

Rome to burn with Nuclear Burning–Prophecy

The city that sits on seven hills has been very active in fulfilling the Words of the Inspired Prophets of Yahweh as shown in your bible. We are shown in Revelation Chapter 17 the city that reigns over the kings of the earth in this generation and identifies that city as sitting on seven hills.

Notice:

Revelation 17:18, 9

18 And the woman whom you saw, is that great city which reigns over the kings of the earth.

9 And here is the mind which has wisdom: The seven heads are seven mountains on which the woman sits.

There is no other city on earth that sits on seven hills with a religious leader that is visited by all world leaders, including the President of the United States of America. And the will of the one they're bringing forth is the catholic church, the pope.

This was made manifest to the world by the news media in the Reagan administration. He would call the pope like twice a week to get his orders, to get guidance from the pope. The House of Yahweh goes before Yahweh once a week to get guidance and then three times a year at the Feasts. The world leaders go before their guiding power twice a week by telephone. And then they visit him in person behind closed doors to get what they don't want anyone to be able to pick up by phone tapping. The Pope now is guiding all the nations that are in conjunction with the Quartet, as is shown in the Inspired Scriptures.

The world's governmental and political leaders fully realize that the pope is a world geopolitical leader. Reading from The Keys Of This Blood, authored by the late Malachi Martin, a top writer for the roman catholic church, pages 142-143, we find this information:

The holder of those Keys authorizes a living network of representatives to speak directly for him. He dispatches his own on-the-spot spokesmen abroad to act for him in at least ninety countries.

Like any secular diplomatic corps, this personal papal network is divided into ranks of some complexity. Thus, each rank is designed to cover a particular type of mission. And each rank, each title and each mission functions as a working, living part of a global system of government and influence whose center is the Vatican and whose embodiment is the Pope himself in his international designation as the "Holy See."

What captures the unwavering attention of the secular leaders of the world in this remarkable network of the Roman Catholic Church is precisely the fact that it places at the personal disposal of the Pope a supranational, supra-continental, supra-trade-bloc structure that is so built and oriented that if tomorrow or next week, by a sudden miracle, a one-world government were established, the Church would not have to undergo any essential structural change in order to retain its dominant position and to further its global aims.

The most important facts and details about the Roman Church from the point of view of any secular power holder, however, all come down to one point. There is a tacit agreement among the great international political and financial leaders that the very attributes that give the Holy See its georeligious power and capability provide it, as well, with everything essential for the same power and capability on the political plane. In secular eyes, the Roman Church stands alone in every practical sense—and not merely among religious and ethical structures and groups—as the first fully realized, fully practicing and totally independent geopolitical force in the current world arena. And the Pope, as the sole legitimate head of the Holy See's organizational institution and structures—as the only one who fixes the overall goal of that institution's efforts—is by definition the world's first fully fledged geopolitical leader.

The following excerpted Dateline interview by Stone Phillips with Carl Bernstein is about the power of the Pope.

Phillips: The Pope – how many divisions has he got? Soviet Dictator, Joseph Stalin, poking fun at the fact that as one of the world's most powerful men doesn't have a single soldier to command. And yet according to a new book, it was a Pope, Pope John Paul II, who helped trigger the collapse of the Soviet Empire. Tonight the exclusive story of how a Pope, a President and a spy secretly conspired to wage and win the cold war.

Bernstein: We now have the missing pieces of the puzzle of how communism fell, because the Pope's role has always been what is missing. This is a man who has marked his time. He has marked our era.

It's a portrait of Pope John Paul II you've never seen before, perhaps never even imagined. A religious leader playing a pivotal role in the political struggle of the century, and who's painting the portrait may surprise you too.

Bernstein: The great story of our time is the fall of communism and the central player who hastened the demise of the fall of communism is this Pope from Poland.

Pulitzer Prize winning, Watergate reporter Carl Bernstein says what he and co-author Marco Politi discovered and detailed in their new book about the Pope surprised even him.

Bernstein: If anybody would have told me ten years ago that I would be sitting here across from you and saying that the Pope of Rome was one of the most important figures of the second part of the twentieth century, I'd say you're smoking something. This is astonishing.

What's astonishing is what Bernstein calls an intelligence shuttle that developed between the Pope, President Reagan and the C.I.A. Some of the world's most sensitive secrets shared in a holy alliance that would topple communism and win the cold war. It all started before Ronald Reagan was even elected, as he watched the first Papal visit to Warsaw ever allowed in four decades of communist rule, Reagan would tell a close aide that Poland is where the Iron Curtain would crack.

When Ronald Reagan took office in 1981, the Solidarity Movement which would mount unprecedented challenges to the repressive communist regime in Poland was still in its infancy.

Bernstein said Reagan made a private pledge to step up secret U.S. aide to Solidarity, eventually totaling some 50 million dollars, but there was more. Reagan also offered the Pope a series of secret briefings by William Casey, head of the C.I.A., a devout Catholic, who briefed then prayed with the Pope.

Phillips: It sounds extraordinary. The Pope conferring with a U.S. spy master.

Bernstein: Absolutely.

Phillips: Where did these meetings take place?

Bernstein: In the Pope's private office, the Pope on one side in a high back chair, Casey across from him.

Phillips: And presumably Casey brought a briefcase.

Bernstein: He brought a briefcase and on one occasion he brought an envelope and in that envelope was a photograph of the Pope in Victory Square, a tiny little figure in white photographed by a spy satellite from above.

It was the first of many often far more sensitive spy photos the Pope was to see. Bernstein said there were as many as fifteen secret sessions between the Pope and Director Casey or former Deputy C.I.A. Director Bernard Walters. Some of Walter's meetings were summarized in secret cables Bernstein obtained through the Freedom of Information Act.

Phillips: Seems clear that the U.S. was sharing intelligence with the Pope. Is it equally clear that he was sharing intelligence with the C.I.A.?

Bernstein: Absolutely, he was sharing his judgments on Poland. They gave each other information. All of the analysis of the C.I.A. went to the Pope. All of the Pope's analysis went to the C.I.A. and the White House.

Richard Allen was President Reagan's first National Security Advisor.

Allen: This did, in my judgment, constitute the most important secret alliance of all time.

Remember in overwhelmingly Catholic Poland the leaders of Solidarity were also ardent churchgoers, and Bernstein says the Pope with constant reports from the church in his homeland was able to funnel valuable information and advice to the United States about how to encourage the freedom movement without triggering a Russian invasion like Hungary in 1956 or Czechoslovakia in 1968.

Allen: The Pope did have something that we don't have, namely an intelligence system that works. It's designed to provide intelligence from the local parishes to the bishops and the bishops report to Rome.

Phillips: You write, "Other Presidents had waited anxiously at their desks for bombers to return from their missions. Reagan waited for reports from the Pope."

Although Bernstein stopped short of saying there were direct trade-offs, he says evidence strongly suggests that the Pope did favors for the United States and the Reagan Administration reciprocated. Another secret cable quote: I then passed on to the SS-20 Briefing and the whole nuclear question.

Phillips: A C.I.A. briefing on nuclear weapons for the Pope?

Bernstein: Yes, showing him satellite photographs of Soviet ballistic missiles.

Bernstein says the U.S. urged the Pope not to speak out against Reagan's Star Wars Defense Plan or cruise missiles in Europe. After the briefings, the Pope stayed silent, and Bernstein says ordered a Vatican report critical of Star Wars buried. And the favor for the Vatican? Bernstein writes the U.S. cut off money for family planning organizations worldwide in deference to the Pope.

