What Could Take the Place of Wars?

It would be great to just tell everyone to stop war and they would stop, never to fight again; but like air in a bottle, it must be replaced with something or it will return.

The roman catholic church, with their great roman empire, for over 1,500 years tried to force peace for themselves, while their subjects and the rest of the world suffered abuse at their hands. Little by little the division and opposition grew, it's still growing today, because of the oppression and grief the people suffered, and are still suffering, due to unjust laws being forced upon the people by those in power.

Promised 'freedom' did not prove true. They continually said 'no' to the printing of the Inspired Writings of Yahweh's Prophets, and 'no' to keeping Yahweh's Laws; all the while, writing lies in their history books to cover their evil.

One American President once said, "You can fool some of the people all of the time, and all of the people some of the time, but you can't fool all of the people all of the time." When people are promised just laws and freedom of religion, yet, at the same time laws are passed to prevent the Inspired Scriptures from being practiced, all of the people will not be fooled by those promises, and division will result.

A very Wise Man once said, "A kingdom divided against itself will not stand". Throughout the 6,000 years of man's history, we have seen kingdoms that have adopted their own laws, which differ from every other kingdom, so all kingdoms are divided against each other. Each kingdom has laws that only benefit some, but hurt others. This causes divisions within the kingdom. The laws of these kingdoms were made subject to change by those who gained power by force, popularity, wealth, and manipulation. The people knew those in power would bring hardship on many in their kingdom.

When laws are used to imprison the average person, like laws against sodomizing children but catholic priests are allowed to continue the practice, resentment arises. When laws and judgments are allowed by the kings to be used unequally against people of religions other than catholic, it causes resentment. When a Righteous family sees fornication, adultery, sodomy, homosexuality, and bestiality taught in the schools, but laws are passed to keep the Laws of Righteousness from being learned or practiced, it causes resentment. When the rebellious in power do what the rebellious desire, no matter how it hurts others, it will always cause resentment.

Laws that cause hardship also cause bitterness and hatred. Bitterness and hatred lead to revenge and retaliation, which result in revolutions, and in many cases the government or social system reigning at the time is overthrown by the people who feel the oppression. Although each nation has different laws, all of their laws were adopted for the same selfish reasons—to control the population and to accumulate wealth and power for those who govern the nation.

These unjust social systems, mostly based on selfish laws, are in operation in every kingdom. They use their power to pressure others into submitting to the will of that particular group of people. This, too, causes bitterness, hatred, fighting and war.

Force Is Costly

War is such a calloused word that people don’t even give it a second thought until it’s realized that a war is getting out of hand; too many men, women and children are being killed, so then voices are raised and finally they start seeing how costly war is. Please, everyone notice the money and lives spent thus far in war.

Over 350,000 Killed by Violence, $4.4 Trillion Spent and Obligated

The wars begun in 2001 have been tremendously painful for millions of people in Afghanistan, Iraq, and Pakistan, and the United States, and economically costly as well. Each additional month and year of war adds to that toll. Moreover, the human costs of these conflicts will reverberate for years to come in each of those four countries. There is no turning the page on the wars with the end of hostilities, and there is even more need as a result to understand what those wars' consequences are and will be.

The goal of the Costs of War Project has been to outline a broad understanding of the domestic and international costs and consequences of those wars. A team of 30 economists, anthropologists, political scientists, legal experts, and physicians were assembled to do this analysis. Their research papers are posted and summarized on this website.

We asked:

- What have been the wars' costs in human and economic terms?
- How have these wars changed the social and political landscape of the United States and the countries where the wars have been waged?
- What have been the public health consequences of the wars?
- What will be the long term legacy of these conflicts for veterans?
- What is the long term economic effect of these wars likely to be?
- Were and are there alternative less costly and more effective ways to prevent further terror attacks?

Some of the project's findings:

- Our tally of all of the war's recorded dead – including armed forces on all sides, contractors, journalists, humanitarian workers and civilians – shows that over 350,000 people have died due to direct war violence, and many more indirectly.
- Indirect deaths from the wars, including those related to malnutrition, damaged health infrastructure, and environmental degradation, must also be tallied. In previous wars, these deaths have far outnumbered deaths from combat and that is likely the case here as well.
- 220,000 civilians have been killed as a result of the fighting at the hands of all parties to the conflict, and more will die in Afghanistan, Iraq, and Pakistan as the violence continues. But most observers acknowledge that the number of civilians killed has been undercounted. The true number of civilian dead may be much larger when an adequate assessment is made.
- While we know how many US soldiers have died in the wars (over 6,800), what is startling is what we don't know about the levels of injury and illness in those who have returned from the wars. New disability claims continue to pour into the VA, with 970,000 disability claims registered as of March 31, 2014 [1]. Many deaths and injuries among US contractors have not been identified.
- Millions of people have been displaced indefinitely and are living in grossly inadequate conditions. The number of war refugees and displaced persons – 6.7 million – is equivalent to all of the people of Massachusetts fleeing their homes.
- Iraq's health, infrastructure, and education systems remain war-devastated.
- The armed conflict in Pakistan, which the US helps the Pakistani military fight by funding, equipping and training them, is in many ways more intense than in Afghanistan although it receives less coverage in the US news.

- The United States is at war in Yemen, having made an estimated 76 drone strikes in that country.
- The wars have been accompanied by erosions in civil liberties at home and human rights violations abroad.
- The human and economic costs of these wars will continue for decades, some costs not peaking until mid-century.
- The US federal price tag for the Iraq war – including an estimate for veterans' medical and disability costs into the future – is about $2.2 trillion dollars. The cost for both Iraq and Afghanistan/Pakistan is going to be close to $4.4 trillion, not including future interest costs on borrowing for the wars. Many of the wars' costs are invisible to Americans, buried in a variety of budgets, and so have not been counted or assessed. For example, while most people think the Pentagon war appropriations are equivalent to the wars' budgetary costs, the true numbers are twice that, and the full economic cost of the wars much larger yet.
- As with former US wars, the costs of paying for veterans' care into the future will be a sizable portion of the full costs of the war.
- The ripple effects on the US economy have also been significant, including job loss and interest rate increases, and those effects have been underappreciated.

There are many costs of these wars that we have not yet been able to quantify and assess. Given limited resources, we focused on the human toll in the major war zones, Afghanistan, Iraq and Pakistan and on US spending, as well as on assessing the claims made for enhanced security, democracy, and women's condition. There is still much more to know and understand about how all those affected by the wars have had their health, economies, and communities altered by the years of war, and about what solutions exist for the problems they face as a result of the wars' destruction. (Page updated as of June 2014)

U.S. Costs of Wars Through 2014: $4.4 Trillion and Counting

Summary of Costs for the U.S. Wars in Iraq, Afghanistan and Pakistan

25 June 2014

Professor Neta C. Crawford Boston University

Summary

A full accounting of war's burdens cannot be placed in columns on a ledger. From the civilians harmed or displaced by violence, to the soldiers killed and wounded, to the children who play on roads and fields sown with improvised explosive devices and cluster bombs, no set of numbers can convey the human toll of the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan, or how they have spilled into neighboring states and come home to the US. Yet, the expenditures noted on government ledgers are necessary to apprehend, even as they are so large as to be almost incomprehensible.

