

TIME To Set the Record Straight About BC and AD

If you have a Bible in your home, most assuredly it is a rendition of The Book of Yahweh. In as little as fifty years ago, few people had ever heard of The Book of Yahweh or the Name Yahweh. Yet, Yahweh is the Creator of the universe and mankind.

Yahweh inspired His Prophets to write the Books that were compiled into what is called The Book of Yahweh. This is shown in the Inspired Scriptures.

In the renditions of The Book of Yahweh, such as the King James Version, Amplified Bible, etc., the Names of the Creator, Yahweh, and the Savior, Yahshua, were not allowed to be printed. This order was given by the Vatican, so the Names were replaced with titles such as Lord and God in the renditions of The Book of Yahweh.

The Name Yahweh was used repeatedly throughout the Inspired Scriptures, and called upon in prayer. Yahweh's Name was used 6,823 times, alone, by the Prophets Yahweh inspired to write the first part of the Holy Scriptures, which most people have been led to believe was the King James Version. This is because the King James Version is the most popular of all versions or renditions of The Book of Yahweh.

The Book of Yahweh is mentioned several times in the Inspired Writings of Yahweh's Prophets, whom He inspired to write in order to show mankind Yahweh's Plan for man. Yahweh's Plan includes giving mankind the opportunity to become Yahweh's sons and daughters.

Read Isayah 34:16 from The Book of Yahweh.

Isayah 34:16, B0Y

Search out The Book Of Yahweh, and read. Not one of these will be neglected. For it is written: Yahweh is their Shepherd; they shall not want; for His Mouth has commanded it, and His Spirit has gathered them.

Now read this verse from the King James rendition.

Isaiah 34:16, KJV

Seek ye out of the book of the Lord, and read: not one of these shall fail, none shall want her mate: for my mouth it hath commanded, and his spirit it hath gathered them.

Now read this verse from the Amplified Bible.

Isaiah 34:16, Amplified Bible

Seek out of the book of the Lord and read: not one of these [details of prophecy] shall fail, none shall want and lack her mate [in fulfillment]. For the mouth [of the Lord] has commanded, and His Spirit has gathered them.

The difference is obvious because the Name Yahweh that was in the original Writings of Yahweh's Prophets, like Isayah, was replaced with the word Lord in the King James Version and the Amplified Bible. From where does the word Lord come? Is Lord the Creator?

In the Beginning

In the first Book of The Book of Yahweh, we see the beginning of the creation of mankind and the Being Who did the creating. We also see the reason and Plan for mankind, as well as the requirements for Life Eternal. Read this from The Book of Yahweh.

Genesis 1:1

In the beginning Yahweh created the heavens and the earth.

The Name of our Creator is written יהוה in Hebrew, which is, letter-for-letter, YHWH in English. The correct pronunciation of יהוה (YHWH) is Yahweh (Yah-Way in phonetic English).

Encyclopedic Dictionary of Religion, Volume 3, Article: Yahweh. This correct pronunciation of יהוה (YHWH), which is Yahweh, has never been lost.

Encyclopedia Judaica, Volume 7, page 680. In order to familiarize the reader with the correct pronunciation of our Creator's Name (יהוה, YHWH), wherever our Creator's Name (יהוה, YHWH) appears in the original Hebrew manuscripts of the Holy Scriptures, Yahweh will be written throughout this translation.

Genesis 1:1, KJV

In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth.

For hundreds of years now, most scholars of the Holy Scriptures have known that the Holy Scriptures have been misused and abused, not only by the early scribes, but also by the translators themselves. This has been done under the order of the Roman Catholic Church. In specific instances, certain words or phrases were left untranslated; at times, changes were made to hide the meaning of the words or phrases. In other cases, words were deleted from the original text, either by copyist error, or by flagrant intention. At times, copyists, scribes, or translators would write footnotes in their manuscripts of the Holy Scriptures, in the same way we would make notes in our books; however, these footnotes would later be included in the text by other copyists, who would write these as supposedly "inspired" Scripture to be read by later generations as part of the original text.

Many phrases have been deliberately mistranslated, in order to hide their true meanings, so that Scripture would not bring to light the deceitful teachings of the established and popular religious organizations.

The alteration of Yahweh's Scriptures, either by untranslating or mistranslating, has caused the True Work, which Yahweh's Prophets spoke of, to be hidden in most translations of the Scriptures, and this has been damaging to those who are searching the Holy Scriptures for the way to Eternal Life.

However, the most damaging error in all the Holy Scriptures, was the error of removing Yahweh's Name from the very Scriptures He inspired to be written, and writing in its place the pagan titles of Gods (Elohim) and Satan herself! Because of this grave error, those who are calling upon the names of Gods (Elohim) and Satan, even though ignorantly, are actually worshiping the Gods (Elohim) and Satan—for they are not calling upon, and with, the Name of Yahweh!

These detrimental facts are not hidden. In fact, an abundance of data confirming these statements has been published for many years, but generally confined only to footnotes, Scriptural commentaries, dictionaries, encyclopedias, lexicons, concordances, and technical publications. These facts are indeed plenteous; they are openly admitted not only among scholars of the Holy Scriptures, but also among the religious denominations as well.

Joseph Bryant Rotherham, in The Emphasized Bible; A New Translation, The Standard Publishing Company, Cincinnati, Ohio, Copyright 1902, says in the Introduction, The Incommunicable Name:

The Name Suppressed: THE FACT

It is willingly admitted that the suppression has not been absolute; at least so far as Hebrew and English are concerned. The Name, in its four essential letters (YHWH), was reverently transcribed by the Hebrew copyist, and therefore was necessarily placed before the eye of the Hebrew reader. The latter, however, was instructed not to pronounce it but to utter instead a less sacred name—Adonay or Elohim. In this way The Name was not suffered to reach the ear of the listener. To that degree it was suppressed. The Septuagint, or ancient Greek version (LXX), made the concealment complete by regularly substituting Kurios, as the Vulgate, in like manner, employed Dominus, both Kurios and Dominus having at the same time their own proper service to render as correctly answering to the Hebrew Adonay, confessedly meaning “Lord”. The English versions do nearly the same things, in rendering The Name as Lord, and occasionally God; these terms also having their own rightful office to fill as fitly representing the Hebrew titles Adonay and Elohim and El, so that the Tetragrammaton is nearly hidden in our public English versions.

The IMMEDIATE CONSEQUENCES of the Suppression

(i.) Partly literary though more than that. Reference is here made to the confusion into which many things are thrown through this abnormal state of things. "Baal" is "lord", and so is "Adon" (Adonay)—that is distressing; but why add to the embarrassment by rendering YHWH also as "Lord"? Worst of all is the confusion when "Y" and Adonay occur together, as they do many times in the Book of Ezekiel (Yechetzqyah). Inasmuch as to say, "Lord LORD" for "Adonay Y", was too grotesque and misleading (positively false to the ear), the new device had to be resorted to of rendering this combination by "Lord GOD"—"God" in this case, and not "Lord" at all, standing for The Name. Even YH (the shorter form) and YHWH (the full form) of the tetragrammaton, coming together, caused a dilemma; though in these instances, the acuteness of the trouble compelled the adoption of a partial remedy, and "the LORD JEHOVAH"; is the result. "Confusion", then, is a term not a whit too strong to apply to these varying devices. No wonder that even intelligent and educated people are continually forgetting what they have heard or read concerning so involved a matter.

Rotherham then gives reasons why the Name Yahweh must be restored, and from now on retained in the Holy Scriptures.

I. Because its suppression was a mistake. So grave a mistake cannot be corrected too soon. An unwarrantable liberty has been taken; the path of humility is to retrace our steps...it is too heavily burdened with merited critical condemnation—as modern, as a compromise, "mongrel" word, "hybrid", "fantastic", "monstrous". The facts have only to be known to justify this verdict, and to vindicate the propriety of not employing it in a new and independent translation. What are the facts? And first as to age. "The pronunciation Jehovah was unknown until 1520, when it was introduced by Galatinus; but was contested by Le Mercier, J. Drusius, and L. Capellus, as against grammatical and historical propriety." (Oxford Gesenius, P. 218.) Next, as to formation. "Erroneously written and pronounced Jehovah which is merely a combination of the sacred Tetragrammaton and the vowels in the Hebrew for Lord, substituted by the Jews (Yahdaim) for JHVH (YHWH), because they shrank from pronouncing The Name, owing to an old misconception of the two passages (Exodus xx. 7 and Leviticus xxiv. 16)...To give the name JHVH the vowels of the word for Lord (Heb. Adonai) and pronounce it Jehovah is about as hybrid a combination as it would be to spell the name Germany with the vowels in the name Portugal—viz., Gormuna...Jehovah is not older than about 1520 c.e."