What's more, in Latin America, Bernstein reports the C.I.A. was spying on rebel priests and turning the information from wiretaps and electronic eavesdropping over to the Church.

Bernstein: Nothing like this had ever happened in the history of even the Church or the United States.

And nothing like this had ever happened behind the Iron Curtain, the Pope inspiring historic change in Poland across Eastern Europe and ultimately in the Soviet Union itself. These minutes from secret Polit Bureau meetings unearthed by Bernstein quote Russian leaders worried. "The Church has already turned into a political party. Thousands and thousands of people crawl on their knees before the Pope."

Anyone who pays any attention to the world news today can see plainly that the catholic church reigns over the leaders of the earth. Notice the following news excerpts. These are just a few of the many leaders who have met with the pope recently.

Pope meets with King Abdullah II of Jordan

Pope Francis received King Abdullah II of Jordan in audience at the Domus Sanctae Marthae on the afternoon of April 7. The Pontiff will celebrate Mass at a stadium in Amman, Jordan's capital, at the beginning of his three-day apostolic journey to the Holy Land in May.

The Holy See Press Office described the 40-minute meeting, which took place over tea, as "cordial and not formal." The king "had the opportunity to reaffirm the sentiments with which the Jordanian people are preparing to welcome the Pope” as well as his “collaboration in the commitment to peace and interreligious dialogue.”

Pope Francis and Queen Elizabeth meet in Rome

The private audience with Pope Francis was the first meeting between the 87-year-old queen, who is Supreme Governor of the Church of England, and Pope Francis, head of the Roman Catholic Church.

"If you look back in terms of Queen Elizabeth's reign, it is extraordinary how far the relationship between Britain and the Holy See, and between the Anglican Church and the Catholic Church, has developed since 1952 when she became queen," he said.

A key aspect of that has been her several encounters with different popes over the years, Baker said.

Plagues and burning are prophesied to take place, also in this generation, as a result of the leadership; that is, sinful leadership of the roman catholic church. The Savior said you will see these things. Look, they are here.

Prophecy

This same city is spoken of also in Revelation Chapter 18 of The Book of Yahweh, which shows a great nuclear burning that takes place.

Revelation 18:8

Therefore, her plagues will come in one day—death, and mourning, and famine; and she will be utterly burned with fire; for strong is Father Yahweh Who judges her.

This Burning in this Generation

The Savior, Yahshua Messiah, Whose Name was removed from the Inspired Writings of His Disciples by the roman catholic church and replaced with the names of two Gods, spoke of this generation of nuclear burning that will actually darken the sun.

Mattithyah 24:3, 34

3 Now as He sat on the Mount of Olives, the Disciples came to Him privately, saying; Tell us, when will these things be? What will be the sign of Your coming and The End of the Ages?

34 Truly I say to you: That generation will not pass away, until all these things are fulfilled.

Nuclear Burning!

This Prophecy is remarkable because it shows the nuclear burning will take place in this present generation, called the Last Days or The End as some render the Hebrew and Greek words.

Mattithyah 24:29

Immediately, but after the Great Tribulation of those days will the sun be darkened, and the moon will not give her light, and the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken.

The knowledge of splitting the atom and the computing of knowledge that led to the building of the nuclear bomb that can darken the sun stated in 1934.

Mattithyah 24:33

...when you see all these things...

Mattithyah 24:34

...that generation...

Mattithyah 24:29

Immediately, but after...

At the end, the very end of this generation, the nuclear burning and the darkening of the sun will take place. So, the last thing we will see in this present generation is the great nuclear bombs used that will darken the sun and put an end to the cause of all the plagues that we see in this generation that are growing worse with each passing day. Notice the plagues.

Deadly MERS virus spreading out of control in Saudi Arabia, leaps to Egypt as global pandemic begins

Saturday, April 26, 2014

(NaturalNews) It has long been recognized by intelligent observers that a global superbug pandemic is inevitable. Drug-resistant superbugs like MERS (Middle East Respiratory Syndrome) are 100% immune to every conventional medical treatment in existence. There is no antibiotic, no vaccine, no drug and no treatment practiced by western medicine that can stop these bugs... and infections are deadly.

Now we've learned they're spreading out of control in Saudi Arabia, following an explosive pandemic pattern that has infectious disease experts sounding the alarm.

Ian MacKay, an associate professor at the Australia Infectious Diseases Research Centre at The University of Queensland, is now warning about where this might be headed. Over the last 30 days, MERS cases in Saudi Arabia have exploded from just 1-3 per day to over 10 per day, showing a worrisome trend.(1)

“MERS is a particularly nasty disease for those who already have a disease that is chronic,” writes Ian MacKay on his blog. (2) “These include diabetes, kidney disease, heart disease, hypertension, lung disease, obesity, malignancy and those who smoke or use steroids.”

An alarming 140 cases have been found in April alone, and more MERS cases have been reported so far in 2014 than during the entire year of 2013.

According to data analysis by MacKay, healthcare workers are also being infected and an astonishing 7% are dying from those infections.

When healthcare workers are infected, they tend to increase the spread of the disease by inadvertently infecting patients.

The LA Times(3) is now reporting that MERS has spread from Saudi Arabia to Egypt:

State television said Saturday that the country's first case had been discovered. It said the patient, who was hospitalized in Cairo, had recently traveled to Saudi Arabia, where the virus was first identified.

So now we have the first documented case of MERS crossing borders and becoming an international superbug.

From Africa to Canada: Deadly Ebola virus outbreak gets mobile

March 25, 2014

The deadly Ebola virus has made its way towards Canada, as a local came from Africa with suspicious symptoms. It comes after the 'molecular shark', as the virus is branded, killed 59 in West Africa.

Dr. Denise Werker, the province's deputy chief medical officer, declined to say how long the man had been in Africa but said he only fell ill after returning to Canada.

The scientists are actually warning that the epidemic risks spreading due to mobility – both among humans and animals.

The Ebola virus kills from 25 to 90 per cent of those who are infected, and no vaccine or treatment is available.

Transmission to humans can come from wild animals or from direct contact from infected human blood, feces or sweat, or by sexual contact and the unprotected handling of contaminated corpses.

CDC reports biggest measles outbreak since 1996

By Lenny Bernstein April 24

Measles have infected 129 people in 13 states in 2014, the most in the first four months of any year since 1996, officials from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention reported Thursday as they warned clinicians, parents and others to watch for the potentially deadly virus.

Thirty-four of the cases were imported via travel to other countries, including 17 from the Philippines, where a huge outbreak has affected 20,000 people and caused 69 deaths, said Anne Schuchat, director of the National Center for Immunization and Respiratory Diseases.

California, with 58 cases, has been hit hardest by one of the 13 separate outbreaks of measles in the United States. New York has seen 24 infections and Washington state has had 13.

Measles is a highly contagious respiratory disease that generally affects young children, causing fever, a runny nose, a cough and a distinctive rash all over the body. About one in 10 children also gets an ear infection and one in 20 comes down with pneumonia. A person with measles is contagious as long as four days before the symptoms are apparent, Schuchat said.

And they are born with plagues now? Look again.

