

Yes, Nuclear Wars!! Unless You Act Now... No, You Will Not Know Until It's Too Late To Repent!

President Barack Obama hopes for the Peaceful Solution Character Education Program to be accepted. President Vladimir Putin had the following to say:

Putin Warns of Nuclear War

The “Iranian threat” does not exist but the NATO Missile Defence System is being positioned in Europe. That means we were right when we said that their reasons are not genuine. They were not being open with us, always referring to the “Iranian threat” in order to justify this system. Once again, they lied to us. Now the system is functioning and being loaded with missiles.

As you [journalists] should know these missiles are put into capsules, which are used in the Tomahawk long-range missile system. So, these are being loaded with missiles that can penetrate territories within a 500km range. But we know that technologies advance, and we even know in which year the US will accomplish the next missile. This missile will be able to penetrate distances of up to 1000km, and then even further. And from that moment on, they will start to directly threaten Russia's nuclear potential. We know year by year what's going to happen, and they know that we know.

It's only you that they tell tall-tales to and you buy it, and spread it to the citizens of your countries. Your people, in turn, do not feel a sense of the impending danger – this is what worries me. How do you not understand that the world is being pulled in an irreversible direction, while they pretend that nothing's going on? I don't know how to get through to you anymore.

Revelation 17-18 shows that Rome is undoubtedly the leader of the nations in this generation. Revelation 13:1-8 shows that all people and nations have, in many ways, followed the Vatican's path of sin, force, unhealthy habits, hatred, anger, fighting and wars.

The ten kings shown in Revelation 17:12-16 try to unify with the Vatican (the divining serpent), but they will soon turn against the Vatican and bring forth nuclear war that will destroy all who practice her ways of sin, like Cain, being evil like the Gods, many Gods.

Genesis 3:1-5

1 Now the serpent was more subtle and crafty than any beast of the field which Yahweh had made. And she said to the woman; Has Yahweh indeed said: You shall not eat of every tree of the garden?

2 And the woman said to the serpent; We may eat the fruit of the trees of the garden;

3 But of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, Yahweh has said: You shall not eat it, nor shall you touch it, or you will die.

4 And the serpent said to the woman; You will not surely die.

5 For He knows that in the day you eat of it, your eyes will be opened, and you will be as Gods (elohim), knowing Righteousness and evil.

Yahdah 1:10-11

10 But these speak evil of those things which they do not understand; but what they know naturally; instinctively, like brute beasts, In those things they corrupt themselves.

11 Woe to them! For they have gone in the way of Cain, have run greedily in the error of Balaam for reward, and are sentenced to the perishing in the rebellion of Korah!

Notice in the following articles that the Vatican is involved in the actions of every organization, directing and enforcing world affairs. This is shown in:

Europe And The Vatican Agenda

2003 September-October

Douglas S. Winnail

The Roman Catholic Church has a long history of intimate involvement in Europe's political and religious affairs.

Efforts to create a European constitution for the emerging superstate reveal the extent of the Vatican agenda. Religious groups were not invited to the European constitutional convention, because secular forces want to separate church and state, but this has not deterred the Vatican from striving to influence the outcome. In a private audience with Valéry Giscard d'Estang, president of the convention, Pope John Paul II urged him not to forget the religious "cement" that has long held Europe together. John Paul II has repeatedly reminded ambassadors to the Vatican that a European constitution must recognize the role that Catholicism has played in Europe's history. When an early draft failed to mention God, religion, Christianity or the role of the church, the Vatican denounced the document as "completely unsatisfactory" (London Daily Telegraph, February 2, 2003). Subsequently, the Vatican unveiled "the Catholic Church's most ambitious plans" to make sure that the new constitution not only includes a reference to God, but also guarantees the legal status of churches and “the assurance of a formal dialogue with European institutions” (euobserver.com, April 24, 2003). It is simply not on the Vatican agenda to be left out of the New Europe.

The Vatican has long recognized the important role that it alone can play in European integration. In 1975, Pope Paul VI proclaimed: “Can it not be said that it is faith... the Catholic faith that made Europe?... No other human force in Europe can render the service that is confided to us...

Vatican diplomacy was, however, a loyal supporter of European construction. It backed the first treaties under Pius XII (ECSE, EDC, Treaties of Rome) and anticipated its enlargement under John Paul II. Its constant concern – on which it was insistent during the negotiations of the Constitutional Treaty – was to assert the Christian basis without which Europe is not viable, according to the Church. Today, the Church intends to foster its dialogue with European institutions and become a facilitator so that all Europeans of the continent may live together, beyond the EU.

He [Pope Francis] sends a new message against the rise of extremisms in the rest of Europe as well as a reminder to draw from the lessons of the past – especially those which form the basis of the European project.

I hope you noticed the threat against those who will not join them in accepting evil.

On 11 February 1929 the Holy See and Italy resolved the “Questione Romana” following the cessation of the Papal States by signing the Lateran Treaty. By means of this Treaty, Vatican City State came into existence. Article 12 of the Treaty notes that diplomatic relations with the Holy See are governed by the rules of International Law.

The State of Vatican City itself also possesses a personality under international law and as such, enters into international agreements. However, it is the Holy See which internationally represents Vatican City State. In fact, when the Holy See enters into agreements for Vatican City State, it uses the formula: “acting on behalf and in the interest of the State of Vatican City”. In October 1957, in order to avoid uncertainty in its relations with the United Nations, it was affirmed that relations are established between the United Nations and the Holy See. And it is the Holy See which is represented by the Delegations accredited by the Secretariat of State to international organizations.

The term “Holy See” refers to the supreme authority of the Church, that is the Pope as Bishop of Rome and head of the college of Bishops. It is the central government of the Roman Catholic Church. As such, the Holy See is an institution which, under international law and in practice, has a legal personality that allows it to enter into treaties as the juridical equal of a State and to send and receive diplomatic representatives. As noted above, it is the “Holy See: that is present at United Nations Headquarters in New York and at UN centers abroad, as well as at other international organizations such as the European Community...

Nato’s Defense College – The Church’s Peace-Making Activity

Nato Defense College

Rome, 1st April 2003

It is the pleasure for me to address the NATO Defense College on the topic of the Catholic Church's peace-making activity in international relations...

A basic knowledge of history is sufficient to see how the Catholic Church, throughout the centuries of her existence, has played an important role in international relations. Limiting ourselves to the most recent period, we can see that already at the end of the nineteenth century many European political leaders – most of whom, paradoxically, were not Catholic – sought the Pope's support for bringing about initiatives.

The interventions of papal delegates in peace negotiations in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries... Even after the French Revolution, it was commonly held that only the Pope's voice was impartial in matters of resolving problems between nations.

In a letter dated 8 September 1914 and addressed to all Catholics, Benedict XV stated: <<It is our firm commitment not to fail to do everything that is in our power that might help to bring this calamity to a quicker End>>.

The idea of establishing a NATO school was proposed by General Dwight D. Eisenhower, the first Supreme Commander of the Alliance. He sent his famous proposal on 25th April 1951 to the Standing Group, and summarized his suggestions in 5 points.