Congress and the Executive Branch describe the wars as Overseas Contingency Operations (OCO). The U.S. has spent and taken obligations to spend approximately $4.4 trillion on the wars in Iraq, Afghanistan and Pakistan not including the money requested for FY2015. The spending has occurred in several categories. A large portion of the costs for these wars occur in OCO appropriations for the State Department and Department of Defense (See Table 1 and 5 which includes the spending requests for FY2015 and the Appendix). Although the U.S. war in Iraq was of shorter duration than the on--going combat operations in Afghanistan and Pakistan (known as AfPak), the Iraq War was comparatively more expensive.

If one simply highlights the budgetary costs of allocations and expenditures so far, the U.S. has spent more than $1.59 trillion for combat and reconstruction in both major war zones and for defense of US airspace. Additional war--related spending – including additions to the Pentagon base budget and Veterans health and medical disability expenses – total about just under $1 trillion. Thus, war and war related spending from 2001 through the end of fiscal year 2014 is about $2.6 trillion.

War is such a calloused word that people have come to believe that it's something normal like eating and breathing. So why is there still fighting? The answer is simple. Once you see it, you will agree. If the money, alone, that is spent on weapons was spent on improving the infrastructure, economy, job crisis, homelessness, agriculture, and character education, each person could have their own utopia.

Freedom to Sin

The history of the pharisees, sadducees, essenes, and herodians shows they rose up against Yahweh's Prophet Samuyl, thinking they wanted freedom to choose their own form of 'righteousness' and have armies to fight their battles. At that time, the pharisees, sadducees, essenes, and herodians were referred to as the elders of Israyl (! Samuyl 8). The children of the elders who rose up against the Prophet Samuyl around 1120 BCE took control of The House of Yahweh in Yerusalem and took for themselves the names pharisees, sadducees, essenes, and herodians.

I Samuyl 8:4-8

4 Then all the elders of Israyl gathered together and approached Samuyl when he was at Ramah,

5 Saying to him; You are old, and your sons do not walk in your ways. Appoint us a king to judge us; just like all the other nations.

6 But these things displeased Samuyl, especially when they said; Give us a king to judge us. Then Samuyl prayed to Yahweh.

7 Yahweh answered Samuyl, and said: Listen to all the words the people speak to you, for they have not rejected you; they have rejected Me, that I should not reign over them.

8 Just as they have done to Me from the day I brought them out of Egypt, to this very day, they are now doing to you—they are forsaking Me in order to serve God(s); elohim!

Notice, he is not speaking of the same people who were brought out of Egypt. Those who came out of Egypt were dead; but the system, the religion or rules of worship, lived on and was carried on by the children of those who came out of Egypt. Exodus 12 shows us the coming out of Egypt, which took place around 1491 BCE. The events written in I Samuyl 8:8 took place about 371 years later, around 1120 BCE. The same system of God worship was alive and the same worship of the Gods that the twelve tribes learned in Egypt before being led out by Mosheh was taught.

In I Samuyl 8:8, the Hebrew word rendered other in the King James Version, according to every authoritative work, should have been translated hinder. This shows that the Gods or God worship they were supposed to have repented of and left behind in Egypt, they did not. So, in their hearts, they turned back to Egypt; that is, to the evil of the Gods of Egypt.

I labor this point because it's extremely important that everyone understands that Yahweh is not a God. Yahweh has no evil as the Gods do.

Genesis 3:5

For He knows that in the day you eat of it, your eyes will be opened, and you will be as Gods (elohim), knowing Righteousness and evil.

See here, Satan's instruction is to be like the Gods, knowing evil. Yahweh, the Heavenly Father and Creator, is as His Laws show, Totally and Perfectly Righteous. Yahweh is Perfect and His Ways are Perfect. That's what He desires from us.

Genesis 17:1

When Abram was ninety-nine years old, Yahweh appeared to Abram and said to him: I am Almighty Yahweh; walk in My Ways and be perfect.

Psalm 19:7

The Laws of Yahweh are Perfect, converting the whole person. The Testimony of Yahweh is sure, making the simple ones wise.

The Savior, Yahshua Messiah, said in:

Mattithyah 5:48

Therefore, become perfect, just as your Father Who is in heaven is Perfect.

How?

I Yahchanan 3:4, 7-8, 10

4 Whoever commits sin, transgresses also the Laws; for sin is the transgression of the Laws.

7 Little children, let no man deceive you; he who practices Righteousness is Righteous, just as He is Righteous.

8 He who commits sin is of the devil, for the devil has sinned from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of Yahweh was manifested; that He might destroy the works of the devil.

10 In this the Children of Yahweh and the children of the devil are manifest. Whoever does not practice Righteousness is not of Yahweh, and he does not love his neighbor!

Yahweh's Laws are the only Way to Eternal Life. Notice in your own bible and believe.

Revelation 22:12-14

12 And behold, I come quickly, and My Reward is with Me, to give every man according as his work will be.

13 I am the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End.

14 Blessed are those who keep His Laws, that they may have right to the Tree of Life, and may enter in through the gates into the City.

Yahweh Allowed Israyl to Follow the Gods of War

Yahweh told Cain that sin would be present at his door; but to become acceptable for use in Yahweh's Kingdom, he must overcome sin.

Genesis 4:6-7

6 So Yahweh said to Cain: Why are you angry? Why are you downcast?

7 If you do Righteousness, will you not be acceptable? And if you do not do Righteousness, sin is crouching at your door. The desire to sin is with you, but you must overcome it!

Yahweh told Cain that he must overcome sin. That's true for every person chosen for an Eternal Position in the Kingdom of Yahweh.

Romans 12:21

Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with Righteousness.

Yahshua Messiah said the following to all, not just Cain, but to all:

Revelation 2:7

He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the Called Out Ones of The House of Yahweh. To him who overcomes I will give to eat from the Tree of Life, which is in the midst of the Garden of Yahweh.

Revelation 2:11

He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the Called Out Ones of The House of Yahweh. He who overcomes will not be hurt by the second death.

Revelation 2:26

And he who overcomes, and keeps My Works until The End, to him I will give power over the nations.

Revelation 3:5

He who overcomes, the same will be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name from The Book of Life, but I will confess his name before My Father and before His Malakim.

Revelation 3:12

He who overcomes, I will make a Pillar in The House of My Father, and he will never go out of it. And I will write upon him the Name of My Father, and the Name of Yahweh Shammah which comes down out of heaven from My Father; for the Name of Yahweh shall surely be restored at Abel.

Revelation 3:21

To him who overcomes I will grant to sit with Me on My Throne, as I also overcame, and sat down with My Father on His Throne.

Revelation 21:7

He who overcomes will inherit all things; and I will be his Father, and he will be My Son.

He who does not overcome?

Romans 6:16

Do you not know that to whom you yield yourselves as servants to obey, his servants you are whom you obey—whether of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to Righteousness?

Revelation 10:11-15

11 And I saw a Great White Throne, and Him Who sat on it, from Whose Face the powers of the earth and the powers of the heavens, including the Gods (elohim), were driven away; for the verdict was reached that there is no place for them.