The Ancient and Honored Name of Yahweh

The very oldest Scriptural text ever found, dating back almost 2,600 years, was found in a tiny silver amulet which contains a Seventh Century b.c.e. extract from the Book of Numbers (6:24-26), the Priestly Blessing. The rolled up amulet was part of a treasure hoard found by a Tel Aviv University archeologist in a First Temple Period family tomb in Yerusalem, Israyl. When this amulet was written, the Temple of Solomon still stood, the heirs of King David still ruled on the throne, and the Dead Sea Scrolls would not be written for another 400 years.

It was three years after its discovery before this fragile amulet could be unrolled by technical experts at the Israyl Museum. On this amulet the Name of Yahweh could be clearly read. Complete details of this magnificent find can be read in the 6-28-86 and 8-9-86 issues of The Jerusalem Post, and the 6-87 issue of The Readers Digest.

The Undeniable Name of Yahweh

There is no doubt that the True NAME of our Creator is Yahweh. In fact, the evidence is overwhelming. Unger's Bible Dictionary, Merrill F. Unger, 1957, Moody Press, Chicago, page 1177, says:

Yahweh (ya'we). The Hebrew tetragrammaton (YHWH) traditionally pronounced Jehovah (q. v.) is now known to be correctly vocalized yahwe. New inscriptional evidence from the second and first millennia B. C. point toward this fact. The old view of Le Clerc, modernly propounded by Paul Haupt and developed by W. F. Albright, has commended itself in the light of the phonetic development and grammatical evidence of increased knowledge of Northwest Semitic and kindred tongues. This thesis holds Yahwe to be originally a finite causative verb from the Northwest Semitic root hwy "to be, to come into being," so that the divine name would mean "he causes to be, or exist," i. e., "he creates." Amorite personal names after 2,000 B. C. lend support to the Haupt-Albright view, demonstrating that the employment of the causative stem yahwe "he creates" was in vogue in the linguistic background of early Hebrew.

The Wycliffe Bible Encyclopedia, 1975, Volume 1, page 690, Moody Press, Chicago, tells us:

"The Name par excellence for the Creator of Israyl is Yahweh, found 6,823 times in the OT. Through Israel's deliverance from bondage in Egypt, adoption as a nation, and guidance to the Promised Land, the Redeemer-Creator is especially known by THIS NAME." (Emphasis ours.)

The Interpreter's Dictionary of the Bible, 1962, Volume 4, page 923, Abingdon Press, Nashville, says:

"Yahweh—The vocalization of the four consonants of the Israylite name for the Creator, which scholars believe to approximate the original pronunciation."

James Moffatt, in his translation, The Bible: A New Translation, 1935, Harper and Brothers, informs us in his introduction:

"Strictly speaking this ought to be rendered 'Yahweh' which is familiar to modern readers in the erroneous form of 'Jehovah'.

Were this version intended for students of the original, there would be no hesitation whatever in printing 'Yahweh'."

Although Moffatt substitutes the title, "the Eternal" in the place of the Name of Yahweh, he fully admits a distinct loss of meaning in this.

The Encyclopedia Judaica, 1972, Keter Publishing House, P.O.B. 7145, Jerusalem, Israel, Volume 7, page 680, states emphatically:

"The true pronunciation of the Name YHWH was never lost. Several early Greek writers of the Christian Church testify that the Name was pronounced 'Yahweh'."

The personal Name of the Father of Israyl is written in the Hebrew Scriptures with the four consonants YHWH, and is referred to as the "Tetragrammaton". At least until the destruction of the First Temple in 586 b.c.e., Yahweh's Name was pronounced regularly with its proper vowels, as is clear from the Lachish Letters, written shortly before that day. However, at least by the third century before Yahshua our Messiah was born, the pronunciation of the Name Yahweh was avoided, and Adonai, "the Lord", was substituted for it.

The Century Bible, by Adeney and Bennett, 1901, T. C. and E. C. Jacks, Edinburgh, Scotland, Volume 1, pages 90-91, tells us:

Some time after the return from the Captivity, and before the beginning of the Christian Era, the Yahdaim (Jews) came to believe that the Holy Name Yahweh was too sacred to be uttered on ordinary occasions. It was said to be pronounced by the High Priest on the Day of Atonement. At other times, when any one read or quoted aloud from what is called the Old Testament, the word "Adonay", "Lord," was usually substituted for Yahweh, and similarly the LXX (Septuagint Version) has Kurios, the Vulgate dominus, and the E.V. Lord, where the Hebrew has Yahweh. Hebrew was originally written without vowels, but when the "vowel points" were added, the vowels of "Adonay" or "Elohim" were written with Yahweh, as a direction that these words were to be read instead of the word whose consonants were Yahweh; thus we find the combinations YeHoWaH and YeHoWiH. At the Reformation, the former being the more usual, was sometimes used as the Name of the (Mighty One) of Israyl, and owing to ignorance of its history was misread as "Jehovah," a form which has established itself in English, but does not give the pronunciation of the Holy Name it represents.

In the Middle Ages, when the consonantal text was supplied with vowel points by the Masorites, the Tetragrammaton was substituted in over 130 places in the Hebrew Text with the Canaanite God (el) "Adonay", and in some places "Elohim" (God, Gods) wherever anthropomorphism (ascribing the physical attributes of man to Yahweh) was applied. Wherever they left the Tetragrammaton intact, they placed diacritical marks beneath it to indicate pronunciation of the word to be spoken—Adonay, not the written—Yahweh, which the Hebrews considered too sacred to be spoken aloud.

For "Yahweh" they have substituted "Baal", the Babylonian God (el), and "Adonay", the Canaanite God (El) of the Phoenicians, both corresponding to the English word "Lord".

Likewise, the Name of Yahweh's Son, Yahshua: (Yahweh is Salvation), has been substituted by Yeshua, Iesous, Iesus, Jesus, and Ea-Zeus (Healing Zeus).

Webster's 20th Century Dictionary Unabridged, page 2124, says that Zeus is the sky God, and is also known as Deus (Latin), Dio (Italian), Dios (Spanish), Dayus (Sanskrit), and Zeus Soter, meaning Zeus the Savior.

The substitution of the Names of Yahweh and Yahshua, by the names of pagan Gods (Elohim), has brought immeasurable harm. Such names as Lord, God, Jesus, and Christ in no way represent the meaning of the Name revealed by Yahweh our Heavenly Father to Mosheh, and to the ancient Hebrews. By employing these names, the people unknowingly turn the worship of Yahweh into that of Gods (Elohim), and actually ascribe the loving and merciful characteristics of the Father of Israyl, to the pagan Gods (Elohim)!

Hosheyah 2:8—

For she did not realize that it was I Who gave her grain, wine, and oil, and multiplied her silver and gold—which they sacrificed to Baal; thinking it was the Lord that gave these blessings!

In their The Kingdom Interlinear Translation of the Greek Scriptures (the Jehovah's Witnesses), The Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of New York, Inc., admit in their Foreword (page 23) that:

“While inclined to view the pronunciation ‘Yahweh’ as the more correct way, we have retained the form ‘Jehovah’ because of people’s familiarity with it since the 14th Century.”

As an opposing example, The New International Version Interlinear Hebrew-English Old Testament, edited by John R. Kohlenberger III, 4 Volumes, Zondervan Publishing House, Grand Rapids, Michigan 49506, elects to use Yahweh’s Name wherever it is written in the Hebrew Text. In Volume 1, page 26, of the Introduction, is found this statement:

“Yahweh, the personal Name of (the Creator), is always translated ‘Yahweh’, against the practice in the NIV in rendering it as ‘LORD’. On the one hand, this prevents confusion of the Name with the title (Adonai) ‘my Lord’, for the idea of ‘lord’ is not an integral element of the Name. On the other hand, it may be the use of Yahweh in this work will encourage the reader to use the personal Name of (Yahweh) in prayer and praise, as is intended by the most common imperative in the Scriptures: (HalleluYahweh!) Psalm 104:35: Praise Yahweh!”

The Name of Yahweh In The Book of Yahweh

The Holy Name of our Father and Creator, Yahweh, or its short form which appears in the compound names of people, Yahweh's Prophets, and cities, is the One and Only Name by which the Creator is known throughout The Holy Scriptures. Following are only a few of the many Scriptures in which Yahweh is extolled and praised:

Psalm 23:6—

Surely righteousness and mercy will follow us all the days of our lives; and we will dwell in The House of Yahweh forever.

Psalm 9:10—

They that know Your Name will trust in You! Those who seek You, You will not forsake.

Psalm 83:18—

Let men know that You, Whose Name Alone is Yahweh, are the Supreme Head over all the earth.

Isayah 43:3—

For I am Yahweh your Father, the Holy One of Israyl, your Savior...

Following is a list of only a few of the Scriptures, which show the glorification of Yahweh's Name in His Book: Psalm 68:4, Exodus 17:8-15, Exodus 15:26, Judges 6:24, Genesis 22:13-14, Acts 2:21, Yereyah 23:6, Proverbs 30:4, Isayah 42:8, Hosheyah 2:17, Hebrews 2:12, Psalm 22:22, I Kings 18:21, Yahchanan 12:13, Yahchanan 14:13-14, Acts 4:12.

