

4 The earth mourns and fades away, the world mourns and fades away, and the haughty people of the earth languish.

5 The earth also is defiled under the inhabitants of it, because they have transgressed the Laws, changed the Ordinance, and broken the Everlasting Covenant.

6 Because of this, the curse has devoured the earth, and they who dwell therein are desolate; therefore, the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left.

Back to:

II Timothy 3:1-3–

1 Know this also: that in the last days perilous times will come.

2 For men will be lovers of themselves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy,

3 Without natural affection, trucebreakers, unforgiving, false accusers, without self-control, brutal, despisers of those who are Righteous.

What does your bible show caused this? Read again:

Isayah 24:5-6–

5 The earth also is defiled under the inhabitants of it, because they have transgressed the Laws, changed the Ordinance, and broken the Everlasting Covenant.

6 Because of this, the curse has devoured the earth, and they who dwell therein are desolate; therefore, the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left.

Compare:

Mattithyah 24:12–

And because iniquity will abound, the love of the many will grow cold.

Compare:

I Yahchanan 3:4, 7-8, 10–

4 Whoever commits sin, transgresses also the Laws; for sin is the transgression of the Laws.

7 Little children, let no man deceive you; he who practices Righteousness is Righteous, just as He is Righteous.

8 He who commits sin is of the devil, for the devil has sinned from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of Yahweh was manifested; that He might destroy the works of the devil.

10 In this the Children of Yahweh and the children of the devil are manifest. Whoever does not practice Righteousness is not of Yahweh, and he does not love his neighbor!

Notice:

Verse 10, the last part: Whoever does not practice...

Verse 4: Yahweh's Laws.

Verse 10: Does not love.

Because iniquity abounds and because the religions teach that Yahweh's Laws of Righteousness have been done away, they love only themselves. They practice sin and spread their curses by spreading STDs that cause every kind of sickness and disease. Because they spread this even to their children, they spread birth defects of all kinds. This is most accurately shown in:

Deuteronomy 28:15-24–

15 However, if you do not obey Yahweh your Father, and do not carefully follow all His Laws and His statutes, which I command you this day, then all these curses will come upon you, and accompany you:

16 Cursed will you be in the city, and cursed will you be in the country.

17 Cursed will be your basket and your storehouse.

18 Cursed will be the fruit of your body, the produce of your land, the calves of your herds, and the lambs of your flocks.

19 Cursed will you be when you come in, and cursed will you be when you go out.

20 Because of the wickedness you have done in forsaking Me, it will come to pass that you will have given yourselves over to curses, confusion, and rebuke, in everything you put your hand to do, until you are destroyed and come to sudden ruin.

21 It will come to pass that you will cause the plagues to cling to you, until you are destroyed from the land you are entering to possess.

22 It will come to pass that you will cause yourselves to be struck with consumption, with a fever, with an inflammation, with scorching heat, with the sword, with blasting, and with mildew; they will stay with you, until you perish.

23 And the heaven that is over your heads shall be brass, and the earth under you shall be iron.

24 It will come to pass that you will cause the rain of your land to become powder and dust: from heaven it shall come down upon you, until you are destroyed.

Verses 22-24 show the nuclear burning that will darken the sun, as shown by the Savior for this generation.

Mattithyah 24:21-22, 29, 33-34–

21 For then will be Great Tribulation, such as has not come to pass since the beginning of the world to this time—no, nor ever will be.

22 And unless those days were shortened, there would no flesh be saved; but for the Elect's sake, those days will be shortened.

29 Immediately, but after the Great Tribulation of those days will the sun be darkened, and the moon will not give her light, and the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken.

33 In the same way, when you see all these things, know that His coming and The End of the Ages are near, at the very door.

34 Truly I say to you: That generation will not pass away, until all these things are fulfilled.

There are Blessings galore for those who will repent and convert to practicing Yahweh's Righteousness, including Eternal Life.

Acts 3:19–

Repent therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out; that times of refreshing may come from the Presence of Yahweh.

Revelation 22:12-14–

12 And behold, I come quickly, and My Reward is with Me, to give every man according as his work will be.

13 I am the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End.

14 Blessed are those who keep His Laws, that they may have right to the Tree of Life, and may enter in through the gates into the City.