Rate of Mental Illness Is 'Staggering'

25% of Americans Have Mental Disorder at Some Point, Though Many Untreated, Researchers Say

By Todd Zwillich WebMD Health News

June 1, 2004 – A World Health Organization study released Tuesday shows that rates of most mental illness are far higher in the U.S. than in any other country in the world.

Overall, the survey of more than 60,000 adults in 14 countries showed a 27% rate of mental disorders in the U.S. population for a list of diseases. The U.S. rate was substantially higher than that of any other country measured...

Despite evidence that one in four U.S. adults experiences mental illness at some point, researchers still consider the figure an underestimate. They acknowledge that many people remain reluctant to tell surveyors about their mental health history, mainly because of the stigma attached to mental diseases.

"These numbers are absolutely staggering," says Ronald C. Kessler, PhD, a professor of health care policy at Harvard Medical School in Boston, and one of the study's co-researchers.

STDs alter the genes.

The Insanity Virus

Schizophrenia has long been blamed on bad genes or even bad parents. Wrong, says a growing group of psychiatrists. The real culprit, they claim, is a virus that lives entwined in every person's DNA.

By Douglas Fox | Monday, November 08, 2010

... schizophrenia, one of the most common mental diseases on earth, affecting about 1 percent of humanity.

The facts of schizophrenia are so peculiar, in fact, that they have led Torrey and a growing number of other scientists to abandon the traditional explanations of the disease and embrace a startling alternative. Schizophrenia, they say, does not begin as a psychological disease. Schizophrenia begins with an infection.

The idea has sparked skepticism, but after decades of hunting, Torrey and his colleagues think they have finally found the infectious agent. You might call it an insanity virus. If Torrey is right, the culprit that triggers a lifetime of hallucinations—that tore apart the lives of writer Jack Kerouac, mathematician John Nash, and millions of others—is a virus that all of us carry in our bodies.

“Some people laugh about the infection hypothesis,” says Urs Meyer, a neuroimmunologist at the Swiss Federal Institute of Technology in Zurich. “But the impact that it has on researchers is much, much, much more than it was five years ago. And my prediction would be that it will gain even more impact in the future.”

The implications are enormous. Torrey, Meyer, and others hold out hope that they can address the root cause of schizophrenia, perhaps even decades before the delusions begin.

Yahweh's Prophets show the cause.

The Cause of the Plagues

Isayah 24:1-6

1 Before Yahweh's very Eyes, the earth is made empty and it is made waste; the face of it is perverted and its inhabitants scattered abroad;

2 And it will be: as with the people, so with the priest; as with the servant, so with his owner; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with him who takes usury, so with him who gives usury to him:

3 The land will be utterly emptied and utterly plundered, for it has come to pass that this Judgment has been pronounced.

4 The earth mourns and fades away, the world mourns and fades away, and the haughty people of the earth languish.

5 The earth also is defiled under the inhabitants of it, because they have transgressed the Laws, changed the Ordinance, and broken the Everlasting Covenant.

6 Because of this, the curse has devoured the earth, and they who dwell therein are desolate; therefore, the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left.

There is a cause for every effect, and the cause of these plagues have been adding up in our bodies for 6,000 years. Call, write or email us for information on the microorganisms that make your body live and the microorganisms that make your body die.

Yahweh said to Adam, don't follow the evil of the Gods or dying you will die.

Genesis 2:16-17

16 And Yahweh commanded the man, saying: Of every tree of the garden you may freely eat;

17 But of the tree of the knowledge of Righteousness and evil you must not eat, for in the day that you eat of it you will surely die.

That was in the first generation. The Last Generation shown in Prophecy shows Satan has deceived the whole world.

Revelation 12:9

And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the devil, and Satan, who deceives the whole world. She was cast out into the earth, and her angels were cast out with her.

Eve was deceived in this first generation.

I Timayah 2:14

And Adam was not deceived, but the woman, being deceived, fell into sin.

The two previous verses, coupled with Genesis 3:5, show that Satan deceived the whole world into worshipping Gods by practicing the evil that the Gods practice.

Genesis 3:5

For He knows that in the day you eat of it, your eyes will be opened, and you will be as Gods (elohim), knowing Righteousness and evil.

The Book of Revelation shows that the roman catholic church has been instrumental in this teaching, and in fact, she belongs to Satan. Notice in your own bible and also read it from The Book of Yahweh below.

I Yahchanan 3:4, 7-8, 10

4 Whoever commits sin, transgresses also the Laws; for sin is the transgression of the Laws.

7 Little children, let no man deceive you; he who practices Righteousness is Righteous, just as He is Righteous.

8 He who commits sin is of the devil, for the devil has sinned from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of Yahweh was manifested; that He might destroy the works of the devil.

10 In this the Children of Yahweh and the children of the devil are manifest. Whoever does not practice Righteousness is not of Yahweh, and he does not love his neighbor!

The King James Version uses the word God in verse 10 instead of Yahweh. Why?

I John 3:10, KJV

In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother.

Because the roman catholic church removed the Name of the Creator, Yahweh, and the Name of the Savior, Yahshua, and replaced them with the titles of Lord and God. They also chose the names of two Gods of Egypt with which to replace the Name of the Savior, Yahshua Messiah.

The First Council of Nicaea and the “missing records”

Thus, the first ecclesiastical gathering in history was summoned and is today known as the Council of Nicaea. It was a bizarre event that provided many details of early clerical thinking and presents a clear picture of the intellectual climate prevailing at the time. It was at this gathering that Christianity was born and the ramifications of decisions made at the time are difficult to calculate. About four years prior to chairing the Council, Constantine had been initiated into the religious order of Sol Invictus, one of the two thriving cults that regarded the Sun as the one and only Supreme God (the other was Mithraism). Because of his Sun worship, he instructed Eusebius to convene the first of three sittings on the summer solstice, 21 June 325 (Catholic Encyclopedia, New Edition, vol. i, p. 792), and it was “held in a hall of Osius’s palace” (Ecclesiastical History Bishop Louis Dupin, Paris, 1986, vol. i, p. 598).

From his extensive research into Church councils, Dr Watson concluded that “the clergy at the Council of Nicaea were all under the power of the devil and the convention was composed of the lowest rabble and patronised the vilest abominations” (An Apology for Christianity, op. cit.). It was that infantile body of men who were responsible for the commencement of a new religion and the theological creation of Jesus Christ.

Constantine’s intention at Nicaea was to create an entirely new God for his empire who would unite all religious factions under one deity. Presbyters were asked to debate and decide who their new God would be. ...the names of 53 Gods were tabled for discussion. “As yet, no God had been selected by the council, and so they balloted in order to determine that matter... For one year and five months the balloting lasted...” (God’s Book of Eskra, Prof. S.L. MacGuire’s translation, Salisbury, 1922, chapter xlviiii, paragraphs 36, 41).

At the end of that time, Constantine returned to the gathering to discover that the presbyters had not agreed on a new deity but had balloted down to a short list of five prospects: Caesar, Krishna, Mithra, Horus and Zeus (Historia Ecclesiastica, Eusebius, c. 325). Constantine was the ruling spirit at Nicaea and he ultimately decided upon a new God for them. To involve British factions, he ruled that the name of the Druid God, Hesus, be joined with the Eastern Saviour-God, Krishna (Krishna is Sanskrit for Christ), and thus Hesus Krishna would be the official name of the new Roman God. A vote was taken and it was with a majority show of hands (161 votes to 157) that both divinities become one God. Following long-standing heathen custom, Constantine used the official gathering and the Roman apotheosis decree to legally deify two deities as one, and did so by democratic consent. A new God was proclaimed and “officially” ratified by Constantine (Acta Concilii Nicaeni, 1618). That purely political act of deification effectively and legally placed Hesus and Krishna among the Roman Gods as one individual composite. That abstraction lent Earthly existence to amalgamated doctrines of the Empire's new religion; and because there was no letter "J" in alphabets until around the sixteenth century, the name subsequently evolved into "Jesus Christ".