The Hiding of Yahweh's Name

The Masorites, Hebrew Scribes during the Middle Ages, who added the vowel points to the accepted Hebrew Text, did not "remove" Yahweh's Name from the Scriptures. They did, however, point the Four Letter Name of Yahweh with the vowel marks of either Elohim or Adonay—pagan names of Gods (Elohim) which had been "accepted" for hundreds of years—effectually establishing in their writings, what had previously been only an "oral custom"!

These names of the Canaanites' Gods (Elohim) were "accepted" before the time of Yereyah (Jeremiah) the prophet; and when Yereyah began his prophesying, he said:

Yeremyah 23:25-27—

25 I have heard what the prophets say, who prophesy lies in My Name, saying; I have dreamed! I have dreamed!

26 How long will this be in the heart of the prophets who prophesy lies? Yes, they are prophets of the deceit of their own minds;

27 Who devise; plan and scheme, to cause My People to forget My Name through their dreams, which they tell every man to his neighbor, just as their fathers have forgotten My Name for Baal; Lord.

The word Baal simply means “Lord”, as is shown in any Bible dictionary. Unger’s Bible Dictionary, for instance, under the subject “Lord”, on page 665, says:

Lord (Hebrew Adon), an early word denoting ownership; hence, absolute control. It is not properly a (Righteous) title...master; of kings, as the lords of their subjects.”

(4.) “Lord. Master, (Greek Kurios) Supreme...”

(5.) “Baal (Master) (as noted above, it means Lord)—applied only to heathen deities (Gods), or to man as husband, etc...”

Unger’s Bible Dictionary says the word Lord should have never been used to replace the Creator’s Name.

LORD. The rendering of several Heb. and Gk. words, which have different meanings:

1. Jehovah (yahweh: Heb. YHWH, “self-existent”) This is used as a proper name of [the Creator] and should have been retained in that form by the translators. See (The) Lord [Creator]; Yahweh.

2. Lord (Heb. Adon), an early word denoting ownership; hence, absolute control. It is not properly a divine title, being used of the owner of slaves (Gen. 24:14, 27; 39:2, 7, rendered “master”), of kings as the lords of their subjects (Isa. 26:13, “master”). ... It is sometimes used as a term of respect (like our sir) but with a pronoun attached (“my lord”). It often occurs in the plural.

3. Adonai (Heb. Adonay), emphatic, "the Lord"; many regard it as the plural of no. 2. It is used chiefly in the Pentateuch—always where God is submissively and reverently addressed (Ex. 4:10, 13; Josh. 7:8) and also when God is spoken of (I Kings 13:9; 22:6; etc.). The Jews, out of a superstitious reverence for the name [Yahweh] always pronounce Adonai where [Yahweh] is written. The similar form, with the suffix, is also used of men, as a Potiphar (Gen. 39:2, "master") and of Joseph (42:30, 33).

Unger also tells us, on this same page, that: "The Jews, out of a superstitious reverence for the Name Yahweh, always, in reading, pronounce 'Adonai' where 'Yahweh' is written."

On page 413 of his bible dictionary, Unger tells us:

"Baal—common Canaanite word for 'master, lord', was one of the chief male deities of the Canaanite Pantheon, now well known from the religious epic literature discovered at Ras Shamra (an Ugarit of the Amarna Letters), from 1921-1937."

The 1872 Edition of Smith's Bible Dictionary, on pages 195-196, states (emphasis ours):

"The substitution of the word Lord is most (sad); for, while it in no way represents the meaning of the Sacred Name, the mind has constantly to guard against a confusion with its lower uses, and, above all, the direct personal hearing of the Name on the revelation of Yahweh...is injuriously out of sight."

Attempts to Correct Mistakes The Effect of Hiding Yahweh's Name

Some conscientious scholars have made meager attempts to restore the Name of the Creator in the Holy Scriptures. And their efforts have been much appreciated by serious students of the Holy Writ. Their efforts to correct these mistakes have brought about new inroads, leading to deeper studies of Yahweh's Word. However, the conscientious scholars, whose work is now being studied worldwide, knew their work was very insignificant, compared to the corrections that were needed. An example of this, is in the name of the Prophet Yeremyah, (Jeremiah)—the same prophet who was inspired to write of the people forgetting Yahweh's Name (Yeremyah 23:25-27). Yeremyah's own name was changed by the later translators to Jeremiah, in order to hide the Name of Yahweh, which was in his name! By changing Yeremyah, which means: "May Yahweh Lift Up" to Jeremiah, which means nothing, the translators effectively hid the Name of Yahweh; therefore, not even a hint of Yahweh's Name remains in this name. In today's modern translations, all the place names and the personal names, which originally bore the glory of Yahweh's Name, have been changed; every trace of Yahweh's Name is hidden. The result of this is: a student can read the majority of the later English translations of the Holy Scriptures, and the Name of the Only One Who inspired those Scriptures to be written, is not even hinted at!

The Name of Our Messiah, Yahshua

According to the inspired Prophecies, the Messiah's Name was to mean: "Yahweh is Salvation", which is exactly what the Name Yahshua means! In The Book of Yahweh, the Name Yahshua, the True Name of Yahweh's only begotten Son, and our High Priest, Messiah, Redeemer, Ruler, and King, has been restored in the Holy Scriptures. This was of utmost importance, for the Holy Scriptures openly proclaim there is only one Name given on earth, through which all men may achieve salvation (Acts 4:10-12), and that Name is "Yahshua"—"Yahweh is Salvation!" Any name, other than the correct Name, will not suffice.

The Holy Scriptures proclaim over and over, that Yahweh Himself is our Savior (Psalm 27:1, Isayah 43:11).

Our Messiah Himself stated His mission was to proclaim Who our Savior is—Yahweh! (Yahchanan Chapter 17). Obviously, our Messiah's very Name would state Who our Savior is; and the Name of our Messiah makes this distinction: "Yahweh is Salvation", or "Yahweh is our Savior". That Name is Yahshua.

The world, for the most part, has rejected this Name (Yahshua), and has replaced It with the names Yeshua or Jesus. However, even the scholars of the Christian Church openly admit that these false names (Yeshua, Jesus) replaced the True Name (Yahshua) in the Scriptures. Louis Hartman, Encyclopedic Dictionary of the Bible, pages 1141-1142 and New Catholic Encyclopedia, Volume 7, pages 970-971, openly admits this fact in his writings:

“Jesua (Yeshua)—In the last few centuries before Christ, the personal name yosua (Yahshua) was pronounced and written as yesua (yeshua)...”

“Jesus (The Name): In English, the name Jesus is a transliteration of the Latin form IESUS, which represents the Greek form Ἰησοῦς (Iesous), of the Hebrew name yesua (yeshua). The latter (yesua, yeshua) is a late form, by vowel dissimilation, of the Name yosua (Yahshua)...”

Mr. Hartman (Encyclopedic Dictionary of the Bible, New Catholic Encyclopedia) clearly shows that the original Name Yahshua was first changed by the Hebrews to Yeshua, using the same vowel point system which was used to hide the Name of Yahweh! Then, the churches perpetuated this error, further changing the name to the present “Jesus”.

With the subtle use of “vowel dissimilation”, the True Name of the Messiah, Yahshua, was replaced with the name that hid Yahweh's Name—Yeshua, which means “He will save”. Then, the Greeks wrote a literal transliteration of the Hebrew word “Yeshua” (Iesous); the Latins (Romans) wrote a literal transliteration of the Greek word Iesous (Iesus); then the English wrote a literal transliteration of the Latin word Iesus (Jesus). All of these names are void of the power of Yahweh's Name!

With the use of “vowel dissimilation,” only a slight change occurs, but this slight change removes the Name of Yahweh, effectively shutting off Salvation from Yahweh to those who are deceived into using the names of Yeshua and Jesus!

Importance Placed on The Name!

Throughout the Holy Scriptures, one can read of the importance placed on the Name of Yahweh. Knowing and using our Creator's Name in worship and study has been important for each generation, for Yahweh is the only being Who can give life, as the Holy Scriptures also say:

I Timothy 6:16—

Who alone has immortality, dwelling in the light which no man can approach unto; Whom no man has seen, nor can see; to Whom belongs honor and power everlasting. HalleluYahweh! Praise Yahweh!

This Scripture alone shows the great importance that is attached to knowing our Heavenly Father's Name. But as this age grows closer to an end, and all hope of life and protection slowly vanishes; and as it becomes more obvious that mankind will use his capabilities to eradicate all life, it becomes extremely important for people to know our Creator's Name, and to become knowledgeable of the great Plan Yahweh reveals in His unadulterated Word—for it is only those who call with the Name of Yahweh who will be delivered at this End Time:

Yahyl (Joel) 2:31-32—

31 The sun will be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and the wonderful day of Yahweh comes.

32 And whoever will call with the Name of Yahweh will be delivered. For The House of Yahweh; those who keep Yahweh's Laws through the Priest who teaches peace, there will be deliverance, as Yahweh has said, among the remnant who has escaped of those whom Yahweh calls.