12 And I saw the dead, small and great, standing before Yahweh. And the books were opened; and another book was opened, which is The Book of Life. And the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works.

13 And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and sheol; the grave, delivered up the dead which were in them. And they were judged, every man, according to his works.

14 And death and sheol were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death.

15 And whoever was not found written in The Book of Life was cast into the lake of fire.

Notice what Yahweh told Cain would befall him if he didn't overcome sin.

Genesis 4:6-7, 11, 14

6 So Yahweh said to Cain: Why are you angry? Why are you downcast?

7 If you do Righteousness, will you not be acceptable? And if you do not do Righteousness, sin is crouching at your door. The desire to sin is with you, but you must overcome it!

11 So now, you are cursed from the earth which has opened its mouth to receive your brother's blood from your hand.

14 Surely You have driven me out this day from the face of the ground; I shall not be seen by Your Face. I shall be a fugitive and a vagabond on the earth, for there shall be continual war, vengeance, and retaliation.

If you don't overcome sin? What is sin?

I Yahchanan 3:4, 7-8, 10

4 Whoever commits sin, transgresses also the Laws; for sin is the transgression of the Laws.

7 Little children, let no man deceive you; he who practices Righteousness is Righteous, just as He is Righteous.

8 He who commits sin is of the devil, for the devil has sinned from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of Yahweh was manifested; that He might destroy the works of the devil.

10 In this the Children of Yahweh and the children of the devil are manifest. Whoever does not practice Righteousness is not of Yahweh, and he does not love his neighbor!

What Genesis 4:11 means is that if you continue to sin, you will bring curses upon yourself. Notice what these curses will be…continual war.

Genesis 4:14

Surely You have driven me out this day from the face of the ground; I shall not be seen by Your Face. I shall be a fugitive and a vagabond on the earth, for there shall be continual war, vengeance, and retaliation.

Wars come from the likeness of the Gods. Genesis 3:5, you will be like the Gods knowing evil. Righteousness does not cause wars. Fornication, adultery, sodomy, homosexuality, and bestiality cause wars and fighting among you. They also cause sickness, disease, and confusion. Notice a few of the many articles below showing these Scriptural facts.

Leviticus 18:19-23

19 Also, you shall not have sexual relations with a woman during the uncleanness of her monthly period; niddah, nor during any similar uncleanness; zavah.

20 Moreover, you shall not have sexual relations with your neighbor's wife, to defile yourself, along with her.

21 You shall not give any of your children to be passed through the fire, to sacrifice them to Molech. You shall not profane the Name of Yahweh by giving your children to gods (elohim). I am Yahweh.

22 You shall not have sexual relations with a man, as with a woman. It is an abomination.

23 Neither shall you have sexual relations with any animal and defile yourself, along with it; neither shall any woman present herself to have sexual relations with an animal. It is confusion and perversion.

Did you notice the word confusion in verse 23?

Suffering from brain fog? It may be due to an STD

By authordeb | Posted March 1, 2014 | Detroit, Michigan

Confusion, forgetfulness and even dementia can stem from herpes, hepatitis and even HIV

Are you having trouble remembering things, making decisions or having hard time concentrating? You may be suffering from cognitive decline. Although cognitive decline is associated with the aging process it can be caused by other factors such as infections like the herpes simplex viruses 1 and 2.

Just last March, a study published in Neurology found that people who had herpes simplex type 1 virus could be at greater risk for cognitive problems especially when it came to memory.

Participants had blood samples taken that were tested for five common low grade infections: three viruses (herpes simplex type 1 (oral) and type 2 (genital), and cytomegalovirus), chlamydia pneumoniae (a common respiratory infection) and Helicobacter pylori (a bacteria found in the stomach).

The results showed that those with higher levels of the herpes simplex type 1 virus in their blood were more likely to have more cognitive deficits.

Dr. Amanda Simanek, PhD, MPH, assistant professor of epidemiology at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee commented in a release "If HSV-1 begins to have impact on cognitive function early in life; HSV-1 infection in childhood may have important consequences for educational attainment and social mobility across the lifespan."

"Once acquired, herpes viruses are never cleared from the body and instead persist in a latent state. Such pathogens are, however, subject to reactivation and capable of invading the central nervous system, where they may exert direct damage to brain."

A study published in PLoS ONE shows that HSV-1 contributes to the development of dementia. According to Dr. Elaine Bearer, MD, PhD, Professor and Vice Chair for Research. Department of Pathology and lead author of study explained “herpes infects mucous membranes, such as the lip or eye, and generates viral particles.” “These viral particles burst out of the cells of the mucous membrane and enter sensory nerve cells where they travel inside the nerve toward the brain.”

“It’s no longer a matter of determining whether HSV1 is involved in cognitive decline, but rather how significant this involvement is, “said Dr. Bearer.

Isayah 59:8

They do not know the way of peace, and there is no judgment in their goings: they have made themselves crooked paths; whoever walks on them will not know peace.

They do not know the way to peace.

Notice the Way to Peace

Yahweh’s Prophet Isayah shows what you need to repent of in the first seven verses of Isayah 59 in order to have peace.

Isayah 59:1-8

1 Behold, Yahweh’s Hand is not shortened, that it cannot save;

nor His Ear heavy, that it cannot hear.

2 But your own iniquities have separated you from your Father; and your own sins have caused Him to hide His face from you, so He will not listen.

3 For your hands are defiled with blood, and your fingers with iniquity; sin. Your lips have spoken lies, your tongue has muttered perverseness.

4 No one calls for Justice, nor does any plead for Truth. They trust in vanity; confusion, and speak lies; scriptural untruths. They conceive mischief; trouble, and give birth to evil; sin.

5 They hatch vipers' eggs, and weave the spiders' web; he who eats their eggs dies, and when one is broken a viper bursts out.

6 Their webs will not serve as clothing, nor will they cover themselves with what they make; their works are works of iniquity, and the act of violence is in their hands.

7 Their feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed innocent blood; their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; wasting and destruction are in their paths.

8 They do not know the way of peace, and there is no judgment in their goings: they have made themselves crooked paths; whoever walks on them will not know peace.

The religions that teach a lawless society are also teaching sickness, disease, and confusion of the mind, which bring fighting and war, not peace, as you just read in Isayah 59:1-8. Notice, too, the prayers of these priests and preachers are not answered. Yet, they say they have salvation for you. Will you wait to see if they do? The evil Gods are not answering their prayers and they are cut off from Yahweh.

We are facing the worst time of trouble ever in history in this present generation, the Savior, Yahshua Messiah, said in:

Mattithyah 24:3, 7, 21-22, 29, 33-34

3 Now as He sat on the Mount of Olives, the Disciples came to Him privately, saying; Tell us, when will these things be? What will be the sign of Your coming and The End of the Ages?

7 For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be famines, and pestilences; disease epidemics, and earthquakes; environmental disasters, in place after place:

21 For then will be Great Tribulation, such as has not come to pass since the beginning of the world to this time—no, nor ever will be.

22 And unless those days were shortened, there would no flesh be saved; but for the Elect's sake, those days will be shortened.

29 Immediately, but after the Great Tribulation of those days will the sun be darkened, and the moon will not give her light, and the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken.