Nexus Magazine, Volume 14, Number 4

When the Name of the Creator, Yahweh, is restored, a large percentage of deception is wiped out, because Yahweh was not identified as a God by the Inspired Prophets.

Genesis 1:26

Then Yahweh said: I will make man in My Image, according to My Likeness; they will have Authority over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the air, over the cattle, and over all the earth and over every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth.

Genesis 2:16-17

16 And Yahweh commanded the man, saying: Of every tree of the garden you may freely eat;

17 But of the tree of the knowledge of Righteousness and evil you must not eat, for in the day that you eat of it you will surely die.

Genesis 3:1-5

1 Now the serpent was more subtle and crafty than any beast of the field which Yahweh had made. And she said to the woman; Has Yahweh indeed said: You shall not eat of every tree of the garden?

2 And the woman said to the serpent; We may eat the fruit of the trees of the garden;

3 But of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, Yahweh has said: You shall not eat it, nor shall you touch it, or you will die.

4 And the serpent said to the woman; You will not surely die.

5 For He knows that in the day you eat of it, your eyes will be opened, and you will be as Gods (elohim), knowing Righteousness and evil.

I Yahchanan 3:4, 7-8, 10

4 Whoever commits sin, transgresses also the Laws; for sin is the transgression of the Laws.

7 Little children, let no man deceive you; he who practices Righteousness is Righteous, just as He is Righteous.

8 He who commits sin is of the devil, for the devil has sinned from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of Yahweh was manifested; that He might destroy the works of the devil.

10 In this the Children of Yahweh and the children of the devil are manifest. Whoever does not practice Righteousness is not of Yahweh, and he does not love his neighbor!

Those who practice sin will not enter Eternal Life.

Revelation 22:12-16

12 And behold, I come quickly, and My Reward is with Me, to give every man according as his work will be.

13 I am the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End.

14 Blessed are those who keep His Laws, that they may have right to the Tree of Life, and may enter in through the gates into the City.

15 For outside are dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and worshipers of Gods (elohim) and everyone who professes to love, yet practices breaking the Laws.

16 I, Yahshua, have sent My Messenger to testify to you these things in the congregations of The House of Yahweh. I am the Root and the Offspring of David, and the Bright and Morning Star.

Through all of the above, Satan has deceived the whole world. From that deception, hatred and iniquity have abounded in this generation. The whole world has accepted the evil of the Gods (Genesis 3:5); thus, comes the lack of love.

I Yahchanan 3:10

In this the Children of Yahweh and the children of the devil are manifest. Whoever does not practice Righteousness is not of Yahweh, and he does not love his neighbor!

Mattithyah 24:11

And many false prophets will rise, and will deceive the many.

As one can see, every religious leader is a false prophet who brings forth the evil of God worship.

Genesis 3:5

For He knows that in the day you eat of it, your eyes will be opened, and you will be as Gods (elohim), knowing Righteousness and evil.

Deuteronomy 30:15-20

15 See, I have set before you this day Life by Righteousness, and death by destruction—

16 In that I command you this day to love Yahweh your Father, by walking in all His ways, by keeping His Laws, His Statutes, and His Judgments, so that you may live and multiply, and so Yahweh your Father may bless you in the land which you go in to possess.

17 But if your heart turns away, and you are not obedient, and you are drawn away to submit to Gods (elohim), to worship them by serving them—

18 I declare to you this day that you will surely perish; you will not prolong your days in the land which you cross over the Yordan to possess.

19 I call heaven and earth as witnesses against you this day, that I have set before you life and death, blessings and curses. Therefore choose Life, so both you and your children may live.

20 So you may love Yahweh your Father, by listening to Him, and then obeying Him. Hold fast to Him, for He is your Life. He will also give you many years in the land He vowed to give to your fathers; to Abraham, Isaac, and Yaaqob.

Closely compare Yahshua's Words in:

Mattithyah 24:11-12

11 And many false prophets will rise, and will deceive the many.

12 And because iniquity will abound, the love of the many will grow cold.

No love; that is, no True Love.

I Yahchanan 3:10

In this the Children of Yahweh and the children of the devil are manifest. Whoever does not practice Righteousness is not of Yahweh, and he does not love his neighbor!

Mattithyah 24:12, 7

12 And because iniquity will abound, the love of the many will grow cold.

7 For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be famines, and pestilences; disease epidemics, and earthquakes; environmental disasters, in place after place.

Did you notice in those last two Inspired Scriptures that if you do not practice Yahweh's Laws of Righteousness, you do not love your neighbor. Mattithyah 24:7, 12 shows that iniquity—doing away with Yahweh's Laws of Righteousness—creates hatred and causes love to diminish. For that reason, we see what is written in:

Mattithyah 24:7

For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be famines, and pestilences; disease epidemics, and earthquakes; environmental disasters, in place after place.

Doing away with Yahweh's Laws and Prophecies is exactly what the roman catholic church did with their roman army. The daily teachings of the Laws and the Prophets was an every day thing that ended when the pharisees, sadducees, essenes, and herodians had their roman army destroy the House of Yahweh called temple at that time by the pharisees, sadducees, essenes, and herodians because they did not want to use Yahweh's Name or worship Yahweh. They did not want to practice Righteousness. They moved to Rome, destroyed the temple, and ended the daily reading of the Laws and Prophets.

The Book of Yahweh was forbidden with death penalty. See history of the bible. For more than 1,500 years The Book of Yahweh was forbidden. After many deaths, they permitted it to be printed and sold under the guise of the King James bible. See history of the bible or read our Book of Yahweh Brochure. But Righteousness was removed from all people for over 1,500 years.

The Book of Yahweh did not come back into existence until this present, prophesied generation. At which time, we see clearly the results of sin in the health of all people.

Breaking Yahweh's Health Laws or teaching the nations to do so, causes sickness and disease epidemics, which cause confusion to one's mind. Remember that word confusion.

The Health Laws that the Nations are Breaking

The Book of Yahweh shows health Laws that would wipe out sickness and disease if all people would start keeping those Laws. They include Laws that guide one in the practice of safe, pleasant, Holy, Righteous, protective sexual activities. Take a minute to read this most valuable information that the nations refuse to teach. They even make it illegal to teach in schools and other public places.

Leviticus 18:3-24

3 After the doings of the land of Egypt where you dwelt, shall you not do; and after the doings of the land of Canaan, where I am bringing you, shall you not do; neither shall you walk in their ordinances.