The House of Yahweh

The House of Yahweh has purposed to go far beyond all other conscientious Scholars. The House of Yahweh has purposed, not only to restore Yahweh's Name in all the Scriptures in which It was inspired to be written, but we have also purposed to restore Yahweh's wonderful Name in each of the hundreds of places where It was used in compound with place names, and within personal names. As you read these Scriptures, you will see how many times the Name of Yahweh was honored by our forefathers, and also how many times the translators hid this wonderful Name.

To The Glory of Yahweh

Most of the Holy men of old would not even be recognized today by their proper names. Because of the drastic steps taken, by both scribes and translators, to suppress Yahweh's Name, the book of Scriptures prevalent in our society today simply is not complete, nor is the Will of Yahweh made manifest to the readers.

Therefore, The House of Yahweh has not sought the honor and glory of the Scholarly Establishment in presenting this Translation to the world. The House of Yahweh is giving all glory and praise to Yahweh!

As you read the titles of the Chapters in The Book of Yahweh, you will see names you have never seen before. Where there was the slightest possibility that a name bore the Name of Yahweh, The House of Yahweh has elected to Honor Yahweh with it. This is especially true of the names of Yahweh's Prophets which may have the compound of the name El (God). We are sure this may upset the Scholarly community, who continually hold onto years of admitted mistakes. However, the facts cannot be denied; in fact, they are admitted. The only answer is to bring light in the only means available. The House of Yahweh is giving all glory and praise to Yahweh, and is not seeking gratification from the Scholarly Establishment.

The Scriptures

However, the Scriptures themselves have been thoroughly studied, compared, and critiqued; every Scripture that has been changed from the King James Version can be proven beyond any shadow of doubt; thereby building your faith and trust in Yahweh our Heavenly Father, and Creator of the universe.

We have purposed to replace the many vital words which were deliberately left untranslated in today's modern English versions; words which, when left untranslated, disguised the true message which Yahweh inspired to be written, or else perpetuated the many traditions of men"—not according to the Scriptures—but rampant in this world!

We have also purposed to remove all words and whole verses that have been added to the original Scriptures (such as the "footnotes" that became supposedly "inspired" Scriptures, as a later copyist included them in the Holy Writings).

Most of the time, these added words change, hide, or contradict the original Message of Yahweh; effectively confusing the reader, who is in search of the Truth of Yahweh. We have not omitted these Scriptures arbitrarily; indeed, the commentaries of the religious scholars themselves have stated these Scriptural facts. We, only, have acted upon the facts presented.

We have purposed, as well, to clearly translate the many verses that have been left unclear, and not understandable, in other translations. The Book of Yahweh is written in modern English; yet at the same time with the thought of presenting all the Truth of Yahweh. One of the most frequently heard complaints about the translations of today, is against the hundreds of unintelligible verses they contain.

The Hebrew and the Greek Scriptures are understandable to those who know the Plan of Yahweh, but to those who did not understand His Plan, the meanings of these phrases were incomprehensible, or else were hateful to them. Therefore, in their translations into other languages, some Scriptures were incomprehensible, or were translated in ways to perpetuate the traditions of men. We have purposed in all of these verses to bring out the clear meaning, so the average layman can read, and then understand, Yahweh's Great Truths in His wonderful Plan for mankind.

Yahweh Has Even Revealed The Name of His Book, It Is The Book of Yahweh!

Even the Name of His Book is, in actual fact, the Inspired Words of Yahweh. Recorded for us, in the Book of Isayah, we are commanded to:

Isayah 34:16—

Search out The Book of Yahweh, and read. Not one of these will be neglected. It is written: Yahweh is their Shepherd; they shall not want, for His mouth has commanded it, and His Spirit has gathered them.

The Word of Yahweh, As In The Original, Without the Pagan Titles

We have purposed in our translation of the Holy Scriptures, never to stray from the Inspiration of the original. We know that each inspired word, or phrase, has a purpose for all of Yahweh's called out ones. Therefore, we have purposed to bring back the original words or phrases to their true meaning, if they have been mistranslated.

In the Hebrew manuscripts, the Religious Scholars conclude there are three major texts of Scripture; the oldest, and the original, being the Yahwistic works, which use the Name of Yahweh exclusively. These works are referred to as the (J) writings, because they contain only the Name of Yahweh, without the pagan titles: El, Elohim, Adonai. In these first manuscripts, everyone knew instantly the Name of the Creator of all things, because the minds of those who read it, were not confused by reading titles of pagan Gods (Elohim).

The next text of the Scriptures, coming about 100 years later, incorporated the use of pagan titles, which were adopted from the Canaanites, after the children of Israyl entered the Promised Land, even though Yahweh had strictly warned them to stay away from the Godworship of the peoples they would come in contact with (Deuteronomy 7:1-5)!

In direct violation of Yahweh's Commandment not to worship hinder Gods (Elohim—Deuteronomy 30:17-19), only 100 years later the Holy Scriptures became polluted with the pagan titles of Elohim, Adonai, God, and Lord!

At the time, the use of these pagan terms was accepted, and used, by the copyists to replace Yahweh's Name, or to identify Him in their writings. However, these pagan words cannot identify Yahweh our Creator, because they are titles of Satan and her angels!

Unger's Bible Dictionary, page 412, states that the word El is a Canaanite word meaning "God", or "Devil".

The Interpreter's Dictionary of the Bible, Volume 1, page 817, under Demonology, says: The word Elohim (plural form of El) means "demons" or "Gods".

It is very rewarding to any reader to discover that these pagan titles were not employed in the first and original, writings. They were, in fact, only accepted by the Israylites after coming into the land Yahweh had promised them, which was occupied by Canaanites, whose worship was that of demons. And of whom Yahweh had warned His people to avoid!

Our Prayer

It is our prayer that The Book of Yahweh will not only acquaint the reader with the Sacred Names of Yahweh and Yahshua, but will also give the reader a broader vision of the great lengths Satan has gone to, to repress and remove all knowledge, all reverence, and all worship from Yahweh. It is our prayer that men will come to see the seriousness of the mistake of removing Yahweh's Name from the Holy Scriptures, which conscientious Scholars admit, and that men will turn away from calling upon the Gods (Elohim) and Lords (Baalim) when praying, reading, and witnessing.

We pray that all men everywhere will see, from the corrections Yahweh inspired to be written in His Book, that Yahweh never identified Himself as a "God" or as a "lord," in any of the original writings—that instead, He identified Himself, Whose Name is Yahweh, as our loving Heavenly Father, which is the title He was addressed by His Son. May you so be blessed, and may you, as King David said in:

Psalm 23:6—

...dwell in The House of Yahweh forever.

The Great Tribulation

The worst years for mankind are yet to come. Horrifying Prophecies are yet to be fulfilled. We are now facing the years spoken of in the Holy Scriptures as, The Great Tribulation. Our Messiah, King, Ruler, High Priest, and Savior, said in:

Mattithyah 24:21-22—

21 For then will be Great Tribulation, such as has not come to pass since the beginning of the world to this time—no, nor ever will be.

22 And unless those days were shortened, there would no flesh be saved; but for the Elect's sake, those days will be shortened.

It should be obvious that we are living in an era in the history of man, when mankind has the capability of destroying himself with nuclear weapons. It should be obvious to any reader of Yahweh's Word, that our future depends on Yahweh, if we are to survive these days.

The question in each person's mind now, should be: "Can I get my Creator to help me, by calling on the titles of pagan Gods (Elohim)?"

It is our prayer that all who read The Book of Yahweh will completely turn to Yahweh with all their hearts, calling with the Name of Yahweh, as Yahweh inspired His Prophet Yahyl to proclaim in Yahyl 2:31-32.

Requirements

Mankind is being offered a great position in the Greatest Kingdom in the universe. All that is required is for mankind to practice Righteousness. Righteousness should be the number one thing that everyone would want their children to practice. Read in:

Genesis 1:26

Then Yahweh said: I will make man in My Image, according to My Likeness; they will have Authority over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the air, over the cattle, and over all the earth and over every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth.

How does mankind achieve what is written in Genesis 1:26? The answer is shown in:

Genesis 2:9, 16-17

9 And out of the ground Yahweh made every tree grow that is pleasant to the sight, and desirable for food. The Tree of Life was in the midst of the garden, and the tree of the knowledge of Righteousness and evil was in the midst also.

16 And Yahweh commanded the man, saying: Of every tree of the garden you may freely eat;

17 But of the tree of the knowledge of Righteousness and evil you must not eat, for in the day that you eat of it you will surely die.

Adam and Eve, just as mankind today, took Yahweh's Instructions lightly, and they chose to follow evil, like the Gods.

Genesis 3:1-5

1 Now the serpent was more subtle and crafty than any beast of the field which Yahweh had made. And she said to the woman; Has Yahweh indeed said: You shall not eat of every tree of the garden?