Stop letting the religions ruin your health and your future. Cash in on Yahweh's Blessings that He offers you now by obedience.

Romans 6:16–

Do you not know that to whom you yield yourselves as servants to obey, his servants you are whom you obey—whether of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to Righteousness?

II Corinthians 6:17-18–

17 Therefore: Come out from among them and be separate, says Yahweh. Do not touch the unclean thing, and I will receive you.

18 I will be a Father to you, and you will be My sons and daughters, says Yahweh Almighty.

II Corinthians 6:14-18–

14 Do not be unequally yoked together with unbelievers. For what fellowship has ^Righteousness with unrighteousness? And what fellowship does light have with darkness?

15 And what harmony can there be between Messiah and Belial; Worthlessness: Satan? Or what share does a believer have with an infidel; untrustworthy, not faithful, not true nor loyal?

16 And what agreement does The House of Yahweh have with gods (elohim)? For we are the House of the living Father. As Yahweh has said: I will dwell in them and walk among them. I will be their Father, and they will be My people.

17 Therefore: Come out from among them and be separate, says Yahweh. Do not touch the unclean thing, and I will receive you.

18 I will be a Father to you, and you will be My sons and daughters, says Yahweh Almighty.

Yahweh will bless you if you will repent and be converted.

Deuteronomy 28:1-14–

1 And it will be, if you will listen diligently to the voice of Yahweh your Father, by observing and doing all His Laws which I command you this day, that Yahweh your Father will set you high above all the nations on earth as His kings and priests.

2 And all these blessings will come upon you, and accompany you, because you obey Yahweh your Father:

3 Blessed will you be in the city, and blessed will you be in the country.

4 Blessed will be the fruit of your body, the produce of your ground, and the young of your livestock: the calves of your herds and the lambs of your flocks.

5 Blessed will be your basket and your storehouse.

6 Blessed will you be when you come in, and blessed will you be when you go out.

7 Yahweh will cause your enemies, who rise up against you, to be defeated in front of you; they will come out against you from one direction, but flee from you in seven directions.

8 Yahweh will send a blessing on your barns and storehouses, and in everything you set your hand to do. Yahweh will bless you in the land which Yahweh your Father is giving you.

9 Yahweh will establish you as His Holy People unto Himself, as He promised you on oath, if you will keep the Laws of Yahweh your Father, and walk in all His ways.

10 Then all the people on the earth will see that you are called by the Name of Yahweh, and they will reverence you.

11 Yahweh will grant you plenteous possessions—in the fruit of your body, in the increase of your livestock, and in the produce of your ground—in the land Yahweh vowed on oath to your forefathers to give you.

12 Yahweh will open the heavens, the storehouse of His bountiful treasure, to send rain upon your land in its season, and to bless all the work of your hands. You will lend to many nations, but you will borrow from none.

13 Yahweh will make you the head, and not the tail. You will be at the top only, and never be at the bottom, if you will pay attention to the Laws of Yahweh your Father, which I command you this day, and are then careful to observe and do them.

14 For if you diligently observe and do all of Yahweh's Law, then you will not turn aside from any of the Laws which I command you this day, to the right hand nor to the left; by going after any God (el) to serve.

All of these Blessings are yours, for the followers of Yahweh's Righteousness. Notice:

Psalm 19:11–

Moreover by them are Your servants warned, and in keeping them there is great reward.

Great reward!

Psalm 19:7-11–

7 The Laws of Yahweh are Perfect, converting the whole person. The Testimony of Yahweh is sure, making the simple ones wise.

8 The Statutes of Yahweh are right, rejoicing the heart; mind. The Commandments of Yahweh are pure, bringing understanding to the eyes.

9 The reverence of Yahweh is clean, enduring forever. The Judgments of Yahweh are true and altogether Righteous.

10 They are more to be desired than gold, yes, than even much fine gold. They are sweeter than honey and the honeycomb.

11 Moreover by them are Your servants warned, and in keeping them there is great reward.

Great reward!

Revelation 22:12-14–

12 And behold, I come quickly, and My Reward is with Me, to give every man according as his work will be.

13 I am the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End.

14 Blessed are those who keep His Laws, that they may have right to the Tree of Life, and may enter in through the gates into the City.

Great reward!