In the first paragraph he explained the idea, which was quoted later on frequently, that there was a high priority requirement to develop individuals, both on the military and civilian side who would understand the complexity of the North Atlantic Treaty Area.¹ “Therefore we have a look for individuals who are capable of adapting themselves to the new environment, can broaden their outlook in a short time, and shoulder the responsibilities” – he added.

US-NATO "Strategic Concept": Global Warfare

Missile Shield and Nuclear Weapons

North Atlantic Treaty Organization Secretary General Anders Fogh Rasmussen delivered an address in Washington, DC on February 23 on the military alliance's new 21st century Strategic Concept...

At the seminar and on the preceding evening at Georgetown University in what is arguably NATO's true capital, Rasmussen sounded familiar themes: Highlighting the need to prevail in Afghanistan, NATO's first ground war and first armed conflict outside of Europe.

The bloc's chief announced the creation of "a new division at NATO Headquarters to deal with new threats and challenges."

Since then Rasmussen has visited Jordan, Bahrain, Finland, the Czech Republic and Poland to promote the broadening of worldwide military partnerships, the recruitment of more troops and other support for the Afghan war, and the expansion of an eventual global missile shield system within the context of NATO's further transformation into an international and expeditionary security and military force. In Rasmussen's words, the Alliance is to become a global security forum in addition to being the world's only permanent military alliance.

EU Backlash: Brexit ‘TUSNAMI’ expected as 34 referendums set to rock union

THE EUROPEAN Union (EU) is about to be rocked by a “political tsunami” with right-wing parties across the continent calling for dozens of in-out referendums.

The ECFR (European Council on Foreign Relations) report blamed

Europe's fear of Turkey joining the EU and the German Chancellor Angela Merkel's "refugees welcome" policy as major reasons behind a rapid rise in support for both right-wing and far-left, anti-EU parties and their attempts to take back control of their countries.

An 'Italexit' is also a possibility, with a survey revealing 48 per cent of Italians saying they would leave the EU if presented with a referendum.

Growing anti-EU campaigns in other states are also highlighted, including Austria, Finland, Germany, Hungary, Ireland, Poland and Sweden.

The growing discontent comes as the EU moves forward with plans to turn the bloc into a superstate (http://www.express.co.uk/news/politics/683739/EU-referendum-German-French-European-superstate-Brexit_).

The United Nations is born

On this day in 1945, the United Nations' Charter, which adopted and signed on June 26, 1945, is now effective and ready to be enforced.

The United Nations was born of perceived necessity, as a means of better arbitrating international conflict and negotiating peace than was provided for by the old League of Nations. The growing Second World War became the real impetus for the United States, Britain, and the Soviet Union to begin formulating the original U.N. Declaration, signed by 26 nations in January 1942, as a formal act of opposition to Germany, Italy, and Japan, the Axis Powers.

The conference laid out a structure for a new international organization that was to “save succeeding generations from the scourge of war...

The Formation of the United Nations, 1945

On January 1, 1942, representatives of 26 nations at war with the Axis powers met in Washington to sign the Declaration of the United Nations endorsing the Atlantic Charter, pledging to use their full resources against the Axis and agreeing not to make a separate peace.

When President Franklin D. Roosevelt met with Soviet Premier Joseph Stalin in Tehran, Iran, in November 1943, he proposed an international organization comprising an assembly of all member states and a 10-member executive committee to discuss social and economic issues. The United States, Great Britain, Soviet Union, and China would enforce peace as “the four policemen.”

U.S., British, Soviet, and Chinese representatives met at Dumbarton Oaks in Washington in August and September 1944 to draft the charter of a postwar international organization based on the principle of collective security. They recommended a General Assembly of all member states and a Security Council consisting of the Big Four plus six members chosen by the Assembly.

Roosevelt also sought to convince the public that an international organization was the best means to prevent future wars. The Senate approved the UN Charter on July 28, 1945, by a vote of 89 to 2. The United Nations came into existence on October 24, 1945, after 29 nations had ratified the Charter.

The Role of the Un General Assembly

The UN General Assembly (UNGA) is the only universally representative body of the five principal organs of the United Nations. The other major bodies are the Security Council, the Economic and Social Council, the Secretariat, and the International Court of Justice. As delineated in the Charter of the United Nations, the function of the General Assembly is to discuss, debate, and make recommendations on a range of subjects pertaining to international peace and security—including development, disarmament, human rights, international law, and peaceful arbitration between disputing nations.

The assembly also works with the Security Council to elect the judges of the International Court of Justice.

... the UN's nonmember observer states, which include the Vatican and Palestine, have the right to speak at assembly meetings but cannot vote on resolutions.

What is the General Assembly's membership?

All 193 UN member states have one vote in the General Assembly.

Efforts toward revitalizing the assembly's work are focused primarily on increasing its power vis-à-vis the Security Council, as well as improving the quality of debate within the body.

“Uniting for Peace” Resolution. In 1950, the United States initiated another landmark resolution of the General Assembly, Resolution 377, known as the “Uniting for Peace” resolution. It states that if the UN Security Council “fails to exercise its primary responsibility” of maintaining international peace and security, the General Assembly can and should take up the matter itself and urge member states to consider collective action. The assembly has enacted this resolution in a handful of instances, including the Suez Crisis of 1956. UN intervention in the crisis ultimately resulted in a cease-fire, troop withdrawal, and the establishment of the first United States Emergency Force (USEF), a peacekeeping force. The 2003 U.S. invasion of Iraq provoked calls from a number of organizations, including the legal advocacy organization the Center for Constitutional Rights, to have the General Assembly take up the issue and override the impasse of the Security Council, but the assembly did not do so.

What is NATO?

The North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) was formed in 1949 to provide its member states with an umbrella of collective security. NATO's objectives are based on the North Atlantic Treaty of 1949, which requires each member state to share the risk and responsibility of upholding international peace and security in accordance with the principles of the United Nations Charter of 1945. Today, NATO is comprised of 26 member states from Europe and North America.

The History of NATO's Nuclear Policy

Nuclear weapons have formed part of NATO's collective defense policy since its inception in the late 1940s. According to its defense doctrine of November 1949, NATO defense plans call for insuring the "ability to carry out strategic bombing including the prompt delivery of the atomic bomb. This is primarily a US responsibility assisted as practicable by other nations."

The Vatican Concordat With Hitler's Reich

September 1, 2003 Issue | Robert A. Krieg

The Concordat of 1933 was ambiguous in its day and remains so.

Seventy years ago a fateful meeting occurred in Rome. The Vatican's secretary of state, Cardinal Eugenio Pacelli (the future Pope Pius XII), and Germany's vice chancellor, Franz von Papen, formally signed a concordat between the Holy See and the German Reich on July 20, 1933. This event ended negotiations that began after Adolf Hitler became Germany's chancellor on Jan. 30, 1933. Among the witnesses to this event were Msgr. Giovanni Battista Montini (the future Pope Paul VI) and Msgr. Ludwig Kaas, the leader of Germany's Catholic Center Party. Neither Pope Pius XI nor Hitler attended the meeting; both had already approved of the concordat. The pope ratified the agreement two months later on Sept. 10. The Concordat of 1933 specified the church's rights in the Third Reich.