2 And the woman said to the serpent; We may eat the fruit of the trees of the garden;

3 But of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, Yahweh has said: You shall not eat it, nor shall you touch it, or you will die.

4 And the serpent said to the woman; You will not surely die.

5 For He knows that in the day you eat of it, your eyes will be opened, and you will be as Gods (elohim), knowing Righteousness and evil.

Evil like the Gods? Read again:

Genesis 2:9

And out of the ground Yahweh made every tree grow that is pleasant to the sight, and desirable for food. The Tree of Life was in the midst of the garden, and the tree of the knowledge of Righteousness and evil was in the midst also.

Genesis 2:16-17

16 And Yahweh commanded the man, saying: Of every tree of the garden you may freely eat;

17 But of the tree of the knowledge of Righteousness and evil you must not eat, for in the day that you eat of it you will surely die.

Trees represent The House of Yahweh and the house of the Gods or Lords. See:

Mattithyah 7:13-23

13 Enter in through the narrow gate; for wide is the gate and broad is the way that leads to destruction, and many are those who go that way.

14 Because straight is the gate, and narrow is the way which leads to Life, and few there are who find it.

15 Beware of false prophets who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves.

16 You will know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes from thorns, or figs from thistles?

17 Likewise, every Righteous tree brings forth Righteous fruit; but a tree of evil brings forth fruit of iniquity.

18 A Righteous tree cannot bring forth fruit of iniquity, nor can a tree of evil bring forth fruits of Righteousness.

19 Every tree which does not bring forth Righteous fruit is cut down, and cast into the fire.

20 Therefore, by their fruits you will know them.

21 Not everyone who says to Me; Teacher! Teacher! will enter into the Kingdom of Yahweh, but only he who does the will of My Father Who is in heaven.

22 Many will say to Me in that day; Teacher! Teacher! Have we not prophesied in Your Name, and cast out demons in Your Name, and in Your Name performed many wonderful works?

23 But then I will declare to them; I never knew you. Get away from Me, you who practice iniquity.

You can see that Satan and the Gods went immediately to work trying to prevent Yahweh's Plan from succeeding.

Genesis 3:5

For He knows that in the day you eat of it, your eyes will be opened, and you will be as Gods (elohim), knowing righteousness and evil.

Evil Like the Gods

Yahweh is not a God. The difference between Yahweh and the Gods is the Perfect Righteousness Yahweh intends to bring before the universe to show what that Righteousness will bring versus what evil like the Gods will bring.

Yahweh Put Before Mankind Two Trees and Said to Take Only From The One

The wages of sin are death, and all have sinned. However, Yahweh knows that through teaching, people will turn from sin. Therefore, He provided the Perfect Sacrifice—Yahshua.

In the beginning Yahweh foretold of Yahshua, but Yahweh did not choose Yahshua until 4004 years later.

Mattithyah 3:16-17

16 And Yahshua, when He was baptized, went up immediately out of the water; and lo, the heavens and the earth, the Work of Yahweh, the Message of Yahweh, the universe—all that was Yahweh's—was opened to Him at Abel; and He perceived that the Word of Yahweh (for Yahweh loved Him) had come to Him.

17 Then lo, a voice from heaven, saying: This is My beloved Son, in Whom I am well pleased.

The number 4004 in the Hebrew dictionary of Strong's

Concordance is from word #977 and means select, well fortified, choice. From the same source we find: 977 bachar a prim. root; prop. to try (by impl.) select:—acceptable, choose, chosen.

Acceptable?

Compare:

Genesis 4:7

If you do Righteousness, will you not be accepted? And if you do not do Righteousness, sin is crouching at your door. The desire to sin is with you, but you must overcome it!

Yahweh is the subject of the Hebrew word bachar in:

Numbers 16:5

Then he said to Korah and all his followers; Tomorrow morning Yahweh will show who is His and who is Holy, and He will have that person come near him. The man He chooses He will cause to come near him.

Nehemiah 9:7-8 shows Yahweh choosing people as far back as Abraham. From the teachings and seed of Abraham, came Yahshua. The Name Yahshua means Yahweh will save His People from their sins.

Yahshua spoke to the Roman municipal system set up in Yerusalem, as it is now set up throughout the world, in:

Yahchanan 12:48-50

48 He who rejects Me, and does not follow My Words; My teachings pertaining to the Law and the Prophets, has One Who judges him. The Word that I have spoken; My teachings pertaining to the Law and the Prophets, the same will be used to judge him in the last day.

49 For I have not spoken on My own; but the Father Who sent Me gave Me the Laws—what I should say and what I should speak.

50 And I know that His Laws are Life Everlasting; so whatever I speak, I am saying exactly what My Father has told Me to say.

Reject Him, they did, because He called them to repentance. He exposed their sins; therefore, they hated Him and His Disciples for showing them the Truth. These were the House of Israyl, the sons of Yaaqob, who called themselves lawyers, Pharisees, Sadducees, Essenes and Herodians.

They are now located on the seven hills of Rome, and still teach the same hatred for the Names of Yahweh and Yahshua. Read Yahshua's Words in Yahchanan 8:44. He shows that Satan inspired her servants, the priests of the Lord.

Lord?

Yeremyah 23:1-2, 10-15, 21-22, 25-27

1 Woe to the pastors; shepherds, who destroy and scatter the sheep of My pasture! says Yahweh.

2 Therefore, this is what Yahweh, the Father of Israyl, says against the pastors who feed My people: You have scattered My flock, and driven them away, and have not visited; attended to, them. Behold, you are going to be called to account for the evil of your doings, says Yahweh:

10 For the land is full of adulterers; those who turn from following Yahweh to follow the Gods (elohim). Because of this curse the land mourns; the pleasant places of the wilderness are dried up. Their conduct is evil, whose might is not right—

11 For both prophet and priest are profane! Yes, even in My own House I have found their wickedness! says Yahweh.

12 And so, their way will be slippery places to them; in the darkness they will be driven on, and fall in the darkness; for they will bring trouble upon themselves every time they commit sexual sins, says Yahweh.

13 I have seen folly; offense, in the prophets of Samaria—they prophesied by Baal; the Lord, and caused My People Israyl to err; go astray.

14 I have also seen in the prophets of Yerusalem a horrible thing—they commit adultery and walk in lies; they turn from Yahweh and follow after the Gods (elohim)! They also strengthen the hands of evildoers, so that no one turns back from his wickedness. All of them are like Sodom to Me, and her inhabitants are like Gomorrah.

15 Therefore, this is what Yahweh our Father says concerning these prophets; Behold, they will be fed with wormwood, and they will be made to drink the water of gall; for from the prophets of Yerusalem profaneness has gone out into all the world.

21 I have not sent these prophets, yet they ran; I have not spoken of them, yet they prophesied.

22 But if they had stood in My Counsel, and had caused My people to hear My Words; the Laws and the Prophets, then they would have turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings.

25 I have heard what the prophets say, who prophesy lies in My Name, saying; I have dreamed! I have dreamed!

26 How long will this be in the heart of the prophets who prophesy lies? Yes, they are prophets of the deceit of their own minds;

27 Who devise; plan and scheme, to cause My People to forget My Name through their dreams, which they tell every man to his neighbor, just as their fathers have forgotten My Name for Baal; Lord.

Verse 13 tells us these were not Yahweh's Prophets; they prophesied by Baal (meaning the Lord). Yes! Dead rabbis. The last part of verse 14 reveals them as being sodomites. Verse 15 shows prophets of Yerusalem.

Genesis 49:8-10 shows them to be of the tribe of Yahdah—the law givers in Yerusalem. That was before they destroyed Yerusalem, murdered millions of people, stole all the wealth and artifacts of the Temple, including The Book of Yahweh, and moved everything to Rome in 70 AY (after Yahshua).

History of the Destruction of the Temple and the Move to Rome

The Romans Destroy the Temple at Jerusalem, 70 AD (AY)

Correction: the Romans were the Pharisees, Sadducees, Essenes, and Herodians who founded Rome in 753 BY. Shaul (Paul) was a Pharisee, a Roman soldier and a Roman citizen, but he had never been to Rome. Call, write or email us for the full truth on this subject.

In the year 66 AD the Jews of Judea rebelled against their Roman masters. In response, the Emperor Nero dispatched an army under the generalship of Vespasian to restore order. By the year 68, resistance in the northern part of the province had been eradicated and the Romans turned their full attention to the subjugation of Jerusalem. That same year, the Emperor Nero died by his own hand, creating a power vacuum in Rome. In the resultant chaos, Vespasian was declared Emperor and returned to the Imperial City. It fell to his son, Titus, to lead the remaining army in the assault on Jerusalem.

A bit of correction is needed here. This article calls the people Jews. In the minds of most, Jews are those who practiced Yahweh's Righteousness. That thought was planted by the Pharisees, Sadducees, Essenes, and Herodians who owned the Roman army and used it to try to destroy all who did actually practice Yahweh's Righteousness.