33 In the same way, when you see all these things, know that His coming and The End of the Ages are near, at the very door.

34 Truly I say to you: That generation will not pass away, until all these things are fulfilled.

Verse 3 speaks of The End, meaning the last generation of rebellion. In verses 21-22, we see it will be the worst of everything in this generation that started in 1934 with the increase in knowledge that led to the nuclear bomb that will blot out the sun (verse 29) in this generation (verse 34).

Again, Isayah 59:8 says they do not know the way to Peace.

What is the Way to Peace?

Notice this carefully because this is the way to Peace.

Deuteronomy 30:15

See, I have set before you this day Life by Righteousness, and death by destruction—

Life by Righteousness? Yes!

Revelation 22:12-14

12 And behold, I come quickly, and My Reward is with Me, to give every man according as his work will be.

13 I am the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End.

14 Blessed are those who keep His Laws, that they may have right to the Tree of Life, and may enter in through the gates into the City.

Remember, Yahshua Messiah said we are facing the Greatest Tribulation in this generation. From what does destruction come?

Deuteronomy 30:15-19

15 See, I have set before you this day Life by Righteousness, and death by destruction—

16 In that I command you this day to love Yahweh your Father, by walking in all His Ways, by keeping His Laws, His Statutes, and His Judgments, so that you may live and multiply, and so Yahweh your Father may bless you in the land which you go in to possess.

17 But if your heart turns away, and you are not obedient, and you are drawn away to submit to Gods (elohim), to worship them by serving them–

18 I declare to you this day that you will surely perish; you will not prolong your days in the land which you cross over the Yardan to possess.

19 I call heaven and earth as witnesses against you this day, that I have set before you Life and death, blessings and curses. Therefore choose Life (by practicing Righteousness–verse 15), so both you and your children may live.

In verse 15 we see death by destruction comes because the whole world is taught, by the many false prophets in this generation, lawlessness–the evil of the Gods–which is the practice of sin and iniquity.

Mattithyah 24:11-12

11 And many false prophets will rise, and will deceive the many.

12 And because iniquity will abound, the love of the many will grow cold.

Iniquity means doing away with Yahweh's Laws of Righteousness. If you do not teach Yahweh's Laws of Love, you do not have or practice love. That's what Yahshua Messiah said. All religions teach iniquity. None of them practice or teach the Laws of Righteousness; so, indeed, they have no love.

Mattithyah 24:12

And because iniquity will abound, the love of the many will grow cold.

I Yahchanan 3:4, 7-8, 10

4 Whoever commits sin, transgresses also the Laws; for sin is the transgression of the Laws.

7 Little children, let no man deceive you; he who practices Righteousness is Righteous, just as He is Righteous.

8 He who commits sin is of the devil, for the devil has sinned from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of Yahweh was manifested; that He might destroy the works of the devil.

10 In this the Children of Yahweh and the children of the devil are manifest. Whoever does not practice Righteousness is not of Yahweh, and he does not love his neighbor!

Notice the last words in verse 10…does not love his neighbor. Today, just as their forefathers in the days of the Great Prophet Samuyl, they want kings—prime ministers, presidents—to fight for them; so, they have continual war. That's the choice of destruction set before them as seen in:

Deuteronomy 30:15

See, I have set before you this day Life by Righteousness, and death by destruction—

The Evil of the Gods

I Samuyl 18:4-8

4 Then all the elders of Israyl gathered together and approached Samuyl when he was at Ramah,

5 Saying to him; You are old, and your sons do not walk in your ways. Appoint us a king to judge us; just like all the other nations.

6 But these things displeased Samuyl, especially when they said; Give us a king to judge us. Then Samuyl prayed to Yahweh.

7 Yahweh answered Samuyl, and said: Listen to all the words the people speak to you, for they have not rejected you; they have rejected Me, that I should not reign over them.

8 Just as they have done to Me from the day I brought them out of Egypt, to this very day, they are now doing to you—they are forsaking Me in order to serve God(s); elohim!

Genesis 3:5

For He knows that in the day you eat of it, your eyes will be opened, and you will be as Gods (elohim), knowing Righteousness and evil.

I Samuyl 8:8-18

8 Just as they have done to Me from the day I brought them out of Egypt, to this very day, they are now doing to you—they are forsaking Me in order to serve God(s); Elohim!

9 So, listen to them. However, solemnly forewarn them and let them know how the king who will reign over them will behave toward them.

10 Samuyl spoke all the Words of Yahweh to the people who had asked him for a king.

11 Samuyl said; This is how the king you desire to reign over you will behave: He will take your sons and appoint some of them to serve with his chariots--some will drive his chariot horses, and others will run in front of his chariots.

12 He will appoint captains for his army--captains over thousands and captains over hundreds. Your sons will plow his ground, others will bring in his harvest, and others will manufacture weapons of war and equipment for his chariots.

13 He will take your daughters and appoint them to be his perfumers, cooks, and bakers.

14 He will seize your best fields, vineyards, and olive groves, and give them to his officials.

15 He will demand a tenth of your grain and your vintage, and he will give it to his officers and attendants.

16 He will take your menservants, your maidservants, your finest young men, and your donkeys, and will put them to his own use.

17 He will demand a tenth of your sheep, and you, yourselves, will become his servants.

18 You will cry out in that day because of the king you wanted for yourselves, but in that day Yahweh will not listen to you.

Deuteronomy 30:17-18

17 But if your heart turns away, and you are not obedient, and you are drawn away to submit to Gods (elohim), to worship them by serving them—

18 I declare to you this day that you will surely perish; you will not prolong your days in the land which you cross over the Yardan to possess.

The cause of destruction.

Isayah 24:1-6

1 Before Yahweh's very Eyes, the earth is made empty and it is made waste; the face of it is perverted and its inhabitants scattered abroad;

2 And it will be: as with the people, so with the priest; as with the servant, so with his owner; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with him who takes usury, so with him who gives usury to him:

3 The land will be utterly emptied and utterly plundered, for it has come to pass that this Judgment has been pronounced.

4 The earth mourns and fades away, the world mourns and fades away, and the haughty people of the earth languish.

5 The earth also is defiled under the inhabitants of it, because they have transgressed the Laws, changed the Ordinance, and broken the Everlasting Covenant.

6 Because of this, the curse has devoured the earth, and they who dwell therein are desolate; therefore, the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left.

Mattithyah 24:21-22, 29, 33-34

21 For then will be Great Tribulation, such as has not come to pass since the beginning of the world to this time—no, nor ever will be.

22 And unless those days were shortened, there would no flesh be saved; but for the Elect's sake, those days will be shortened.

29 Immediately, but after the Great Tribulation of those days will the sun be darkened, and the moon will not give her light, and the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken.

33 In the same way, when you see all these things, know that His coming and The End of the Ages are near, at the very door.

34 Truly I say to you: That generation will not pass away, until all these things are fulfilled.

We are shown that the religions will not repent.

Revelation 9:20-21

20 And the rest of the men who were not killed by these plagues, still did not repent of the works of their hands, that they should not worship demons, and Gods (elohim, teraphim) of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood: which can neither see, nor hear, nor walk;

21 Neither did they repent of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

Mattithyah 24:21-22, 29

21 For then will be Great Tribulation, such as has not come to pass since the beginning of the world to this time—no, nor ever will be.