- 4 You shall observe and do My Judgments, and keep My Ordinances, to walk in them. I am Yahweh.
- 5 You must therefore keep My Statutes, and My Judgments, which, if a man does, he will live through them. I am Yahweh.
- 6 None of you shall approach anyone who is near of kin to him, in order to have sexual relations. I am Yahweh.
- 7 The nakedness of your father, which is the nakedness of your mother, you shall not uncover; she is your mother. Do not have sexual relations with her.
- 8 Do not have sexual relations with your father's wife, though not your own mother; it is your father's nakedness.
- 9 You shall not have sexual relations with your sister, the daughter of your father or of your mother, whether born at home or born abroad.
- 10 You must not have sexual relations with your son's daughter or your daughter's daughter; your granddaughters. Their nakedness you shall not uncover, for they are your own flesh.
- 11 You must not have sexual relations with your father's wife's daughter, begotten by your father; she is your sister; you shall not uncover her nakedness.
- 12 You shall not have sexual relations with your father's sister; your aunt. She is your father's near kinswoman.
- 13 You shall not have sexual relations with your mother's sister; your aunt. She is your mother's near kinswoman.
- 14 You shall not have sexual relations with your father's brother's wife. You shall not approach his wife; she is your aunt.
- 15 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your daughter-in-law. She is your son's wife; you shall not have sexual relations with her.

16 You shall not have sexual relations with your brother's wife; your sister-in-law. She belongs to your brother.

17 You shall not marry a woman and her daughter, nor shall you take her son's daughter or her daughter's daughter; her granddaughter, to have sexual relations. They are her near kinswomen; it is wickedness and lewdness.

18 You must not marry a woman in addition to her sister, to be a rival to her, having sexual relations with the second sister while in the dwelling in which the first sister is living.

19 Also, you shall not have sexual relations with a woman during the uncleanness of her monthly period; niddah, nor during any similar uncleanness; zavah.

20 Moreover, you shall not have sexual relations with your neighbor's wife, to defile yourself, along with her.

21 You shall not give any of your children to be passed through the fire, to sacrifice them to Molech. You shall not profane the Name of Yahweh by giving your children to Gods (elohim). I am Yahweh.

22 You shall not have sexual relations with a man, as with a woman. It is an abomination.

23 Neither shall you have sexual relations with any animal and defile yourself, along with it; neither shall any woman present herself to have sexual relations with an animal. It is confusion and perversion.

24 Do not defile yourselves in any of these ways, for this is how the nations who are going to be driven out before you became defiled:

Leviticus 19:1-4

1 And Yahweh spoke to Mosheh, saying:

2 Speak to all the congregation of the children of Israyl, and say to them; You shall be Holy, for I, Yahweh, your Heavenly Father am Holy.

3 Every one of you shall honor his mother and his father, and keep My Sabbaths. I am Yahweh your Father.

4 Do not turn to Gods (elohim), nor make for yourselves molten images: I am Yahweh your Father.

Leviticus 11:1-7

1 And Yahweh spoke to Mosheh and Aaron, saying to them:

2 Speak to the children of Israyl, saying; These are the animals you may eat among all the beasts upon the land:

3 You may eat any animal that has a split hoof, completely divided, and which chews the cud; these you may eat.

4 Nevertheless, there are some that only chew the cud, or only have a split hoof, you must not eat these: the camel, because it chews the cud, but does not have a split hoof, it is unclean to you.

5 The coney, or rock badger, because it chews the cud, but does not have a split hoof, it is unclean to you;

6 The rabbit, because it chews the cud, but does not have a split hoof, it is unclean to you;

7 And the pig, although it has a split hoof completely divided, yet it does not chew the cud; it is unclean to you.

This generation follows the priest who eats swine, which is pig-pork, ham, bacon.

Why didn't someone tell me that pork (swine) is unhealthy?

Why I Do Not Recommend Pork – Nearly 70 Percent Contaminated with Dangerous Pathogens

December 12, 2012 By Dr. Mercola

Regardless of your spiritual beliefs, there may be good reason to carefully consider your decision to include pork as a regular part of your diet, because despite advertising campaigns trying to paint pork as a “healthy” alternative to beef, research suggests it may be hazardous to your health on multiple levels. One of the most potentially acute hazards is contamination with pathogenic bacteria.

mercola.com

Remember the world, for lack of Righteous knowledge for 1,500 years, follows the priest who eats swine and worship the dead.

Isayah 65:2-4

2 I have spread out My hands all the day to a rebellious people, who walk in a way which is not right, after their own thoughts; devices;

3 A people who continually act defiantly against Me to My Face; who offer sacrifices to the dead, and offer their children to deadly sexually transmitted diseases;

4 Who assemble and spend the night keeping memorials for the dead, who eat swine's flesh, and the broth of abominable things is in their vessels.

Isayah 66:17

They who sanctify themselves, and purify themselves in the gardens, following after the priest in the midst of those who eat swine's flesh, that which is offered to Gods (elohim) and the rodent—will be consumed together: says Yahweh.

Pork harmful?

PORK AND ITS HARMFUL EFFECTS ON HEALTH

Eating pork is harmful to health in a great many regards. This harm still persists today, despite all the precautions that are taken. First and foremost, no matter how clean the farms and environments on which it is raised may be, the pig is not by nature a clean-living animal. It often plays in, and even eats, its own excrement.

It has been scientifically proven that these significant amounts of antibodies, hormones, cholesterol and lipids in pork represent a serious threat to human health.

Another harmful substance in pork is the "trichina" worm. This is frequently found in pork and when it enters the human body, it settles directly in the muscles of the heart and represents a possibly fatal threat.

Did Leviticus get it right? Pork may still be dangerous.

Pork Consumption and Liver Cirrhosis

Pork consumption has a strong epidemiological association with cirrhosis of the liver. Startlingly, pork may be even more strongly associated with alcoholic cirrhosis than alcohol itself!

The evidence was summarized by Francis Bridges in a recent (2009) paper [1], building on earlier work by Nanji and French [2]. A relation between pork consumption and cirrhosis of the liver is apparent across countries and has been consistently maintained for at least 40 years.

Pork and Liver Cancer

We would expect that if pork can cause liver cirrhosis it will also promote liver cancer, since injured and inflamed tissues are more likely to become cancerous.

Indeed, there is an association between pork consumption and the primary liver cancer, hepatocellular carcinoma.

The correlation with pork consumption is as strong as that for alcohol. Beef has no relation at all liver cancer.

Pork and Multiple Sclerosis

Nanji and Norad [4] looked for other diseases that correlate with pork consumption, and hit upon multiple sclerosis. The connection is remarkable:

A significant correlation was obtained between prevalence of multiple sclerosis and ... pork consumption ($r = 0.87$, p less than 0.001). There was no significant correlation with beef consumption. [4]

As noted earlier, a correlation coefficient of 0.87 is extremely high, and a p-value below 0.001 also shows a very strong relationship. MS is much more likely to befall pork eaters. Such a strong correlation makes it look like pork, or something found in pork, is the cause of MS.

Nanji and Norad further note that beef, the "other red meat," is not associated with MS:

The correlation between pork consumption and MS prevalence was highly significant. Also, of major significance was the absence of a significant correlation between MS prevalence and beef consumption. This is consistent with the observations that MS is rare in countries where pork is forbidden by religious customs (e.g. Middle East) and has a low prevalence in countries where beef consumption far exceeds pork consumption (e.g. Brazil, Australia). [4]

Conclusion

There are remarkably strong correlations between pork consumption and liver disease, liver cancer, and multiple sclerosis.

Psychology Today

There is big money in the pork industry. Plus, sickness, from whatever the source, brings in the sale of drugs. Remember, the love of money is a root of all evil. Evil? Do evil and you will be like the Gods (Genesis 3:5), but you will not be like Yahweh. Be like Yahweh? Yes, that's why man was created.