Titus came against Yerusalem during the Feast of Passover with orders to murder all who practiced keeping Yahweh's Laws. Titus and his father were Pharisees. The Roman army was made up mostly of Pharisees. Shaul (Paul) was a Pharisee who took his orders from the chief priest of the Pharisees. This is shown in the Acts of the Apostles.

The nation Israyl was made up of those who taught Yahweh's Laws such as Yahshua and His Disciples, versus the Pharisees, Sadducees, Essenes, and Herodians who did not keep Yahweh's Laws.

The Roman army belonged to those who did not keep Yahweh's Laws. Like Cain, they tried to kill all of those who were practicing Yahweh's Righteousness. The Roman army destroyed the Temple (House of Yahweh) and moved to Rome taking all the wealth and artifacts with them.

Back to the Romans destroy the Temple.

The Roman legions surrounded the city and began to slowly squeeze the life out of the Jewish stronghold. By the year 70, the attackers had breached Jerusalem's outer walls and began a systematic ransacking of the city. The assault culminated in the ... destruction of the Temple that served as the center of Judaism.

In victory, the Romans slaughtered thousands. Of those spared from death: thousands more were enslaved and sent to toil in the mines of Egypt, others were dispersed to arenas throughout the Empire to be butchered for the amusement of the public. The Temple's sacred relics were taken to Rome where they were displayed in celebration of the victory.

The Fall of Jerusalem In 70 A.D.

"And [Yahshua] went out, and departed from the Temple: and His disciples came to Him for to shew Him the buildings of the Temple. And [Yahshua] said unto them, "See ye not all these things? Verily I say unto you, there shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down."
(Matthew 24:1-2)

About 40 years later, (32AD-70AD) and exactly as prophesied by [Yahshua Messiah], the magnificent "...Temple" was completely destroyed, leaving not one stone upon another. It was an event that marked the beginning of the long and arduous Jewish Diaspora. Yet, it was definitely an event foreseen in Bible prophecy. [Yahshua] not only prophesied about the destruction of Jerusalem and its Holy Temple, but added the following statement: (Luke 21:24; and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled.)

After the death of Herod Agrippa I, the procurators were put back in charge, however in 66 A.D. the Jews instigated a rebellion against Roman rule. In 70 A.D., after a 143-day siege which began at Passover, a Roman military force consisting of about 30,000 troops under the command of Titus battered the walls and entered the city. They destroyed everything, including [the] Temple, exactly as spoken by [Yahshua Messiah] 40 years earlier. The population and the great number of Passover visitors who had been trapped there were brutally slaughtered, with an estimated 600,000 to 1,000,000 people killed. Roman General Titus took the precious booty and treasury of the Jerusalem Temple back to Rome, where many suspect it remains to this day. (arch of Titus)

By 70 A.D., Jerusalem and Judea were left desolate, most of the people either killed or being held in captivity, or had become refugees fleeing to remote lands. All that remained in Israel was the defiant little garrison atop the mount at Masada, a fortress complex south of the Dead Sea, which was built by Herod the Great. Thus when the Temple was destroyed in A.D. 70 the period of the second exile began.

The Temple Destroyed – As Predicted

...[Yahshua] had assembled his disciples together on the Mt. of Olives overlooking the Temple. The disciples opened the conversation by talking about the beauty of the temple and its courts. [Yahshua] opened his amazing and detailed reply by predicting the soon-coming destruction of that magnificent building:

[Yahshua] left the temple and was going away, when his disciples came to point out to him the buildings of the temple. But he answered them, "You see all these, do you not? Truly, I say to you, there will not be left here one stone upon another, that will not be thrown down" As he sat on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to him privately, saying, "Tell us, when will this be, and what will be the sign of your coming and of the close of the age?" (Matthew 24:1-3)

Both the Temple and the City of Jerusalem were indeed about to be destroyed. With four Legions, Titus the Roman General, later to become Caesar, began the siege of Jerusalem in April, A.D. 70.

...in A.D. 70...Titus took the city and...the Temple.

Jerusalem was totally destroyed and as [Yahshua] had predicted – not one stone was left upon another. The Menorah and vessels were carried to Rome and the treasury was robbed.

As Daniel had predicted the Temple was destroyed after the Messiah had come, not before.

Bible scholar Ray C. Stedman comments on the predictions of [Yahshua] and their fulfillment in history a few years later:

In Luke 21:20 we have other details of this predicted overthrow of the city and the Temple. There [Yahshua] adds, “But when you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then know that its desolation has come near.” Forty years later the Roman armies under Titus came in and fulfilled the prediction to the very letter.

What is the Arch of Titus?

The Victory Arch of Titus commemorates Titus' victorious conquest of Judaea, leading the sacking of Jerusalem and ending the Jewish wars. The arch was constructed after Titus's death in 81 C.E. after his becoming a god.

Where is the Arch of Titus?

The Arch of Titus is located on the highest point of the Via Sacra, a road leading to the Roman Forum. This is a single arch, 15.4m high, 13.5m wide, and 4.75m deep. The marble reliefs stand nearly 2.5m in height. On the Arch of Titus is a relief depicting the Romans' triumphal procession, returning with spoils from the Jewish Temple in Jerusalem. Especially prominent is the sacred Menorah, but we can also see the Table of the Shewbread, and the silver trumpets which called Jews to Rosh Hashanah.

Yeremyah 23:21-22, 25-27

21 I have not sent these prophets, yet they ran; I have not spoken of them, yet they prophesied.

22 But if they had stood in My Counsel, and had caused My people to hear My Words; the Laws and the Prophets, then they would have turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings.

25 I have heard what the prophets say, who prophesy lies in My Name, saying; I have dreamed! I have dreamed!

26 How long will this be in the heart of the prophets who prophesy lies? Yes, they are prophets of the deceit of their own minds;

27 Who devise; plan and scheme, to cause My People to forget My Name through their dreams, which they tell every man to his neighbor, just as their fathers have forgotten My Name for Baal; Lord.

Did you get verse 27? The Pharisees, Sadducees, Essenes, and Herodians who were Coptic Catholics in disguise caused the people to forget the Name Yahweh for Baal or Lord. Baal means Lord. They used the roman army to do this as is show in:

Daniyl 11:31

And the army will stand on his part, and they will pollute the sanctuary of Strength, and will take away the daily, and they will place the Lord of heaven.

The Prophecy of the Savior, Yahshua, being conceived 4004 years after creation and born 4005 years after creation was fulfilled in the seed of Abraham. Abraham kept Yahweh's Laws, Statutes, Judgments, and the everlasting Covenant of putting away sin from the mind and body of mankind.

Abraham was faithful to Yahweh. Through his seed came Yahshua Messiah. Yahshua Messiah kept and taught the Laws of Yahweh. Carefully read His Words.

Mattithyah 4:1-4

1 Then Yahshua was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness, to be tempted by the devil.

2 And when He had fasted forty days and forty nights, afterward He was hungry.

3 So when the tempter came to Him, she said; If You are the Son of Yahweh, command that these stones be turned to bread.

4 But He answered, and said; It is written: Man does not live by bread alone, but by every Word that proceeds out of the mouth of Yahweh.

Mattithyah 5:17-20

17 Do not even think that I have come to destroy the Laws or the Prophets; I have not come to destroy them, but to establish them.

18 For truly I say to you; Unless heaven and earth pass away, one yodh—the smallest of the letters—will in no way pass from the Law, until all things are perfected.

19 Whosoever, therefore, will break one of the least of these Laws, and will teach men so, he will be called the least in the Kingdom of Yahweh; but whosoever will do and teach them, the same will be called great in the Kingdom of Yahweh.

20 For I say to you: Unless your Righteousness exceeds the scribes and Pharisees, you will certainly not enter into the Kingdom of Yahweh.

Mattithyah 19:17

But He said to him: Why do you question Me about Righteousness? There is only One Who is the Standard of Perfection, and He is Yahweh; so if you would enter into Life, keep the Laws of Yahweh.

Mattithyah 7:17-21

17 Likewise, every Righteous tree brings forth Righteous fruit; but a tree of evil brings forth fruit of iniquity.

18 A Righteous tree cannot bring forth fruit of iniquity, nor can a tree of evil bring forth fruits of Righteousness.

19 Every tree which does not bring forth Righteous fruit is cut down, and cast into the fire.

20 Therefore, by their fruits you will know them.

21 Not everyone who says to Me; Teacher! Teacher! will enter into the Kingdom of Yahweh, but only he who does the will of My Father Who is in heaven.

Yahchanan 15:22-23

22 If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not have had their sins revealed; but now they have no cloak, covering for, their sins.

23 He who hates Me, also hates My Father.

Yahchanan 7:7

The world cannot hate you; but it hates Me because of the testimony I bring against it: that its works are evil.

Luke 13:3

I tell you, No! But unless you repent you will all likewise perish

Revelation 22:12-21

12 And behold, I come quickly, and My Reward is with Me, to give every man according as his work will be.

13 I am the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End.

14 Blessed are those who keep His Laws, that they may have right to the Tree of Life, and may enter in through the gates into the City.