22 And unless those days were shortened, there would no flesh be saved; but for the Elect's sake, those days will be shortened.

29 Immediately, but after the Great Tribulation of those days will the sun be darkened, and the moon will not give her light, and the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken.

The one and only thing that will eventually stop the wars is the worst tribulation ever to prove, once and for all, that there can be no peace unless all nations agree to follow the Perfect Laws of Peace written by the Inspired Prophets of Yahweh.

Psalm 19:7

The Laws of Yahweh are Perfect, converting the whole person. The Testimony of Yahweh is sure, making the simple ones wise.

Acts 3:19

Repent therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out; that times of refreshing may come from the Presence of Yahweh.

II Samuyl 22:31-33

31 Yahweh, His Way is Perfect; the Laws of Yahweh are without flaw. He is a Shield to all those who take refuge and trust in Him.

32 For who is the Father besides Yahweh? And who is a Rock, except our Father?

33 It is Yahweh Who is my Strong Refuge, and He makes my way perfect.

Mattithyah 5:48

Therefore, become perfect, just as your Father Who is in heaven is Perfect.

The Start of Teaching Yahweh's Laws

Yahweh allowed Righteousness to be taken from the twelve tribes of Israyl. He allowed The House of Yahweh to be destroyed and the daily reading of the Laws to cease. The pharisees, sadducees, essenes, and herodians, the four religions that followed the evil like the Gods, had their roman army, led by general Titus, to destroy the House of Yahweh, which was called the temple, and then move all the artifacts to rome.

Arch of Titus

Located just to the southeast of the ruins of the ancient Roman Forum, the marble Arch of Titus was ordered erected by the Emperor Domitian.

The Arch of Titus history is intricately entwined with the history of another great ancient city—Jerusalem, as it commemorates the sacking of the city and destruction of the Temple, an event mourned by Jews at the Western or Wailing Wall in Jerusalem and around the world. This occurred in the year 70 AD, and it is ironic that the destruction of the holy Jewish city was at the hands of Rome, where the Jewish community pre-dates Christianity by more than two centuries.

The menorah on the Arch of Titus as well as the trumpets and what is said to be the Table of Showbread are the only representations of these sacred Jewish items and the desecration of the Temple Mount area that exist from that period.

The Second Temple Destroyed – As Predicted

…[Yahshua] had assembled his disciples together on the Mt. of Olives overlooking the Temple. The disciples opened the conversation by talking about the beauty of the temple and its courts. [Yahshua] opened his amazing and detailed reply by predicting the soon-coming destruction of that magnificent building:

> [Yahshua] left the temple and was going away, when his disciples came to point out to him the buildings of the temple. But he answered them, "You see all these, do you not? Truly, I say to you, there will not be left here one stone upon another, that will not be thrown down." As he sat on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to him privately, saying, "Tell us, when will this be, and what will be the sign of your coming and of the close of the age?" (Matthew 24:1-3)

Both the Temple and the City of Jerusalem were indeed about to be destroyed. With four Legions, Titus the Roman General, later to become Caesar, began the siege of Jerusalem in April, A.D. 70. He posted his 10th legion on the Mount of Olives, directly east of and overlooking the Temple Mount. The 12th and 15th legions were stationed on Mount Scopus, further to the east and commanding all ways to Jerusalem from east to north. The 5th legion was held in reserve.

On the 10th of August, in A.D. 70…Titus took the city and…the Temple.

Jerusalem was totally destroyed and as [Yahshua] had predicted – not one stone was left upon another. The Menorah and vessels were carried to Rome and the treasury was robbed.

Bible scholar Ray C. Stedman comments on the predictions of [Yahshua] and their fulfillment in history a few years later,

> In Luke 21:20 we have other details of this predicted overthrow of the city and the Temple. There [Yahshua] adds, "But when you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then know that its desolation has come near." Forty years later the Roman armies under Titus came in and fulfilled the prediction to the very letter.

The Prophecy

Daniyl 11:31

And the army will stand on his part, and they will pollute the sanctuary of strength, and will take away the daily, and they will place the Lord of heaven.

Yeremyah 26:18

Micahyah of Moresheth prophesied in the days of Hezekyah king of Yahdah, and spoke to all the people of Yahdah, saying; This is what Father Yahweh says: Zion will be plowed like a field, Yerusalem will become heaps of ruins, and the mountain of The House of Yahweh like the bare hills of the forest.

Mattithyah 24:2

But Yahshua said to them: Do you see all these things? Truly I say to you: There will not be one stone left sitting on top of another, which will not be thrown down.

Micahyah 3:9-12

9 Hear now, O heads of the house of Yaaqob, you rulers of the house of Israyl, who abhor justice and pervert all equity,

10 Who build up Zion with blood, and Yerusalem with iniquity:

11 Her heads judge for reward and her priests teach; give instruction in the Law, for pay, and her prophets divine for money. Yet they lean upon Yahweh, and say; Is not Yahweh among us? No evil can come upon us!

12 Therefore, because of you, Zion will be plowed like a field, Yerusalem will become heaps of rubble, and the mountain of The House of Yahweh like the high places of a forest.

So Yahweh's House was allowed to be taken from them, as were the Inspired Writings of the Prophets, for over 1,500 years to prove to heaven and earth what the earth would become without Righteousness being taught and practiced. But Yahweh's House was prophesied to do a Last Days' Work.

It Was a Must that Yahweh Make Available the Inspired Words of the Prophets in this Generation for His House to Teach

We had catholic popes, once known as pharisees, sadducees, essenes, and herodians, who hated Yahweh and His Laws, ruling the whole world with their roman army and forbidding the Inspired Writings of the Prophets and Apostles to get into the hands of those they called common people. On the flipside of the coin, we have Inspired Prophecies saying the following:

Micahyah 4:1-3

1 But in the Last Days it will come to pass that the mountain; promotion, of The House of Yahweh will be established in the chief of the nations. It will be raised above all congregations; and all peoples will eventually flow to it.

2 And many people will go and say; Come, and let us go up to the mountain; uplifting, of Yahweh, and to the House of the Father of Yaaqob, and He will teach us of His Ways, and we will walk in His Paths. Because the Laws will depart from Zion, and the Word of Yahweh from Yerusalem.

3 And He will judge between many people, and rebuke strong nations afar off; and they will beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks. Nation will not lift up sword against nation, nor will they learn war anymore.

Remember, the Last Days (verse 1) means Last Generation.

Mattithyah 24:33-34

33 In the same way, when you see all these things, know that His coming and The End of the Ages are near, at the very door.

34 Truly I say to you: That generation will not pass away, until all these things are fulfilled.

We are in the last part of the Last Generation at this writing. In the same Last Days, Yahweh restored His House. The gates of hell will not prevail against It this time. It will teach the world peace.

Isayah 2:1-4

1 The word that Isayah son of Amoz saw concerning Yahdah and Yerusalem.

2 It will come to pass in the Last Days, that the mountain; promotion, of The House of Yahweh will be established in the chief of the nations, and will be raised above all congregations; and all nations will eventually flow to it.