The political significance of the signing of the Concordat of 1933 was, however, ambiguous in its day and still remains so. Hitler interpreted the concordat to mean that he had won the church's approval, thereby gaining international recognition of his Nazi regime. At least some German Catholics took the signing of the treaty as an indication that church officials had softened their opposition to National Socialism. Some political commentators, journalists and historians then and now have viewed this event as a manifestation of Pope Pius XI's and Cardinal Pacelli's underlying motives, which allegedly included their preference for dictatorships over democracies, their readiness to use Nazi Germany as a bulwark against the spread into Europe of Stalin's Communism and their disregard for German Jews.

Pius XI and Cardinal Pacelli judged that their first duty was to secure civil guarantees for the autonomy of ecclesiastical institutions and their activities. After the abdication of Kaiser Wilhelm II in 1918, the Holy See had tried to sign a concordat with the Weimar Republic but did not succeed. The sticking point was the church's insistence on state support for Catholic schools and for Catholic religious instruction in the public schools. This stipulation was not acceptable to Weimar's parliament, especially to its Socialists, who held that it violated the separation between church and state.

The concordat asserted, too, that the state would give financial support to the church's schools and that it would make Catholic religious education available in the public schools religious education taught only by instructors approved by the bishops.

The Holy See's concessions included the concordat's requirement that clergy not engage in political activities and not hold political offices. Bishops were required to swear an oath of loyalty to the Reich and its legally constituted government. The bishops would sponsor only those lay organizations dedicated to charitable works and to social activities of a religious nature. Although it was agreed that a list would specify which organizations were protected under the concordat, this list was never completed. In addition, diocesan newspapers and church-affiliated publishers were left vulnerable to the state's interference and suppression, because the concordat did not explicitly protect them.

Quartet & Roadmap

History And Structure

The Middle East Quartet emerged from a desire among the four principal international players engaged in the peace process—the United Nations, the United States, the European Union, and the Russian Federation—to consult more closely over the Middle East conflict and its resolution.

On 10 April 2002 the Government of Spain, representing the rotating Presidency of the European Union, and the High Representative of the Common security and foreign Policy Javier Solana, hosted the Secretary-General of the United Nations, Kofi Annan, US Secretary of State Colin Powell, and Russian Foreign Minister Igor Ivanov. These representatives, who had already met at the margins of the 56th General Assembly Session in 2001, came to be known as the Quartet principals, who have since continued to meet regularly.

Intermittently, close coordination and collaboration between the Quartet members has proceeded on the ground on the envoy level, through the United Nations Special Coordinator, the Special Representative of the European Union for the Middle East Peace Process, the Special Envoy of the United States and later, the Assistant Secretary for Near East Affairs.

In its meeting on 10 April 2002, the Quartet laid the foundations for what later became the Roadmap. The Roadmap defines parameters and steps to be taken by both Israelis and Palestinians to end the bloodshed and settle the conflict between the two parties, resulting in the existence of two states in the region, living side by side in peace and security.

Formally presented to the parties on 30 April 2003, the Roadmap is a three-phase plan aimed at achieving a final and comprehensive settlement of the Israeli-Palestinian conflict, on the basis of a goal-driven and performance-based approach. The Quartet is committed to assist and facilitate the implementation of the Roadmap and meets regularly on both the envoys and the principals levels to evaluate the parties performance on implementation.

The Task Force on Palestinian Reform (TFPR) was established by the Quartet on July 10, 2002 in London. The mandate of the TFPR is to monitor and support the implementation of Palestinian civil reforms, and to provide guidance to the international donor community in its support of the Palestinian reform agenda. It reports to and works under the auspices of the Quartet at the envoy level. It also closely cooperates with the AHLC chair and fully informs the AHLC on its work.

www.un.org

The third member of the Quartet I list here is the European Union (EU). They're open to anything the Vatican commands without question – right or wrong, just or unjust. The fourth member of the Quartet I list here is the Vatican – the divining serpent – that says war is “just” in order to stop the aggressor.

So, why is the Vatican instructing the Quartet on what is just or unjust? The Inspired Scriptures give the answer in:

Revelation 17:18

 And the woman whom you saw, is that great city which reigns over the kings of the earth.

The question is: who was the beginning aggressor? Who began the aggressions and wars, and each retaliation and revenge after a “just war”? Was the beginning aggressor Pope Constantine, who saw the sword in the sky?

Changing Names in the Inspired Scriptures

Constantine said, “By this you will have a million soul crusaders who won’t fear taking property or lives in order to worship the Gods I have chosen”.

Constantine knew nothing about the Propheted Savior who was born in a propheted place to propheted parents who kept and taught Yahweh’s Laws of Righteousness. They diligently trained up a boy, whose propheted name would be “Yahshua”, which means Yahweh will save His People from their sins.

Constantine’s kingdom was filled with disruption, fighting, war, sickness, disease and confusion. He was trying to bring peace to his kingdom by creating a new God for all to worship. Being the fool he was, he picked two Gods.

The First Council of Nicaea and the “missing records”

Constantine’s intention at Nicaea was to create an entirely new god for his empire who would unite all religious factions under one deity. Presbyters were asked to debate and decide who their new god would be. ...the names of 53 gods were tabled for discussion. “As yet, no God had been selected by the council, and so they balloted in order to determine that matter... For one year and five months the balloting lasted...” (God’s Book of Eskra, Prof. S.L. MacGuire’s translation, Salisbury, 1922, chapter xlviii, paragraphs 36, 41).

At the end of that time, Constantine returned to the gathering to discover that the presbyters had not agreed on a new deity but had balloted down to a short list of five prospects: Caesar, Krishna, Mithra, Horus and Zeus (Historia Ecclesiastica, Eusebius, c. 325). Constantine was the ruling spirit at Nicaea and he ultimately decided upon a new god for them. To involve British factions, he ruled that the name of the Druid god, Hesus, be joined with the Eastern Saviour-god, Krishna (Krishna is Sanskrit for Christ), and thus Hesus Krishna would be the official name of the new Roman god. A vote was taken and it was with a majority show of hands (161 votes to 157) that both divinities become one God. Following long-standing heathen custom, Constantine used the official gathering and the Roman apotheosis decree to legally deify two deities as one, and did so by democratic consent. A new god was proclaimed and “officially” ratified by Constantine (Acta Concilii Nicaeni, 1618). That purely political act of deification effectively and legally placed Hesus and Krishna among the Roman gods as one individual composite. That abstraction lent Earthly existence to amalgamated doctrines of the Empire’s new religion; and because there was no letter “J” in alphabets until around the sixteenth century, the name subsequently evolved into “Jesus Christ”.

Before Constantine began this great slaughter, before the Pharisees, Sadducees, Essenes, and Herodians moved to Rome and took back their original name – (Roman) Catholic – they slaughtered millions in Israyl.

- Rome means mighty warrior.
- Catholic means universal.
- Universal means unrestricted.
- Unrestricted means practicing sin, fulfilling one's own lust.

But sin brought sickness, disease, confusion, fighting and war inside and outside of Constantine's kingdom. Today, we see these problems have multiplied in every nation.