15 For outside are dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and worshipers of Gods (elohim) and everyone who professes to love, yet practices breaking the Laws.

16 I, Yahshua, have sent My Messenger to testify to you these things in the congregations of The House of Yahweh. I am the Root and the Offspring of David, and the Bright and Morning Star.

17 And the Spirit and the brides, say: Come! And let him who hears, say: Come! And let him who is thirsty come. And whoever will, let him take the water of life freely.

18 For I testify to everyone who hears the words of the Prophecy of this Book: If any man will add to these things, it will come to pass that he will add to himself the plagues that are written in this Book:

19 And if any man will take away from the words of the Book of this Prophecy, it will come to pass that he will take away his part out of The Book of Life, and out of Yahweh Shammah, and from the things which are written in this Book.

20 He Who testifies these things, says: Surely I come quickly! HalleluYahweh! May this be so! Come, Yahshua Messiah.

21 The love of our King, Yahshua Messiah, be with you all.
HalleluYahweh!

To the Pharisees, Sadducees, Essenes and Herodians, Yahshua Messiah had the following to say:

Yahchanan Mark 7:7-9, 13

7 But in vain do they worship Me, teaching as doctrine the commandments of men.

8 For laying aside the Laws of Yahweh, you hold the traditions of men!

9 Then He said to them: How well you reject the Laws of Yahweh, so that you may keep your own traditions!

13 Making the Laws of Yahweh of no effect through your traditions you have handed down! And many other similar things you do.

Traditions?

Christmas, Easter and Halloween are all traditions that come from the Coptic Catholics of Egypt and are condemned in your Bible.

Notice this:

Yahchanan 8:31-34

31 Then Yahshua said to those Yahdaim who believed on Him: If you continue in My Doctrine, then you are truly My Disciples;

32 And you will know the Truth, and the Truth will make you free.

33 They answered Him; We are Abraham's descendants, and were never in bondage to any man. What do You mean by saying: You will be made free?

34 Yahshua answered them: Truly, truly, I say to you: Whoever commits sin is the servant of sin.

The fact is, they have never been in bondage, but they put many of their brothers in bondage. Now, from the seven hills of Rome, they are putting the whole world in bondage. They still, by force, hold the prophesied scepter shown in:

Genesis 49:10

The scepter will not depart Yahdah, nor a ruling staff; Lawgiver, from between his feet, until He comes to Whom tribute belongs, and the obedience of the nations is His.

All the world is in bondage to sin. Carefully read the reason why in:

Isayah 24:1-6

1 Before Yahweh's very Eyes, the earth is made empty and it is made waste; the face of it is perverted and its inhabitants scattered abroad;

2 And it will be: as with the people, so with the priest; as with the servant, so with his owner; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with him who takes usury, so with him who gives usury to him:

3 The land will be utterly emptied and utterly plundered, for it has come to pass that this Judgment has been pronounced.

4 The earth mourns and fades away, the world mourns and fades away, and the haughty people of the earth languish.

5 The earth also is defiled under the inhabitants of it, because they have transgressed the Laws, changed the Ordinance, and broken the Everlasting Covenant.

6 Because of this, the curse has devoured the earth, and they who dwell therein are desolate; therefore, the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left.

Back to Yahshua's Words in:

Yahchanan 8:37, 39

37 I know that you are Abraham's descendants; but you seek to kill Me, because My Word; My Teachings pertaining to the Law and the Prophets, has no place in you.

39 They answered, and said to Him; Abraham is our father! Yahshua said to them: If you were Abraham's children, you would be doing the works of Abraham.

Luke 13:27-28

27 But He will say; I tell you, I do not know who you are! Get away from Me, all you workers of iniquity; who practice breaking the Law of Yahweh!

28 There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when you see Abraham, and Isaac, and Yaaqob, and all the Prophets in the Kingdom of Yahweh, and yourselves thrust out.

Compare:

Galatians 3:29

And if you are as the Messiah, then you are a seed of Abraham, heirs according to the promise.

Hebrews 1:1-3

1 Yahweh, Who at various times and in different ways spoke in times past to our fathers through the prophets,

2 Has in these Last Days spoken to us through His Son, Whom He has appointed heir of all things, for Whom He also made the world;

3 Who, being the reflection of the Perfection of Yahweh, and the representation of Yahweh's plan, by upholding all things concerning that which was spoken by Yahweh through the Laws and the Prophets, when He had purged sins, sat down on the right hand of Yahweh on high.

The wages of sin are death. Yahshua never sinned, so He was able to pay for the sins of mankind with His Own sinless life. He willingly died for us. However, if we continue to practice sin, we will face the judgment of eternal death.

Hebrews 10:21-27

21 And having a High Priest over The House of Yahweh:

22 Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of the Faith; having been sprinkled, separating our hearts from the knowledge of evil and our bodies cleansed by water with ashes of the red heifer.

23 Let us hold fast the confession of the Faith without wavering; not bending, not giving way, for He Who promised is faithful!

24 And let us consider one another, how we may urge one another on toward love and Righteous works;

25 Not forsaking the gathering of ourselves together, as the manner of some is, but exhorting one another; and so much the more as you see the day approaching.

26 For if we sin willfully after we have received the knowledge of the Truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins,

27 But a certain fearful expectation of judgment, and fiery indignation which will devour the adversaries.

The High Priest over The House of Yahweh is teaching Yahweh's Covenant.

Hebrews 10:16

This is the Covenant that I will renew with them after those days, says Yahweh: I will put My Laws into their hearts, and in their minds I will write them.

Without the Covenant you are lost. One who refuses to gather as part of the Body does not renew the Covenant.

Yeremyah 31:33

For this Covenant is the same Covenant that I will renew with the house of Israyl: After those days, says Yahweh: I will put My Laws in their inward parts, and write them in their hearts; and I will be their Father, and they will be My People.

You must repent of sin and convert to Yahweh's Righteousness to have your sins forgiven.

Acts 3:19

Repent therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out; that times of refreshing may come from the Presence of Yahweh.

I Yahchanan 2:4

He who says: I know Him, but does not keep His Laws, is a liar, and the Truth is not in him.

I Yahchanan 3:4, 7-8, 10

4 Whoever commits sin, transgresses also the Laws; for sin is the transgression of the Laws.

7 Little children, let no man deceive you; he who practices Righteousness is Righteous, just as He is Righteous.

8 He who commits sin is of the devil, for the devil has sinned from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of Yahweh was manifested; that He might destroy the works of the devil.

10 In this the Children of Yahweh and the children of the devil are manifest. Whoever does not practice Righteousness is not of Yahweh, and he does not love his neighbor!

Unless you repent...

Luke 13:3

I tell you, No! But unless you repent you will all likewise perish

Revelation 22:12-14

12 And behold, I come quickly, and My Reward is with Me, to give every man according as his work will be.

13 I am the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End.

14 Blessed are those who keep His Laws, that they may have right to the Tree of Life, and may enter in through the gates into the City.

Satan knows all of this and is working hard to deceive you into losing your promises from Yahweh.

Revelation 12:9

And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the devil, and Satan, who deceives the whole world. She was cast out into the earth, and her angels were cast out with her.

She works trying to deceive you, like she deceived Eve, into being evil like the Gods.

Genesis 3:1-5

1 Now the serpent was more subtle and crafty than any beast of the field which Yahweh had made. And she said to the woman; Has Yahweh indeed said: You shall not eat of every tree of the garden?

2 And the woman said to the serpent; We may eat the fruit of the trees of the garden;

3 But of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, Yahweh has said: You shall not eat it, nor shall you touch it, or you will die.

4 And the serpent said to the woman; You will not surely die.

5 For He knows that in the day you eat of it, your eyes will be opened, and you will be as Gods (elohim), knowing Righteousness and evil.

The Pharisees, Sadducees, Essenes and Herodians destroyed the city of Yerusalem and the Temple (House of Yahweh) in 70 AY. They moved to the city they founded on the seven hills now called Rome. That name came about because they roam (Rome) the world forcefully taking all the wealth and forcing the world to live in sin, serving the Roman Empire and the Roman Catholic Church.

The Savior, Yahshua, spoke of this present, prophesied generation in which the increase of knowledge started in 1934. The bombs that can darken the sun also started in 1934. The Last Days' Witness, the younger brother of the Two Witnesses (Revelation 11) was born in 1934. The Last Days' Witness preaches to all nations (Mattithyah 24:14). This feat could only be accomplished with the increase of knowledge that started in 1934.

Yahshua spoke of this time period in:

Mattithyah 24:1-5

1 Yahshua went out and was leaving the temple, when His Disciples came to show Him the buildings of the temple.

2 But Yahshua said to them: Do you see all these things? Truly I say to you: There will not be one stone left sitting on top of another, which will not be thrown down.

3 Now as He sat on the Mount of Olives, the Disciples came to Him privately, saying; Tell us, when will these things be? What will be the sign of Your coming and The End of the Ages?