Genesis 1:26

Then Yahweh said: I will make man in My Image, according to My Likeness; they will have Authority over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the air, over the cattle, and over all the earth and over every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth.

And you will not be given Eternal Life. Eternal Life is only given to those who keep Yahweh's Laws, letting Yahweh make them in His Image and Likeness.

Revelation 22:12-16

12 And behold, I come quickly, and My Reward is with Me, to give every man according as his work will be.

13 I am the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End.

14 Blessed are those who keep His Laws, that they may have right to the Tree of Life, and may enter in through the gates into the City.

15 For outside are dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and worshipers of Gods (elohim) and everyone who professes to love, yet practices breaking the Laws.

16 I, Yahshua, have sent My Messenger to testify to you these things in the congregations of The House of Yahweh. I am the Root and the Offspring of David, and the Bright and Morning Star.

Abomination and Abominable

Leviticus 11:7-13

7 And the pig, although it has a split hoof completely divided, yet it does not chew the cud; it is unclean to you.

8 Their meat you shall not eat, and their carcasses you shall not touch. They are unclean to you.

9 These you may eat of all that are in the waters: whatever has both fins and scales in the waters, whether in the seas or in the rivers, that you may eat.

10 But everything in the seas or in the rivers that does not have both fins and scales, whether among all the fish that school, or among all the other living creatures in the water: they are an abomination;

11 And they will be an abomination to you. You must not eat their flesh, but you shall regard their carcasses as an abomination.

12 Whatever is in the waters, not having both fins and scales, is to be abominable to you.

13 These you shall regard as abominable among the birds; they shall not be eaten, for they are an abomination: the eagle, the vulture, the buzzard.

Deuteronomy 14:3-8

3 You must not eat any abominable thing;

4 These are the animals you may eat: the ox, the sheep, the goat,

5 The deer, the gazelle, the roe deer, the wild goat, the mountain goat, the antelope, and the mountain sheep.

6 And you may eat every animal that has a split hoof completely divided, and that also chews the cud.

7 However, of those that chew the cud or of those that have a split hoof completely divided, you may not eat these: the camel, the rabbit, or the coney. Although they chew the cud, they do not have a split hoof, they are unclean for you.

8 And the swine; the pig, is unclean for you; although it has a split hoof, it does not chew the cud. You must not eat their meat, nor touch their carcasses.

The word abomination comes from a Hebrew word that means sickness or sick. Abominable means that you can pass your sickness on to your children as an hereditary disease, some of which can manifest as physical/mental birth defects. Birth defects carry a multitude of abominations and abominable means along with STDs, cancer, heart, lung and kidney problems. Abomination also means birth defects. Birth defects are passed from father to son or daughter or from mother to son or daughter.

Birth defect is linked to STDs and infection

Young women who have both a sexually transmitted disease and a urinary tract infection just before or early in their pregnancy are four times more likely to have a baby born with intestines and other organs outside the abdomen, according to a study by University of Utah researchers.

The condition, called gastroschisis, is most common in babies whose mothers are under age 20, occurring at a rate of 1 in 575 births.

It's a preliminary finding regarding a mysterious birth defect that appears to be increasing worldwide, including in Utah, she said. In most cases, the small and sometimes large intestines are outside the abdomen. Sometimes all or part of the stomach is, too. More rarely, ovaries, fallopian tube or testes are. It's just slightly more common in boy babies.

Researchers looked at infection because of their increase in tandem with the rising incidence of the birth defect. In Utah, for instance, an unrelated study found a tenfold increase in gastroschisis from 1971-2002, Feldkamp said. And sexually transmitted diseases, particularly chlamydia, are a growing problem, particularly among female teens.

“We found that women who reported both urinary tract infection and STD one month prior to conception through the first trimester were far more likely” to have babies with gastroschisis, which occurs in the first trimester.

Feldkamp said the link may be even stronger, because they may be “missing women who have infection who we are calling unexposed.” That’s particularly true of chlamydia, a common STD that often has no symptoms and so goes undiagnosed. It was the most commonly identified STD in the study, she said.

Congenital Infections

Congenital infections affect babies as the result of infection of the mother during pregnancy. Infection of the infant can occur before the infant is born or during the birth process.

What Are Congenital Infections?

Bacteria, parasites, or viruses can cause congenital infections, which are infections that are present at birth. These infections can be passed to the fetus or newborn in two ways. Some infections, such as rubella or cyto-megalovirus, are passed from the mother to the baby through the placenta, the organ that nourishes the baby in the uterus, or womb. A baby can also become infected during the passage through the birth canal, as happens with group B streptococcus.

Birth Defect-Causing Diseases and Risks to Unborn Children

There are numerous sexually transmitted diseases (STDs) that will cause birth defects or even death to an unborn child.. Diseases like chlamydia, gonorrhea, hepatitis, genital herpes, AIDS, and syphilis can have very serious effects.

If you are infected with chlamydia, a lot of the signs are unnoticeable. Some consequences to the unborn child or newborn are premature birth, infant pneumonia and neonatal eye infections.

Gonorrhea is another disease that is somewhat silent, but when symptoms do appear they are often mild. Gonorrhea can cause blindness, meningitis, and septic arthritis during the delivery of the newborn.

Hepatitis, another serious disease.. Problems for the unborn child or newborn are the same for the infected person.

Genital herpes is spread by skin to skin contact on the infected site. Usually if a woman is infected at the time of the delivery, she will have a cesarean birth to avoid causing an infection to the newborn which can cause possible death or brain damage.

AIDS, a very serious disease.. Newborns usually develop the AIDS virus within one year after their birth.

Syphilis, another horrible disease which can be contacted through open sores, and through sexual encounters or experiences. If a pregnant mother is left untreated, she will normally pass this disease onto her unborn child. The consequences to this can result in damage to the infant's heart, brain, eyes and will cause stillbirth and death.

Please take into consideration that the child that you may bring into this world should not have to deal with the diseases that will be passed down to him/her from the parent.

With this information, why would anyone eat pork or any other unclean animal, sea creature, or insect? Why would anyone practice prohibited sexual acts found in Leviticus 18? The answer is, they follow the priest who eats swine's flesh and promotes illicit sexual acts, the head of the roman catholic church that sits on seven hills and leads the leaders (kings) of the earth. Notice the following information.

Holy See and the United Nations

Permanent observer since 1964

Since April 6, 1964, the Holy See has been a permanent observer state at the United Nations. In that capacity, the Holy See has since had a standing invitation to attend all the sessions of the General Assembly, the United Nations Security Council, and the United Nations Economic and Social Council to observe their work, and to maintain a permanent observer mission at the UN headquarters in New York.^[1] Accordingly, the Holy See has established a Permanent Observer Mission in New York and has sent representatives to all open meetings of the General Assembly and of its Main Committees.

As a matter of diplomatic courtesy, since 1964, the Holy See was also allowed to make formal policy statements in the General Assembly, both during the General Debates and during the discussion of the various separate issues contained in the agenda of the General Assembly.^[4] Notably, Popes Paul VI,^[5] John Paul II,^[6] and Benedict XVI^[7] were invited to address the General Assembly.

In addition, the Holy See was invited to observe all open meetings of the intergovernmental subsidiary bodies of the General Assembly. The Holy See was frequently allowed to participate in the private negotiations leading to the adoption of the General Assembly's decisions and resolutions. The Holy See was not allowed, however, to co-sponsor draft decisions or resolutions, to make points of order or to exercise the right of reply. If the Holy See wished to circulate written proposals or position papers, it required the assistance of a member state that was willing to present those proposals or papers as its own.