So, the Roman Catholics were, and desire to be again, the mighty Roman Catholic Empire, which the pope needs to be resurrected to depopulate or to bring "just war" to stop the "aggressor". The "aggressor" is the one on whom they lay blame, due to their confused minds, clouded with STDs from their own personal lusts.

Before they took back their original name of Catholic, they called themselves Pharisees, Sadducees, Essenes, and Herodians. Along with their mighty warriors, they polluted the House of Yahweh, which they had removed the Name Yahweh from. This was the House King Solomon had built in Yerusalem which the Pharisees, Sadducees, Essenes, and Herodians simply called the temple. They called it the temple to remove the Name Yahweh, which stands for Perfect Righteousness. Yahweh's Righteousness restricted them from sinning and creating more confusion, so they did away with it.

Like a dog chasing its tail, they wish to continue in their own ignorance. However, this time, they have weapons of mass destruction.

Before King Solomon, the Pharisees, Sadducees, Essenes, and Herodians were called the heads of Yaaqob or elders of Israyl.

Micahyah 3:1-12

1 Then I said; Hear now, O heads of Yaaqob, you rulers of the house of Israyl! Is it not for you to know justice?—

2 You who hate Righteousness and love evil; who strip off the skin from My People, and the meat from their bones;

3 Who also eat the meat of My People, who strip off their skin, break their bones, and chop them into pieces, as meat for the pot, as flesh within the caldron.

4 Then they will cry unto Yahweh, but He will not hear them; He will hide His Face from them at that time, because of the evil they have done.

5 This is what Yahweh says concerning the prophets who cause My People to err; go astray; who proclaim: Peace! to those who give them something to chew on; who prepare war against those who put nothing in their mouths—

6 Night will come over you, and you will not have a vision; darkness will cover you, without divination! The sun will go down for these prophets, and the day will be dark for them.

7 So the seers will be ashamed, and the diviners confounded; yes, they will all shut their mouths, for there is no answer from Yahweh.

8 But truly I am full of power by the Spirit of Yahweh, and of Judgment and Might, to declare to Yaaqob his transgression, and to Israyl his sin.

9 Hear now, O heads of the house of Yaaqob, you rulers of the house of Israyl, who abhor justice and pervert all equity,

10 Who build up Zion with blood, and Yerusalem with iniquity:

11 Her heads judge for reward and her priests teach; give instruction in the Law, for pay, and her prophets divine for money. Yet they lean upon Yahweh, and say; Is not Yahweh among us? No evil can come upon us!

12 Therefore, because of you, Zion will be plowed like a field, Yerusalem will become heaps of rubble, and the mountain of The House of Yahweh like the high places of a forest.

Verse 12 shows that The House of Yahweh and Yerusalem would be destroyed. The Great Prophet Micahyah then shows the next prophesied Work that would once again bring to the world the Way of Yahweh and Salvation through Yahweh's Perfect Laws that bring Perfect Peace.

The Savior, Yahshua, Whose Name the Roman Catholic Church removed from the Holy Scriptures, added to Micahyah's Prophecy concerning the destruction of The House of Yahweh, from which Yahweh's Righteousness had already been removed. He also shows the End – the Last Days – the generation of the Quartet and nuclear bombs that can burn the earth – this present, prophesied generation – and the destruction following Yahshua's generation.

Mattithyah 24:1-2

1 Yahshua went out and was leaving the temple, when His Disciples came to show Him the buildings of the temple.

2 But Yahshua said to them: Do you see all these things? Truly I say to you: There will not be one stone left sitting on top of another, which will not be thrown down.

The Pharisees, Sadducees, Essenes, and Herodians, with their mighty warriors, the Roman army that stood on their part fulfilled that Prophecy.

Daniyl 11:31

And the army will stand on his part, and they will pollute the Sanctuary of Strength, and will take away the daily, and they will place the Lord of heaven.

They destroyed Yerusalem, slaughtered those who practiced Yahweh's Laws, and moved all the wealth and artifacts of the temple to their establishment on the seven hills of Rome – the great fourth beast empire. But they still had no peace. The fighting got worse between members of the parliament. Wars between the soldiers, who took sides with different Gods, worsened.

But in these Last Days, in this present, prophesied generation, Yahweh has a Prophesied Work that will end all wars. We are shown when The House of Yahweh would carry out this work, foretold by Yahweh's Prophet Micahyah. The first Work had to end and the beast was allowed to have her way to prove what sin brings. Compare the following:

Amosyah 3:1-7

1 Hear this word which Yahweh has spoken against you, O children of Israyl, against the whole family which I brought up from the land of Egypt, saying:

2 You only have I known of all the families of the earth; therefore, I will call you to account for all your iniquities.

3 Can two walk together, unless they are in agreement?

4 Will a lion roar in the forest, unless he has prey? Will a lion make his voice sound from his den, unless he has taken something?

5 Can a bird fall into a snare on the ground, unless a trap has been set for him? Does a trap spring up from the earth, unless something has sprung it?

6 Will a trumpet be blown in the city, and the people not be afraid? Will iniquity fostered by religious imposters be taking place in a city, and Yahweh not also have a Righteous work there?

7 Most assuredly Father Yahweh will have no work, other than the Work that He has prophesied in advance by His Servants the Prophets.

Micahyah 3:1, 9-12

1 Then I said; Hear now, O heads of Yaaqob, you rulers of the house of Israyl! Is it not for you to know justice?—

9 Hear now, O heads of the house of Yaaqob, you rulers of the house of Israyl, who abhor justice and pervert all equity,

10 Who build up Zion with blood, and Yerusalem with iniquity:

11 Her heads judge for reward and her priests teach; give instruction in the Law, for pay, and her prophets divine for money. Yet they lean upon Yahweh, and say; Is not Yahweh among us? No evil can come upon us!

12 Therefore, because of you, Zion will be plowed like a field, Yerusalem will become heaps of rubble, and the mountain of The House of Yahweh like the high places of a forest.

The Seven Lamp Lampstand represents the Seven Works of Yahweh.

The seventh is prophesied for this present generation that started in 1934. Yes, 1934. You will see. Read on.

But! My (Yahweh's) House!

Micahyah 4:1-3

1 But in the Last Days it will come to pass that the mountain; promotion, of The House of Yahweh will be established in the chief of the nations. It will be raised above all congregations; and all peoples will eventually flow to it.

2 And many people will go and say; Come, and let us go up to the mountain; uplifting, of Yahweh, and to the House of the Father of Yaaqob, and He will teach us of His Ways, and we will walk in His Paths. Because the Laws will depart from Zion, and the Word of Yahweh from Yerusalem.

3 And He will judge between many people, and rebuke strong nations afar off; and they will beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks. Nation will not lift up sword against nation, nor will they learn war anymore.

I hope you took notice of the last part of verse 3...no more war. Read again:

Amosyah 3:7

Most assuredly Father Yahweh will have no work, other than the Work that He has prophesied in advance by His Servants the Prophets.

The Seventh Work takes Yahweh's Way to all nations. Yahweh's Way is a way of Peace, Joy, Love, and Perfect Living without sin, suffering, disease, confusion and war.