4 Yahshua answered, and said to them: Be on guard, so that no man deceives you;

5 For many will come against My Name, saying: I am anointed to preach salvation!—and will deceive many.

The Greek word epi in verse 5, traditionally translated in is word #1909 in the Greek dictionary of Strong's Exhaustive Concordance, which shows this word is correctly translated against. See The Emphatic Diaglott by Benjamin Wilson, Matthew 24:5.

Come against His Name, they did.

Jesus and Christ, Both Gods, From What Source Did These Names Come?

The First Council of Nicaea and the “missing records”

Thus, the first ecclesiastical gathering in history was summoned and is today known as the Council of Nicaea. It was at this gathering that Christianity was born...the commencement of a new religion and the theological creation of Jesus Christ.

Constantine's intention at Nicaea was to create an entirely new god for his empire who would unite all religious factions under one deity.

Constantine was the ruling spirit at Nicaea and he ultimately decided upon a new god for them. To involve British factions, he ruled that the name of the Druid god, Hesus, be joined with the Eastern Saviour-god, Krishna (Krishna is Sanskrit for Christ), and thus Hesus Krishna would be the official name of the new Roman god. A new god was proclaimed and “officially” ratified by Constantine (Acta Concilii Nicaeni, 1618). That purely political act of deification effectively and legally placed Hesus and Krishna among the Roman gods as one individual composite. That abstraction lent Earthly existence to amalgamated doctrines of the Empire's new religion; and because there was no letter “J” in alphabets until around the sixteenth century, the name subsequently evolved into “Jesus Christ”.

Nexus Magazine, Volume 14, Number 4

Why were these names picked to worship? They were not just picked from a lot. Remember what was said about the letter “J” in the previously. The Savior was Hebrew. He had a Hebrew name—Yahshua. There was not “J” in either the Hebrew or Greek languages, nor is there a "J" in either language today.

Hesus (Jesus) and Krishna (Christ) were names of Gods that Satan wants the world to worship so the people will not be heard by Yahweh. The Pharisees, Sadducees, Essenes and Herodians, now called Catholics, removed Yahweh's Name and replaced It with Lord or the Lord.

Read the history of the change.

The First Council of Nicaea and the "missing records"

Constantine's intention at Nicaea was to create an entirely new god for his empire who would unite all religious factions under one deity. Presbyters were asked to debate and decide who their new god would be. ...the names of 53 gods were tabled for discussion. "As yet, no God had been selected by the council, and so they balloted in order to determine that matter... For one year and five months the balloting lasted..." (God's Book of Eskra, Prof. S.L. MacGuire's translation, Salisbury, 1922, chapter xlviii, paragraphs 36, 41).

At the end of that time, Constantine returned to the gathering to discover that the presbyters had not agreed on a new deity but had balloted down to a short list of five prospects: Caesar, Krishna, Mithra, Horus and Zeus (Historia Ecclesiastica, Eusebius, c. 325). Constantine was the ruling spirit at Nicaea and he ultimately decided upon a new god for them. To involve British factions, he ruled that the name of the Druid god, Hesus, be joined with the Eastern Saviour-god, Krishna (Krishna is Sanskrit for Christ), and thus Hesus Krishna would be the official name of the new Roman god. A vote was taken and it was with a majority show of hands (161 votes to 157) that both divinities become one God. Following long-standing heathen custom, Constantine used the official gathering and the Roman apotheosis decree to legally deify two deities as one, and did so by democratic consent. A new god was proclaimed and "officially" ratified by Constantine (Acta Concilii Nicaeni, 1618). That purely political act of deification effectively and legally placed Hesus and Krishna among the Roman gods as one individual composite. That abstraction lent Earthly existence to amalgamated doctrines of the Empire's new religion; and because there was no letter "J" in alphabets until around the sixteenth century, the name subsequently evolved into "Jesus Christ".

Nexus Magazine, Volume 14, Number 4

From the Catechism of the Catholic Church, we find:

IV. LORD

446 In the Greek translation of the Old Testament, the ineffable Hebrew name YHWH, by which [Yahweh] revealed himself to Moses,⁵⁹ is rendered as Kyrios, "Lord". From then on, "Lord" becomes the more usual name by which to indicate the divinity of Israel's [Creator]. The New Testament uses this full sense of the title "Lord" both for the Father and – what is new – for [Yahshua], who is thereby recognized as [Yahweh] Himself.⁶⁰

When the names Jesus and Christ are used in prayer, it's a dishonor to Yahweh, Who created the heavens and the earth. When those names are used in prayer, Yahweh, Who answers prayer, will not hear.

Isayah 59:1-2

1 Behold, Yahweh's Hand is not shortened, that it cannot save; nor His Ear heavy, that it cannot hear.

2 But your own iniquities have separated you from your Father; and your own sins have caused Him to hide His face from you, so He will not listen.

When honor is shown to the Gods, whether by word or deed, the act separates you from Yahweh.

Salvation is Offered at This Time, But Not by the Gods, They Have No Power to Do Anything

In the Last Days...is a very familiar phrase used by Yahweh's Prophets, the Disciples and Yahshua.

Yahweh allows the sons of Yaaqob to take His House by force and violence, to disassemble It and move much, if not all, of it to Rome. The Book of Yahweh was hidden for over 1500 years, then renditions of It were sold under false names, such as the King James Version. When this evil was found out, the Vatican tried to whitewash It. They didn't try to undo the evil they had done; it still stands as an honor to the Gods—being evil like the Gods.

BC and AD Honor Gods, Not Yahweh and Not Yahshua

BC/AD Dating: In the year of whose Lord?

By Michael Ostling

Published in History Today Volume 59 Issue 10 October 2009

The continuing use of AD and BC is not only factually wrong but also offensive to many [do not worship the Gods].

Dionysius Exiguus invented Anno Domini years to date Easter.

Easter is the worship of the Easter Goddess who is condemned in your Bible. Call for more information.

What year is it? This most basic of historical questions yields no universal answer. For Orthodox Jews, counting from the putative creation of the universe, the October 2009 issue of History Today, where this article first appeared, was published Anno Mundi 5770. According to the Muslim lunar calendar, dating from Muhammad's Hijra (flight or emigration) from Mecca, it is now ah 1430. Persians, Mayans, Jains, even Freemasons, all have their own eras. But it is the Christian era, counting 'the years of the Lord' from the birth of Christ, that is now ubiquitous in business, politics and historical writing. In that system, it is 2009 – but should one say ad 2009 or, as is increasingly common among scholars, 2009 CE – 2009 of the 'Common Era'?

The Common Era retains a Christian reference point – the birth of Christ – but this may be regarded as a historical accident of globalisation. As former UN General Secretary Kofi Annan put it in a statement marking the turn of the millennium: The Christian calendar no longer belongs exclusively to Christians.' For some, these are fighting words: the Southern Baptist Convention resolved, also in 2000, to resist the 'revisionism' implicit in the CE/BCE system and to retain AD 'as a reminder to those in this secular age ... that history Is ultimately His Story'.

The AD/BC chronology is not so ancient as some proponents suppose; nor is the CE/BCE system so recent. For the first five centuries of their religion, Christians marked time according to local conventions, usually from the legendary foundation of Rome (753 BC), or from the Diocletian reforms (284 AD). In a sixth-century treatise on the calculation of Easter, Dionysius 'the Little' first proposed to count from the birth of Christ to avoid honouring the hated persecutor Diocletian. His idea was popularised in England by the Venerable Bede, who added the notion of counting backwards for dates 'Before Christ'. However, it only gained universal acceptance among Christians in the 15th century. Meanwhile, in 1615 Johannes Kepler used the phrase anno aerae nostrae vulgaris (in the year of our common era) in an astronomical table and 'Common Era' or its equivalents are known, if rare, in 18th-century works such as the Encyclopaedia Britannica of 1797.

The AD/BC notation presupposes, then, that the Christian interpretation of the Book of Daniel is the right one. In contrast, dating by 'Common Era' and 'Before Common Era' takes no side in such a discussion: it simply fixes an event in time.

Our temporal labels are saturated with religion. Weekdays commemorate Norse and Roman gods...

A final argument: the AD/BC system is factually wrong. Due to a misreading of the dates for Augustus Caesar, Dionysius the Little miscalibrated 1 ad. Christ was born, according to the best estimates, around 4 BC – an unproblematic statement in common-era notation, but one that would raise thorny theological issues should we say that Christ was born four years 'before Christ'.

Let Us Be the Ones Who Stop the Lies

The Savior's Name, as given in the Inspired Scriptures, is and always has been Yahshua, which means Yahweh will save His People from their sins.

The only true and sensible way to distinguish before and after in relation to time is before Yahshua (BY) and after Yahshua (AY). This man lived and died for the whole world. We cannot continue to dishonor Yahshua Messiah. Let us start now to make this very necessary change.

May Yahweh bless your understanding.

Love, True Love,