The Holy See took advantage the prerogatives of its observer status to incorporate its interpretation of Christian values within the decisions and recommendations of the United Nations.

Confirmed status in 2004

In 2004, the UN General Assembly confirmed the Vatican's status as a Permanent Observer. Currently, the Holy See has the right to participate in the general debate of the General Assembly and to intervene in the discussion of any issue inscribed in the agenda of that assembly. It has the right to participate in all meetings open to all Member States, the right to make points of order and to exercise the right of reply, the right to circulate proposals and position papers as official documents, and the right to co-sponsor draft resolutions and decisions.

Through a body called the Holy See, the Roman Catholic church exerts considerable power at UN meetings and conferences. As a Non-Member State Permanent Observer, the Holy See can take part in UN meetings and conferences, and is typically granted full status at these events, including a vote on any question that is put to a vote. As the UN generally seeks consensus rather than forcing issues to a vote, this allows dissenting voices a stronger voice than they would normally have.

Some facts about the Vatican's status at the United Nations:

- The Roman Catholic church is a religious society without a political identity under the law. Vatican City is an independent city-state within Rome that serves as the site of the church's government and is itself governed by the head of the church, the pope. The Holy See is "the supreme organ [of government] of both the Catholic church and the Vatican City State," according to the authoritative work on the Holy See's international relations, written by Archbishop Hyginus Eugene Cardinale, who was a Vatican diplomat. Vatican City is temporal and territorial; the Holy See, a more nebulous construct, is religious.
- Despite its designation as a non-member "state" permanent observer, "the Holy See is not a state," according to Cardinale. It is a religious entity without defined temporal territory. Diplomatically, however, many countries treat the Holy See "as being on the same footing as a state" because of the influence of the pope, as leader of Catholics worldwide. According to its Permanent Observer Mission, the Holy See can enter into treaties as the "juridical equal of a state."

Why is the priest who sits on the seven hills of Rome the only priest allowed this status? This shows clearly the leading position the pope is given among the world leaders, and proves Revelation 17:5, 18 exclusively correct, though written 1,918 years ago. Yes, around 96 ACE. Now notice the abominations this religion that sits on seven hills brings forth.

Revelation 17:1-5

1 And there came one of the seven malakim who had the seven bowls, and talked with me, saying to me: Come, I will show you the sentence of the great whore that sits upon many waters,

2 With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication; practiced idolatry: Godworship (the worship of elohim), and the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.

3 So he carried me away in the Spirit into the midst of Godworshippers (worshippers of elohim); and I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet colored beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns.

4 And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet color, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication.

5 And upon her head was a name written: Mystery Babylon the great, the mother of the harlots and of the abominations of the earth.

Did you notice in verse 5 the abominations this woman brings forth? Remember:

Leviticus 18:24-27

24 Do not defile yourselves in any of these ways, for this is how the nations who are going to be driven out before you became defiled:

25 For the world is defiled because they have given themselves over to sin; and the land itself vomits out her inhabitants.

26 You shall therefore keep My Statutes and My Judgments, and you must not commit any of these abominations; neither any of your own nation nor any of the strangers that sojourn among you—

27 (For all these abominations have the people of the land done, who were before you, and thus the land is defiled; unholy)—

Leviticus 11:7-8, 11-13

7 And the pig, although it has a split hoof completely divided, yet it does not chew the cud; it is unclean to you.

8 Their meat you shall not eat, and their carcasses you shall not touch. They are unclean to you.

11 And they will be an abomination to you. You must not eat their flesh, but you shall regard their carcasses as an abomination.

12 Whatever is in the waters, not having both fins and scales, is to be abominable to you.

13 These you shall regard as abominable among the birds; they shall not be eaten, for they are an abomination: the eagle, the vulture, the buzzard.

Please notice again:

Revelation 17:1

...sentence of the great whore that sits upon many waters.

Revelation 17:9

Prophecy

The Savior, Yahshua, said:

Luke 24:25

Then He said to them: O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the Prophets have spoken!

The Prophet Isayah shows us clearly the priest the world is following today shown also in Revelation.

Revelation 17:1-2

1 And there came one of the seven Malakim who had the seven bowls, and talked with me, saying to me: Come, I will show you the sentence of the great whore that sits upon many waters,

2 With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication; practiced idolatry: God worship (the worship of elohim), and the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.

The word idolatry means God worship, as in:

Genesis 3:5

For He knows that in the day you eat of it, your eyes will be opened, and you will be as Gods (elohim), knowing Righteousness and evil.

Deuteronomy 30:15-18

15 See, I have set before you this day Life by Righteousness, and death by destruction—

16 In that I command you this day to love Yahweh your Father, by walking in all His ways, by keeping His Laws, His Statutes, and His Judgments, so that you may live and multiply, and so Yahweh your Father may bless you in the land which you go in to possess.

17 But if your heart turns away, and you are not obedient, and you are drawn away to submit to Gods (elohim), to worship them by serving them—

18 I declare to you this day that you will surely perish; you will not prolong your days in the land which you cross over the Yordan to possess.

The roman catholic church sits on seven hills—the seven hills of Rome. The roman catholic church priest?

Isayah 65:2-7

2 I have spread out My hands all the day to a rebellious people, who walk in a way which is not right, after their own thoughts; devices;

3 A people who continually act defiantly against Me to My face; who offer sacrifices to the dead, and offer their children to deadly sexually transmitted diseases;

4 Who assemble and spend the night keeping memorials for the dead, who eat swine's flesh, and the broth of abominable things is in their vessels,

5 Who say; Stand by yourself! Do not come near me, for I am holier than you! These are a stench in My nostrils, a fire that burns all the day.

6 Behold, it is written before Me; I will not keep silent, for they have their reward for their committing acts of adultery, fornication, and sodomy, yea even, they have their reward, which is in their nakedness which they have shamefully exposed—

7 You and your fathers have transgressed My Laws together, says Yahweh. You have burned incense upon the mountains, and blasphemed Me upon the hills. Therefore your reward for what you have done will be measured into your nakedness which you have shamefully exposed.

The roman catholic church teaches the whole world to practice halloween—the worship of the dead. Their priests eat pork and teach the people to eat pork and rodents, both are sins and iniquity. According to the Greek dictionary in Strong's Exhaustive Concordance, the word iniquity is word #458 from word #459, and means: not subject to the Laws; that is, doing away with the Laws.

The Nuclear Consumption

Health crisis: Dr Arjun Srinivasan, the associate director of the CDC, told PBS' Frontline that misuse and overuse of antibiotics over the years have rendered them powerless to fight infections

A high-ranking official with the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention has declared in an interview with PBS that the age of antibiotics has come to an end.

'For a long time, there have been newspaper stories and covers of magazines that talked about "The end of antibiotics, question mark?"' said Dr Arjun Srinivasan. 'Well, now I would say you can change the title to "The end of antibiotics, period."'

Seems horrible, but it's not the worst! But there is the final plague, which is very near, called nuclear consumption that is prophesied to take place in this generation.

Mattithyah 24:7, 21-22, 29, 33-34

7 For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be famines, and pestilences; disease epidemics, and earthquakes; environmental disasters, in place after place:

21 For then will be Great Tribulation, such as has not come to pass since the beginning of the world to this time—no, nor ever will be.