Micahyah 4:1-3 reveals the next prophesied Work of Yahweh. Yahshua foretold the destruction of The House of Yahweh and Yerusalem, which took place in 70 A.Y.

Mattithyah 24:1-2

1 Yahshua went out and was leaving the temple, when His Disciples came to show Him the buildings of the temple.

2 But Yahshua said to them: Do you see all these things? Truly I say to you: There will not be one stone left sitting on top of another, which will not be thrown down.

But In This Nuclear Generation

But! In the generation of the nuclear bombs that can darken the sun, which started in 1934, Yahweh's Prophesied Work shown in Micahyah 4:1-3 will proceed once again and will not be destroyed. In fact, it will be used to resurrect those who have died. Read this wonderful Prophecy.

Micahyah 3:12

Therefore, because of you, Zion will be plowed like a field, Yerusalem will become heaps of rubble, and the mountain of The House of Yahweh like the high places of a forest.

The high places of a forest are barren land. That's what Yerusalem became after the Pharisees, Sadducees, Essenes, and Herodians, with their mighty army led by Titus finished the slaughter and moved the wealth and artifacts to Rome. But that didn't finish Yahweh's Work, prophesied for these Last Days – this generation that started in 1934. Remember that date.

Micahyah 4:1-3

1 But in the Last Days it will come to pass that the mountain; promotion, of The House of Yahweh will be established in the chief of the nations. It will be raised above all congregations; and all peoples will eventually flow to it.

2 And many people will go and say; Come, and let us go up to the mountain; uplifting, of Yahweh, and to the House of the Father of Yaaqob, and He will teach us of His Ways, and we will walk in His Paths. Because the Laws will depart from Zion, and the Word of Yahweh from Yerusalem.

3 And He will judge between many people, and rebuke strong nations afar off; and they will beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks. Nation will not lift up sword against nation, nor will they learn war anymore.

Mattithyah 24:1-2

1 Yahshua went out and was leaving the temple, when His Disciples came to show Him the buildings of the temple.

2 But Yahshua said to them: Do you see all these things? Truly I say to you: There will not be one stone left sitting on top of another, which will not be thrown down.

The House of Yahweh in these Last Days discovered where The House of Yahweh originally stood on Mt. Zion and has published a brochure showing the temple sitting beside the Moslem Mosque. This brochure shows the peaceful solution to rebuilding the temple, not The House of Yahweh. In this generation, prophecies show The House of Yahweh would be established in the chief of the nations, due west of the original House of Yahweh at Abilene, Israyl. If you go west from Ibillin (Abilene), Israyl, you will find Abilene, Texas in the chief of the nations. This is the prophesied location for the fulfillment of the Prophecies in Micahyah and Isayah.

Mattithyah 21:43

Therefore I say to you: The Kingdom of Yahweh will be taken from you, and given to a people of the same habit, but from a foreign land; and they will bring forth the fruits of it.

Now, see the prophesied Work of The House of Yahweh – the Kingdom of Yahweh – in this generation.

But!

Mattithyah 24:14, 21-22, 29, 33-34

14 And this Joyous Message of the Kingdom of Yahweh shall be preached in all the world from The House of Yahweh at Abel by the Witness Yisrayl; for Yahweh will be with him. He will preach this Message to all nations; and then The End will come.

21 For then will be Great Tribulation, such as has not come to pass since the beginning of the world to this time—no, nor ever will be.

22 And unless those days were shortened, there would no flesh be saved; but for the Elect's sake, those days will be shortened.

29 Immediately, but after the Great Tribulation of those days will the sun be darkened, and the moon will not give her light, and the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken.

33 In the same way, when you see all these things, know that His coming and The End of the Ages are near, at the very door.

34 Truly I say to you: That generation will not pass away, until all these things are fulfilled.

Verse 14 shows Yahweh's Work. Verse 29 shows this Work is done in the nuclear age, which started in 1934. In verses 33-34, Yahshua shows Yahweh's Work, the Great Tribulation and The End are in the generation that started in 1934.

You need to study those Scriptures closely. Don't just read and forget them; study them. The Savior, Yahshua Messiah is showing you that this generation is the generation that goes into nuclear wars that will darken the sun, burn the earth and the people, leaving few men left in this generation.

Mattithyah 24:33-34

33 In the same way, when you see all these things, know that His coming and The End of the Ages are near, at the very door.

34 Truly I say to you: That generation will not pass away, until all these things are fulfilled.

Nuclear bombs that can darken the sun are stockpiled. They started in 1934. So this generation is at its end.

The World is Asleep to It All

The religious leaders are all like what is shown in:

Isayah 56:10-11

10 Your watchmen are blind, they are all ignorant; they are all dumb dogs, which cannot bark any warning; sleeping, lying down, loving to slumber.

11 Yes, they are greedy dogs; insatiable of appetite, which never have enough. They are also shepherds who cannot understand; they all look to their own way, each one for his own gain, from every quarter.

Compare:

II Kepha 3:10

But the Day of Yahweh will come as a thief in the night, in which the heavens will pass away with great noise, and the elements will melt with fervent heat; both the earth, and the works that are in it, will be burned up.

Compare:

II Timayah 3:1-4

1 Know this also: that in the Last Days perilous times will come.

2 For men will be lovers of themselves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy,

3 Without natural affection, trucebreakers, unforgiving, false accusers, without self-control, brutal, despisers of those who are righteous,

4 Traitors; betrayers, headstrong, arrogant, lovers of pleasure more than lovers of Yahweh,

They will not repent.

Mattithyah 24:36-39

36 But no man knows that day nor hour. No, not even the malakim in heaven, but My Father only.

37 But just as the days of Noah were, so will also be the coming of the Son of Man;

38 For just as in those days before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying while giving in marriage, until the day that Noah went into the ark,

39 And did not know until the flood came and swept them all away. So also will be the coming of the Son of Man.

Verse 36 – We have not been shown the day or the hour, yet; but we do know it will be in this generation of nuclear bombs that can darken the sun.

Mattithyah 24:29, 33-34

29 Immediately, but after the Great Tribulation of those days will the sun be darkened, and the moon will not give her light, and the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken.

33 In the same way, when you see all these things, know that

His coming and The End of the Ages are near, at the very door.

34 Truly I say to you: That generation will not pass away, until all these things are fulfilled.

This Prophecy was written around 33 A.Y. to be fulfilled in this generation. Think of the Great Wisdom it took to so accurately foretell this event.

Darken the Sun

Is it possible for this coming nuclear war to darken the sun? The answer is a resounding, yes!

Dr. Thomas was one of the four American scientists who, at the invitation of Senators Edward Kennedy and Mark Hatfield, met in Washington in December for a three-hour open discussion with four Soviet counterparts. The subject of their discussion: the nuclear winter (DISCOVER, January).