3 And many people will go and say; Come, and let us go up to the mountain of Yahweh, to the House of the Father of Yaaqob, and He will teach us of His Ways, and we will walk in His paths. For the Laws will depart from Zion, and the Work of Yahweh will depart from Yerusalem.

4 He will judge among the nations, and will rebuke many people; they will beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks; nation will not lift up sword against nation, neither will they learn war anymore.

The roman catholic church, with its mighty army, ruled the whole world, as their historians so proudly proclaim. They did not want the Holy Scriptures (bible) printed or in the hands of the people. Yahweh's Plan was, and still is, as His Prophets proclaimed, and nothing will stop it.

Yahchanan 1:1-3

1 In the beginning was the Plan of Yahweh, and the Plan was with Yahweh, and the Plan was Yahweh's.

2 The same Plan was in the beginning with Yahweh.

3 All things were done according to it, and without it nothing was done, that was done.

The roman catholic church said that the Words of Yahweh's Prophets and Apostles would never be seen or read ever again by the 'common people'. But Yahweh's Prophets had already given Yahweh's Words, saying 'in the Last Days Yahweh would re-establish His House in the chief of the nations and His House would teach His Laws and Prophecies to all nations'.

The following information gives us a brief history of the Holy Scriptures, how the popes fought to keep them from the people, and how the people fought to have this Great Wisdom.

English Bible History

The first hand-written English language Bible manuscripts were produced in the 1380's AD by John Wycliffe, an Oxford professor, scholar, and theologian. Wycliffe, (also spelled "Wycliff" & "Wyclif"), was well-known throughout Europe for his opposition to the teaching of the organized Church, which he believed to be contrary to the Bible. With the help of his followers, called the Lollards, and his assistant Purvey, and many other faithful scribes, Wycliffe produced dozens of English language manuscript copies of the scriptures. They were translated out of the Latin Vulgate, which was the only source text available to Wycliffe. The Pope was so infuriated by his teachings and his translation of the Bible into English, that 44 years after Wycliffe had died, he ordered the bones to be dug-up, crushed, and scattered in the river!

One of Wycliffe's followers, John Hus, actively promoted Wycliffe's ideas: that people should be permitted to read the Bible in their own language, and they should oppose the tyranny of the Roman church that threatened anyone possessing a non-Latin Bible with execution. Hus was burned at the stake in 1415, with Wycliffe's manuscript Bibles used as kindling for the fire. …in 1517, Martin Luther nailed his famous 95 Theses of Contention (a list of 95 issues of heretical theology and crimes of the Roman Catholic Church) into the church door at Wittenberg. Martin Luther went on to be the first person to translate and publish the Bible in the commonly-spoken dialect of the German people; a translation more appealing than previous German Biblical translations.

In the 1490's another Oxford professor, and the personal physician to King Henry the 7th and 8th, Thomas Linacre, decided to learn Greek. After reading the Gospels in Greek, and comparing it to the Latin Vulgate, he wrote in his diary, "Either this (the original Greek) is not the Gospel… or we are not Christians." The Latin had become so corrupt that it no longer even preserved the message of the Gospel… yet the Church still threatened to kill anyone who read the scripture in any language other than Latin… though Latin was not an original language of the scriptures.

In 1496, John Colet, another Oxford professor and the son of the Mayor of London, started reading the New Testament in Greek and translating it into English for his students at Oxford, and later for the public at Saint Paul's Cathedral in London. The people were so hungry to hear the Word of God in a language they could understand, that within six months there were 20,000 people packed in the church and at least that many outside trying to get in!

In considering the experiences of Linacre and Colet, the great scholar Erasmus was so moved to correct the corrupt Latin Vulgate, that in 1516, with the help of printer John Froben, he published a Greek-Latin Parallel New Testament. The Latin part was not the corrupt Vulgate, but his own fresh rendering of the text from the more accurate and reliable Greek, which he had managed to collate from a half-dozen partial old Greek New Testament manuscripts he had acquired. This milestone was the first non-Latin Vulgate text of the scripture to be produced in a millennium… and the first ever to come off a printing press. The 1516 Greek-Latin New Testament of Erasmus further focused attention on just how corrupt and inaccurate the Latin Vulgate had become, and how important it was to go back and use the original Greek (New Testament) and original Hebrew (Old Testament) languages to maintain accuracy… and to translate them faithfully into the languages of the common people, whether that be English, German, or any other tongue. No sympathy for this "illegal activity" was to be found from Rome… even as the words of Pope Leo X's declaration that "the fable of Christ was quite profitable to him" continued through the years to infuriate the people of God.

William Tyndale was the Captain of the Army of Reformers, and was their spiritual leader. Tyndale holds the distinction of being the first man to ever print the New Testament in the English language. … in 1525-1526 the Tyndale New Testament became the first printed edition of the scripture in the English language.

They were burned as soon as the Bishop could confiscate them, but copies trickled through and actually ended up in the bedroom of King Henry VIII. The more the King and Bishop resisted its distribution, the more fascinated the public at large became. The church declared it contained thousands of errors as they torched hundreds of New Testaments confiscated by the clergy, while in fact, they burned them because they could find no errors at all. One risked death by burning if caught in mere possession of Tyndale's forbidden books.

Having God's Word available to the public in the language of the common man, English, would have meant disaster to the church. No longer would they control access to the scriptures. If people were able to read the Bible in their own tongue, the church's income and power would crumble. They could not possibly continue to get away with selling indulgences (the forgiveness of sins) or selling the release of loved ones from a church-manufactured "Purgatory". People would begin to challenge the church's authority if the church were exposed as frauds and thieves. The contradictions between what God's Word said, and what the priests taught, would open the public's eyes and the truth would set them free from the grip of fear that the institutional church held. The veneration of church-canonized Saints and Mary would be called into question. The availability of the scriptures in English was the biggest threat imaginable to the wicked church. Neither side would give up without a fight.

Ironically, Tyndale's biggest customer was the King's men, who would buy up every copy available to burn them… and Tyndale used their money to print even more! In the end, Tyndale was caught: betrayed by an Englishman that he had befriended. Tyndale was incarcerated for 500 days before he was strangled and burned at the stake in 1536. Myles Coverdale and John "Thomas Matthew" Rogers had remained loyal disciples the last six years of Tyndale's life, and they carried the English Bible project forward and even accelerated it. Coverdale finished translating the Old Testament, and in 1535 he printed the first complete Bible in the English language, making use of Luther's German text and the Latin as sources. Thus, the first complete English Bible was printed on October 4, 1535, and is known as the Coverdale Bible.

In 1539, Thomas Cranmer, the Archbishop of Canterbury, hired Myles Coverdale at the bequest of King Henry VIII to publish the "Great Bible". It became the first English Bible authorized for public use, as it was distributed to every church, chained to the pulpit, and a reader was even provided so that the illiterate could hear the Word of God in plain English.

In the 1550's, the Church at Geneva, Switzerland, was very sympathetic to the reformer refugees and was one of only a few safe havens for a desperate people. the great Reformer of the Scottish Church, the Church of Geneva determined to produce a Bible that would educate their families while they continued in exile.