22 And unless those days were shortened, there would no flesh be saved; but for the Elect's sake, those days will be shortened.

29 Immediately, but after the Great Tribulation of those days will the sun be darkened, and the moon will not give her light, and the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken.

33 In the same way, when you see all these things, know that His coming and The End of the Ages are near, at the very door.

34 Truly I say to you: That generation will not pass away, until all these things are fulfilled.

Notice again:

Isayah 65:4

Who assemble and spend the night keeping memorials for the dead, who eat swine's flesh, and the broth of abominable things is in their vessels.

Compare:

Isayah 66:17

They who sanctify themselves, and purify themselves in the gardens, following after the priest in the midst of those who eat swine's flesh, that which is offered to Gods (elohim) and the rodent—will be consumed together: says Yahweh.

Rome to Burn with Nuclear Burning Prophecy

Revelation 17:1...I will show you the sentence of the great whore that rules over multitudes, nations, and languages (Revelation 17:15).

Revelation 17:18

And the woman whom you saw, is that great city which reigns over the kings of the earth.

The burning and the cause

There is a cause for every effect; a curse does not come without a cause. The cause is the increase in sin due to rebellious false priest who show their rebellion by eating pork and changing Yahweh's Laws of Righteousness; teaching the evil of God worship, which brings confusion to the whole world.

Revelation 12:9

And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the devil, and Satan, who deceives the whole world. She was cast out into the earth, and her angels were cast out with her.

Genesis 3:5

For He knows that in the day you eat of it, your eyes will be opened, and you will be as Gods (elohim), knowing Righteousness and evil.

Deuteronomy 30:17-18

17 But if your heart turns away, and you are not obedient, and you are drawn away to submit to Gods (elohim), to worship them by serving them—

18 I declare to you this day that you will surely perish; you will not prolong your days in the land which you cross over the Yordan to possess.

Daniyl 7:25-26

25 And he will speak great words against Yahweh, and will wear out; mentally attack to cause to fall away, the Saints of Yahweh, and think to change times; Yahweh's Feast Days, and Laws; and they will be given into his hand until a time, and times, and the dividing of time.

26 But the judgment will sit, and they will take away his government, to consume and to destroy it completely.

Who are these priests? Compare the following.

Isayah 66:17

They who sanctify themselves, and purify themselves in the gardens, following after the priest in the midst of those who eat swine's flesh, that which is offered to Gods (elohim) and the rodent—will be consumed together: says Yahweh.

Revelation 18:1-5

1 And after these things I saw another Malak come down from heaven, having great authority; and the earth was enlightened with His glory.

2 And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying: Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of demons, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

3 For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth have grown rich through the abundance of her delicacies.

4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying: Come out of her, My People, so that you do not partake in her sins, and so that you do not receive of her plagues,

5 For her sins have reached unto heaven, and Yahweh has remembered her iniquities!

Isayah 24:1-6, 18-20

1 Before Yahweh's very Eyes, the earth is made empty and it is made waste; the face of it is perverted and its inhabitants scattered abroad;

2 And it will be: as with the people, so with the priest; as with the servant, so with his owner; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with him who takes usury, so with him who gives usury to him:

3 The land will be utterly emptied and utterly plundered, for it has come to pass that this Judgment has been pronounced.

4 The earth mourns and fades away, the world mourns and fades away, and the haughty people of the earth languish.

5 The earth also is defiled under the inhabitants of it, because they have transgressed the Laws, changed the Ordinance, and broken the Everlasting Covenant.

6 Because of this, the curse has devoured the earth, and they who dwell therein are desolate; therefore, the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left.

18 And it will come to pass, that he who flees from the noise of the fear will fall into the pit; and he who comes up from the midst of the pit will be caught in the snare; for the windows from on high are open, and the foundations of the earth are shaken.

19 The earth is utterly broken down, the earth is dissolved clean, the earth is shaken exceedingly.

20 The earth will reel to and fro like a drunkard, and will sway like a hut. The transgression in it will be heavy upon it; it will fall, and not rise again.

The roman catholic church and her daughters, whose preachers fear bringing any Truth, are near to perishing. We are in the Last Generation. We see all of these things, including the abounding of iniquity, the extreme hatred among the nations, and the nuclear bombs invented in this generation. This generation started in 1934. We are in the last part of the Last Generation given to prove what rebellion brings. The final prediction is at hand.

Mattithyah 24:32-34

32 Now learn a parable from the fig tree: When its branch becomes tender and puts out leaves, you know that summer is near.

33 In the same way, when you see all these things, know that His coming and The End of the Ages are near, at the very door.

34 Truly I say to you: That generation will not pass away, until all these things are fulfilled.

What to do. You need to first come out of her.

Revelation 18:4-5, 8

4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying: Come out of her, My People, so that you do not partake in her sins, and so that you do not receive of her plagues,

5 For her sins have reached unto heaven, and Yahweh has remembered her iniquities!

8 Therefore, her plagues will come in one day—death, and mourning, and famine; and she will be utterly burned with fire; for strong is Father Yahweh Who judges her.

Come out of her, My People. What distinguishes Yahweh's People from these people? Notice:

I Yahchanan 3:4, 7-8, 10

4 Whoever commits sin, transgresses also the Laws; for sin is the transgression of the Laws.

7 Little children, let no man deceive you; he who practices Righteousness is Righteous, just as He is Righteous.

8 He who commits sin is of the devil, for the devil has sinned from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of Yahweh was manifested; that He might destroy the works of the devil.

10 In this the Children of Yahweh and the children of the devil are manifest. Whoever does not practice Righteousness is not of Yahweh, and he does not love his neighbor!

Did you notice verse 10? The End is close. It will all end in this generation.

II Kepha 3:10-11

10 But the Day of Yahweh will come as a thief in the night, in which the heavens will pass away with great noise, and the elements will melt with fervent heat; both the earth, and the works that are in it, will be burned up.

11 Since all these things will then be dissolved, what manner of persons ought you to be in Holy conduct and Righteousness?

Repent!

Acts 3:19

Repent therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out; that times of refreshing may come from the Presence of Yahweh.

Know this:

I Corinthians 6:9-10

9 Do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the Kingdom of Yahweh? Do not deceive yourselves. Neither fornicators, nor Godworshippers (worshippers of elohim), nor adulterers, nor men who commit sexual perversions with boys, nor men who commit sexual perversions with other men,

10 Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, will inherit the Kingdom of Yahweh.

Do you not know? The answer is: the world does not know because the roman catholic church removed the Book of Yahweh from the whole world. Under fear of the roman catholic church, the religious corporations shun preaching Yahweh's Righteousness and the mere mention of His Name. Yet, therein lies Salvation.

The nuclear wars could start very soon now. Remember, there is a place of safety. We await to help you.

Micahyah 4:1-3

1 But in the Last Days it will come to pass that the mountain; promotion, of The House of Yahweh will be established in the chief of the nations. It will be raised above all congregations; and all peoples will eventually flow to it.

2 And many people will go and say; Come, and let us go up to the mountain; uplifting, of Yahweh, and to the House of the Father of Yaaqob, and He will teach us of His Ways, and we will walk in His Paths. Because the Laws will depart from Zion, and the Word of Yahweh from Yerusalem.

3 And He will judge between many people, and rebuke strong nations afar off; and they will beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks. Nation will not lift up sword against nation, nor will they learn war anymore.