Two scientific reports have recently been published, dealing with the probable effects of nuclear war upon the earth's climate and the life of the planet. The first discovery is already widely known within the scientific community of climatologists, geophysicists, and biologists here and abroad, and has been confirmed in detail by scientists in the Soviet Union. Computer models demonstrate that a nuclear war involving the exchange of less than one third of the total American and Soviet arsenal will change the climate of the entire Northern Hemisphere, shifting it abruptly from its present seasonal state to a long, sunless, frozen night. This will be followed after some months by a settling of nuclear soot and dust, then by a new malignant kind of sunlight, with all of its ultraviolet band, capable of blinding most terrestrial animals, no longer shielded from the earth by the ozonosphere. In the same research, new calculations of the extent and intensity of radioactive fallout predict the exposure of large land areas to much more intense levels of radiation than expected. The report is referred to as TTAPS, an acronym derived from the investigators' names: Turco, Toon, Ackerman, Pollack, and Sagan.

The second piece of work, by Paul Ehrlich and 19 other distinguished biologists, demonstrates that the predictions of TTAPS mean nothing less than the extinction of much of the earth's biosphere, very possibly involving the Southern Hemisphere as well as the Northern.

Taken together, the two papers change everything in the world about the prospect of thermonuclear warfare. They have already received a careful and critical review by scientists representing the disciplines concerned, here and abroad, and there already appears to be an unprecedented degree of concurrence with the technical details as well as the conclusions drawn. In the view of some referees, the TTAPS report may even be understating the climatological damage implied by its data. The 20 biologists' paper, summarized by Professor Ehrlich, represents the consensus arrived at by 40 biological scientists at a meeting in Woods Hole, Massachusetts, last spring.

It is a new world, demanding a new kind of diplomacy and a new logic.

Up to now, the international community of statesmen, diplomats, and military analysts has tended to regard the prospect of nuclear war as a problem only for the adversaries in possession of the weapons. Arms control and the endless negotiations aimed at the reduction of nuclear explosives have been viewed as the responsibility, even the prerogative, of those few nations in actual confrontation. Now all that is changed. There is no nation on earth free of the jeopardy of destruction if any two countries, or groups of countries, embark upon a nuclear exchange. If the Soviet Union and the United States, and their respective allies in the Warsaw Pact and NATO, begin to launch their missiles beyond a still undetermined and ambiguous minimum, neutral states like Sweden and Switzerland are in for the same long-term effects, the same slow death, as the actual participants. Australia and New Zealand, Brazil and South Africa, could have as much to worry about as West Germany if a full-scale exchange were to take place far to the north.

Up to now, we have all tended to regard any conflict with nuclear arms as an effort by paired adversaries to settle such issues as territorial dominance or ideological dispute. Now, with the new findings before us, it is clear that any territory gained will be, at the end, a barren wasteland, and any ideology will vanish in the death of civilization and the permanent loss of mankind's memory of culture.

The risks of this kind of war have conventionally been calculated by the numbers of dead human beings on either side at the end of the battle, armies and noncombatants together. The terms "acceptable" and "unacceptable," signifying so-and-so many million human casualties, have been used for making cool judgments about the need for new and more accurate weapon systems. From now on, things are different. Leave aside the already taken for granted estimate that in an all-out exchange of, say, 5,000 megatons, something like a billion people would be killed outright by blast, heat, and radiation. Set aside as well the likely fact that more than another billion would die later on, from the delayed effects of the climate and radioactive fallout.

Greatest Tribulation Ever

If you have watched the news lately, you have surely seen the millions of displaced families from the countries in and around the great Euphrates River, right?

‘Unprecedented’ 65 million people displaced by war and persecution in 2015 – UN

20 June 2016 – The number of people displaced from their homes due to conflict and persecution last year exceeded 60 million for the first time in United Nations history, a tally greater than the population of the United Kingdom, or of Canada, Australia and New Zealand combined, says a new report released on World Refugee Day today.

The Global Trends 2015 compiled by the Office of the UN High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR) notes that 65.3 million people were displaced at the end of 2015, an increase of more than 5 million from 59.5 million a year earlier.

The tally comprises 21.3 million refugees, 3.2 million asylum seekers, and 40.8 million people internally displaced within their own countries.

Measured against the world’s population of 7.4 billion people, one in every 113 people globally is now either a refugee, an asylum-seeker or internally displaced – putting them at a level of risk for which UNHCR knows no precedent.

On average, 24 people were forced to flee each minute in 2015, four times more than a decade earlier, when six people fled every 60 seconds.

Syria, Afghanistan and Somalia produce half the world's refugees, at 4.9 million, 2.7 million and 1.1 million, respectively.

Colombia had the largest numbers of internally displaced people (IDPs), at 6.9 million, followed by Syria's 6.6 million and Iraq's 4.4 million.

Distressingly, children made up an astonishing 51 per cent of the world's refugees in 2015, with many separated from their parents or travelling alone, UNHCR said.

I wrote of this Prophecy before the wars started and told where they would start. That was in 1976. They are in progress, even as I write this letter forty years later.

Revelation 9:13-21

13 And the Last Malak sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before Yahweh,

14 Saying to the Last Malak which had the trumpet: Loose the four messengers who are bound for the great River Euphrates!

15 And the four messengers were loosed, which were prepared for an hour, and a day, and a moon; month, and a year, in order to slay the third part of men.

16 And the number of the army of the horsemen was two hundred thousand thousand; for I heard the number of them.

17 And in my vision, I saw the horses and those who sat upon them like this: They had breastplates of fire; red, and of jacinth; blue, and brimstone; yellow, and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions; and out of their mouths issued fire, and smoke, and brimstone.

18 By these three were the third part of men killed: by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone, which issued out of their mouths.

19 For their power is in their mouth and in their tails; for their tails were similar to serpents, and had heads, and with them they do hurt.

20 And the rest of the men who were not killed by these plagues, still did not repent of the works of their hands, that they should not worship demons, and Gods (elohim, teraphim) of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood: which can neither see, nor hear, nor walk;

21 Neither did they repent of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

Verses 20-21 are speaking of the religions; they will not repent of their 'evil like the Gods' practices.

Genesis 3:1-5

1 Now the serpent was more subtle and crafty than any beast of the field which Yahweh had made. And she said to the woman; Has Yahweh indeed said: You shall not eat of every tree of the garden?

2 And the woman said to the serpent; We may eat the fruit of the trees of the garden;

3 But of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, Yahweh has said: You shall not eat it, nor shall you touch it, or you will die.

4 And the serpent said to the woman; You will not surely die.

5 For He knows that in the day you eat of it, your eyes will be opened, and you will be as Gods (elohim), knowing Righteousness and evil.

Did you see that in verse 5? Evil like the Gods?

Revelation 9:20

And the rest of the men who were not killed by these plagues, still did not repent of the works of their hands, that they should not worship demons, and Gods (elohim, teraphim) of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood: which can neither see, nor hear, nor walk.

This Prophecy was written around 96 A.Y. for this generation of the nuclear bomb that can darken the sun and burn the earth in one hour, which will be brought about by Godworshippers. Their leader is located on the seven hills of Rome. This leader has many supporters, including ten religions we are now seeing in the news today.

Revelation 17:1-9, 12, 14-18

1 And there came one of the seven malakim who had the seven bowls, and talked with me, saying to me: Come, I will show you the sentence of the great whore that sits upon many waters,

2 With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication; practiced idolatry: Godworship (the worship of elohim), and the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.