Psalms 19:12-14–

12 Who can understand his errors? Cleanse us of concealed and hidden iniquities.

13 Also keep back Your servants from presumptuous sins, and do not let them rule over us. Then we shall be upright, and we shall be innocent of the great transgression.

14 Let the words of our mouths, and the meditation of our hearts, be ones acceptable in Your sight, O Yahweh, our Rock and our Redeemer!

Great reward!

Revelation 2:7–

He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the called out ones of The House of Yahweh. To him who overcomes I will give to eat from the Tree of Life, which is in the midst of the Garden of Yahweh.

Great reward!

Revelation 2:11–

He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the called out ones of The House of Yahweh. He who overcomes will not be hurt by the second death.

Great reward!

Revelation 2:26–

And he who overcomes, and keeps My Works until The End, to him I will give power over the nations.

Notice, that's why you are being created. Compare:

Genesis 1:26–

Then Yahweh said: I will make man in My Image, according to My Likeness; they will have Authority over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the air, over the cattle, and over all the earth and over every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth.

Great reward!

Revelation 3:5–

He who overcomes, the same will be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name from The Book of Life, but I will confess his name before My Father and before His Malakim.

Great reward!

Revelation 3:21–

To him who overcomes I will grant to sit with Me on My Throne, as I also overcame, and sat down with My Father on His Throne.

Great reward!

Revelation 21:7–

He who overcomes will inherit all things; and I will be his Father, and he will be My son.

Great reward!

Revelation 22:12-14–

12 And behold, I come quickly, and My Reward is with Me, to give every man according as his work will be.

13 I am the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End.

14 Blessed are those who keep His Laws, that they may have right to the Tree of Life, and may enter in through the gates into the City.

But those, in God “we” trust, who do not believe all that the Prophets of Yahweh have spoken:

Luke 24:25–

Then He said to them: O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the Prophets have spoken!

Revelation 21:8–

But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and worshipers of Gods (elohim), and all liars, will have their part in the lake which burns with fire and brimstone—which is the second death.

Revelation 20:11-15–

11 And I saw a Great White Throne, and Him Who sat on it, from Whose Face the powers of the earth and the powers of the heavens, including the Gods (elohim), were driven away; for the verdict was reached that there is no place for them.

12 And I saw the dead, small and great, standing before Yahweh. And the books were opened; and another book was opened, which is The Book of Life. And the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works.

13 And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and sheol; the grave, delivered up the dead which were in them. And they were judged, every man, according to his works.

14 And death and sheol were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death.

15 And whoever was not found written in The Book of Life was cast into the lake of fire.

Isayah 66:17–

They who sanctify themselves, and purify themselves in the gardens, following after the priest in the midst of those who eat swine's flesh, that which is offered to Gods (elohim) and the rodent—will be consumed together: says Yahweh.

Yahshua said:

Mattithyah 6:33–

But seek you first the Kingdom of Yahweh and His Righteousness, and all these things will be added to you.

Deuteronomy 12:5–

But you are to seek the Habitation of your Father; The House of Yahweh—the place which Yahweh your Father shall choose out of all your tribes to establish His Name—and there you must go.

Deuteronomy 12:7-8–

7 There, in front of Yahweh your Father, you and your families shall eat, and you shall rejoice in all that you have put your hand to do, because Yahweh your Father has blessed you.

8 You must not at all do as we are doing here this day—every man doing whatever is right in his own eyes—

Isayah 66:23-24—

23 And it will come to pass that from one New Moon to another, and from one Sabbath to another, all flesh will come to worship before Me, says Yahweh.

24 And they will go forth and look upon the carcasses of the men who have transgressed against Me; for their worm will not die, nor will their fire be quenched; and they will be an abhorrence to all flesh.

Micahyah 4:1-3—

1 But in the Last Days it will come to pass that the mountain; promotion, of The House of Yahweh will be established in the chief of the nations. It will be raised above all congregations; and all peoples will eventually flow to it.

2 And many people will go and say; Come, and let us go up to the mountain; uplifting, of Yahweh, and to the House of the Father of Yaaqob, and He will teach us of His Ways, and we will walk in His Paths. Because the Laws will depart from Zion, and the Word of Yahweh from Yerusalem.

3 And He will judge between many people, and rebuke strong nations afar off; and they will beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks. Nation will not lift up sword against nation, nor will they learn war anymore.