The New Testament was completed in 1557, and the complete Bible was first published in 1560. It became known as the Geneva Bible.

The Geneva Bible was the first Bible to add numbered verses to the chapters, so that referencing specific passages would be easier. Every chapter was also accompanied by extensive marginal notes and references so thorough and complete that the Geneva Bible is also considered the first English "Study Bible". The Geneva Bible became the Bible of choice for over 100 years of English speaking Christians. Between 1560 and 1644 at least 144 editions of this Bible were published. Examination of the 1611 King James Bible shows clearly that its translators were influenced much more by the Geneva Bible, than by any other source. The Geneva Bible itself retains over 90% of William Tyndale's original English translation. The Geneva in fact, remained more popular than the King James Version until decades after its original release in 1611! Strangely, the famous Geneva Bible has been out-of-print since 1644…

In 1568, a revision of the Great Bible known as the Bishop's Bible was introduced. Despite 19 editions being printed between 1568 and 1606, this Bible, referred to as the "rough draft of the King James Version", never gained much of a foothold of popularity among the people. The Geneva may have simply been too much to compete with.

In 1582, the Church of Rome surrendered their fight for "Latin only" and decided that if the Bible was to be available in English, they would at least have an official Roman Catholic English translation. And so, using the corrupt and inaccurate Latin Vulgate as the only source text, they went on to publish an English Bible with all the distortions and corruptions that Erasmus had revealed and warned of 75 years earlier. Because it was translated at the Roman Catholic College in the city of Rheims, it was known as the Rheims New Testament (also spelled Rhemes). The Douay Old Testament was translated by the Church of Rome in 1609 at the College in the city of Douay (also spelled Doway & Douai). The combined product is commonly referred to as the "Doway/Rheims" Version.

The Protestant clergy approached the new King (James I of England) in 1604 and announced their desire for a new translation to replace the Bishop's Bible first printed in 1568. They knew that the Geneva Version had won the hearts of the people because of its excellent scholarship, accuracy, and exhaustive commentary. However, they did not want the controversial marginal notes (proclaiming the Pope an Anti-Christ, etc.)

This "translation to end all translations" (for a while at least) was the result of the combined effort of about fifty scholars. From 1605 to 1606 the scholars engaged in private research. From 1607 to 1609 the work was assembled. In 1610 the work went to press, and in 1611 the first of the huge (16 inch tall) pulpit folios known today as "The 1611 King James Bible" came off the printing press.

…for over 250 years…until the appearance of the English Revised Version of 1881-1885…the King James Version reigned without much of a rival. One little-known fact, is that for the past 200 years, all King James Bibles published in America are actually the 1769 Baskerville spelling and wording revision of the 1611. The original "1611" preface is deceivingly included by the publishers, and no mention of the fact that it is really the 1769 version is to be found…

…the first English language Bible to be printed in America by Robert Aitken in 1782 was a King James Version.

Greatsite.com

I don't know when my mother and father got their first bible, but I know it was a King James Version, called the 'Old and New Testament'. It is my understanding that my mother read the bible every day aloud, which means her children were taught the Laws of Yahweh, even in the womb. Yahweh brought His Prophecies to pass, I was trained before and after I was born with the daily reading of the Inspired Writings of Yahweh's Prophets and Apostles.

Reading from the Book of the Law took place in The House of Yahweh also, until the army of the roman catholic church destroyed the building that they called the temple. It was originally called The House of Yahweh.

Psalm 23:1, 6

1 Yahweh is our Shepherd; we shall not want.

2 He makes us to lie down in green pastures. He leads us beside the still waters.

3 Yahweh restores our life; He leads us in the paths of Righteousness for His Name's sake.

4 Yes, though we will walk through the valley of the shadow of death, we will fear no evil; for You are with us. Your rod and Your staff, they comfort us.

5 You prepare a table before us in the presence of our enemies. You anoint our heads with oil. Our cups overflow.

6 Surely Righteousness and mercy will follow us all the days of our lives; and we will dwell in The House of Yahweh forever!

The House of Yahweh was re-established in this generation, which fulfilled Yahweh's Prophesied Plan. The Way to Peace goes out to all the world, as I speak daily. Notice also in this Prophecy what is said about war in the last verse.

Micahyah 4:1-3

1 But in the Last Days it will come to pass that the mountain; promotion, of The House of Yahweh will be established in the chief of the nations. It will be raised above all congregations; and all peoples will eventually flow to it.

2 And many people will go and say; Come, and let us go up to the mountain; uplifting, of Yahweh, and to the House of the Father of Yaaqob, and He will teach us of His Ways, and we will walk in His Paths. Because the Laws will depart from Zion, and the Word of Yahweh from Yerusalem.

3 And He will judge between many people, and rebuke strong nations afar off; and they will beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks. Nation will not lift up sword against nation, nor will they learn war anymore.

Isayah 2:1-4

1 The word that Isayah son of Amoz saw concerning Yahdah and Yerusalem.

2 It will come to pass in the Last Days, that the mountain; promotion, of The House of Yahweh will be established in the chief of the nations, and will be raised above all congregations; and all nations will eventually flow to it.

3 And many people will go and say; Come, and let us go up to the mountain of Yahweh, to the House of the Father of Yaaqob, and He will teach us of His Ways, and we will walk in His paths. For the Laws will depart from Zion, and the Work of Yahweh will depart from Yerusalem.

4 He will judge among the nations, and will rebuke many people; they will beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks; nation will not lift up sword against nation, neither will they learn war anymore.

Yahweh will teach us of His Ways and we will walk in His Paths (Isayah 2:3, Micahyah 4:2). Yahweh and His Laws were rejected for the evil of the Gods.

Genesis 3:5

For He knows that in the day you eat of it, your eyes will be opened, and you will be as Gods (elohim), knowing Righteousness and evil.

Yahweh allowed the world to follow the evil of the Gods and to go the way of Cain.

Genesis 4:6-8, 11, 14

6 So Yahweh said to Cain: Why are you angry? Why are you downcast?

7 If you do Righteousness, will you not be acceptable? And if you do not do Righteousness, sin is crouching at your door. The desire to sin is with you, but you must overcome it!

8 Now Cain talked with Abel his brother; and it came to pass, when they were spread abroad, that Cain rose against Abel his brother and killed him.

11 So now, you are cursed from the earth which has opened its mouth to receive your brother's blood from your hand.

14 Surely You have driven me out this day from the face of the ground; I shall not be seen by Your Face. I shall be a fugitive and a vagabond on the earth, for there shall be continual war, vengeance, and retaliation.

Yahdah 1:11

Woe to them! For they have gone in the way of Cain, have run greedily in the error of Balaam for reward, and have perished in the rebellion of Korah!

Yahweh allowed this to take place to show mankind what they would bring upon themselves by following the evil of the Gods.

Deuteronomy 30:15-18

15 See, I have set before you this day Life by Righteousness, and death by destruction—

16 In that I command you this day to love Yahweh your Father, by walking in all His Ways, by keeping His Laws, His Statutes, and His Judgments, so that you may live and multiply, and so Yahweh your Father may bless you in the land which you go in to possess.