3 So he carried me away in the Spirit into the midst of Godworshippers (worshippers of Elohim); and I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet colored beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns.

4 And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet color, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication.

5 And upon her head was a name written: Mystery Babylon the great, the mother of the harlots and of the abominations of the earth.

6 And I saw the woman drunk with the blood of the Saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Yahshua. And when I saw her, I wondered with great astonishment.

7 And the malak said to me: Why are you astonished? I will tell you the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carries her, which has the seven heads and ten horns.

8 The beast that you saw was, and is not, and will ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition. And those who dwell on the earth will wonder—whose names were not written in The Book of Life from the foundation of the world—when they see the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

9 And here is the mind which has wisdom: The seven heads are seven mountains on which the woman sits.

12 And the ten horns which you saw are ten kings, which as yet have not received a kingdom; but receive authority as kings one hour with the beast.

14 These will make war with the Lamb, but the Lamb will overcome them; for He is the Ruler of rulers and King of kings; and those who are with Him are called, and chosen, and faithful.

15 And he said to me: The waters which you saw, where the whore sits, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and languages.

16 And the ten horns which you saw upon the beast, these will hate the whore, and will make her desolate and naked, and will eat her flesh, and burn her with fire.

17 But the Gods have put in their hearts to perform their will; and to agree, and give their kingdom to the beast, until the words; prophecies, of Yahweh will be fulfilled.

18 And the woman whom you saw, is that great city which reigns over the kings of the earth.

Verse 9 gives us the location – seven hills.

The Basic Everyday Encyclopedia, page 451, gives us the following information concerning these seven mountains (hills).

Rome...Traditionally founded 753 BC...built on 7 hills...

The Last Two Million Years, by The Reader's Digest Association, Inc., 1981, page 110, confirms the fact that Rome is situated on seven hills, but notice what else this source says about this city.

Rome was founded on seven small hills by the banks of the River Tiber. ...it became the centre of the largest empire the world had known, embracing at its peak, 100 million people.

Compton's Pictured Encyclopedia, 1948, Volume 12, page 144, tells us about the city of seven hills.

...the "City of Seven Hills." ...the Capitoline, Palatine, Aventine, Quirinal, Viminal, Esquiline, and Caelian hills. ...the seat of the papacy, the head of the great Roman Catholic Church.

In Revelation 17:12 we see ten horns; that is, ten religions. These ten religious powers will rule with the Vatican (divining serpent). They are shown to be the ten powers that will actively bring about this great one hour burning. You are seeing Prophecy come alive at this time. Be alert, watch the activities of these ten horns (religions) and the spokesman now giving their strength to the fourth beast of Daniyl 7. This beast destroyed the temple and Yerusalem and moved to the seven hills of Rome around 70 A.Y. These ten will bring the one hour burning in this generation that began in 1934.

The article, Atomic Armageddon is just 30 minutes away – former US Navy advisor, reveals the fulfillment of this Prophecy. The ten horns (kings-religions) are about to receive authority for that one hour burning.

Revelation 18:1-19

1 And after these things I saw another malak come down from heaven, having great authority; and the earth was enlightened with His glory.

2 And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying: Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of demons, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

3 For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth have grown rich through the abundance of her delicacies.

4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying: Come out of her, My People, so that you do not partake in her sins, and so that you do not receive of her plagues,

5 For her sins have reached unto heaven, and Yahweh has remembered her iniquities!

6 Render to her just as she rendered to you, and repay her double according to her works! In the cup which she has mixed, mix for her double!

7 In the measure that she glorified herself, and lived luxuriously, so in that measure give her torment and sorrow! For she says in her heart: I sit a queen, and am no widow, and will see no sorrow.

8 Therefore, her plagues will come in one day—death, and mourning, and famine; and she will be utterly burned with fire; for strong is Father Yahweh Who judges her.

9 And the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived luxuriously with her, will wail over her, and lament for her, when they will see the smoke of her burning—

10 Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying: Alas! Alas! That great city Babylon, that mighty city! For in one hour your judgment has come!

11 And the merchants of the earth will weep and mourn over her; for no one buys their merchandise anymore:

12 The merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all kinds of scented wood, and every kind of article of ivory, and every kind of article of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble,

13 And cinnamon, and incense, fragrant ointment, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and cattle, and sheep, and horses, and chariots, and slaves, that is, souls of men.

14 And the fruits that your soul lusted after have departed from you, and all things which were dainty; luxuries, and splendid have departed from you, and you will find them no more at all.

15 The merchants of these things, who were made rich by her, will stand afar off for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing,

16 And saying: Alas! Alas, that great city, that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls!

17 For in one hour such great riches came to nothing! And every sea captain, and all the company in ships, the sailors, and all who earn their living from the sea, stood afar off,

18 And cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying: What city is like this great city?

19 And they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying: Alas! Alas, that great city, in which all who had ships in the sea were made rich through her wealth! For in one hour she is made desolate.

Revelation 17:12-13

12 And the ten horns which you saw are ten kings, which as yet have not received a kingdom; but receive authority as kings one hour with the beast.

13 These have one purpose and they give their power and authority to the beast.

Revelation 18:5, 8-10, 17-19

5 For her sins have reached unto heaven, and Yahweh has remembered her iniquities!

8 Therefore, her plagues will come in one day—death, and mourning, and famine; and she will be utterly burned with fire; for strong is Father Yahweh Who judges her.

9 And the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived luxuriously with her, will wail over her, and lament for her, when they will see the smoke of her burning—

10 Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying: Alas! Alas! That great city Babylon, that mighty city! For in one hour your judgment has come!

17 For in one hour such great riches came to nothing! And every sea captain, and all the company in ships, the sailors, and all who earn their living from the sea, stood afar off,

18 And cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying: What city is like this great city?

19 And they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying: Alas! Alas, that great city, in which all who had ships in the sea were made rich through her wealth! For in one hour she is made desolate.

Did you notice the one hour of great burning? Is that impossible? Could the nuclear bombs available in this generation burn the earth in one hour? The answer is shown in:

Dr. Theodore Postol, former advisor to the U.S. Chief of Naval Operations, a professor at MIT, nuclear technology expert.

... US and Russia once again are pumping up their nuclear arsenal, and the Doomsday Clock shows it's just three minutes before midnight. Is nuclear destruction looming once again over humankind? ...could Atomic Armageddon happen by accident?...

Sophie Shevardnadze: ...Ted, President Obama came into the White House calling for "Global Zero" – now, there are plans to spend a trillion dollars on an overall of entire nuclear arsenal. Why is this happening?

Dr. Theodore Postol: I think this is a consequence of the domestic politics.

SS: Now, do you believe the U.S. is readying its nuclear forces for direct confrontation with Russia? Do you think nuclear war is possible now? At any scenario, do you see that?

Dr. TP: I do think that an accidental nuclear war between the U.S. and Russia is possible. ...I do think we are in danger.

SS: What happens, hypothetically, if there is a nuclear war?

Will a doctrine like a mutual destruction doctrine ever work again?

Dr. TP: ...somebody makes a bad decision with incomplete information, which is almost certainly what happens in the real world – information is never complete – you could have a massive use of nuclear weapons, and that, of course, would end civilization as we know it...

SS: Now, Ted, tell me something. Explain to an amateur, to me, how does one launch a nuclear weapon? Is it as easy as pressing a button? How long does it take for a nuclear missile to reach its target?

Dr. TP: The ballistic missile could be fired, basically, within 50 or 60 seconds, more or less, after alert being given to the operators. The rocket will then ignite...then it would release warheads. The warheads would float in the near vacuum of space under the influence of gravity and momentum, and in about 20-28 minutes would arrive at their targets, re-enter the atmosphere and explode. So the world could be, basically, finished off in anywhere from half hour to an hour upon the arrival of these warheads. ...most nuclear warheads would be delivered in a very short time, probably within half hour or an hour interval.

It seems to me that all of you war-raging religions are like the fools Yahshua Messiah spoke of in:

Luke 24:25

Then He said to them: O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the Prophets have spoken!

Why don't you repent now and convert by practicing Yahweh's Laws?

I Yahchanan 3:4, 7-8, 10

4 Whoever commits sin, transgresses also the Laws; for sin is the transgression of the Laws.

7 Little children, let no man deceive you; he who practices Righteousness is Righteous, just as He is Righteous.

8 He who commits sin is of the devil, for the devil has sinned from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of Yahweh was manifested; that He might destroy the works of the devil.

10 In this the Children of Yahweh and the children of the devil are manifest. Whoever does not practice Righteousness is not of Yahweh, and he does not love his neighbor!

Head for The House of Yahweh

Yahweh will protect all who will repent and convert.

Acts 3:19

Repent therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out; that times of refreshing may come from the Presence of Yahweh.

Yeremyah 23:3-5

3 But I will gather the remnant of My flock out of all countries where they have been driven, and bring them back to their folds; homes, and they will be fruitful and increase.

4 And I will set up shepherds over them who will feed them; and they will fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither will they be lacking, says Yahweh.

5 Behold, the days come, says Yahweh: that I will raise to David a Righteous Branch, and a King will reign and succeed, and will execute judgment and justice in the earth.

Come out of her.

Revelation 17:1-6, 18

1 And there came one of the seven malakim who had the seven bowls, and talked with me, saying to me: Come, I will show you the sentence of the great whore that sits upon many waters,

2 With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication; practiced idolatry: Godworship (the worship of elohim), and the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.

3 So he carried me away in the Spirit into the midst of Godworshippers (worshippers of Elohim); and I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet colored beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns.

4 And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet color, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication.

5 And upon her head was a name written: Mystery Babylon the great, the mother of the harlots and of the abominations of the earth.

6 And I saw the woman drunk with the blood of the Saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Yahshua. And when I saw her, I wondered with great astonishment.

18 And the woman whom you saw, is that great city which reigns over the kings of the earth.

The nuclear war will be brought by the ten horns – ten religious leaders. Notice this in:

Revelation 17:12-16

12 And the ten horns which you saw are ten kings, which as yet have not received a kingdom; but receive authority as kings one hour with the beast.

13 These have one purpose and they give their power and authority to the beast.

14 These will make war with the Lamb, but the Lamb will overcome them; for He is the Ruler of rulers and King of kings; and those who are with Him are called, and chosen, and faithful.

15 And he said to me: The waters which you saw, where the whore sits, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and languages.

16 And the ten horns which you saw upon the beast, these will hate the whore, and will make her desolate and naked, and will eat her flesh, and burn her with fire.

This great burning is not a long time off. We are in the end part of that generation spoken of by Yahshua Messiah in Mattithyah 24:33-34.

You need to come out now. Repent and convert to Yahweh's Laws of Righteousness. Make your way to Yahweh's House, even if you must come by way of the North Pole, as some of my ancestors did. They brought buffalo with them for food as they made their way to the land where the Two Witnesses would be born. The last one was born in 1934.

Those who will not repent will bring great burning upon themselves, within one hour.

Malakya 4:1-4

1 For the Word of Yahweh was given to me, saying: Behold, the day comes that will burn like an oven; and all the proud, yes, and all who do wickedly, will be stubble—the day that comes will burn them up, and it will leave them neither root nor branch.

2 But for you who reverence My Name, the Light of Righteousness will arise with healing in its wings; and you will go out, leaping like calves released from the stall.

3 And the Word of Yahweh was given to me saying: the wicked will be trodden down; for they will be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that this will be done.

4 Remember the Laws of Mosheh My servant, which I commanded through him in Horeb for all Israyl, with the Statutes and Judgments.

Isayah 24:1-6

1 Before Yahweh's very Eyes, the earth is made empty and it is made waste; the face of it is perverted and its inhabitants scattered abroad;

2 And it will be: as with the people, so with the priest; as with the servant, so with his owner; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with him who takes usury, so with him who gives usury to him:

3 The land will be utterly emptied and utterly plundered, for it has come to pass that this Judgment has been pronounced.

4 The earth mourns and fades away, the world mourns and fades away, and the haughty people of the earth languish.

5 The earth also is defiled under the inhabitants of it, because they have transgressed the Laws, changed the Ordinance, and broken the Everlasting Covenant.

6 Because of this, the curse has devoured the earth, and they who dwell therein are desolate; therefore, the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left.

II Kepha 3:10-11

10 But the Day of Yahweh will come as a thief in the night, in which the heavens will pass away with great noise, and the elements will melt with fervent heat; both the earth, and the works that are in it, will be burned up.

11 Since all these things will then be dissolved, what manner of persons ought you to be in Holy conduct and Righteousness?

Revelation 22:12-17

12 And behold, I come quickly, and My Reward is with Me, to give every man according as his work will be.

13 I am the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End.

14 Blessed are those who keep His Laws, that they may have right to the Tree of Life, and may enter in through the gates into the City.

15 For outside are dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and worshipers of Gods (elohim) and everyone who professes to love, yet practices breaking the Laws.

16 I, Yahshua, have sent My Messenger to testify to you these things in the congregations of The House of Yahweh. I am the Root and the Offspring of David, and the Bright and Morning Star.

17 And the Spirit and the Brides say: Come! And let him who hears, say: Come! And let him who is thirsty come. And whoever will, let him take the water of life freely.

Yahshua's Messenger (verse 16) and the Spirit and the Brides (verse 17) say come! Don't waste time, just come. The first thing you should do is found in:

Mattithyah 6:33

But seek you first the Kingdom of Yahweh and His Righteousness, and all these things will be added to you.

Deuteronomy 12:5, 7-8

5 But you are to seek the Habitation of your Father; The House of Yahweh—the place which Yahweh your Father shall choose out of all your tribes to establish His Name—and there you must go.

7 There, in front of Yahweh your Father, you and your families shall eat, and you shall rejoice in all that you have put your hand to do, because Yahweh your Father has blessed you.

8 You must not at all do as we are doing here this day—every man doing whatever is right in his own eyes—

Prophecy shows where Yahweh chose in these Last Days to establish His House – The House of Yahweh – and to place His Name

May Yahweh bless your understanding.

Love, True Love