17 But if your heart turns away, and you are not obedient, and you are drawn away to submit to Gods (elohim), to worship them by serving them—

18 I declare to you this day that you will surely perish; you will not prolong your days in the land which you cross over the Yardan to possess.

I Samuyl 8:6-9

6 But these things displeased Samuyl, especially when they said; Give us a king to judge us. Then Samuyl prayed to Yahweh.

7 Yahweh answered Samuyl, and said: Listen to all the words the people speak to you, for they have not rejected you; they have rejected Me, that I should not reign over them.

8 Just as they have done to Me from the day I brought them out of Egypt, to this very day, they are now doing to you—they are forsaking Me in order to serve God(s); Elohim!

9 So, listen to them. However, solemnly forewarn them and let them know how the king who will reign over them will behave toward them.

From rebellious rulers come rebellion, hatred and war.

Yahweh's Way is Just, Right, and Equal for All

It would take a complete idiot to consider Yahweh's Laws to be anything but Perfect, after reading them. The problems from not practicing these Laws are seen in every walk of life, especially in the teachings of man, even in the 'intellectual supreme' court of America. As a result of iniquity, everyone in the world is sick, physically and mentally. Millions are killing themselves with pain pills. Why are all people suffering pain? Why are all children now born with birth defects?

Cattle, sheep, and goats, as well as many other animals, are also suffering from sicknesses and diseases created by mankind because of breaking the simple Laws that govern sexual activities. All minds are confused. They are all like blind men groping in the dark for answers.

Suffering from brain fog? It may be due to an STD

Confusion, forgetfulness and even dementia can stem from herpes, hepatitis and even HIV

Are you having trouble remembering things, making decisions or having hard time concentrating? You may be suffering from cognitive decline. Although cognitive decline is associated with the aging process it can be caused by other factors such as infections like the herpes simplex viruses 1 and 2.

Just last March, a study published in Neurology found that people who had herpes simplex type 1 virus could be at greater risk for cognitive problems especially when it came to memory.

Participants had blood samples taken that were tested for five common low grade infections: three viruses (herpes simplex type 1 (oral) and type 2 (genital), and cytomegalovirus), chlamydia pneumoniae (a common respiratory infection) and Helicobacter pylori (a bacteria found in the stomach).

The results showed that those with higher levels of the herpes simplex type 1 virus in their blood were more likely to have more cognitive deficits.

Dr. Amanda Simanek, PhD, MPH, assistant professor of epidemiology at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee commented in a release "If HSV-1 begins to have impact on cognitive function early in life; HSV-1 infection in childhood may have important consequences for educational attainment and social mobility across the lifespan."

"Once acquired, herpes viruses are never cleared from the body and instead persist in a latent state. Such pathogens are, however, subject to reactivation and capable of invading the central nervous system, where they may exert direct damage to brain."

A study published in PLoS ONE shows that HSV-1 contributes to the development of dementia. According to Dr. Elaine Bearer, MD, PhD, Professor and Vice Chair for Research. Department of Pathology and lead author of study explained "herpes infects mucous membranes, such as the lip or eye, and generates viral particles." "These viral particles burst out of the cells of the mucous membrane and enter sensory nerve cells where they travel inside the nerve toward the brain."

"It's no longer a matter of determining whether HSV1 is involved in cognitive decline, but rather how significant this involvement is, "said Dr. Bearer.

These diseases are passed down from generation to generation and are added to by each new generation because they have not been taught the Way of Yahweh.

Your Future?

The same Prophets who showed the generation when knowledge would be increased and the nuclear bomb would be invented, shows there will be the worst famine ever, the worst disease epidemics ever, and the worst wars ever in this present, prophesied generation. Only a fool would be oblivious to all of these things being present in this generation, which the Savior, Yahshua Messiah, called the Last Generation.

The House of Yahweh – We're Doing Our Part

The House of Yahweh was re-established in this generation, as prophesied for this generation. The End is prophesied to be this generation. Notice these Prophecies that are now being fulfilled.

Mattithyah 24:14

And this joyous Message of the Kingdom of Yahweh shall be preached in all the world from The House of Yahweh at Abel by the Witness Yisrayl; for Yahweh will be with him. He will preach this Message to all nations; and then The End will come.

Micahyah 4:1-3

1 But in the Last Days it will come to pass that the mountain; promotion, of The House of Yahweh will be established in the chief of the nations. It will be raised above all congregations; and all peoples will eventually flow to it.

2 And many people will go and say; Come, and let us go up to the mountain; uplifting, of Yahweh, and to the House of the Father of Yaaqob, and He will teach us of His Ways, and we will walk in His Paths. Because the Laws will depart from Zion, and the Word of Yahweh from Yerusalem.

3 And He will judge between many people, and rebuke strong nations afar off; and they will beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks. Nation will not lift up sword against nation, nor will they learn war anymore.

It's a miraculous thing that The House of Yahweh exists again, knowing the complete history of the hatred against Yahweh's House. The hatred for Yahweh's House is only equaled by the hatred for Yahweh and the True Savior, Yahshua Messiah, Who was falsely accused and murdered. Notice the hatred.

Yahchanan 15:22-23

22 If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not have had their sins revealed; but now they have no cloak, covering for, their sins.

23 He who hates Me, also hates My Father.

Yahshua showed them their sins and they hated Him for doing so. Yahshua Messiah is the High Priest over The House of Yahweh. This is foretold in:

Hebrews 10:21

And having a High Priest over The House of Yahweh.

The House of Yahweh is teaching the same Laws, the only way to Life Eternal and a place in Yahweh's Kingdom as the Savior, Yahshua Messiah, taught, which made the pharisees, sadducees, essenes, and herodians (roman catholic church) so angry.

Yahchanan 15:22-23

22 If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not have had their sins revealed; but now they have no cloak, covering for, their sins.

23 He who hates Me, also hates My Father.

This time, the gates of hell will not prevail against the House of Yahweh as Yahweh allowed with the previous eras.

Mattithyah 16:18

And I also say to you who are Kepha; whose name means "rock": That upon this Rock, YAHWEH UNITY; I will build this house; family: The House of Yahweh, and the gates of sheol (hell); the grave, will not prevail against it.

This time, The House of Yahweh will succeed in teaching the Laws and Prophecies to all nations, and many people will repent of sin.

Acts 3:19

Repent therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out; that times of refreshing may come from the Presence of Yahweh.

Notice again what Yahweh will do.

Isayah 2:3-4

3 And many people will go and say; Come, and let us go up to the mountain of Yahweh, to the House of the Father of Yaaqob, and He will teach us of His Ways, and we will walk in His paths. For the Laws will depart from Zion, and the Work of Yahweh will depart from Yerusalem.

4 He will judge among the nations, and will rebuke many people; they will beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks; nation will not lift up sword against nation, neither will they learn war anymore.

Please notice, this is prophesied to stop all wars. Yahweh's Laws are just and equal for every person. There is no reason for anyone to not use them as a guide. When people agree to abide by these Righteous Laws, they can abide together in Peace.

What could possibly take the place of war? The answer is: The Laws of Righteousness written by the Inspired Prophets of Yahweh…then peace, joy, love, and health will take the place of wars.

May Yahweh bless your understanding.

Love, True Love
